Mr T. B. Larimore.

Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Bro Larimore:-

Received your two prospectus' of "Our Florida Friend" and enclose herein one dollar for one years subscription.

Would be pleased if you would give me your personal opinion relative to a good boarding house as a business venture at or near "Dixieland" addition. I do not care for, nor am I hunting, a bonanza as I have passed that age of life, but would like to make a living wherever I go. A few years since we spent some time in Miama but found everything there high and business crowded, especially the boarding house business. It is not specially business proposition that would call me to Florida, but relief from catarrhal troubles for myself and daughter, however would like to make a living at the same time. If not taxing too much of your time please write me your views and I will accept it in confidence. Thanking you in advance for any information you may give,

I am

Yours truly,
