

Reporters: Robbie Leggett
Bonnie Godbold
Sandy Armstrong

Approval Editors: Amelia Kelly
Jerry Vaughan

Subscribers Service

SEPTEMBER, 1975

SUBSCRIBERS SERVICE

NEW EMPLOYEES

We wish to extend a warm welcome to our new employees. Gloria Simmons, Anita Potts, Patricia Graziano and Debra Carroll who is returning from maternity leave.

MISC.

Debbie Gardner was extremely proud when her Jimmy won the officer of the year award. The Jacksonville Jaycees presented him with an engraved plaque, a dinner for his family and a $25.00 war bond every month for a year. Cathy Lawall won a free lunch one day when the Servomation cook banged his pots and pans together and announced that everyone at the cash register at that time would receive whatever they had on their tray free! Cathy was the proud winner of a . . . (are you ready for this?) HOT DOG!! Anyone else care to join the Debbie McLane Fan Club? Charter members are Doris Drayton JoAnn Robinson, Joan Parmenter, Eleanor Mazyck and Vivian Mills. These faithful fans cheered Debbie and the rest of the Rebels during the Women's National Slow Pitch Softball Tournament held at Drew Park Labor Day weekend. The Rebels came in second place in the nation after competing with 32 teams from all over the United States. Debbie was chosen as All American Shortstop, based on her performance during the tournament. The Women's Summer Bowling Banquet was held September 12 at Sandy's Steer Room. The following people received trophies: Mildred Nicholson - Perfect Attendance Harriet Bouknight - Perfect Attendance, Bonnie Godbold - Perfect Attendance and 2nd Place Team, Mabel Fleming, Romie Martin, Mary Jane Langmuir and Lorraine Rowan all won a trophy for 1st Place Team. Congratulations to all these people. Linda and Ron Mercer bought a 2 bedroom house in Murray Hill. They have a huge back yard, so Linda now has a dachshund named Snoopy. Betty Jean Newsome was married to Emanuel Morris on August 31. Mary Lippincott is expecting a baby in May. Judy McClain has a new stereo, an anniversary gift from her husband, Dennis. Judy and Dennis celebrated their third wedding anniversary on September 15. Theo Crews graduated from the Dale Carnegie Course on August 27. Theo received an award for the best "Human Relations" speech. Congratulations, Ann Reid has a new 20 foot freezer and plans to fill it with beef as soon as her cow gets big enough to butcher. When's the cook-out, Ann? MaryAnn Gartenbush is back with us. She has a new son, John Budir Gabriel. Ronda Waddell received a beautiful bouquet of daisies for her birthday. Sharon Hill and her husband bought a new 1976 cranberry Monte Carlo with beige interior. Debbie Gardner has a new dining room set, complete with a china cabinet. Wasn't Vivian Bessett surprised when she got home September 15 and found her house filled with Dreme Hodges, Debra Lott, Janie Sheppard, Lou Garrell and her daughter, Tina, Arlinda Hare and her son, Peggy Anderson and Joyce Witt. It was Vivian's birthday, her section leaders had given her flowers earlier and now this, a birthday party to remember for sure. Several of our girls enjoyed the Fashion Show presented by Ivey's in the Cafeteria. Reaetter Cave became Mrs. Lonnie Brown on September 6. Tom Lesler has a new Camero.

VACATIONS

Robbie Leggett went to Atlanta, Georgia on her vacation. While she was there she visited Stone Mountain, Underground Atlanta and Six Flags over Georgia. Vickie Parham had a busy week the first of September. She, her husband and her brother drove to North Carolina and visited her grandparents whom she hasn't seen since she was 5 years old. When they headed back home they passed us and went down to Disney World, Sea World and Daytona Speedway before finally coming back home.

Betty Bruce presented Ann Lundy and Josephine Walker with certificates of accomplishment on September 17 for having completed the "on the Job Training Methods" course as part of our Employee's Education Program.

NOTE

There will no longer be wedding pictures featured in the Profile.

happy birthday to you, happy birthday to
you. happy birthday dear....

Elaine Vega, Patricia Roberts, Etta Jackson, Renetter
Brown, Amelia Kelly, Bonnie Godbold, Betty Miller,
Ronell Garrett, Marjorie Kight, Ruth Turner, Elaine
Angelo, Patsy Gammons, Vivian Bessett, Audrey Dronet
Janie Shepard, Kay Allen, Diane Davis, Suzanne Sutton, Pam Terry

happy birthday to you.

