Hi, this is Qiuwei. A huge thank you to all of our listeners for joining us for our first-ever season of Murmurs: Stories from Our Journey in Medicine. We are collecting anonymous feedback from our listeners for our capstone project - please see the linked form in the description. We would be immensely grateful if you could take a couple of minutes to fill it out. We hope to be back soon with a Season Two. If you're interested in joining the Murmurs team, or if you would like to share your own work, please contact us at murmursumassmed@gmail.com. That's murmursumassmed@gmail.com. Thank you for listening.
