BACKGROUND OF THE STUDY

- The objective is to identify the key trends and themes in tax reform debates and give policymakers an overview of proposals and potential lessons from other states.
- Bourdeaux (2011) reviewed the comprehensive tax reform proposals of 2000s from nineteen states.
- In this study, we review the tax reform efforts since 2010 in eleven states and Washington D.C.
- We focus only on comprehensive tax reform proposals.

Oklahoma governor signs bills to give tax incentives greater scrutiny

Oklahoma Gov. Mary Fallin signs bills to give tax incentives greater scrutiny

by Rick Green Published: April 28, 2015

Business tax incentives will come under greater scrutiny and future ones will need to include measurable goals under legislation signed Monday by Gov. Mary Fallin.

Fallin dedicated Senate Bill 806 and House Bill 2182 to Rep. David Dank, R-Oklahoma City, an outspoken advocate for tax credit reform who died earlier this month.

“These are the tools Oklahoma has needed to sort out effective incentives from ineffective ones so our state can continue to support economic growth in a fiscally responsible manner,” Fallin said.

COMMON THEMES: OTHER

Improving the administration of property taxes focusing on:

- Simplification of assessments.
- Better intergovernmental coordination.
- Online transactions

Rate reduction subject to revenue triggers.

- Examples: NC & KS enacted rate reduction subject to revenue triggers.

Improving and simplifying tax administration.

- Technological upgrades
- Better forecasts
- Standardizing administrative procedures
- Improving audit and enforcement.

KEY TAKEAWAYS: REFORM PROPOSALS

- Rate Cuts; Eliminating of exemption, deductions, credits

Efficiency vs. Equity Debate:

- Lower the tax rate, broaden the base
- Enhancing vertical equity

Institutional Changes and Simplification:

- More transparency and better regulation
- Simplifying the tax administration

KEY TAKEAWAYS: REFORM PROCESS

- The Great Recession was not the key theme in these review exercises.
- The tax reform commissions largely comprised of public finance professionals.
- The reform proposals have similar policy themes that reflect the general consensus of the public finance community.
  - Creating a balanced state tax system
  - Employing a small tax rate over a broad base
  - Considering vertical equity
  - Promoting economic competitiveness
  - Simplifying tax administration

KEY TAKEAWAYS: IMPLEMENTATION

- The tax reform efforts were successfully implemented only in some states.
- The proposals of institutionalized review commissions are often implemented.
- Reform efforts aimed at reducing the taxes seem to be more successful (KS, NC, DC).
- Perhaps, in the long run...
