Jackson Tenn.

May 29, 1907,

Mr Perry M. Colson
Gainsville Fla.

Dear Brother Colson,

Your kind letter just received, and while I can not fully say or for a word yet think it will suit me splendidly to make Gainsville "head quarters", and also toed your meeting, so you may count for the present.

Brought fine lot here this trip.
Write me later. Truly
Yours
G. A. Dunn

Mr. Perry M. Colson

Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Brother Colson,

Your third letter just received, and while I can not fully say so for a hard yet think it will suit me splendidly to make Gainesville "headquarters," and also hold your meeting, so you may count for the present.

Bought fine lot here this trip.

Write me later. Kindly, G. A. Dunn.
