

Miss Marilyn Edwards,
The Publishers Association,
19, Bedford Square,
London, W. C. 1.

25th June, 1970.

Dear Marilyn,

As you were away, Mr. Murphy asked me to arrange a meeting of the Booker Prize Committee in early July. The date most suitable to everyone was Monday 6th July and I have therefore booked our Conference Room for that day for a lunch at 12.45. p.m. I hope this is suitable for you too.

The other people coming are Messrs. Longman, Maschler, Baines, Coff, Lord Hardinge and of course Mr. Murphy.

Hope you had a good holiday,

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Jasmine Tarry.
