LAS 2000: Introduction Latin American Studies Course Schedule

Course Learning Outcomes. Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

CO1: Present how different disciplines approach the study of Latin America

CO2: Distinguish between various theoretical concepts as they relate to Latin America

CO3: Explain why social movements emerge and how they advocate for change

CO4: Examine how culture, politics and economics affect the environment

CO5: Explore the connection between family and country of origin

CO6: Uncover various forms of evidence relating to the existence of migrant communities

CO7: Analyze the process of place making in Latin America

Course Schedule

Please note: Since each unit of credit presumes one hour of class time and two hours of preparation, a four-unit course would require a minimum of 12 hours per week of the student's time. Sociological

For grading criteria on all assignment, review Rubrics in the LAS 2000 Blackboard course site under "Grades, Rubrics, & Grading Policy" located on the left-hand navigation menu.
