Summer 2015

Leadership Walton is a professional development program for undergraduate business students, offering a unique blend of academic, leadership and career development opportunities specifically designed to guide students toward lifelong professional success.

2014-2015 Highlights:

- Some 223 new Leadership Walton members were admitted in fall 2014, after receiving 475 applications.
- Some 38 members graduated in May 2015; and approximately 20 others will graduate this summer/fall.

- Members completed over 400 community service projects in the last academic year, and attended over 630 lectures.
- Two Leadership Walton members will participate in the 2015 CRCC Asia Beijing, China, Internship Program this summer.

Applications are currently being accepted for new members! Interested students should apply online before August 31, 2015.

Koch Industries volunteered with members for a Scull Creek Trail Cleanup in April 2015.

Spectrum Brands hosted a company visit at their Bentonville office in April 2015 .

2015 Graduates:

97% of Leadership Walton graduates who were seeking employment were employed at graduation, compared to 87.5% of the Walton College graduating class as a whole. 16% of Leadership Walton graduates plan to continue their education.

Special thanks to our 2014-2015 program sponsor!

Spectrum plans to renew their sponsorship for the 2015-2016 academic year.
