

George G. Harrap
& Company Limited
Publishers
Agents for
D.C. Heath & Company

Ref: IGWH/JS

PLEASE QUOTE P.O. BOX NO. 70

182 High Holborn London WC1

Telephone 01-405 9935 & 01-405 0941
Telegrams & Cables BUTIBOOK LONDON WC1

And at Sydney Bombay Toronto
ESTABLISHED 1901

23rd October, 1968

Miss Jill Mortimer,
The Publishers Association,
19 Bedford Square,
LONDON W.C.1.

Dear Jill,

Here are our submissions for the Booker Fiction Prize.

They are NO FRIDAY IN THE WEEK* by John Farrimond who had a best seller with his first book DUST IN MY THROAT. This book* was published in December 1967 and thus is eligible. I enclose some of the reviews which we obtained for it.

The second title we are only publishing this Thursday. THE DAY OF THE COASTWATCH by Philip McCutchan is his 20th work of adult fiction. He has now matured considerably and he is rated Number 12 in the suspense fiction list in America. We think it is time that he is recognized in this country. The subject matter is chilly and fascinating, and the reviews on the back of the jacket, we think, speak for themselves.

We are enclosing six copies of each title as requested.

Best of wishes,

Sincerely yours,

I.G.W. HARRAP
Director

Enclosures