

Northwestern College, Iowa

NWCommons

Frank LeCocq, Jr.

Box 1: Papers

5-1948

Obituary of Charles E. LeCocq, n.d.

Newspaper

Follow this and additional works at: <https://nwcommons.nwciowa.edu/franklecocqjr>

Charles E. LeCocq, Engineer, Summoned

Charles Edward LeCocq, 49, resident engineer with the Washington State highway department since 1925, died Monday at his home on Lake Samish. Mr. LeCocq graduated in engineering from the University of South Dakota in 1924. He was a member of the First Reformed Church at Lynden.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth LeCocq, and a son, Charles Robert, both at home, and six brothers, Dr. John F. and Dr. Edward LeCocq, Seattle; Frank and Gideon M. LeCocq, Everett, and Ralph B. and Irwin I. LeCocq at Lynden.

Funeral services will be held at Harlow-Hollingsworth funeral home with the Rev. George Hankamp, pastor of the First Reformed church of Lynden, and Dr. Robert T. McFarlane, officiating. Services will begin at 2 o'clock Thursday.