Western Carolina
UNIVERSITY
HUNTER LIBRARY

Faculty scholarship and creative works across the disciplines featured throughout Hunter Library

Western Carolina University has a long tradition of supporting research and conversation about teaching and learning. Since 1989, Hunter Library has been showcasing faculty scholarly works through an annual exhibit. Over time, the focus of the works submitted has shifted to meet the changing needs of teaching and learning in this academic community. From valuing creative works and publications, to emphasizing the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL), and, more recently, the Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP), the exhibit demonstrates the faculty's desire to excel in teaching and to share their knowledge with others.

Every year Hunter Library becomes a vibrant place where faculty members come together to talk about their scholarly works, including articles, art works, books, plays, musical compositions and professional presentations. In an effort to promote cross-campus collaboration and sharing, this year's Faculty Scholarship Celebration Week has been co-sponsored by Hunter Library, Graduate School and Research, Undergraduate Studies and The Honors College. The exhibit showcases faculty achievements from 2005 through 2008.

Hunter Library provides the tools and services to facilitate faculty to excel at their teaching and inspire students to become the scholars of the future. It is the hope of the Hunter Display Committee that this exhibit will provide a venue for the pursuit of knowledge.

Creating and supporting teaching and learning, exploration and inquiry in any form is the foundation of a knowledge society. What better place than Hunter library to celebrate everyone's achievements.

A WORD OF THANKS

This event would not have been possible without the help and support of many.

For starters, thank you to the fantastic members of the Hunter Display Committee - Tina Monaco, Serenity Richards, Susan Metcalf and Elizabeth Marcus - for their many hours of help, attention to details, and preparation of the materials. To Rachel Bleich and Christy McCarley for helping pulling together details. To Hunter Administration, Dana Sally, for supporting the event, and Margaret Watson, for helping us with the paperwork that goes with any exhibit of this caliber.

To my colleagues on the Faculty Scholarship Celebration Week Committee - Scott Higgins, Michelle Hargis, Dana Sally, Carol Burton, Brian Railsback, Jason Solomon, and Anna McFadden - for the many meetings, coordination and all of the efforts with the event.

Thank you also to: Melody Huitt, Rubae Sander, and Clint Hardin, for helping with the design and production of the banners and booklet. Laura Cruz, for collecting SoTL works for the exhibit. The Graduate School and Research and Hunter Library for hosting the reception.

Alessia Zanin-Yost
