SINCE

Nearly 2000 years ago early Christians sketched the  symbol in sand to communicate their fellowship and mission in what was then an illegal society under Roman law.

Throughout church history, Christian people have exchanged ideas about faith and mission, thus helping the church remain dynamic and growing.

Connecting the fellowship and communicating the mission is the heart of South Carolina United Methodism's weekly newspaper, The Advocate.

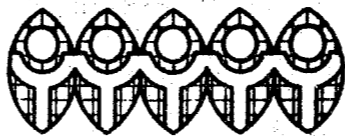

Devoted to open and constructive exchange of news and opinion, The Advocate covers local church, district, annual conference, jurisdictional, denominational and ecumenical concerns.

But for The Advocate to work, YOU must use it. Read the Advocate. Be part of a great tradition.

*NOTE: Dates marked with a star (*) indicate the year in which the Trustee's term of office will end, not the year of election. To implement a rotation system for this Board which was created in 1983, the Nominating Committee has initially assigned terms of office. Dates which are not marked with a star indicate the year of election; it is anticipated that these Trustees will serve an eight (8) year term of office as now permitted by the Standing Rules of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

SECTION IV
JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS
SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
FIRST DAY - SUNDAY EVENING
June 1, 1986
EVENING COMMUNION
7:30 PM

THE SERVICE OF HOLY COMMUNION The Service for the opening of the 1986 Annual Conference Session was held in the Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Center at 7:30 PM. Bishop Roy C. Clark, preacher, and the Reverend Gloria R. Davis, liturgist. The offering received was designated for UMCOR.

THE COMMUNION SERMON

When we approach this sacred table, we are standing on holy ground. When we come and share in the loaf, broken and divided among us, we who are many become one body, for we all partake of the same loaf which by sign and sacred meaning becomes for us a participation in the body of Christ, and a renewal of our incorporation into the body of Christ which took place when we were baptized. When we come to this holy table, we come face-to-face with the mystery of church, with the mystery of our being bound together as members of one another because we are members of Jesus Christ. We are one people; we are the body of Christ.

But to say that, and then to think about our life is almost a mockery. For we are not one people. Some of us are angry with others of us. Some of us are alienated from others because of authority roles that they hold. Some of us are divided by deep feelings about race. Some of us are alienated across the lines of sex. We are a people who have built into the structures of our life ways of conducting our common life which are to the benefit of some, and to the hurt of others. We are not one people. We are broken, divided, and separated. Some of us live in deep loneliness. Some of us live in fear of one another. Many of us cannot bring ourselves to trust others enough to be truly ourselves.

We are a broken people, but we are one people in Jesus Christ which means that when you and I approach this table, there is only one way to come - with confession. We confess, "Lord, I have sinned against your body." Every one of us has sinned against the body of Christ. That is no general statement. That is a very specific statement that I and you and you and you have broken the body of Christ. Tonight we will simply have a little service, a formal act, and it will mean nothing if we do not grapple in the depths of our hearts as the South Carolina Annual Conference, on one hand with our oneness in Christ and on the other hand with the brokenness that we exhibit in so many ways. So we come to this table, if we come honestly, humbly and reverently, confessing that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God's intentions for his body.

But, a strange thing happens when we begin to genuinely confess. When we get off the high ground of righteousness by which we criticize and condemn others, and together get on the low ground acknowledging our human frailty and sin we begin to discover in a remarkable way the unity of the body of Christ. For what binds us together is what we are not. The one common denominator that we all have is that we've sinned in the presence of God. And precisely when we cry out, "Lord have mercy upon me a sinner," and when that is no facile act, but the heartfelt cry of the soul and we know that we stand on no ground of goodness that gives us any prominence over another, then, by the mysterious mercy of God, we again become brothers and sisters. When we know that there is not a one of us who could possibly stand here except by the gracious mercy of God, then we can begin to show grace to the sister and the brother and begin to become one body.

The mystery of the Church is that we become one only when we become the community of the forgiven and the forgiving. When we become that kind of community another remarkable thing begins to happen. Our dialogue with one another, the way we talk to one another, begins to change. We move from being judgemental to being helpful because we know that our brother and our sister has fallen short of the glory Christ intends for his body just as we know that we have also fallen short of that glory. We know that every one of us has a vision for our participation in the Christian life, but that it is a vision we are never fully able to achieve. We know that deep in the heart of all of us is a sharp hurt that we cannot be who and what we know in Christ we are called to be. When we understand that, when that is not something in our head but something in our heart, when it shapes our understanding of our relationship to other people, then we can begin to fulfill the biblical injunction that if your brother or sister be found in a trespass, those of you who are spiritual restore him or her in a spirit of gentleness, lest you too be tempted and fall.

Then something happens to our dialogue with one another. We still share the gift of truth that God has given to each of us. We must do that, for the only way The Church receives the fullness of God's truth is for each of us to speak the truth that has been given to us. We need to confront one another with the truth that we have. But now we speak our truth in love and in helpfulness and not in anger. We begin then to be a body whose members do not talk about one another but talk to one another, sharing the truth that God gives us, listening to the truth that God gives to the sister and the brother, letting God's Spirit that leads us into all truth use the gift that each brings for the enrichment of all the members of the body. We begin to discover what it means to be members of one another.

Then another remarkable thing begins to happen. We discover ourselves celebrating the various gifts that God has given to the members of the body. We are no longer afraid of people who are different than ourselves and who have different ideas. We are grateful that someone else can bring insights that we do not have. Then, we can celebrate the gifts of the various ethnic groups among us. We will not insist that all of us have to be alike in order to have our gifts received. We can receive our gift of people who are not very efficient by some standards, but who have something special, to give, as every one of us has. Everyone has been given a gift for the common good. We can celebrate the gifts of women and of men without the fear and estrangement that so often divides us now. We can begin to look at our organizational structures and ask, "How can those structures become fluid and flexible enough to enable the gifts of all to be used?" We can rejoice then in the gifts of little children and of youth. There begins to develop unity in the body which is not uniformity, but the marvelous unity of celebrating the variety of gifts that God has given to us.

When that begins to happen, we begin to be freed from our fears and our self pre-occupation, so that we are free to hear what it is God is calling His Church to do. We can begin to feel among us the development of a common vision of mission. We become what God intended the Church to be, a special people called out to be the redemptive community for the sake of the world. When he called Abraham he said, "I will make you a great nation...and by you all the families of the earth will bless themselves." When Jesus departed from his disciples he charged them to go and make disciples, baptizing them, i.e., incorporating them in the new community, and to teaching them all that he had commanded. The Church is called to be the beginning of the beginning of the Kingdom of God, called to be that different group of people who become the light of the world. Until we become one we cannot be that because we are fragmented with our own agendas, competing for our particular programs. When we learn to celebrate the gifts that we all have, then we can find the fullness of God's mission for us.

Tonight, my friends, as I have described the movement from brokenness and alienation through confession and becoming the forgiving body, learning to speak the truth in love, celebrating the gifts and finding by God's Spirit a common purpose, I have described as faithfully as I know how, the deepest spiritual needs of the South Carolina Annual Conference. I have spoken to the issues that are more important than any other issues that will be discussed this week. And the question is, can we hear the Lord's invitation? Come to this table confessing, embracing one another in the grace of forgiveness and common need that God may give us the gift of oneness in the body which all of our effort on our own can never create.

We continually devise ways to make the Church what it ought to be. Some of us think that if we could just get the right kind of bishop the Church would be what it ought to be. We've had a lot of them, but we've never gotten the right kind exactly, apparently. Some of us think that if we could just ever get the appointment system right, the Church would be what it ought to be. But we've been trying since Francis Asbury's day and we haven't gotten it right yet. And some of us think if we could just put together the proper program and change the system one more time, we could be the Church. Friends, those things come after we become the Church, they don't create the Church. When we become the Church we know how to empower leadership and not undercut leadership.

When we become the Church we know how to be deployed in ministry and learn with the Apostle Paul how to be content in all things and know how to abound and how to be abased. When we become the Church we no longer create programs, but we are moved by the Spirit to be the ministering body of Christ. So the invitation tonight is the invitation of our Lord, never spoken to perfect people, but always spoken to the needy. And He says to us, draw near with faith and take this sacrament, humbly confessing our sins. And so, I invite you to come to the table of the Lord to be renewed in the oneness that God has given us in Christ. Amen

Roy C. Clark

SECOND DAY — MONDAY MORNING

MINISTERIAL EXECUTIVE SESSION for the members of the South Carolina Annual Conference was held in Leonard Auditorium, Old Main Building. Bishop Roy C. Clark called the Executive Ministerial Session to order, and defined the limitations and responsibilities. (See the Business Questions for the actions of the Executive Session.)

OPENING OF THE FULL CONFERENCE SESSION -- Bishop Roy C. Clark called the Full Conference Session to order at 11:15 AM. The Rev. H. Alvin Spradley offered the invocation. Mr. Wilson Mount led the singing of "And are we yet alive". The agenda as printed in the program prepared by the Conference Secretary was adopted. The motions for organization were made by the secretary and approved. The tellers were nominated and elected as proposed. The Rev. J. Chad Davis, host pastor, welcomed the session and Dr. James Gadsden escorted Mrs. Esther Clark to the platform. The session welcomed Mrs. Clark. Dr. Joab Lesesne, President of Wofford College, welcomed the members and guests of the Annual Conference. Bishop Clark especially thanked Dr. William Mount for his work in coordinating events for the session.

THE STATE OF THE LAITY ADDRESS was given by Mr. Dan Winchester and Mrs. Ethel Manning.

THE STATE OF THE LAITY ADDRESS

My name is Dan Winchester, and I've had the privilege to serve this Annual Conference as its Lay Leader now for the past quadrennium and a half and if re-elected at this Annual Conference, will be able to serve it for the remainder of this quadrennium, at which time my eligibility will expire. As your Conference Lay Leader, the dream that I have had for this Annual Conference is that every church in this conference would fulfill itself as a creative, redemptive fellowship. A creative, redemptive fellowship is a church that has determined for itself what God would have its purpose be at this time and at this place in God's order. In addition, a creative redemptive fellowship that sets goals and develops plans that enable it to carry out that purpose in a way that would be pleasing to God Almighty. Ted McEachern says, "Every church can be successful; it must simply discover the will of God for itself and do it." It's been my particular hope that every church in this Annual Conference would go through such a process as that, and then they would sit down and do a task analysis of the jobs that would be required to enable that church to fulfill its purpose. The jobs would then be available and offered to the Laity, not just a few lay persons in each local church, but that those jobs and tasks would be offered so that every member in a local church would have the opportunity to participate in one or more of those particular jobs so that lay persons could feel worthy as he or she feels the fulfillment of carrying out that job as a part of the church's purpose for fulfilling the will of God.

In the United Methodist Book of Discipline, we are reminded that the heart of Christian Ministry is Christ's ministry of outreaching love. All Christians-ordained, diaconal, and lay are called to minister wherever Christ would have them serve. All Christians live with the gift of God's unmerited grace, and all have a task of unstinting service.

Be sure that ministry is the business of everyone in the church. We can't afford a condition of competition between lay and clergy. Empowerment of the laity does not mean diminution of the clergy. We must work in partnership for our common ministry.

We must reverse the process that has led more and more to the "Let the minister do it" concept. The members of the laity must accept their responsibility in the church for being evangelists and missionaries. Our daily contacts give us outstanding opportunities to carry a message to the world around us. We must practice in our daily lives to be Christian witnesses. We of the laity are an essential part of the church's ministry and we must be aware of that fact.

As laypersons, we need to stand up and be counted. We must carry our full share of the load. Our record in recent months and our proposed programs for the future show that we are prepared. We must, of course, be certain that all of us who are members of the laity - youth, women, and men, work cooperatively, not competitively. We think that we are.

Our Youth Ministry is growing each year as we branck into new programs for our youth and the adults who work with them. We have already had Youth Annual Conference and Spiritual Life Retreat. Because these have just about reached capacity, we are adding another Youth Week this summer, called Leadership Development Week, to be held at Columbia College from July 14-18. This will give local churches a third option for their youth to have a truly vital experience.

We are organized on the Conference level in the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, composed of 24 youth, of whom 11 are ethnic minority. The adults who serve with these youth on the Conference Council on Youth Ministries are the District Youth Coordinators, who are chosen by the District Superintendents of each District. Because of the work at the District level, we are having a tremendous response to all of our conference sponsored programs.

A natural outgrowth of this increased interest is increased giving to the Youth Service Fund. The District officers challenged each District to raise $1,000.00 from the local churches in the district, and it appears at this point that the $12,000.00 conference goal will be reached this year. Awards are given at Youth Annual Conference to the top ten churches in giving to the Youth Service Fund. Added awards are given on a membership basis.

Our conference chairperson, Toris Quick, was elected as a member at large of the National Youth Ministries Steering Committee, an adult coordinator, June Willson, was selected as the adult representative from the Southeastern Jurisdiction to the same committee. They serve, in addition, on the Design Team for the jurisdictional Spiritual Life Rally for Youth, to be held at Lake Junaluska in August.

We can be tremendously proud of the outstanding young people we have in South Carolina. They are truly in ministry in all of this work they are doing in the local church, the district, and the Annual Conference.

MRS. ETHEL MANNING

United Methodist Women are ecstatic about our going "Into the Future by Faith." Our Mission Team has been bold enough to add the word joy; may we now add hope. This year as we climax the Centennial Era and move into our second century, we realize that we can be both bold and arrogant enough to be assured of a good future.

In the same vein, the parallelism between two meetings this winter and spring is striking indeed. The Theology of Mission Consultation in Pittsury, January 1986, and The Assembly in Anaheim in April had a common thread weaving through both of them - Missions.

The Board of Global Ministries was developing a new mission statement for this quadrennium. Clergy and laypersons gathered to create by-products from the Regional and Global Consultations. Chairperson, Lillian Sloan, highlighted the importance of the theology of mission as the basic life-giving root for mission. We were reminded that the re-examining and re-interpreting of scriptures should help us discover what the mission of the church in the world should be now. As committed servants we must go forth about our Father's business. "You shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you. You shall be my witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and all Judea and Samaria and unto the uttermost parts of the earth." The disciples at first thought the gentiles would be gathered by Jewish witnesses. But the gentiles (like women) became agents of the missionary task. Peter spoke of the Holy Spirit falling on all.

The Acts of the Apostles demonstrates the relationship between the Holy Spirit and Mission. We sincerely feel that Mission is brought into being and put into place by God Himself: The Triune God-Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. So the missionary is, through the spirit, to expose the ever present Christ in the world. For the Church exists in missionary activity.

Following this Consultaion, in April, United Methodist Women in their Quadrennial Celebration used it as a window on the future to a new vision of faithfulness that Mission now requires. Christ leads us to new Creation filled with justice, peace, unity and hope. South Carolina United Methodist Women are hoping to gain courage to accept this challenge. So begins the joyful gathering of Sight and Sound from our rich, multi-ethnic and racial backgrounds. This symbolic celebration was complete with balloons, windsocks (banners), and streamers. A good spiritual time was enjoyed by all.

District officers are being invited to "Share the Vision...Say Yes" in different parts of our jurisdiction. In 1986 they are to be in Atlanta, Norfolk, Orlando, and Lake Junaluska. By the end of 1986, our 12 districts and over 150 women will have been trained to work directly with the local units. These will be enthusiastic and will arouse the local women to Share the Vision for our Future.

Local women will then feel the spirit as they gather slides to be shown at our Annual Meeting as they display their reaction to saying yes to Mission.

Another concern is a focus of this Annual Conference-the ordination of women. We are working with our sisters-in-Christ and will be advocates of them in every way possible. We admire, love and support them as we do all phases of our Great Church. These servants of the Most High will be making up approximately 50% of the clergy by the year 2000. "They will know we are Christians by our love."

Finally, we will continue to "train our own." Let none say that I can not do because I do not know. Our training comes from the Women's Division to the Conference to the District and the Local Church. This year we used Staying on Track as our model. All districts followed on down to the end of the line.

We pray that we will become makers of peace and with Church Women United join in putting together pieces of peace. With Jesus Christ as our leader, we hope to do greater things in His Name for Mission.

Our program for United Methodist Men, under the direction of President Harry Kent, fights to overcome the fact that the Discipline makes local fellowships optional. Our promotion of the organization of new fellowships and retention of old ones moves forward, but we still have less than 25% of our churches with a men's organization.

With what we do have, however, we have some exciting projects. Nationally, United Methodist Men has adopted sponsorship of Scouting programs as a part of an evangelism effort with youth. The United Methodist Church already sponsors more Scouting units than any other group and we are building on that base. A Bishop's Dinner for Scouting was held in Rock Hill in March, and from that session nineteen (19) churches made commitments to begin thirty-four (34) new Scouting units. Counting family members, with an average of 50% of those entering being outside the church, we might expect to expose 500 people to a United Methodist program. That's evangelism. We expect to hold a second dinner at Summerville on October 15 and we expect similar results.

Another national program of evangelism in which our Conference United Methodist Men are assisting is the Moving United Methodists program. Some of our membership lost to the fact that we lose sight of the large numbers of our members who move. We make arrangements for them to be visited by a United Methodist Men's team when they move in.

We don't want to lose sight of our United Methodist Men's Congress in Myrtle Beach in October. It is a time for fellowship and caring, for recharging our batteries. It is a time when we train our leadership in ways to make the United Methodist Men's local fellowship useful and interesting.

MR. DAN WINCHESTER

The Board of Laity designed the Cluster Group Process which has produced a more informed, inclusive, participatory Annual Conference. It also has started producing the Local Church's Planning guide which is now continued under the Conference Council on Ministries.

The Board continues to offer teacher learning experiences through the Laity Convocation, the District Job Function Workshops, the Lay Speaking Program and the many stewardship programs and resources.

I am happy to report to you that acting upon your mandate last year, the Board of Laity has been reorganized. We are proud to announce that the new responsibility on Age Level and Family Ministries is in place under the direction of Ms. Beverly Coates who serves on the Board because she is the Columbia District Lay Leader.

We have in place in each district an Associate District Lay Leader for Age Level and Family Ministries. On Friday night and all day Saturday, May 16 and 17, twenty-six (26) persons were trained to be District Family Life Enablers. We have already received requests from several local churches who want the service of these enablers. These twenty-six (26) persons also made a covenant to become the Family Life Council and to continue to plan and implement programs to strengthen the families in South Carolina. The Board of Laity, in planning and implementing its programs, follows the guidelines 100% of the General Conference Missional Priority to strengthen the Ethnic Minority Local Church as published by the South Carolina Committee chaired by the Reverend Ed McDowell, Jr.

All of the other boards and agencies of this Annual Conference have membership that consists of two-thirds laity and one-third clergy. In all of those boards, lay persons are providing excellent leadership in designing programs every local church can call upon that will help it to become a "Creative, Redemptive Fellowship." For example:

The Board of Evangelism has:

- 1) A program for Church Revitalization
- 2) A program for Effective Visitation

The Board of Education has:

- 1) Christian Workers School
- 2) Sunday School Support Teams
- 3) E.M.L.C. Educational Associates
- 4) Drug and Alcohol Abuse Programs

The Board of Missions has:

- 1) Congregation Development Teams
- 2) Missional Awareness Programs

The Commission on Equitable Salaries makes it possible for a church to have a pastor even if it cannot afford to pay for one.

I could go on and on listing the programs of boards and agencies where lay persons and clergy persons are giving of themselves to help local churches be in effective mission, but time will not permit.

The boards and agencies of this Annual Conference—all of them—have diligently worked as a part of the Conference Council on Ministries Program Planning and Delivery process, ably chaired by Clelia Hendrix, to the point that, in every area of the church's life, there have been programs developed and persons trained to enable a local church to learn the skills and acquire the tools to carry out that phase of its congregational life in an exemplary fashion.

My hope is still that every local United Methodist Church in the South Carolina Conference will become a creative, redemptive fellowship. Bishop Roy Clark, who has given outstanding spiritual leadership to this Annual Conference during a most difficult period of transition, speaking to the 1985 South Carolina Laity Convocation on the Ministry of Missional Encouragement, said in a very clear and distinct way that the purpose of the local United Methodist Church is to become the Kingdom of God on earth. He went on to say that what the laity of the church ought to do is go home and join in partnership with their pastors to make an unconditional, irrevocable commitment to discover their role, corporately as well as individually, in enabling their church to become the Kingdom of God on earth.

The challenge and the charge of the 1986 Laity Address for the South Carolina Conference is simply this: Programs are available, methods and models have been developed. We charge you—the clergy and the laity of the South Carolina Conference—to go home and to corporately sit down together and determine your understanding of what it means for your church to bring the Kingdom of God to earth and then break that down into a bundle of little jobs and offer every lay person whose name is on the role of your church—offer them one of those jobs to do. And tell them—tell them that they are not doing it to please you, they're not doing it to please the Annual Conference, but they're being asked to do that job so that they can utilize the gifts and the graces that have been given to them from their Heavenly Father for the bringing of His Kingdom to this earth at this time and in this way. May God bless your efforts, in Christ's name, we pray, Amen.

RECOGNITION OF NEW CONGREGATIONS Bishop Clark welcomed three new congregations: Columbia Northeast represented by the pastor, The Reverend Phillip Thraikill, and lay member Leslie "Buck" Watson; St. Paul's, Waccamaw represented by the pastor, The Reverend David C. Surrent, and lay member, John R. Siepel; Grace, Columbia represented by the pastor, The Reverend Paul A. Wood, and lay member, Danny Hood. Certificates were presented to each of the new churches by Bishop Clark.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS AND APPEALS

The Rev. Ted Walter moved that Standing Rule 69(c) be suspended in order that the Standing Rules might be referred to the appropriate Review Committee. He also made the motion that Standing Rule 100 be suspended in order to allow other reports to be directed to appropriate Review Committees. The Rev. William W. McNeill, on behalf of the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals, referred resolutions submitted to the proper committees for action. A motion was made by the Rev. Delos Corderman that any further resolutions must be duplicated by the maker, and given to the Annual Conference Secretary by 7:30 PM Monday for distribution Tuesday morning, June 3rd. This was approved. The Rev. Charles Graves presented the report of the Council on Finance and Administration for reference. He stated that the budget was up 4.9%, and discussed some of the rationale for items over and under this level. Mr. John Redmond referred the reports of the Committee on Nominations. From the floor, two additions were made to correct the Spartanburg Methodist College nominations: two student nominees for one year terms as trustees, Traci Pittinger and William A. Arnold. Ms. Hazel Bennett noted that on page R-2, the Board of Diaconal Ministry, there were four persons deleted, only one replaced, only one nominated -- she asked whether the others would be replaced. The Rev. Reginald Thackston, of the Sewee Board of Trustees, asked that Larry Ellis be nominated to replace Joe Davis, who will be unable to serve, in the class of '90. The Rev. Ed McDowell, Sr. asked that Mrs. Frankie Keels be substituted for Ms. Rosetta Ross on the Asbury Hills Board of Trustees class of '86. Mrs. Beverly Coates nominated Dan Winchester as the Conference Lay Leader. Bishop Clark reported for the Committee on the Annual Conference.

Adoption of Review Committee Process — Rev. Delos Corderman made the motion listed at the top of the table of contents in the Pre-Conference reports relative to the review committees. Dr. James Gadsden explained the review committee process and proposed that we adopt it as our working procedure. This was done. Bishop Clark announced that the offering for UMCOR was in the amount of $1,681.60. Mr. Gardner Hendrix moved that the Review Committees convene at 2:15 rather than 2:00 PM, in light of the late adjournment of the morning session; this was approved. The session adjourned at 12:45 PM.

(See Business Questions.)

EXPLANATION OF PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE — The Rev. Ted Walter, Conference Parliamentarian, outlined parliamentary guidelines that would be followed during the sessions. The Rev. Marshall Meadors made the motion that a report which is initially presented to the conference be given by the chairperson or a representative of the board or agency rather than by the review committee. This was seconded, and approved.

The Committee on Standing Rules — Chairman, Mr. Gardner Hendrix, asked The Rev. Colin Simmons to give the report of the Committee as found in the Pre-Conference Reports, and with the following additions: Standing Rule 139, in the 1985 JOURNAL, was amended by the addition of a sentence to read, "All support ministries or agencies which receive funds from the South Carolina Annual Conference, but which are not directly responsible to the Conference, shall submit an annual program and audit including a management letter to the sponsoring Conference agency." The proposal for Standing Rule 66 (A7) was amended to read, "In the event that the elected chair of the Nominating Committee is one of the two elected representatives of a district, that chair shall become an additional member-at-large and the respective district shall elect another representative for that district, both of whom shall serve until the end of the quadrennium." Rule 95 h. was amended by adding the following sentence at the end of 95 h. All of these recommendations were approved. The following motion was made by the Rev. Nominations to the Board of Diaconal Ministry — Fletcher Carter, James Arant, Diana Westerkam, and Mary Jane Reynolds.

The Board of Trustees of The Annual Conference Report was made by Mr. Spencer Robinson and the Rev. Ernest Etheredge. The Rev. Raymond Gibson made the following resolution to discontinue Wesley Chapel Church, Spartanburg District, located in Inman, South Carolina:

RESOLUTION TO DISCONTINUE
WESELY CHAPEL UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
INMAN, SOUTH CAROLINA, SPARTANBURG DISTRICT

WHEREAS, all religious services at Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church, Blackstock Road, Inman, Spartanburg District, South Carolina, were discontinued on Sunday, January 5, 1986; and

WHEREAS, Wesley United Methodist Church has no Board of Trustees to make disposition of the real property; and

WHEREAS, the Bishop, the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and a majority of the District Superintendents thereof, have consented to a discontinuance and abandonment of the property for local Church purposes.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Annual Conference of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church does hereby declare that the local church known as Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church, Blackstock Road, Inman, South Carolina, be and the same is hereby discontinued and abandoned.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Trustees of the Annual Conference are authorized to sell or make disposition of the property after giving public notice and otherwise complying with the provisions of Section 2546 of the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, 1984.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Board of Trustees, South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church be, and they are hereby authorized to take such further action for the protection and preservation of the property, pending sale or disposition, as may be deemed advisable from time to time.

I, Raymond T. Gibson, the present District Superintendent of the Spartanburg District, highly recommend that when the church building and land known as Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church is sold, that all proceeds be given to Silver Hill United Methodist Church in Spartanburg, South Carolina for the buiding fund.

This was recommended because Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church was the sister church of Silver Hill United Methodist Church. Silver Hill is renovating their property and has need for the proceeds. The resolution was approved. Rev. Gibson also gave a report on the use of the funds from the sale of Gethsemany UMC.

The Conference recessed at 11:15 AM.

The Memorial Service was conducted by the Rev. Angelin Jones Simmons, preacher, and by the following readers; Bishop Roy C. Clark, The Rev. Carl L. Parker and The Rev. A. Clark Jenkins.

THE MEMORIAL SERVICE SERMON

Hebrews 11:10

"For he looked forward to the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God."

Revelations 21:2

"And I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband."

These words sum up the lives of all true believers and those that we memorialize this morning. We look forward to a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

The writer of the book of Hebrews pictures Abraham traveling toward a city, looking, searching for this special place, but never arrives. The writer says he sojourned, traveled, roamed, wandered in the land of promise as in a foreign land living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise.

However, he desired a city which has foundations. The writer gives us the implication that he never arrived in that city while on earth.

As it was with Abraham, so it is with the human family; we never find that city in this world. All of our cities are incomplete; full of crime, anguish, despair, ungodliness and injustice. Also, our knowledge, our characters and our accomplishments are incomplete.

Paul sums it up beautifully in his Hymn of Love: "For now we see through a glass darkly; for now we know in part."

Our Lord realized this in his earthly journey also, for He said, "The birds of the air have nests, the foxes have holes, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.

Are we saying that God is closer to the animals than to us? O, no, there is another chapter to our story, another sequence yet untold.

We have our mountain top and valley experiences in this incomplete world. We have our moments of heightened joy that comes so far, few and in between the sorrows of the world. However, our Lord reminded us as He prepared for his ascension, "Let not your hearts be troubled...in my father's house are many mansions. I'm going to prepare a place for you and I'll come again."

A place where thirst is quenched by water and hunger is satisfied.
 A place where there is no humiliation and divisiveness.
 A place where there is no more clergy against clergy, clergy against laypersons, laypersons against clergy.
 A place where whites will no longer be against blacks and blacks against whites.
 A place where women and men will not be shaken by the turbulent winds of life.
 A place where the corroding hands of time will have no effect on us.
 A place where justice will roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever flowing stream.
 A place where nations shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.
 A place where nations shall not lift up swords against nations, neither shall they study war no more.

The ones we memorialize today, while on this earthly pilgrimage, experienced their unwillful hopes and unfulfilled dreams. Yet, amidst these adversities, they longed for a city where life would be complete.

And, once in a while, I too, as a fellow laborer, need to be reminded that I'm a transient and a pilgrim.

Dr. Sandy Ray, a noted black preacher makes the point, that we have no continuing city here. He tells of how he found himself enjoying this world a little too much; getting along too well here, becoming adjusted and settling down to this world as if it was his permanent home. He stated that once in a while he needed something to remind him that this will not be the end.

Some years ago, he stated, he was rushing home to a funeral of one of his ministers, and as he was going from Columbus and as he was in a rush, he got on the wrong plane. When he got near Washington, he was asleep and the stewardess came and shook him and said: "Fasten your seat belt, we're coming into Washington." Then she said: "This flight terminates in Washington." But he had a ticket to go to New York! He got terrible distressed, and as soon as he got off the plane in Washington he rushed up to the counter and told the agent, "Look, I have a New York ticket and my flight has terminated in Washington." The agent said: "O yes doctor, you go right to gate No. 2 You have continuing reservations."

We must so work, so serve and so live wherever we're sent that when we come down to death, when death calls at the grave and says, "Your flight terminates here," there'll be another messenger who will walk up and look at the ticket and say, "O yes, this flight does terminate, but you have continuing reservations."

John on the Isle of Patmos who was in the spirit says, "and I say a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away; and the sea was no more. And I say the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband."

I do not think I understood for a long time why there was to be no more sea. I say no connection between the absence of the sea and the heavenly life. And then I remembered that John was a prisoner on an island and the sea became the walls of his prison. It was the sea that shut him in. It was the sea that stood between him and his work. It was the sea that kept him away from his friends. So, it was only natural that he should write, "when I get home to God, the narrowing, cramping, confining walls of this island prison will be gone, for there shall be no more sea."

Golden streets, gates of pearl, the welcome table. But no more sea.
 But the good news about heaven that I like best is where John states of those who overcome and reach the heavenly home, "and he shall go in to come out no more." There is permanency in that city. There's completeness.

There is our eternal home are many abiding places. They suggest permanency and spaciousness because Jesus said, "There will be an unnumbered multitude of all nations and kindreds and peoples and tongues."

There will be variety there, as we have never known here. There will be children from far and near. There will be saints of all ages; the saints will be there, impetuous Peter, sorrowing Thomas, cautious Phillip, John with his heart on fire, Eugene McCants singing, "when we all get to heaven what a day of rejoicing that will be, when we all see Jesus, we'll sing and shout the victory," and those who have served in the South Carolina Conference.

I don't know completely what life in the eternal home is going to be, but the promise is that God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes. No more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain.

"I know not, I know not,
 what joy awaits me there,
 what radiancy of glory
 what bliss beyond compare
 For Glory, dwell in Beulah Land!

In the name of the Creator, the Son and the Holy Spirit! Amen

The Rev. Angelin Jones Simmons

Recommendation regarding the Tabernacle Cemetery. Your Board recommends that Tabernacle Cemetery, located several miles east of Lynchburg, S.C., be deeded to the non-profit, legally chartered Tabernacle Cemetery Association. The Tabernacle Church has been discontinued and dismantled for several generations. The original property deed shows two acres of land. It was donated by the father of the late U.S. Senator Ed (Cotton Ed) Smith. A well planned and maintained cemetery covers much of the land. The Association intends to develop the entire tract of land as a community cemetery. This was approved.

Rev. Etheredge presented the report on page A-10 of the Pre-Conference material concerning the closing or disposition sale of property. This model was approved. The report was adopted as a whole.

A motion to suspend standing rules to allow delay of nomination to boards and agencies until Wednesday morning was made. This was approved.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL STUDY COMMITTEE ON THE CONFERENCE BUDGET

At 4:25 PM, the special study committee report which is found on page A-40-42 was presented by the Dr. Bryan Crenshaw in the absence of the Chairman, Mr. Richard Strawhorn. The Review Committee, led by the Rev. Harry Mays, concurred. Dr. Crenshaw amended No. 6, on page A-41 to read "21%" rather than "24%". The second recommendation on page A-41 was changed to read: In order to comply with paragraph 709 and 710 of the Discipline, we recommend that: "The Annual Conference through its Standing Rules should be diligent in providing specific support to the Council on Finance and Administration's Disciplinary authority in budget matters." Standing Rule 139, for example, should be expanded to require both a current audit report and its accompanying management letter prepared by an independent certified public accounting firm.

In order to comply with Paragraph 709.3 of the Discipline, we recommend that the first sentence of the third recommendation read, "the current, formula used to apportion the conference budget to the individual churches is based solely upon average net funds".

In order to comply with Paragraph 441.3 of the Discipline we recommend that the last sentence of the fourth recommendation be deleted. In its place, the following is recommended: "The annual report from the churches is the pastor's responsibility. We urge all pastors to consult with local church financial persons in order to assure the accuracy of the fiscal information reported." These amendments or recommendations made by Dr. Crenshaw were approved by the session. The Rev. Harry Mays reported the action of the Review Committee: We commend the Committee to Evaluate the Conference Budget Process. We note with the Committee the need to make all responsible in the local churches aware of the need for information on the conference fiscal matters through better communications for the Annual Conference. We know that our Annual Conference communications experts will assist in meeting this need. The amended report of the Special Committee was approved as a whole.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES ADMINISTRATION REPORT

was presented by Mrs. Clelia Hendrix, Chairperson of the Council. The Rev. H. Sam Johnson reported the concurrence of the Review Committee. The reports found on pages K-1 through the Recommendations on K-3 were adopted. Mr. Harold Smithyman, convener of Review Committee on E-2 reported nonconcurrence with a portion of the Study Report on South Carolina United Methodist Camps and Retreat Centers found on pages K-3,4,5. The Review Committee recommended that the Annual Conference direct the Board of Missions to direct the Belin Board of Trustees to be in dialogue with the Board of Directors of the Sewee Coastal Retreat Center. Bishop Clark ruled that this was out of order. Recommendations 1 through 10 as found on Pre-Conference Reports pages K-4 and K-5 were adopted.

The following statement of the James L. Belin Board of Trustees and the Board of Missions was received as information after discussion in the Review Committee:

JOINT RESPONSIBILITY OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND THE JAMES L. BELIN BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The James L. Belin Board of Trustees and the Board of Missions of the SC Conference of the United Methodist Church are given the responsibility of carrying out the intent of the trust of James L. Belin.

The SC Conference Board of Missions is charged with nominating persons to serve on the James L. Belin Board of Trustees.

On May 25, 1976, the Court of Common Pleas of the 5th Judicial Circuit decreed that the Trustees of the James L. Belin Board of Trustees be holders in fee simple of lands comprising the basic corpus of the James L. Belin Estate, the original will having been lost in a fire during the Civil War.

The James L. Belin Board of Trustees has the responsibility to administer the trust for the benefit of Missions in the SC Conference.

In order to carry out their responsibilities the following procedure is agreed upon by the James L. Belin Board of Trustees and the SC Conference Board of Missions.

1. All identification of mission needs to receive funds from the James L. Belin Board of Trustees will be initiated either on the local church level (via Administrative Board Council), through District Mission Specials (via DS), the Conference Board of Missions, or its divisions such as special ministries.

2. A written request identifying the need, verified and accompanied by documentation, shall be submitted to the SC Conference Board of Missions.
3. The James L. Belin Board of Trustees will advise the Board of Missions of the projected amount of funds available to support Mission projects in the year ahead, along with any Mission they feel should receive priority as serving the particular interests of the trust.
4. The SC Conference Board of Missions will allocate available funds, taking into consideration the moral imperative of the trust.
5. The SC Conference Board of Missions and the James L. Belin Board of Trustees will each name a liaison person to the other Board so that communication and interpretation may be enhanced.

THE PROPOSAL TO BEGIN A FEASIBILITY STUDY OF A POSSIBLE CAPITAL FUND CAMPAIGN FOR OUTREACH MINISTRIES (page K-5) received concurrence by the Review Committee. The Rev. Charles Graves rose for a point of order. He asked if the adoption of such a study by the Conference session would also be automatic approval for the inclusion of a such figure into the CFA budget. Bishop Clark ruled that should the conference adopt the report regarding the Feasibility Study, the conference would be adopting the proposed cost at the same time. The Rev. Ed Ellis moved that we expand the time of the session in order to complete this report; it was approved. Dr. Carolyn Briscoe rose to speak in favor of the Committee's recommendation. The Rev. Ralph Bowling moved for the previous question; it was approved. The Proposal to Begin a Feasibility Study of a Possible Capital Fund Campaign for Outreach Ministries, page K-5, was not approved.

INTRODUCTION — The Rev. Chad Davis presented the Rev. Yaqub Laldin from Pakistan.

THIRD DAY — TUESDAY EVENING June 3, 1986

7:30 PM The Ordination service was led by Bishop Roy C. Clark. The preacher was the Rev. Carole Cotton-Winn of First United Methodist Church, Houma, Louisiana. The elders assisting in ordination were the Rev. Raymond T. Gibson and the Rev. Ray P. Hook.

ORDINATION SERMON The Reverend Carole Cotton-Winn

I bring a story, a story that you know well that you have heard from the days of your childhood. So I ask you to hear it again with new ears.

"Long ago in the time of the judges there was a famine in the land. And a man from Bethlehem in Judah went to live in the Moabite country with his wife and his two sons. The man's name was Elimelech and his wife's name was Naomi and the name of his sons were Mahlon and Chilion. These sons married Moabite women and one of them was called Orpah and the other Ruth. They had lived there about ten years when both Mahlon and Chilion died, so that the woman was bereaved of her two sons as well as of her husband."

"Thereupon she set out with her two daughters-in-law to return home because she had heard while still in the Moabite country that the Lord had cared for His people and had given them food. So with her two daughters-in-law she left the place she had been living and took the road back home to Judah. Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, 'Go back, both of you, to your mother's home. May the Lord keep faith with you as you have kept faith with the dead and with me. May He grant each of you security in the home of the husband'. She kissed them and they wept aloud. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law and returned to her people. But Ruth clung to her. 'You see, said Naomi, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and her god. Go back with her.' 'Do not urge me to go back and desert you.' Ruth answered, 'where you go I will go, your people shall be my people and your God my God, and where you die there I will be buried.' When Naomi say that Ruth was determined to go with her she said no more, and the two of them went on until they came to Bethlehem."

Let us pray: O Lord, warm the cold places of our hearts; light the dark corners of our minds and fill the empty chambers of our spirits. Amen.

A minister I knew who served large churches in our jurisdiction and was for a long time a candidate for the episcopacy once said at a retreat for young ministers, "The relationship that I have with members of my congregation is one of intimate aloofness." Now, I gather that what he meant by that was on the surface there was enough emotion and display of feeling to be taken for closeness, while underneath there was a carefully measured distance, actually keeping him untouched. A certain air of closeness was desirable, but always with the right amount of space so as not to be vulnerable. Goodness knows, it's hard not to be vulnerable in this business. Just when we get close to those who are living with us in our community, chances are they're moved or we are moved. Just as the Nomination Committee gets everything in place with the right people and the right jobs we begin to get signals from someone, either verbally or non-verbally, that they are not going to be able to fulfill the obligation they accepted, because of other commitments to their time and priority.

I had a conversation one time with a woman at a School of Missions who told me about being a part of a congregation of several thousand. She had been active in the congregation, was a UMW President, and on the Administrative Board. On one occasion her husband had been in the hospital. The senior minister had come to visit her husband, and at the time he had made the call she had been out of the room. She saw him just later in the elevator and she told me: "I was sure that he did not know who I was." The sensitive in our midst see beyond intimate aloofness for the bankrupt style of ministry that it is. If we are to be in ministry we have to be in a ministry that finally says we are in this together. We have to move beyond the appearance of ministry to the depths of ministry to the place where your sorrow is my sorrow, your joy is my joy.

Somehow Ruth and Naomi had transcended the intimate aloofness that is so often characteristic of mothers-in-law and daughters-in-law. Now this is no young wife trying to please her husband by wooing her mother-in-law. Her husband was dead. In fact, all the men who had been important to both of them were dead. What you have here is two women standing in the middle of a dirt road trying to decide what to do with the rest of their lives. The older woman is gnawing her bottom lip as she tries her best to say good-bye, and the younger woman transcends her farewell with words of commitment that have rarely been equaled in all of Canon or literature. This is the real thing; two people, two women at that, making a commitment that sounds for all the world like vows at a wedding. No wonder those words cause our feelings to run deep when she says to her mother-in-law, "Where you go I will go, your people shall be my people and your God my God, and where you die there I will be buried." They were unlikely candidates for such touching words of covenant and commitment. There was no organ music playing softly in the background. There were no candles on the altar.

What did these two women have that was so radically different from what we usually think of when mothers-in-law are mentioned? Mothers-in-law do not get very good press in our society. About the only people that get worse press are stepmothers. I have been both a mother-in-law and step mother for about ten years now, and neither are names that I claim in public. There is something very endearing about becoming a new mother; it's even more endearing to become a grandmother, or, wonders of wonders, a great grandmother. But the endearment falls off when the title becomes stepmother or mother-in-law.

Yet here is Ruth making a radical break with tradition to leave her own mother, the land of her birth, and go with Naomi to an unknown life in a foreign land. In so doing, they participate in God's creation of a new future, a new future for them and for Israel, for they return to Bethlehem, to become a part of the house and lineage of David.

Strange, isn't it, how our involvements with one person or one cause may inevitably lead us to commitments that come, like mothers-in-law, with the territory. On the day Ruth married Chilion she surely had no idea she would be standing in the road committing herself to a strange new life with his mother. When I made a commitment to ordained ministry I was standing on holy ground at Perkins School of Theology. When I received my appointment I realized that I was now standing on the parking lot of a paper mill. This was the largest paper mill in all of north Louisiana and our church was located right under its shadow. Do you remember the last time you drove through a community with a paper mill? The paper mill had pervaded every thing in and around the church. The odor got on your clothes, it got in your car, it was in your hair, it was everywhere. Nothing in the church was spared. The fumes from the chemicals had gotten into the typewriter, the organ, the air conditioning, everything, anything that was mechanical. One night we were at the church playing volley ball outside, and my husband missed one that came his way. In response to the gibes he got about it John said, "Well its hard to hit the ball and hold your nose at the same time!" But friends, nobody laughed.

There are times that we find ourselves in unlikely places with people as unlikely as our mother-in-law, making commitments that we had never dreamed about at any other time in our lives. That is exactly the call of Ruth and Naomi. It is the call to receive the people that we are given as gifts. It is a call to receive the place that we are given as a gift. It is a call to reach deep and find within ourselves whatever is real that we can share with those people.

When I first went to Brownville I learned early on that Mr. Walter was not coming to church anymore because a woman had been sent to that congregation. In order to fully appreciate this you've got to understand that this is one of those churches in which everybody is related to everybody else. Mr. Walter's daughter was our choir director, and his son-in-law was the chair of the Pastor Parish Relations Committee. The first time I met Mr. Walter he was sitting out in his car in the parking lot waiting for the services to be over so they could go to lunch together. His daughter took me to the car and said, "I want you to meet someone." We talked a while and I didn't think about it much anymore. The next Sunday Mr. Walter came to church and he sat on the very back row. He managed to leave before I got down the aisle to shake hands. The second Sunday, Mr. Walter came and he sat about half way up, and this time we shook hands before he left. The third Sunday I looked out and I couldn't find Mr. Walter. Then I turned around and he was in the choir. He was in the place where he had always sat in that congregation for years and years and years. The only person who likes to tell that story more than I do is Mr. Walter. Mr. Walter and I became dear, dear friends. To this day he is one of those persons that I miss the most from that congregation.

Now I take it that Mr. Walter and I were gifts to one another. But neither Mr. Walter nor I could receive the gift that we were to one another until we were willing to take the risk to step beyond whatever separated us; and come to know one another as persons. Then we could be in ministry to one another.

Granted, relationships may seem safer from a distance. The call of love is not to back off at the point it begins to get uncomfortable, but to move in closer. As we take the risk, a depth of relationship can develop that would not otherwise be possible. That depth cannot happen from the luxury of distance. It can only happen in the ambiguity of closeness and commitments. It is like deciding to go with your mother-in-law to Bethlehem before you know Bethlehem is Bethlehem. Friends, if we are not willing to take that risk, how can we expect it of others?

A few years ago a young couple were appointed to a church just fifteen miles from where we live. We didn't know them well, but we thought we would enjoy each others company. In the times to come we did get to know the, and we shared their joy when the wife of this young couple was going to have a child. It became even more exciting on Sunday morning when Steve called us and said, "We've got to go to the hospital right now!" "Can one of you come and preach at my church?" As it turned out I was preaching in Houma, so John got on his 'circuit rider horse' and drove fifteen miles down to Steve's church and preached the word and administered the sacraments that morning. A beautiful child was born to that family. He was, Jared, a Sunday child, good and gay. Jared was two weeks early so he stayed in the neonatal care for a while, but then he came home. They watched him very closely and carefully, and he began to grow. When it came time for Jared to be baptized, they called John back and said, "Well, John will you come down now and baptize Jared?" So John went like a proud grandfather off to baptize Jared. We joined them in the afternoon for a wonderful baptism celebration.

Several months later Steve and Diane and John and I took a very poignant journey to Baton Rouge to join our conference at the funeral of Bishop Kenneth Shamblin. Bishop Shamblin had been struck with a cerebral hemorrhage from which he never recovered. That was a sobering experience, to join our annual conference at the funeral of our own bishop. When we arrived home we were exhausted, emotionally, physically, and mentally. The phone rang the minute we stepped in the door. I heard John say, "He died! He died!" And I thought "who died?" We don't have anyone in the hospital, seriously ill. When John hung up the phone he said, "Jared died." Jared had died while we were gone to the bishop's funeral. The sitter had put him down for a nap and he died in his sleep.

They call it Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, SIDS. They don't know why it happens or what they can do to prevent it, only that some children do simply stop breathing in their sleep. So this time John and I both drove fifteen miles to Steve's church and we both preached at Jared's funeral. When Steve reached up to close the casket on that beautiful, beautiful child, buried in his baptism suit, something in me broke where there will always be scar tissue that is Jared. It was a real birth, it was a real baptism and it was a real death.

When you are ordained this night to administer the word and sacrament and order you are also being called to a ministry to be real. You are ordained to be real in the deepest and the most profound sense of the Word. There is no place for intimate aloofness in the ministry of Jesus Christ. There is no place for anything that would separate us from one another as brothers and sisters in Christ. There is no place for us to hold each other at arms length because we are different. We have only this opportunity to be in ministry...and friends, we must seize each moment...each precious moment that is given us to find a way to reach out to those who need us and who we need.

We are called to be real in the same way that the skin horse asked the rabbit, "what does it mean to be real?" "Does real mean you have a handle or things that go buzz on the inside of you?" And the skin horse said, "No, that's not what it means." "It doesn't happen all at once. You become. It takes a long time. That is why it doesn't often happen to people who break easily, or have sharp edges, or have to be carefully kept."

If you are going to become real, you have to be willing to give of yourself in whatever place you may find it, even when that means going with your mother-in-law to Bethlehem before you knew that Bethlehem is Bethlehem. Ruth and Naomi teach us something about the nature of our commitments. They show us what it means to claim those who are given to us as our very own.

Frederick Buechner says that the first ministers were the twelve disciples. They were not called because they were necessarily brighter or nicer than anyone else. In fact, the New Testament record suggests that they were continually jockeying for position, and missing the point, and, when the chips were down, interested in nothing so much as saving their own skins. Their sole qualification seems to have been their initial willingness to rise to their feet when Jesus said, "Follow me."<sup>1</sup>

Now you and I are the ones who have been called to follow. We have all be called to a ministry, some to the ordained ministry, others to the ministry of all believers. When God calls, God calls us to move in close, to not just talk about being brothers and sisters in Christ, but to be brothers and sisters in Christ. We are all going home from Annual Conference with an appointment, you and me, clergy and laity, because we are the people who have been given a place in a world in which to do God's ministry.

We wouldn't be here tonight if we didn't feel that commitment dearly and deeply. Now that means that God has a new future and God calls us to join with Him in creating a new future. Sometimes we may find ourselves on roads that lead us to as unlikely a place as Bethlehem. But I say that even Bethlehem can be a place of new beginnings. When you are questioning your place. When you are questioning your appointment. When you find yourself standing in the middle of a dirt road trying to decide what to do with the rest of your life, I say that Ruth and Naomi are not a bad model for people of faith. They were willing to go, on faith, to Bethlehem before they knew that Bethlehem was Bethlehem. They met God there to begin a new future for themselves, for Israel, and for the house and lineage of David. Now if we can be as faithful, maybe we too can find our place and our people and serve our God who has called us to a ministry and has chosen us to follow.

O God, we are all being sent somewhere. Some of us are more sure about it than others. Some of us still feel like we're standing in the middle of a dirt road trying to decide what to do next. We may not be sure about the stopping places, but we are certain of the way. If you will lead the way, Lord, we will follow.
Amen.

FOURTH DAY — WEDNESDAY MORNING
June 4, 1986

The Bible study was led by the Rev. Mary Lou Santillian Baert in the Johnson Arena Center. The session was called to order at 9:30 by Bishop Clark and Mr. Wilson Mount led the conference in singing.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS AND APPEALS

The Rev. William W. McNeill presented the following:

Resolution: "The General Rules of the United Methodist Church, Para. 68, 1984 Discipline, state that fasting is one of the ordinances of God to which the people called Methodists are to give special attention. Furthermore, in the examination of those admitted into full connection the following question is found. Will you recommend fasting as abstinence by both precept and example.

Be it resolved, therefore, that the Saturday before Annual Conference be declared a day of fasting and prayer, and that members of the Annual Conference, both clergy and lay, are urged to keep fast as a spiritual preparation for the work of conference. Members are requested to bring the cost of the meals missed to the opening Holy Communion Service Sunday night. This resolution was presented by the Commission on Worship and the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals concurs. The conference approved this resolution.

RECONSIDERATION OF THE FEASIBILITY STUDY FOR A CAPITAL FUNDS CAMPAIGN — The Rev. Taylor Campbell made the following motion: "I move for reconsideration of the portion of the Conference Council on Ministries report which asks for a feasibility study of a possible capital fund campaign found on page K-5 of the Pre-Conference Report. This was seconded and the Study was reconsidered. Mr. Harry Kent then made the following motion. "I move that the feasibility study be conducted by the Conference Council on Ministries using staff and voluntary assistance to determine needs and desires from all areas of the conference, and to determine the possibility of second-mile giving. The results of the study would be interpreted to decide whether or not a capital funds drive should be proposed at the 1987 conference session. And, even if a fund drive is not needed to identify needs, the Conference Council on Ministries needs to address this." This was seconded and then approved after questions were considered.

THE UNITED METHODIST CENTER TRUSTEE'S REPORT — Mr. T.M. Nelson of Review Committee A.1 reported concurrence on this report and it was approved.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES PROPOSED COORDINATED PROGRAMS — Mrs. Clelia Hendrix presented Report Number 3 of C.C.O.M. The Rev. Kenneth Timmerman, for the Review Committee, reported concurrence with the following amendments. "That the Women in the Pulpit Sunday (page L-1) be changed from April 21 to March 8, and that the February 26 deadline be changed to February 1. This was approved. He also made the following editorial change on page L-10 that goal 5.6 No. 72 add the word "to", making the sentence to read: "FOR TO SUCH BELONGS THE KINGDOM OF GOD." The Rev. Robert Borom then made the following amendment to delete from item No. 24 on page L-5, the last two sentences which read, "...to be held in Spring of 1987 at Spring Maid Beach." "...leadership from general boards and agencies." Those two sentences were deleted by the session. The complete report was adopted as amended. Mrs. Hendrix introduced support staff members present and thanked them for their work. Mrs. Dorothy Bachman, audio-visual coordinator, spoke to the Conference about available audio-visual resources.

The Rev. Mark Jones reported for Review Committee G, reported an editorial correction regarding the last sentence of the first paragraph of the Pre-Conference Report of the Board of Health and Welfare. The corrected portion on page G-1 should read: "...there are now four apartments at the Greenwood Methodist Home and two duplex apartments at Orangeburg Methodist Home." This editorial change was approved. The Review Committee went on record expressing their disappointment that no action had been taken on the children's needs study although this study has been completed. The Board of Health and Welfare Ministries Report was adopted.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES was made by the Rev. Taylor Campbell who outlined the changes from the previous year. Mrs. Anne Drake reported for Review Committee B.1 recommending concurrence with Report No. 1. She also recommended concurrence with Report No. 2, with the following amendment: "That item "T" of Report No. 2, page B-11, be amended to read as follows: "Pastors on Leave of Absence, except as provided in continuing resolution No. 201." This was approved. Mr. Harry Kent made the following motion in the form of an amendment to the equitable salary report: "I move that the equitable salary guideline "T" found on Page B-11, and 12 be amended by addition of subheading 5 as follows: "Special appointments categories A, B, and C as defined in Para. 443 of the 1984 Discipline: "Various special appointments within the itinerancy of the United Methodist Church." This was seconded and passed. Mr. Kent then made the following amendment: "I move that the following addition be made to the list of recommendations related to equitable salary: that in accordance with decision No. 492, the Judicial Council, a minister or member in good standing of the annual conference who is left without an appointment be entitled to full minimum salary and that this provision be subject to a six year limit. Seconded and approved.

REFERRED MOTION — Mr. Kent made the following additional amendment: "I move that the guidelines to equitable salary commission be amended by the addition of an item "V" as follows: "Equitable salary assistance shall be granted to conference members in good standing who have been given special appointments outside the United Methodist Church provided that the annual conference must vote approval of financial assistance in each individual case, and that such assistance is subject to a six year maximum." This was seconded, but The Rev. Archie Bigelow made a motion to refer this motion on proposed item "V" to the review committee at the 1987 Annual Conference. The motion to refer was adopted.

PETITION TO THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL — Mr. Kent also offered the following motion: "I move that we petition the Judicial Council to make a declarative ruling on the constitutionality of the Equitable Salary recommendations C., J., K., T. and U." This was seconded and approved. The session recessed until 10:30 AM.

INTRODUCTION — Bishop Clark introduced Bishop Paul Hardin, Jr. Bishop Hardin was given a standing round of applause. He responded with appropriate remarks.

ORDER OF THE DAY — The Board of Pensions Reports were called. The Rev. Archie Bigelow secretary of the Board of Pensions presented the Reports. An editorial correction was made in line three, section B of Report No. 1 correcting the date to December 31, 1987. The session fixed the 1987 service annuity rate at $215.00 per service year and requested $3,376,454.00 for the 1987 pension program of the Annual Conference. Report No. 1, as corrected, was adopted after concurrence was reported by the convener of the Review Committee, Mrs. Anne Drake. The Personal Notations previously adopted but unreported in the Annual Conference Journals of 1983 and 1983 were again approved (See Question 71). The 1986 Personal Notation found in answer to Business Question 71, were also approved. The Addendum A to the Ministerial Pension Plan and the Comprehensive Protection Plan for fiscal 1987, as found on pages B-2, 3 was adopted. The Board of Pensions Reports were adopted as a whole.

THE COMMISSION ON GROUP INSURANCE REPORTS were presented by Mrs. Anne Drake, Review Committee convener. Mrs. Drake amended proposed Category #9 of Report No. 1 by substituting the following: "9. Ordained ministers from other Annual Conferences, or Methodist denominations and other denominations fully employed by and under episcopal appointment to a local church of the South Carolina Annual Conference under the provisions of Paragraph 425 of the 1984 Book of Discipline. This was approved. Report No. 1 was amended by adding category 10, as follows: "10. Full time employees and their eligible dependents, of a local church of the South Carolina Annual Conference currently enrolling 75% of all full-time employees in the Annual Conference group insurance plan. The funding basis is to be established by the local church with the Annual Conference on the current advanced premium." This was approved. Reports 1 - 10 of the Commission on Group Insurance were adopted, as amended, on the motion of Mrs. Drake.

RECOGNITION OF RETIRING MINISTERS AND SPOUSES — Mr. John Greene, Chairman of the Board of Pensions introduced the ministers and spouses who are entering the retired relation at the 1986 session. After each person was given an opportunity to address the session, Bishop Clark commended the class for their work in ministry together. The conference gave a standing round of applause in recognition and appreciation. With announcements the session was closed at 12:20.

FOURTH DAY — WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON
June 4, 1986

After Bishop Clark convened the session, singing was led by Mr. Wilson Mount. The Rev. Twila Broadway gave the invocation. The Rev. Chad Davis called on Mr. Harry Kent to recognize Cub Pack 82 from Hopewell and Tabernacle Churches in the Rock Hill District. Bishop Clark then presented the Scouting Award to the troop members. Miss Clarissa McFarland was recognized to speak to the Conference in behalf of the Black College Fund. Ms. Helen Rhyan asked, from the floor, to have the Rev. James Johnston's poem, which he had read at his recognition during the Order of the Day, printed in the Advocate. Applause was the vote. Bishop Clark said it would be done.

HARRIS MOTION REGARDING SALARIES — The session turned to the following motion introduced by The Rev. Calvin Harris shortly before the morning Order of the Day: "If and when the Bishop and cabinet find it necessary to make an adjustment or change in an appointment which would decrease the minister's salary in such actions by $2,500 or more, that Equitable Salary shall so supplement the salary of such appointment such that the pastor or pastors shall not fall below the level of such previous appointment. Action in such cases shall coincide with the Bishop and cabinet's authority and recommendation." Rev. Harris then spoke to the motion. The Rev. Norman Brown spoke in favor citing Item "M" in the Equitable Salary report. The Rev. Jack Meadors asked the question: "Does this make up the difference so that the minimum loss of salary is $2,500?" Mr. Harris answered that the supplement would be to restore the salary to its previous level. Dr. Meadors spoke to the differential in clergy salaries in black white churches, the differential in salaries for men and women clergy, the inevitable salary reduction for a Black pastor who comes off the district. He cited the decrease some white pastors receive when appointed to a district. He stated the Harris motion should be preceded by a fiscal impact study. The Rev. Thomas Campbell spoke against the Harris motion and in favor of better equitable salaries.

KANIPE SUBSTITUTE — Rev. C.E. Kanipe offered a substitute motion: "The Equitable Salary Commission will bring to the 1987 Annual Conference a plan to address the inequitable salary structure and the problems which have resulted therefrom." Susan Henry-Crowe offered an amendment by addition: "That the study be done in consultation with the Cabinet." This addition was accepted by the maker and the seconder. Mr. Harry Kent asked if this was a call for equalized salaries so that higher salaries at the top would have to be reduced to carry the freight? Bishop Clark interpreted the motion to not carry any mandate for equalized salaries, but was a mandate to study the problem of unequal salaries." Rev. Kanipe agreed with this interpretation that the study is in regard to inequitable salaries.

McNEILL SUBSTITUTE — The Rev. W.W. McNeill offered a substitute as follows: "That all pastors who receive appointment changes resulting in the loss of more than $2,500 be given a special hearing before a joint meeting of the Bishop, two District Superintendents and two representatives of the Equitable Salary Commission. The Rev. Paul Harmon asked Rev. McNeill the purpose of the hearing. Rev. McNeill responded that the hearing was to explain the appointment and adjust the salary. The Rev. Chris Poole spoke against the McNeill substitute, stating that if we limited decreases in salaries, we would also need to limit increases in salaries. He stated that if it is fair to limit decreases, it is also fair to limit increases. The Rev. Frederick Yebuah observed that if the McNeill substitute were adopted, salary increases would be in the hands of a select committee. The Rev. Reggie Rowell requested a ruling on whether the substitute and even the proposed study is really in order. Bishop Clark made the following answer: "That (a) the bishops and the cabinet make appointments, (b) the local charge conference sets salaries, (c) that the annual conference may set an equitable or minimum salary and it may also consider plans for equalization of salaries. The scope of the proposals regards the equalization of salaries." Ms. Frances Hill asked that we spend less time discussing salaries and vote on the issue. The McNeill substitute motion was read to the session and defeated on the vote. The Kanipe motion, as amended, was read:

"The Equitable Salary Commission will bring to the 1987 Annual Conference a plan to address the inequitable salary structure and the problems which have resulted therefrom. The study will be done in consultation with the cabinet." It was approved and became the main motion. It was adopted as the main motion.

MOTION ON TEMPORARY GENERAL AID — The Rev. Ted Walter made the motion: That the Annual Conference direct the Committee on Petitions to General Conference to report to the 1987 Annual Conference a petition urging General Council on Finance and Administration to recommend to the 1988 General Conference that the Temporary General Aid Fund be continued to provide salary support for pastors of local churches, especially in cross-racial appointments.

MOTION FUNDING COMMITTEE ON PETITIONS — "Secondly, to instruct the S.C. Council on Finance and Administration to provide expenses up to $2,000.00 from the Contingency Fund for the Committee on Petitions." This motion was approved after discussion. The Reports of the Commission on Equitable Salaries were adopted as a whole. The session recessed at 2:50 PM.

ORDER OF THE DAY 3:00 PM. The Reports of the Board of Church and Society beginning on page F-3 of the Pre-Conference Reports was presented by The Rev. Mickey Fisher. The introductory report was received as information. It was done. In Section 1 of the Church and Criminal Justice Report, the Review Committee recommended concurrence with the amendment as found on its report in the Pre-Conference material adding No. 1 under V. to read as follows: "Further, we recommend that the Board of Church and Society request that the Council on Finance and Administration to allocate funds to support a part-time chaplain for small Department of Correction institutions where there is no state supported chaplain assigned." In response to an inquiry of the Parliamentarian, Bishop Clark ruled that the recommendation was not in order since the Standing Rules require that any recommendation for change in the 1987 CF&A budget proposals has to be held over twelve hours. The Rev. Charles Graves then made the motion that this matter be referred to the Board of Church and Society for study and that after consultation with CF&A it be brought back to the 1987 Conference. This referral was approved. The report on Church and Criminal Justice was approved.

THE RESOLUTION TO SUPPORT THE FARMER'S AND THE RURAL CRISIS IN OUR COUNTRY, page F-4, received concurrence from the Review Committee. The Rev. John Culp introduced Mr. J.S. McMillan, a third generation farmer and a member of Swallow Savannah Church. Mr. McMillan reported on the condition of farmers in Allendale County and the rural crisis in general. The Resolution to Support the Farmers and the Rural Crisis in Our Country was put before the session. The Rev. Clark Jenkins then noted three editorial changes to be made in the remainder of the report of Church and Society. (1) In the Resolution on the Resurgence of the Ku Klux Klan, he noted that the second line in the second paragraph, which now reads, "...to affirm the resolution..." should be changed to read "...call attention to..." (2) In the Resolution on Terrorism, paragraph three, beginning "In our condemnation of terrorism..." should be deleted. (3) In the Resolution on South Africa, second paragraph, the words "...March 1, 1987" should be inserted. Mrs. Roberta LaBoon, Zoar Church, Greenville District, made a motion that we adopt no resolution from The Board of Church and Society during the remainder of this conference. This was ruled out of order. Ms. LaBoon asked that the Reports of the Board of Church and Society be tabled. After consulting Robert's Rules of Order, the Bishop ruled that the motion to table the entire report is out of order because it is for the purpose of defeating the motion. Dr. Spencer Rice spoke to the resolution to support the farmers. The Rev. Clyde Anderson supported the Farm Resolution and offered an amendment. "Be it resolved that the Conference play an important role in providing education and training through workshops, seminars and training events. Such training events should be conducted with District Superintendents, pastors and lay leaders across the state. Such training should include examining the Biblical understanding of land and the covenant relationship between God, the people of the community of faith, and the land, an understanding of the historical development of the crisis, especially since post World War II period, along with the development of federal and state policies affecting agriculture in the United States."

The Conference reconvened at 3:45 PM. A lay member from Ehrhardt supported the farm resolution. Ms. Jo Ann Eubanks, St. John, Aiken, asked, "Who is to write the letter noted in the first part of the resolution?" The Bishop answered that he usually writes for the Annual Conferences. The chairperson of the Board of Church and Society confirmed this as the intention of the Board. The Rev. Kim Strong offered an amendment to the original Resolution, but was ruled out of order inasmuch as the maximum number of amendments to the original Resolution had been offered. The Anderson resolution was read again. It was adopted. The Rev. Paul Cheezem of Blenheim Circuit noted the insertion of a verb "...a letter is to be written..." would make it gramatically correct. He then offered an amendment to the Resolution: "...urging that letters to be written to the persons recommended in the Resolution to Support the Farmers and the Farm Crisis in our County be written by individual local church members and ministers rather than by officers of the conference. This was approved. Rev. Willis Goodwin moved that the Board add the words "migrant and farm workers" as a part of the Resolution. The Rev. Clark Jenkins stated that the Board addressed the migrant and farm worker situation in 1985 and a plan is in place. He noted that the Board is merely trying to keep the migrant workers situation and the Farmer Resolution separate. The Goodwin amendment was lost.

EDUCATION FACT SHEETS — The Rev. Lounne Rouse asked if the Board of Church and Society would send out fact sheets concerning educational events as well as lists and addresses of law makers referred to in the resolution. Rev. Jenkins indicated that the Board of Church and Society would do this. Mr. Ed Huggins, Francis Asbury, Greenville, noted that we were considering a highly complicated issue and wondered if we have the expertise to really lobby on this issue, a highly technical and controversial one. Mr. Bob Bailey, Main Street, Columbia, noted that Clemson University already has a number of educational events for persons concerning farming and the farm crisis. The resolution was approved as it had been amended.

LaBOON MOTION — Ms. Roberta LaBoon, Zoar Church, Greenville District, made a substitute for the remainder of the report: "Due to the adversity of the public, the United Methodist Church receives as a result of statements of resolution from the Board of Church and Society, I move that the 1986 Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church adopt no further resolutions from the Board of Church and Society." Mr. Wyatt Minton, Trinity, Camden spoke against the motion. The Rev. William P. Bouknight, III spoke against the motion because of the mission of the Church to change the world and we want to claim the arena of politics for Christ. Mr. Winston Smith, Zion, Lancaster, spoke for the motion noting that the resolutions, which are not binding, are divisive. Ms. Harriet Greer, St. Mark, Greenville, spoke against the motion, citing the need to discuss things rather than hide issues presented by Church and Society. Mr. Dwight Frazier, St. John's, Batesburg, spoke for the motion. The Rev. Nathaniel Evans was ruled out of order because all possible negative speeches had been made. An unidentified member noted that no one had a corner on conscience, and that we should not couch matters of importance in a racial context. We can discuss issues openly and accept differences of opinion sincerely, freely and with understanding. Mr. James Gardner, Rehoboth, Greenwood District, spoke for the motion because our internal arguments make us appear to be negative. Mr. Harry Kent moved the previous question on the motion. The LaBoon substitute was defeated.

KU KLUX KLAN RESOLUTION — The Review Committee concurred with the Resolution on the Resurgence of the Ku Klux Klan. The vote was for approval as it had been amended by the committee.

The Review Committee concurred with the report of the Board of Church and Society's Resolution on Terrorism with the following changes: Delete paragraph 3 and insert the word, "terrorism", in the last paragraph behind the word, "condemn"; so that the last paragraph reads: "Therefore, we call on the South Carolina United Methodist Conference to condemn terrorism and to promote an understanding of the causes and consequences of terrorism and its causes." It was approved as amended.

The Review Committee recommended concurrence with the Resolution on South Africa. The Rev. Frank Portee offered the following amendment to the South Africa resolution: "According to the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church, the apartheid system as practiced in South Africa is legalized racism in its cruelest form.

...the vast majority of blacks in South Africa are struggling to throw off the shackles of apartheid. Apartheid is a system of laws that enforces racial segregation and disenfranchisement. Blacks are required to live in designated areas far away from employment opportunities which keeps black families separated for long periods of time. Blacks in South Africa make up 72% of the population, but they are not allowed to vote or take part in the government. Persons who speak out against the government's policy are often "banned," that is, confined to their homes and forbidden to speak to the press or groups of people. We, the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church recommend immediately that each church join in a World Day of Prayer and Fasting to end unjust rule in South Africa. Our concern is increased by the growing economic and strategic alliance between South Africa and other nuclear powers. Therefore, in an effort to study the issues and determine what action South Carolina United Methodists can take as Christians and as congregations, we recommend: (1) Prayerful consideration of the South African situation as a threat to world peace especially in light of South Africa's nuclear capability. (2) To examine the Harare Declaration as a means of educating the United Methodists about ways in which they can support current ecumenical movements organized by moral concern for the liberation of South African people. Be it resolved that the 1986 South Carolina Annual Conference reject as heresy any attempt to justify apartheid as an expression of Biblical tradition." The Rev. Scott Middleton of the Walterboro District offered an amendment that we reaffirm the 1985 resolution on South Africa with the following amendment: "We will express concern to the General Board of Pensions through our representative to the General Board of Pensions about the policy of investing in companies that support the racist government of South Africa through financial assistance, loans and the sale of supplies that contribute to the oppression of blacks. The Rev. David Lupo noted that we should perfect the original Resolution. Bishop Clark ruled that the Portee substitute was before us. Rev. Delos Corderman spoke against that amendment: "I am not saying that the General Board of Pensions is beyond criticism. The General Board of Pensions has, however, been the engine for the train of corporate responsibility in America since 1978. If a resolution about the investment policies of the Board of Pensions had been made a decade ago, before the Board of Pensions initiated the Committee on Corporate and Fiduciary responsibility and before the Board of Pensions made sure that the Sullivan Principles were not only adopted but implemented, that would be one thing. This is something else. To insert this resolution now is, I think, very unfair and very uninformed. There are three ways that the church is addressing the problem of investments in South Africa: (1) Active shareholder advocacy, (2) Selective divestment and (3) Total divestment. These three approaches were approved in August of 1985 by the general agencies of the United Methodist Church at a consultation for all agencies that receive funds from the General Council on Finance and Administration (the Board of Pensions does not receive CF&A funds but abides by the general Church investment policies). The investment policies of the General Board of Pensions have always complied with the Social Principles. The Board of Pensions was the first church agency to structure itself to be sure that this is done. The General Board of Pensions has been instrumental in having the Sullivan Principles adopted by a growing number of American companies. The Rev. Delos Sullivan began this concern for the corporate conscience of the United States a decade ago. I do not think that we ought to do anything that would impugn the Sullivan Principles or imply that the investment policies of the General Board of Pensions have been anything less than ethical. That simply is not the case." The Rev. W.D. Davis observed that we should pass no resolutions on South Africa unless the survival of churches in South Africa is also addressed. The Middleton amendment was lost on the vote. The Portee amendment was read and defeated. The original Resolution on South Africa was approved.

On the Resolution on Nicaragua, the Review Committee recommended deleting the first paragraph, concurrence with the rest. The Rev. Risher Brabham, who was in Nicaragua in April, spoke for the resolution. The Rev. Paul Cheezem of the Blenheim Circuit offered an amendment to item #3 "...that local church members and ministers write the President and our congressional representatives." And an item #4 "Local church pastors are urged to educate and motivate local church members in this process." The Rev. Washington Kearns spoke against the Cheezem amendment. The Rev. Calvin Harris spoke against the Cheezem amendment. The Cheezem amendment was defeated. The Rev. Carl Harris then made an amendment to change item #2 by adding, "and the Soviet Union" to the end of that sentence, and then strike item number 3 of the resolution. The Rev. Joe Prigden asked to add, "and Contras" to item #2. It was accepted by Rev. Harris. The Rev. Charles Inabinet spoke against the amendment. An unidentified member supported the amendment noting that France supported the American revolution. Mr. Scott Rayner, Greene Street, Columbia, spoke for the original amendment. Mrs. Ann Drake supported the amendment because it reflects the views of the congregation she represents and is healing in nature. The Rev. Phillip Chance spoke against the amendment. The Rev. Randy Smith spoke for maintenance of the three items remaining in the report. The Rev. Clark Jenkins then spoke for the Board. The Harris amendment was lost. Mr. Winston Smith, Zion, Lancaster, proposed an amendment to add an Item 4 or 5 that says: "That we support the Council on Bishops and express our own deep concern over reports indicating serious denial of human freedom and abuses of human rights that are imposed by the Sandinista government as well as by the Contras." The Winston Smith amendment was adopted. The Resolution was then adopted as it had been amended by the review committee as the main motion. The amended report was adopted.

Although the time for adjournment was near, a motion was made to extend the time of the afternoon session to complete the reports of the Board of Church and Society.

John Redmond, for the Committee on Nominations, moved that the Annual Conference reopen consideration of The Standing Rules for the purpose of amending Rule 68. This was done. The Committee on Nominations then moved that we amend Rule 68 so that the Committee on Petitions be considered as "special committee" that is neither quadrennial nor non-quadrennial. This was adopted. The Standing Rules were then adopted as they had been amended.

The review committee concurred with The Resolution on the Display of the Confederate Flag at the Statehouse. Mr Wyatt Minton, Trinity, Camden, asked that the conference not be divided after the vote, no matter which way it goes. The Rev. Joe Alley, The Rev. James Hunter and The Rev. William R. Bouknight, III spoke in behalf of the resolution on the basis of our Biblical heritage, especially the writings of the apostle Paul. Mr. McGee Fralick of Ehrhardt spoke against it. The Rev. Mitchell Ormand was concerned that we regard the confederate flag as a significant issue. Mrs. Harriet Blackwell, St. Luke, Hartsville spoke against it adding that the person to address on this issue is the governor. Mr. Ortho Poole, Suber-Marshall, Columbia, spoke against it. Brabham Amendment: The Rev. A.M. Brabham asked the question, "If I make an amendment which is relatively innocuous, can I make my speech?" The Bishop responded that Robert's Rules of Order says no frivolous amendments can be made. Dr. Brabham added an amendment at the end of the resolution: "We earnestly request the officials of the state be asked to adequately display the flag in a reverent manner for future generations." He then spoke to the amendment for three minutes. Upon the request of the Rev. Fred Reese, the conference voted to extend the time, but point of order was called. Dr. Brabham, however, did not continue. The Rev. Jeannie Saylor asked the question, "Is the statement in the first line of the resolution correct?" It states that the flag of the Confederacy has flown over the South Carolina State House since the Civil War, in light of Mr. Brabham's statement that it had only flown there since 1961. Mr. Risher R. Fairey, a professional historian and lay member from Lyttleton Street, Camden, noted, as a point of information, that the Confederate flag that has flown over the state capital is not the official Confederate flag. The Confederate flag was taken down in 1965 and has not been flown since. The flag that has been flown since the centennial of the Civil War is actually a regimental battle flag and has no business being flown. A regimental or headquarters flag is the proper designation. No official action was taken to correct the historical accuracy of the Resolution. The Brabham amendment was approved. The main resolution, as amended, was approved.

Mr. Winston Smith made the motion that we suspend the session and resume the Report of the Board of Church and Society Thursday morning. The session was adjourned at 5:45 PM.

FOURTH DAY — WEDNESDAY EVENING

June 4, 1986

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women and the Committee on Archives and History led in the Celebration of the 30th Year of Ordination for Women at 7:30 PM. The ordained clergywomen of the Annual Conference participated in the worship service under the direction of The Rev. Ellen Younker and The Rev. Gloria R. Davis. The Rev. and Mrs. Phillip C. Thrailkill and The Rev. Thom Jones performed "Ribs Rebellion." After a solo by The Rev. Debra Quilling and a Litany of Thanksgiving, the stories of women clergy were shared and their gifts and graces celebrated.

FIFTH DAY — THURSDAY MORNING

June 5, 1986

The Rev. Mary Lou Santillian Baert completed the Bible Study and received the thanks of Bishop Clark and the session. After Mr. Wilson Mount led our singing, Bishop Clark expressed appreciation for Mr. Mount and his musical leadership at this conference. The Rev. Chad Davis also expressed appreciation to Mr. Mount, who will be eighty on his next birthday. He then recognized ninety year old Colonel Marion S. Lewis of Bethel Church, Charleston, who has been an Annual Conference lay member for 31 consecutive years. The Rev. Granville Hicks introduced Ms. Donny Mae Jones, the first James L. Belin Scholarship recipient. She shared her story and thanked the session for her educational assistance. Ms. Barbara Boultinghouse, speaking as chairperson of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women and at the request of the clergywomen of the South Carolina Annual Conference, made the following motion: That the Annual Conference establish a Bessie B. Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund, the interest from which would be used to provide financial aid for United Methodist women from South Carolina, who are studying for the ordained ministry at approved United Methodist seminaries; that the fund be administered through the Ministerial Education Fund of the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Conference treasurer, and that an offering be taken at the end of the morning session to start the fund. Ms. Frances Thompkins amended the motion to read: "Seminaries approved by the University Senate of the United Methodist Church." The amendment was approved and the main motion was approved.

The session returned to the Church and Society Report. The Review Committee concurred with Resolutions on Peace and Justice with an editorial change in the date in item (5) to "June 7, 1987" and the addition of "Council of Bishops" rather than "Bishop's" in item (1). Bishop Clark offered time to a lay member who had asked to speak on Monday evening regarding the Bishops' Pastoral Letter. The lay member, however, was not present and did not speak. Lancaster Cluster motion: The Rev. Louis Jamison, cluster leader of the Lancaster Cluster, offered to amend the Board of Church and Society Reports by addition of the following motion: "I move that the Board of Church and Society spend this year in study and come back to Annual Conference 1987 with a program, resolution or recommendation by which we as an annual conference and as local churches can respond to the tremendous amount of television advertisement of alcoholic beverages used for sporting events and other youth oriented activities." The motion was approved.

Phillips motion: The Rev. Gary Phillips then made the following motion: That the Board of Church and Society be directed by this Annual Conference to develop and include in their 1987 Report to Annual Conference a statement doing the following things: 1) Explaining the theological basis on which we base our involvement in social political issues; 2) Delineating several of the Biblical and historical precedents for involvement in social political issues; and 3) Listing several guidelines for the development of future resolutions. It was approved. Raymond Stokes asked for a point of personal privilege, expressed appreciation for the work of the Conference dealing with the Church and Society resolutions yesterday, but expressed the opinion that the Board of Church and Society was selective in its resolutions. There is no resolution on Afghanistan. There is no difference between the sins of capitalism and the sins of communism. The completed reports of the Board of Church and Society were then adopted as a whole.

Bishop Clark then called attention to the report of the Committee on the Annual Conference. This was approved and included the recommendation for the 1987 Annual Conference May 31 - June 4 to be held at Wofford College, Spartanburg, SC. The bishop spoke to this saying that we had changed our session time to conform with public school schedules. Wofford College had changed its summer school schedule to assist the session. The Educational Improvement Act has changed the length of the public school sessions. We cannot ask Wofford College to make any further changes in the summer school schedule, which means that our Annual Conference will meet in 1987 before public schools are closed. This means that public school persons would be unable to attend as conference members. The Annual Conference needs to consider this and wrestle with it to make decisions for the future.

At 10:00 AM the Report of the Episcopacy Committee was given by Dr. McKay Brabham, Jr. Report No. 3, is found on page R-4. The review committee concurs. This was approved by the body. The Review Committee concurred with the Resolution (B-14) to establish an Episcopal Residence Fund. The Report on B-13 which deals with Joint Resolution from the Episcopal Committee and the Task Force for New Congregational Development and Redevelopment was presented. The report on the Congregational Development and Redevelopment was presented by the Rev. Granville Hicks. The budget on page B-13 had a salary adjustment to $36,920.00. $10,000.00 was added for office equipment and furnishings to take the total budget request from $72,882.60 to 84,920.60. Report No. 1, found on Page R-4 was amended by the Episcopal Committee to read, "Funding and staffing of this office shall become effective at the Annual Conference 1987." Dr. Brabham noted that this would reduce the budget request by approximately half or $47,981.30. Additionally, on page R-4, the Committee inserted the words "the term of office not be more than six years maximum." Report Number Three, page R-4 was considered first. Ms. Frances Thompkins reported the concurrence of the Review Committee. The following Report Number 3 of the Committee on the Episcopacy was approved: "The Episcopal Committee will welcome the Bishop assigned by the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference to the Columbia Area in 1988, regardless of gender or ethnic origin." The Joint Resolution of the Episcopal Committee, CF&A and the Annual Conference Board of Trustees found on page B-14 regarding the Episcopal Residence Fund was approved. Dr. Brabham asked that representatives of the Task Force for New Congregational Development and Redevelopment speak to the proposal report found on pages B-16,17. Mr. Harry Kent noted that it would be inappropriate to consider the proposal inasmuch as it included approval of Report Number 1 of the Committee on the Episcopacy. Bishop Clark suggested that chairman of the Episcopal Committee represent Report Number 1 and explain the rationale; then representatives of the Congregational Development group would share their rationale. We would first consider Report Number 1 and then consider subsequent proposals or reports and take things in that order if there are no objections. There being no objections, the suggested order was followed. Report No. 1, found on page B-12 was presented by Mrs. Sara Shingler. The Rev. Granville Hicks presented the report of the Task Force on New Congregational Development and Redevelopment which had been mandated by the 1985 session. Dr. Brabham formally offered the amendments stated above. In response to an inquiry of the Rev. C.J. Lupo, Dr. Brabham stated that the maximum tenure for the area administrative assistant would be not more than six years. This amendment was approved. Ms. Frances Thompkins reported non-concurrence by the Review Committee on Report Number 1. The Review Committee then moved to refer Report Number 1, page B-12, of the Episcopal Committee to the 1987 session for further study. The Rev. James Medley made remarks on the review committee's decision to refer. The Rev. John Stapleton said the motion to refer was a substitute by the Review Committee. Bishop Clark, after discussion by the body, ruled that the referral of Report Number 1 be considered first. Mr. Bill Carr, Williston, spoke against referring the report and in favor of the Task Force Report. The Rev. Harry Mays moved to table Report No. 1 of the Committee on the Episcopacy. The motion to table was not approved. The Rev. Julian Ford spoke in favor of referring and asked Bishop Clark to address the body regarding the job description of the area administrative assistant. Mr. Bennie Richbourg, North Charleston, spoke in favor of referral. The Rev. Larry McCutcheon spoke against referral. Dr. Spencer Rice, Shandon, Columbia, spoke in favor of referral. The Rev. Allen Long opposed referral. Dr. McKay Brabham made the motion that votes on this matter be taken by written ballot. The request for the written ballot was defeated. The motion to refer Report Number 1

10:30 AM. Report Number 1 of the Committee on the Episcopacy was presented for debate and action. The Review Committee recommended non-concurrence. Mr. Claude Simpson, St. Mark, Seneca spoke against non-concurrence and outlined the evolution of a job description for the area administrative assistant. The Rev. James Squires asked for a definition of smaller churches in item #5, which the bishop defined as usually being less than 200 members. An unnamed lay member spoke in favor of non-concurrence. Mr. Marchant Cottingham of Buncombe Street spoke for concurrence and favored leaving the particulars of the job description to the descension of the bishop. Bill Hurbert, Shady Grove, Irmo spoke in favor of non-concurrence of the Review Committee. Rev. Joe Alley spoke against the recommendation of the Review Committee and cited the number of conferences in the Southeastern Jurisdiction (8) with area administrative assistants. John Wingard from Lexington stated that he thought the Review Committee considering the reports did not have enough clear information presented. In response to the inquiry of The Rev. Douglas Bowling, Bishop Clark ruled that defeat of Report Number 1 would, in effect, disapprove the proposal for an administrative assistant found in the Joint Resolution which would no longer be valid. The proposal for a position for congregational development and redevelopment could, however, be considered. Rev. Bowling then moved that we table Report No. 1, Page B-1, until consideration was given to the joint resolution on B-13 and the Task Force Report for Congregational Development and Redevelopment found on pages B-16, 17. The Rev. Paul Cheezem asked if the body could approve Report #2 and disapprove Report #1. Bishop Clark ruled that it could be done. The motion to table was defeated. The Rev. Gene Norris asked if the administrative assistant would have to be a clergyperson. The bishop responded that all the administrative assistants were clergy, but that was not a requirement. Mr. Wyatt Minton moved the previous question. Mr. Harry Kent requested that we vote by written ballot. A written ballot was not approved. The Rev. Steven Morgan asked if we had hired an administrative assistant if Report Number 1 is adopted. Bishop Clark said that an administrative assistant had not been hired, but adoption of the Report Number would authorize an administrative assistant. The Review Committee was supported in non-concurrence. The bishop ruled that the job description in the Joint Resolution was not germane. The reports of the Committee on the Episcopacy as amended were adopted.

Report of the Task Force for Congregational Development and Redevelopment — The Review Committee concurred with the preamble and sections I and II of the Task Force for Congregational Development and Redevelopment on page B-16. The review committee offered an amendment for sections III and IV on page B-16, 17. This amendment was explained by the Rev. Granville Hicks. Mr. Harry Kent, on a point of order, noted that unless Standing Rule 103 is suspended, and a two-thirds vote would be required for adoption of the monetary figures. Task Force Consideration Tabled: The Rev. Mickey Fisher moved to table the amendment to the Task Force for New Congregational Development and Redevelopment until the Report of the Board of Missions on F-7 was considered. This was so ordered.

The Review Committee recommended concurrence with the action plan of the Board of Missions Report and offered amendments (1) amend by addition in Goal 1.2 the phrase "or to form cooperative parishes" so that Goal 1.2 would read: "To provide consultation and funding support for congregations seeking to consolidate with other congregations or to form cooperative parishes to create a stronger base for nurture and witness, (4) new congregations are envisioned through this consolidation process." (2) Amend 1.2e-h by deleting the word "Consolidation" from the title "Church Extension Consolidating Project" so that the title reads: Church Extension Project." The amendments to the report were approved. The Rev. C.J. Lupo proposed an amendment to the Board of Missions Church Extension Policy by addition. The Rev. Fred Reese, secretary of the Board of Missions, spoke to the amendment. Mrs. Clelia Hendrix amended the first sentence of the proposal by adding, in the first paragraph "consideration by" between the words "request" and "the." The Hendrix substitute was approved. Discussion followed on the relationship between the Board of Missions Church Extension Policy and the report of the Task Force for New Congregational Development and Redevelopment. The Rev. C.E. Kanipe asked if the proposal before us eliminated the Coordinating Committee. The Rev. Harlan Wilson observed that the Coordinating Committee was critical. The Rev. Louis Jamison amended the Lupo proposal by addition of section IV. Mr. Fletcher Carter spoke against the Jamison and Lupo amendments and spoke for the report of the Task Force. The Rev. James Hunter spoke for the amendment. The Rev. Tony Gavalas observed that the church extension policy is stronger than the amended Lupo amendment. The Rev. Oscar Smith observed that the Lupo amendment focused the direction and work of the CCOM Director and staff. The Jamison amendment was approved.

Bishop Clark announced the offering for the Bessie Parker Scholarship Fund and then made a personal statement regarding the area administrative assistant. "We have to decide what we want from our bishops and superintendents. We have to decide whether we want desk hounds or persons in the field." The bishop hopes that this matter can be moved from an authority issue to the question: "What do we really want from episcopal leadership and how do we facilitate that? That's the real issue. What do we want the episcopacy and the superintendency to be and how do we facilitate what we really want?" The session adjourned.

FIFTH DAY — THURSDAY AFTERNOON
June 5, 1986

The Conference resumed discussion of the Lupo Amendment. The Rev. Robert Borom asked if the acceptance of the Lupo amendment would abolish the Coordinating Committee for the work in congregational development and redevelopment. The Rev. C.J. Lupo replied that the amendment would not preclude portions of the Task Force recommendations that call for a Coordinating Committee. The Rev. Paul Wood spoke against the Lupo amendment because he was in favor of the Coordinating Committee. The Lupo amendment, as approved and adopted is:

Amendment to Church Extension Policy

"The Annual Conference requests the Administrative Committee of the Conference Council on Ministries to consider instructing the Council Director to:

I. Work with groups responsible for church extension to coordinate efforts, develop priorities, and make recommendations to appropriate decision-making bodies within the conference. This work shall include:

- A. Leading the Conference Board of Missions in developing a plan for organizing new congregations through the year 2000; and,
- B. Assisting districts in securing demographic and other planning data to identify potential sites for new congregations.

II. Work with the Cabinet and appropriate district committees to devise and insure the implementation of a plan for ministry with churches in transitional communities in order to renew, relocate, or close them. This work shall include:

- A. Developing criteria and instruments utilizing church and community trends to identify churches in transitional situations;
- B. Providing training opportunities for the Cabinet, pastors, and lay leadership involved with churches in transitional communities; and,
- C. Mobilizing conference leadership, program, and financial resources to enable revitalization in promising situations.

III. Work with the Cabinet to stimulate local church response to the General Conference mandate to reverse the decline in membership. This work shall include:

- B. Initiating strong evangelization programs through the Sunday School, UMYF, UMW, and UMM for bringing new people into the life of the church.

IV. In the light of all the responsibilities of the CCOM Director that this work be given high priority in their planning of staff work and responsibility.

Rationale: Paragraph 726.1 of the 1984 Discipline says the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries "is responsible for the development and administration of the program of the Annual Conference." The same paragraph in section 7.b(4) says it is the responsibility of the CCOM director "to serve as a resource person for district programs and the Annual Conference Council on Ministries agencies in their planning, implementation, and evaluation process."

The Rev. Don Britt moved that we amend by deleting Item 1.1d, page F-7 of the Church Extension report. The Rev. Susan Henry-Crowe spoke that the action is permissive and does not mandate that 20% of the line item be set aside. The Rev. Tom Williams spoke against the Britt amendment. The Rev. William Kinnett of Lancaster spoke in favor of the Britt amendment. The Britt amendment was not approved. The Church Extension Policy was approved as amended.

The Report of the Task Force for New Congregational Development and Redevelopment was taken off the table. The Hicks amendment was to delete Sections III and IV on pages B-16, 17 and to substitute: "III. The coordinating committee shall be activated immediately (within 30 days) after the adjournment of this session of the Annual Conference.

1. All unused funds allocated for the Task Force set up by the 1985 session will be available to the coordinating committee for the remainder of 1986.
2. The Council on Finance and Administration is requested to fund the coordinating council in the amount of $2,000 for 1987.

IV. The annual Conference will provide $20,000 for research and planning during 1987. These funds will be used to begin the work as outlined in Section II. A comprehensive plan and strategy will be presented at the 1987 Conference."

V. The Coordinating Committee will be responsible to the Conference Council on Ministries.

SUSPEND STANDING RULE 103 -- The Rev. C.A. Graves noted that the Standing Rule 103 would have to be suspended in order to adopt the funding requests in the Hicks amendment. He asked about the source of the $20,000.00 research and planning funds in section IV of the amendment. The Rev. Susan Henry-Crowe moved that we suspend rule No. 103 in order to deal with the Hicks amendment. Rule 103 was suspended. Mr. Fletcher Carter spoke in favor of the Hicks amendment. Additional Lupo Amendment. The Rev. C.J. Lupo amended the Hicks proposal by adding Section V. above making the coordinating committee responsible to the Conference Council on Ministries in response to discussion regarding the questions of the Rev. Fred Reese and Mrs. Clelia Hendrix. Section V. was approved. In response to the inquiry of the Rev. Charles Graves, Bishop Clark stated that the $20,000 in section IV. would be placed under the CCOM budget. It was approved. The Report of the Task Force for New Congregational Development and Redevelopment, as amended, was approved as a whole.

Harry Kent made the motion that we suspend Standing Rule 98 which would limit time of speeches to two minutes and speeches to two for and two against. This was seconded and passed.

Mr. John Redmond reported for the Committee on Nominations. On page D-4 Sewee Board of Directors John Wesley Evans, I, replaces O.J. Nelson and Needham R. Williamson replaces Reginald Thackston. On page D-5, Greenwood Methodist Home: Patricia S. Wood replaces Susan Ulmer. On page D-6, Wofford Board of Trustees, please note that Dr. George Whitaker did not resign (the word is in error) the term expired. On page R-2, Council on Finance and Administration, Quay Adams replaces Bryan Crenshaw. On page R-3, Group Insurance, James Holliday resigned and is replaced by Mrs. Leathra Hodges. On page R-3, Methodist Center Board of Trustees, Bill Jenkins replaces Verdell Barr. The nominees for the Committee on Petitions, added to R-3, are Carolyn Briscoe, Harry Kent, Verdell Barr, Esther Witherspoon, Ted Walters and Sam Johnson. Bishop Clark listed his nominees for the Board of Diaconal Ministry as found on page R-2: James Arant, Mary Jane Reynolds and Linda Gadsden. The name of M. David Arant was removed from the nominees to the Board. The Review Committee concurred with the nominations. The motion by Sinclair Lewis to suspend the Rules and allow additional nominations was defeated. The nominees listed above and those listed in the reports of the appropriate nominators were elected as a whole. Mr. Dan Winchester was elected Lay Leader of the Annual Conference.

CABINET NOMINATIONS -- The Rev. Marshall Meadors made the following cabinet nominations, which by the consent of the session, were elected without reading: District Committees on the District Superintendency, District Committees on Ordained Ministry, District Committees on Church Location and Building, District Boards of Trustees. (See Journal listings.) The Rev. E.H. McDowell requested that the nominees of the District Superintendents be distributed in the registration packet at future sessions of the Annual Conference. The request was made into a motion and was adopted.

HARRIS MOTION ON SEMINARS — The Rev. Calvin Harris made the following motion: "I move that this Conference entertain for study and implementation the idea providing District Seminars under a program developed by the Commission on Race and Religion and Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling to bring together all ministers of the conference for sensitivity and values clarification training. Such that we might begin to know each other in a more real sense of love, respect and appreciation. That a budget be set at $12,000 to implement and facilitate said program." This was seconded. Rouse Motion to Refer: The Rev. Luonne Rouse offered the following referral: "I move that the concern of the Rev. Calvin Harris for the study and implementation of the idea of providing district seminars under a program developed by the Commissions on Race and Religion and the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling be brought to the Bishop's Consultation scheduled for July 1, 1986." This was seconded and adopted.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION OF AREA ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT — The Rev. Stuart R. Smith made the following motion: "I move that this annual conference reconsider for the purpose of referral the matter of the Episcopal Area Assistant, namely, that this matter be referred to the Committee on Episcopacy for their development of a proposed job description, which would clearly insure and demonstrate in specific ways that the Bishop of the Columbia area be enabled to perform those responsibilities which are uniquely his to perform. Further, that this report be returned to the Annual Conference in 1987 for reconsideration at that time. This was seconded. Mr. Wyatt C. Minton moved to suspend the rules and call the question immediately. The Rules were suspended. The motion for reconsideration and referral was defeated.

Mrs. Clelia Hendrix then presented the reports of the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, found on page C-6 and amended as found on page R-4. The amended report was approved. The Review Committee concurred with the resolution on R-4. The report was adopted as amended as a whole. In response to the question of Mr. Wyatt Minton, The Rev. Janice Frederick reported that the Review Committee suggested that information be provided by the Commission about Henry Evans Society, specifically the history, the purpose, and the requirements for membership. The Committee asked that representatives of the committees and commissions be present at the Review Committee meetings. The Rev. Scott Cloninger reported that the Henry Evans Society studies Black Methodist history and specifically recognizes the work of the Rev. Henry Evans, the father of Methodism in the Fayette, North Carolina area. The purpose is to recapture, recall and celebrate Black Methodist history, needs and directions. Rev. Cloninger agreed to report the concern of the Review Committee to the Commission.

Mrs. Hendrix, noted an editorial change on page C-6, in the Report of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women. The date in the next to last paragraph should be changed from September 20 to September 27, 1986. The Review Committee concurred. The report was adopted as a whole.

The report of the Commission on Archives and History, Page D-1, was presented by Mrs. Esther Witherspoon. In paragraph 3, the name of Victor Bilanchone should be substituted for the name of William Mount. Mrs. Witherspoon also made the motion to have the banner that was designed by Mrs. Pierce Cook and made by Mrs. John Featherstone, be adopted as the conference banner and that the banner be housed in the United Methodist Center. Adopted. Mrs. Featherstone stood and was greeted by applause. The report as a whole was adopted.

The Rev. Van Thomas presented the report of The S.C. Advocate Trustees. He recognized the addition of The Rev. Aaron Fryer and The Rev. David Arant to the staff. He called attention to ten national awards won by the Advocate over the last six years and presented a plaque to editor, Maryneal Jones. The three recommendations found in the report, pages D-2, 3 were approved with concurrence by the Review Committee and the session.

The Rev. Gene Mullikin reported for The Committee on the Conference Journal. The Review Committee made the following amendment to the report on Page D-3: "All reports on nominations and resolutions be submitted to the Conference Secretary no later than June 15, 1986." This was approved by the conference. Then there was a motion by the Rev. Edward Giles to reconsider the Conference Journal Report. This was seconded. Mr. Giles gave his reason for reconsideration. The report was not reconsidered.

The Rev. Loune Rouse made the report for The Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling, pages E-4, 5. He recommended that the 1986 Annual Conference commend Dr. Iverson Graham for his nineteen years of service to the Conference. He asked that Bishop Clark write a letter of appreciation to Iverson Graham on behalf of the conference. The Review Committee concurred. In response to the question of The Rev. Edward Giles, only centers approved by the Committee may receive the fee supplement. The reports were approved as a whole.

The Specialized Ministries Section of the reports was presented by Mrs. Clelia Hendrix. The following recommendations were made The Rev. Robert Hall for the Review Committee: "(1) That the Board of Missions review the pattern of funding for these ministries (and Specialized Ministries B) to see if the Columbia area or any other area of the state is receiving a disproportionate share of the funds available. (2) (a.) That the South Carolina Annual Conference develop a policy statement on Cooperative Parish Ministry as a viable option for small membership churches, to be incorporated within the existing system. (b.) That a training program be designed for District Superintendents and pastors for the development of cooperative parish ministries in South Carolina. (The Rev. Clyde A. Anderson, director of the Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Cooperative Parish, explains that the two most important reasons for the existence of cooperative parish ministries are to assist churches in strengthening their program and to help churches survive. A third reason is to help people in need within the communities where the cooperative ministries are located.) Mrs. Clelia Hendrix accepted these recommendations for the Council on Ministries. Editorial corrections were made in the report of the Wallace Family Life Center, page J-2. Strike the word "Women's" in line five of the program listing to read: "Young Adult Group." On line nine strike the number 2,150 to read 215. The Rev. Lillian Washington made the following recommendation from Review Group J: "That all specialized ministries have representatives from the respective agencies in order to provide information regarding their programs so that the Review Committee can make intelligent decisions and learn more about these particular ministries." Mrs. Hendrix agreed to this. The Specialized Ministries reports were adopted as amended and or corrected as a whole.

COLLEGE PLACE RESOLUTION — Review Committee A-2 convener, The Rev. Harry Mays reported: "We commended the Administrative Board of College Place Church for this obvious collective compassionate concern. We would point out that in CF&A Report Number 4, page A-15, in items B.1. and B.7., there are already in place provisions to meet this need in District and Conference (CF&A level." The Review Committee recommended non-concurrence. In response to the question of The Rev. Marshall Meadors, Charles Graves reported that initiative for B.1. is local, the provisions of B.7. are automatic. The Rev. Joe Alley reported that College Place will have to adjust its budget and the Church is reluctant to adjust the budget for local mission needs without the permission of the Annual Conference. Rev. Mays pointed out that average net funds rather than membership impacts apportionments. Dr. McKay Brabham opposed non-concurrence. The Review Committee was not upheld on the vote. The Chair acknowledged that the conference may not have had enough time to prepare themselves to vote, so the vote was declared invalid. Rev. Charles Graves spoke against exceptions and recommended concurrence. The Rev. George Duffie, Jr. asked for the criteria used to define the churches referred to in the College Place Resolution. The Rev. Larry McCutcheon moved that we refer the College Place Resolution to CF&A for consideration. This was done. Point of Order by The Rev. James Hyatt: That we would have to reopen the question since vote had been taken. Bishop Clark responded that the vote had been invalid. Mr. Fletcher Carter spoke for referral. The following resolution was referred to CF&A.

RESOLUTION OF THE COLLEGE PLACE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

WHEREAS, There are numerous United Methodist churches located in engulfed areas and areas of transition are experiencing declines in membership due to these and other factors, and

WHEREAS, Many of these churches have undertaken re-vitalization actions to reverse these trends and

WHEREAS, The apportionments of the South Carolina UMC Annual Conference, based on four year's prior financial reports, have placed a difficult burden on these churches to the extent that as much as one-third of some churches budgets are for apportionments, and

WHEREAS, Although 90-100% of apportionments have been met, these churches have done so at a sacrifice of the dire need of these revitalization programs.
BE IT RESOLVED that the South Carolina UMC Conference of 1986 direct the Council on Finance and Administration to identify these churches through conference records (or upon application of the churches) and provide them relief from or reduction in the apportionment items.

The Rev. Marshall Meadors presented the CHARGE LINES AND CHANGES IN NAMES OF CHURCHES. They were moved to record without reading. (See Business Questions.)

THE REPORT OF THE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

— Dr. Charles A. Graves presented the reports. Report Number 2, A-12. Item #4, area assistant funding of $84,920.00 was eliminated. The total of Report #2 A. was changed to $554,247 or a 3.8% increase. In Report #2 B., the Congregational Development and Redevelopment Coordinating Committee with an amount of $20,000.00 was substituted for the Capital Funds Feasibility Study with an amount of $50,000 (which had been eliminated by conference action.) Subtotals (2) should be amended to read $207,547.00 and Subtotal (a) should be amended to read $329,202, a 6.6% increase in subsection 2.a of section B. of Report Number 2. On page A-13, the total in subsection 2.c was amended to read $750,592 and subsection 2.d. was changed to $792,200. The amended total for Report 2.B. should read $1,770,886. or a 4.4% increase. The Rev. Harry Mays reported concurrence by the Review Committee. Report Number 2 was approved. Report Number 3 was adopted. Report Number 4 was adopted. These adjustments changed the total for the Recommended for 1987 to a total of $12,370,074. The Conference approved Report No. 2, Report No. 3 and Report No. 4. The Rev. Ted Brazil asked for reporting on implementation of item B.1., page A-15. It was reported by Rev. Graves and the District Superintendents that B.1. has not been implemented generally. The adjustment of apportionments within a district may only be done with the approval of the district Board of the Laity. The Rev. Sinclair Lewis reported that he will bring implementation of B.1. to the Greenwood District Board of the Laity in 1986 regarding a church with 4 members. CF&A Report No. 5 was made by Rev. Graves as follows: "In accordance with the Resolution 201 passed by Annual Conference in 1985, Conference approval is requested for the sustentation grant made by CF&A, upon the recommendation of the bishop and the cabinet, to F. Bundy Bynum, Jr. for the period January 1, 1986 through June 18, 1986 in the amount of $4,095.56. Report Number 5 was approved. Report Number 1. was corrected as follows: Item 6, World Service & Conference Benevolences should read $1,770,886 and the Average Net Funds Factor was stated as .060333. Item 14, Administration Fund was corrected to $554,247 with a corrected Average Net Funds Factor of .018883. The total in Report Number 1. was corrected to read $12,370,074, or a 3.9% increase -- perhaps the smallest increase in recent years. Rev. Mays read a statement of commendation from the Review Committee. The CF&A Report was adopted as a whole.

ADOPTION OF ALL REPORTS NOT REQUIRING SPECIFIC ACTION --

All other reports with no recommendations requiring specific action were received and approved by the session.

To implement a rotation system for this Board which was created in 1983, the Nominating Committee has initially assigned terms of office. Dates which are not marked with a star indicate the year of election; it is anticipated that these Trustees will serve an eight (8) year term of office as now permitted by the Standing Rules of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

- B. The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15% ($5,820.75) of the district superintendent's salary for the year 1987 as allocated for parsonage utilities and maintenance, not including maid service and such expenses as paid by the district.
- C. Each District Board of Trustees shall elect a treasurer from the elected trustees of its district. The treasurer of the Board of Trustees shall administer all funds for the District Parsonage, writing all vouchers only for parsonage payments, repairs, insurance and furnishings and not to include utility payments. The moving expenses of an incoming district superintendent may also be paid from the District Parsonage Fund, not to include more than $150 packing expenses. The treasurer shall report to his board all receipts and expenditures of the District Parsonage Fund.
- D. Below are the percentages of average net funds that each church is asked to pay to its respective District Parsonage Fund.

District	Budget for 1986	Recommended for 1987	Average Net Funds Factor

E. The District Administration Fund expenditures for each district shall be as follows:

Office expense	$13,200
Program expense	4,400
Travel in-district	3,000
Travel out-of-district	3,500
Insurance & Pensions	5,850
Continuing education	400
Total	$30,350

Recognizing that different conditions exist in the several districts, the District Committee on Superintendency may adjust the above figures within the total district budget, but in no case may the total district expenditures for any one district exceed $30,350 from the District Administration Fund.

Vouchers for continuing education must be approved by the District Committee on Continuing Education prior to payment. The unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance may be carried forward from year to year during a district superintendent's tenure, but is cancelled in full when a district superintendent leaves the superintendency. It does not carry forward to the new district superintendent. However, by application to the CF&A in advance of leaving the superintendency, the district superintendent may within a reasonable length of time use the unused portion of his Continuing Education allowance to take training which would assist him in his return to the parish ministry. For the year in which there is a move, one-half of the Continuing Education allowance will be available to each superintendent.

Report No. 4

- A. We call attention to the "Special Days" designated by the Book of Discipline and recommend that they be observed with appropriate free-will offerings and that the following special observances be a part of the program of each local church:
- Human Relations Day March 1, 1987
  - Missions in South Carolina February 1, 1987
  - One Great Hour of Sharing March 29, 1987
  - Golden Cross Sunday May 3, 1987
  - Epworth Children's Home
  - Mothers' Day May 10, 1987
  - Work Day September 13, 1987
  - Church school offering first Sunday each month
  - World Communion Sunday October 4, 1987
  - World Order Sunday June 7, 1987
  - United Methodist Student Day December 27, 1987
- B. We offer the following special recommendations:
1. We recommend that the District Superintendents and the District Boards of Laity be allowed to make adjustments in the apportioned salary items (Episcopal Fund, District Superintendents' Salary Fund, Equitable Salary Fund, Pension Fund and Conference Insurance Fund) and in World Service and Conference Benevolences. However, no change in the district totals may be made.
  2. All boards, commissions and committees receiving funds from the conference treasurer shall submit with each voucher adequate supporting data.
  3. Boards, agencies and conference institutions which are allowed to withdraw lump sums from the conference treasurer shall submit an annual audit by a certified public accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration.
  4. It is the recommendation of the Council on Finance and Administration that all boards, commissions and agencies of the conference pay a standard rate of 20¢ a mile when a representative travels on church business. In order to encourage car pooling, we recommend that if a car contains two persons traveling on church business that the mileage rate be increased to 25¢, that if a car contains three persons all traveling on church business the rate be 28¢ and that if a car contains four or more persons all traveling on church business the rate be 30¢.

per mile. We recommend that other expenses of travel on church business be paid; however, the maximum paid to such a person for meals shall be $3.50 for breakfast, $4.50 for lunch and $7.00 for the evening meal. Meal reimbursement will normally equal $15.00 per day.

5. We recommend that all churches pay an amount equal to one-half of the Social Security cost of the pastor or pastors of the charge; and that the church place in its budget an amount of at least $400 per year to be used by the pastor as a continuing education fund, and that if the full amount is not used in a given year, the unused portion be allowed to accrue during the tenure of the pastor, but not to accrue for the benefit of the subsequent pastor. It is also recommended that the health insurance premium be paid by the local church directly to the Office of Ministerial Affairs, even if it is done on a salary reduction basis. If this is done, the amount shall be included in the charge conference worksheet which itemizes salaries and benefits for 1987.
6. The balance held for each board, commission, committee or agency on the books of the conference treasurer shall be carried forward from one year to the next and this shall be taken into consideration in the subsequent budget request.
7. We recommend that "average net funds" as used in the calculation of apportionments shall mean for each church the four-year average of net funds in the years 1982, 1983, 1984 and 1985. When a church has declined for two years in "net funds", the term "average net funds" shall mean the average of the last two years only. Newly organized churches will be treated in the same manner as other churches of the conference. A four-year average of net funds will be used, but for years prior to the organization of the new church, the net funds figure will be zero.
8. The calculation of "net funds" for the current year (1986) shall be lines 35, 36 and 38-41 of Table II.
9. We recommend that the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Camps and Retreat Centers (item 12, Report No. 1) be divided 60% to Asbury Hills Methodist Camp and 40% to Sewee Coastal Retreat Center. We recommend that the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Homes (item 11, Report No. 1) be divided 66.6% to Orangeburg Methodist Home and 33.4% to Greenwood Methodist Home. We recommend that the funds received on the apportionment for Senior College Fund (item 8, Report No. 1) be divided 40.5% to Wofford College, 40.5% to Columbia College and 19% to Claflin College.
10. We recommend that the granting of sabbatical leave by the Annual Conference shall carry with it automatic authorization from the Contingency Fund to provide pension credit and insurance for the person granted the sabbatical, provided there are not funds in the budget of the Board of the Ordained Ministry for this purpose.
11. We recommend that the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to grant amounts up to $7,500 from the Conference contingency Fund to meet any individual emergency or unanticipated needs.
12. The program agencies of the Conference Council on Ministries shall be funded 100% of budget, if needed, by using funds from the Contingency Fund and interest earned from the corpus of the Contingency Fund.
13. No requests shall be made for the service of the Conference Chancellor except by the Episcopal office.
14. Council on Finance and Administration recommends to local churches the new Local Church Insurance Program of the General Council on Finance and Administration. Information on this property and casualty coverage may be obtained from the conference treasurer's office.

Report No. 5.

In accord with the resolution passed by Annual Conference at its session in 1985, Conference approval is requested for the sustentation grant made by CF&A, upon the recommendation of the Bishop and the Cabinet, to F. Bundy Bynum, Jr., for the period January 1, 1986, through June 18, 1986, in the amount of $4,095.56.

THE COMMITTEE TO EVALUATE THE CONFERENCE BUDGET PROCESS

The 1985 Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference authorized Bishop Roy C. Clark to appoint a special task force for the purpose of evaluating the conference budget process.

To serve on this committee the Bishop appointed the following: Dr. Bryan Crenshaw of Greenville, Mr. Joseph Heyward of Florence, Rev. Gary Phillips of Saluda, Mr. Dewey Plunkett of Aiken, Mr. Jerry Richardson of Conway, Rev. Angelin Simmons of Moncks Corner, Mr. Hugo Sims of Orangeburg, Mrs. Jane Snipes of Greenville, and Mr. Richard Strawhorn of Greer. Reverend Harvey Floyd was appointed as Cabinet Representative on the Committee.

The Committee organized on October 29, 1985. Mr. Strawhorn was elected Chairperson, and Dr. Crenshaw was elected Secretary.

On each of four occasions the committee met six or seven hours. The budget process was discussed with the Conference Treasurer, Becky Buie, the President of the Conference Council on Finance and Administration, Charles Graves, and the Chairperson of the Conference Council on Ministries, Clelia Hendrix. We wish to thank each of these officials for their cooperation and assistance.

The members of the committee contacted and received information from a number of other conferences in the United States concerning the budget process of each and the formula used by each in determining the breakdown of conference apportionments among the churches.

Members of the committee studied applicable portions of the Discipline and conference journals, together with other information furnished by various officials.

The committee's findings are as follows:

- (1) The increase in the number of members of the United Methodist Church in South Carolina over a period of ten years from 1974 to 1984 as only 8,017. This represents an increase of only 3.4% over the ten-year period.
- (2) Over the four-year period from 1981-85, total church collections in the conference increased by only 13%, while apportionments from the conference to the churches increased by 39%. What the churches actually paid to the conference during this four-year period increased by 38%.
- (3) Churches as a whole paid to the conference during this four-year period less than 82% of their apportionments, and this resulted in causing each individual church that paid 100% of its apportionments having to pay 22% more than its fair share.
- (4) There was a failure to communicate to the churches, or a failure of church members to understand, the special needs of the conference requiring these increases.
- (5) For the period of five years from 1978 to 1983, the conference increased the annual apportionments to the churches more than 10% each year. During this period the percentage of the annual apportionments paid by the churches to the conference dropped from 87% to 80%. For each of the four years (in the past 10 years) when the increase in the annual conference apportionments were less than 10%, the percentage of the annual apportionment paid to the conference increased.
- (6) The conference apportionments for the year 1975 represented about 18% of the total amount paid by all churches for all purposes, including capital expenditures, benevolences and apportionments. Ten years later conference apportionments represented approximately 24% of all local church expenditures.
- (7) General conference apportionments (which make up about 17% of the South Carolina Conference apportionments) increased over the past five years by 38%.
- (8) The pension fund (which represents about 27% of the conference apportionments) accounted for more than one million dollars of the less than four million dollar increase in conference apportionments over the past five years.
- (9) The insurance fund (which represents about 10% of the conference apportionments) accounted for more than seven hundred thousand dollars of the less than four million dollar increase in conference apportionments over the past five years.
- (10) The Conference Council on Finance and Administration does not have the authority to influence, or does not use its authority to influence the amount of increase of certain line items in the conference budget which account for about 55% of the apportionments to the churches.

- (11) The formula used by the S.C. Conference to determine what part of the conference budget each local church is asked to pay is the percentage of the budget determined by dividing the average net funds of the church by the average net funds of all the churches in the conference. Net funds include all program and operating expenses, and all clergy support. Capital expenses are not a part of net funds. Money paid in previous years on apportionments is not a part of net funds. Average net funds means the average for the previous four reporting years. When a church has declined in net funds for two consecutive years, a two year average is used.
- (12) The formula used in other conferences in the United States varies using net funds, total funds, membership, average attendance, or a combination (such as 75% by net funds formula and 25% by a membership formula).
- (13) Changing to a membership formula in South Carolina would reduce the apportionments to large churches and increase the apportionments to small churches. A total funds formula would increase the apportionments to large churches and reduce the apportionments to small churches.
- (14) In the budgeting process, the present review committee's role is confusing as to its responsibility. Prime reporting and authority for recommendations to the Annual Conference are properly channeled through the Council on Finance and Administration.

The committee makes the following recommendations:

FIRST RECOMMENDATION.

Among the basic causes why the churches of the conference are failing to meet their apportioned part of the conference budget are the following: (a) failure of growth in membership, (b) failure of church members to identify with the apportioned items, and (c) failure of stewardship of possessions by individual members of the local churches.

The conference, the districts, and the individual churches need to put greater emphasis on growth in membership, stewardship of possessions, and communicating to church members, and helping them to understand, the budget process, the needs of the conference, and any unusual circumstances which cause a larger than usual increase in conference apportionments.

The Conference Council on Finance and Administration should provide for the districts and the churches an analysis of each year's apportionments, in easy to understand language, to include increases and decreases in each line item together with an explanation of the reason for those changes.

At the church level, the minister, the lay leader, the conference delegates, and the chairperson of the Finance Committee shoulder the prime responsibility for helping the members of the congregation to understand the budget and the budget process.

SECOND RECOMMENDATION.

Every effort should be made by the annual conference to encourage and give authority to the Conference Council on Finance and Administration to control the conference budget. All agencies and institutions submitting budget requests through the Council on Finance and Administration should provide the Council with a current audit report and management letter prepared by an independent certified public accounting firm. All funding requests to be voted on at annual conference should be submitted to the Council on Finance and Administration so that the request may be considered in connection with other requests in the total budget.

The Council should be more aggressive in attempting to influence all the line items in the Conference Budget (with the exception of the apportionments from the Jurisdictional Conference and the General Conference) so that needed revenues for the total budget will be attainable.

THIRD RECOMMENDATION.

At this time, no change should be made in the formula (based on average net funds) used to apportion the conference budget to the individual churches. As a result of the committee's limited examination of this formula on a selected group of churches in the conference, it appears that this formula is fair to the vast majority of the churches. The Committee does recommend, however, that the Council on Finance and Administration make a continuing study regarding the allocations to all local churches and that the Council recommend to the Conference any changes that a full and complete study indicates. Perhaps a full study might indicate that a provision be added to the formula to the effect that no church would be requested to pay conference apportionments in excess of 30% (or some other percentage) of all funds spent by the church during the previous year. Or, perhaps a full study might indicate that the average net funds formula should be combined with a membership formula in the interest of fairness.

FOURTH RECOMMENDATION.

While the Conference is using average net funds as the formula for apportioning the conference budget to the churches, it is absolutely essential that local church reports to the conference be accurate. Among the problems with reports received from the churches are (1) confusion between capital improvements, and maintenance and repairs, (2) program definition, (3) incomplete reporting, and (4) under reporting. A church's annual report to the conference should be prepared by the pastor and the Finance Committee, and reviewed by an adequate auditing committee.

FIFTH RECOMMENDATION.

With regard to conference apportionments, churches should be encouraged to distribute more evenly their payments through the year, preferably monthly, but at least quarterly.

SIXTH RECOMMENDATION.

The evaluating of the Annual Conference budget process by a separate task force or committee should be done at regular intervals.

Richard P. Strawhorn, Chairperson

COLLEGE PLACE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH RESOLUTION

WHEREAS: There are numerous United Methodist churches located in engulfed areas and areas of transition and are experiencing declines in membership due to these and other factors, and

WHEREAS: Many of these churches have undertaken re-vitalization actions to reverse these trends and

WHEREAS: The apportionments of the South Carolina UMC Annual Conference, based on four year's prior financial reports, have placed a difficult burden on these churches to the extent that as much as one-third of some churches budgets are for apportionments, and,

WHEREAS: Although 90 - 100% of apportionments have been met, these churches have done so at a sacrifice of the dire need of these revitalization programs.

BE IT RESOLVED: that the South Carolina UMC Conference of 1986 direct the Council on Finance and Administration to identify these churches through conference records (or upon application of the churches) and provide them relief from or reduction in the apportionment items.

Passed and submitted to the Conference by the Administrative Board of College Place United Methodist Church

Report Number 1

- A. The Board of Pensions requests that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix $215.00 per service year as the rate for annuity payments to retired ministers, which shall include approved supply time prior to admission into full connection. In the case of Special Conference Claimants, the rate shall be 100% of the rate for full conference members. The Board requests that the annuity rate for a spouse be 75% of the minister's service annuity rate.
1. based on ten years if the approved service years of the spouse are fewer.
  2. for the approved service years of the spouse if the total of approved service is less than fifteen but more than ten years.
  3. for the minister's total years of service if the service years of the spouse are more than fifteen years.
- B. The Board of Pensions requests that an appropriation be made that will give the Board of Pensions (The Pension Fund) $3,376,454.00 for the program of the South Carolina Annual Conference for the fiscal year ending Decembr 31, 1987, and that this sum be apportioned to the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference on the basis established in continuing resolutions.

C. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed, and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the South Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference;

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the years 1985 and 1986 be and is hereby designated as a rental/ housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rule. 710280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

- I. A. We hereby approve any recognized institution of our denomination to which a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference may be given an Episcopal appointment, outside the State of South Carolina, as an institution to which ministers so appointed may receive pension credit, provided that the minister pay his or her institutional assessments in an amount equal to 16.4 percent of the Denominational Average Compensation for the year funded.
- B. Each institution, organization or district to which a minister is appointed with annuity credit shall pay to the South Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions an amount equal to sixteen and four-tenths percent (16.4%) of the Denominational Average Compensation as determined by the General Board of Pensions for the year 1986. Such payments shall be made for each minister so appointed and paid monthly in equal payments each month during the year 1986 or in advance for monthly crediting in twelve equal installments from deposits made in the Deposit Account of the South Carolina Annual Conference with the General Board of Pensions by the treasurer of the South Carolina Annual Conference. In the event that monthly credits to the minister in special appointment's Church Account exceed the funds deposited for the minister in special appointment, and the Deposit Account is overdrawn, an interest charge made at the current monthly rate of interest credited to the STIRA investment program shall be made. This interest payment is due the following month with interest charges on a daily factor until the institutional account of the minister in special appointment is current.
- II. The fiscal year of the Board of Pensions shall be the same as that of the South Carolina Annual Conference.
- III. We recommend that the Annual Conference approve the distribution which the Board of Pensions has made to claimants during the year as set forth in detail in our Report No. 5, Payments to Annuitants and Beneficiaries during the year 1985.

Report Number 3 Major Medical Insurance Benefits

The major medical plan of the Conference Insurance Program provides benefits for reasonable and customary charges incurred by the insured, or a covered dependent, while receiving hospital services, treatments and supplies ordered by a physician. After a $200 annual deductible, the plan provides for payment of 80% of the first $2,000.00 of eligible expenses and 100% of all other eligible expenses over $2,000.00 up to an unlimited maximum.

The coverage for retired participants is reduced to a lifetime maximum of $250,000.00 for the insured and each dependent.

Other details of the major medical expense plan are contained in the guidebook, YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN.

Report Number 4 Medicare Benefits

Medicare is a Federal health insurance plan, administered under the Social Security Act, for the benefit of persons 65 years of age or older. The Medicare Program consists of two parts: (a) hospital insurance, designed to pay for physicians' service and related medical services. Under terms of the Medicare Program, hospital insurance (Part A) is provided for all persons under the plan. The medical insurance (Part B) is an optional feature for which the insured pays a stated monthly premium.

The Conference Insurance Program is so designed that it provides certain benefits which begin at the point where Medicare coverage terminates, and in addition, makes provision for some benefits not covered by Medicare at all. Therefore, it is required that all ministers and/or dependent spouses aged 65 or older shall enroll in Medicare Part A and Part B and, in any event, benefits for enrollants and eligible dependents who have attained age 65 shall be computed as though the enrollant or eligible dependent were enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B.

Inasmuch as the insurance coverage for normally retired ministers and their eligible dependents who have attained age 65 is provided for them by the Conference without cost to the insured, all persons who are or who could be covered by Medicare Part A and Part B shall have their benefits computed by the Benefit Reduction method; and each insured or dependent age 65 or over should be positive that any hospital he/she enters is one which participates in the Medicare program. Our plan does not pay benefits which are or could be paid by Medicare.

Eligible retired enrollants and their eligible dependents as well as participating active enrollants and their eligible dependents who have attained age 65 shall have benefits calculated by the Benefit Reduction approach with the same deductible(s) applicable and the same co-insurance as those enrollants under age 65. This assumes Part A and Part B the same co-insurance as those enrollants under age 65. This assumes that the active age 65 and over enrollant and dependent shall be enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B immediately upon reaching the age of eligibility.

A handbook explaining the provisions of Medicare is available from any district office of the Social Security Administration.

Report Number 5 Administrative Procedures

Billing: The Office of Ministerial Affairs sends a quarterly statement to everyone enrolled in the Conference Insurance Program. Statements are mailed in January, April, July and October. Although statements are mailed quarterly, payments for premiums may be made on monthly basis.

Cancellation of Coverage: It is imperative that each participant in the Conference Insurance Program keep his premium payments current. The Commission on Insurance has instructed the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs to cancel the insurance coverage of any participant who does not pay his premium by the end of the quarter for which he has been billed.

Ministers Serving Special Appointment: For the purpose of proper cost analysis, it is required that all Conference Boards and Agencies, served by ministers and others eligible for insurance, pay for the "institutional share" of the insured's premium. (The "institutional share" for ministers serving churches is paid through the Council on Finance and Administration appropriation directed to the Conference Insurance Program). This provision shall apply to the District Superintendents, those serving Methodist colleges and other Methodist institutions and agencies directly related to the South Carolina Annual Conference and operating under Boards of Trustees, should they elect coverage under the Conference Insurance Program. In every case the full cost of coverage must be paid by the insured, his employer, or through the combined payments of the insured and his employer.

Premium payments: Premium payments shall be made in accordance with the instructions printed on the quarterly "Statement of Account".

Application for Insurance Coverage: Eligibility for enrollment begins with recognition as a probationary member, full-time employment as a local pastor or student local pastor, or as a transfer from another Annual Conference, and so noted in report of the Board of the Ordained Ministry. Enrollment at any other time classifies an applicant as a "late entrant".

Applications for enrollment in the Conference Insurance Program are available from the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs. If not completed and in the hands of the Administrator within 31 days from the date of eligibility, the applicant will be classed as a "late entrant". It will then be necessary for a health statement to be furnished, and in most instances, a physical examination will be required at the expense of the insured.

Claims Procedure: The cost of medical care continues to rise, therefore, the Office of Ministerial Affairs and the carrier audit every claim with great care. Conference Insurance Program participants can render valuable assistance in the claims process by:

1. making certain that they have received all the services for which they are requesting payment.
2. supplying the documentation required to validate their claim.
3. refraining from asking reimbursement for services clearly excluded under the terms of the insurance program.

Claims must be submitted at least quarterly, but not more often than once a month.

The Commission on Group Insurance is charged with oversight of the group insurance program of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the benefits of which program are outlined in the reports of the Commission submitted to and approved by the Annual Conference. The budget of the Commission on Insurance is approved by the Annual Conference and the Commission is authorized to negotiate and contract with carriers to maintain the level of benefits approved by the Annual Conference for the eligible participants as defined by the Annual Conference.

Report Number 6 Coverage for Conference Lay Employees

The Commission on Insurance receives from time to time requests from conference boards and agencies for insurance coverage for lay employees. Accordingly, the Commission has adopted the following policy in this connection:

Conference insurance coverage is available to all employees of the United Methodist Church directly related to the South Carolina Annual Conference and working within the boundaries of the Annual Conference, including fully employed diaconal ministers fulfilling the requirements of Paragraphs 302-315 of the 1980 BOOK OF DISCIPLINE and recommended by the Committee on Diaconal Ministry of the South Carolina Annual Conference, provided the insured and the agency concerned bear their full share of the cost of the insurance.

Coverage under the major medical insurance shall be the same as for all other persons covered, and all provisions governing eligibility for the Conference Insurance Program shall apply.

Life Insurance Coverage for eligible Conference Lay Employees shall be as follows effective January 1, 1981:

- |    |   |                               |   |
|----|---|-------------------------------|---|
| 1. | Less than age 60:                                       | $15,000.00                   |   |
| 2. | Age 60 but less than age 65:                            | $13,000.00                   |   |
| 3. | Age 65 but less than age 70                             | $13,000.00                   | reduced by 8% for each birthday until the 70th. |
| 4. | Age 65 and over for those retiring before June 1, 1975: | $ 4,000.00 (additional)      |   |
| 5. | Age 65 and over for those retiring after June 1, 1975:  | $ 5,000.00 (additional care) |   |

Report Number 7 Coordination of Benefits

The purpose of health care insurance is to help meet actual expenses. In line with that purpose, the Conference Insurance Program contains a non-profit provision which coordinates our plan with other plans under which an individual is covered so that the total benefits available will not exceed 100% of the allowable expenses. Under this plan, if a dependent, employed spouse is covered by another group plan, application for insurance benefits should first be made under the employee's own policy, then application may be made to the Conference Insurance Program for any additional benefit that might be due.

Strict adherence to this policy is essential if we are to maintain good benefits under our program at a reasonable cost. A detailed explanation of the "coordination" provision is contained in YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN.

Report Number 8

The Commission on Insurance makes the following recommendation for action of the 1986 South Carolina Annual Conference.

1. That the Council on Finance and Administration apportion to the churches the sum of $1,248,353.00 for the Conference Insurance Program to be used as follows:

- a. $ 65,055.00 for administration of the program
- b. $1,183,298.00 for the Conference's share of the cost of the insurance program in providing coverage for eligible enrolls of the S.C. Conference
2. That enrollant premium payments for the period beginning January 1, 1987 through June 30, 1987 be set as follows:
  - a. Categories 1-9 of Report Number 1 shall be $75.00 monthly.
  - b. Premiums for retired ministers 65 and over be fully paid by the Annual Conference except in cases where the spouse is under age 65; in which instance the premium shall be $37.50 monthly.
  - c. Premiums for the surviving under age 65 spouse will be $37.50 monthly.
  - d. Premiums for the actuarially retired member under age 65 with dependent shall be $75.00 monthly.
3. Participants in the Conference Insurance Program shall pay their premiums monthly in advance. All coverage shall be subject to cancellation if payments are not made prior to the end of the quarter for which the insured is billed.
4. Every participant in the Conference Insurance Program shall become familiar with the provisions of the program as outlined in the guidebook, YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN, copies of which are available from the Office of Ministerial Affairs, P.O. Box 11284, Columbia, South Carolina 29211.

Report No. 2

RECOMMENDATIONS

Whereas, the Discipline of 1984, paragraph 722, provides for fixing an Equitable Salary System by the Annual Conference, therefore be it resolved: That the South Carolina Annual Conference fix an equitable salaries system according to the following scale to become effective on January 1, 1987, and to continue until changed by this Annual Conference. Salary changes have been based upon seventy-one percent (71%) of the 1986 average salary for Effective Members of the Annual Conference. Other categories are based upon a percentage of the effective ministers calculated figure.

The Commission on Equitable Salaries looking to the future of South Carolina United Methodism recommends the following salary scale which will enable all churches and pastors to easily ascertain the Equitable Salaries schedule:

- A. 1. The total equitable compensation for Effective Members of the Annual Conference will be $19,200.00
2. The total equitable compensation for Probationary Members -- (FULL TIME) -- will be $17,300.00
3. The total equitable compensation for Probationary Members -- (NOT FULL TIME) -- will be $14,400.00
4. The total equitable compensation for Associate Members will be $17,300.00
5. The total equitable compensation for Local Pastors -- (FULL TIME) -- will be $15,350.00
6. The total equitable compensation for Student Local Pastors will be $13,450.00
- B. Longevity Merit Income
A pastor who has served ably for fifteen (15) or more years in full time service, ten (10) of which have been in the South Carolina Conference shall receive $750.00 above the minimum base.
- C. The Annual Conference through its Equitable Salaries Funds shall not pay in excess of thirty-five percent (35%) of the above amounts. The local charge shall be encouraged to pay the other sixty-five percent (65%). Exception will be allowed under the following conditions:
  1. The Administrative Board of the said charge must declare in writing to the District Superintendent that the charge cannot pay the sixty-five percent (65%).
  2. The District Superintendent and the Cabinet must recommend this exception unanimously.
  3. The Cabinet should make an annual evaluation of any charge for which assistance has been granted beyond thirty-five percent (35%).
  4. In no case shall this exception be granted for more than three consecutive years.
- D. If the Bishop and Cabinet find it necessary to make an appointment requiring equitable compensation supplement beyond the regular schedule, it may be granted upon Cabinet request for a term not to exceed three years in any given situation, and Equitable Salaries shall not pay in excess of thirty-five percent (35%) of total compensation in any instance. Assistance will decrease one-third each year over three years, unless superseded by section M.
- E. Cross Racial Appointment
If the Bishop and Cabinet, in making a cross racial appointment, find it necessary to request equitable compensation supplement, special consideration will be given on an individual basis.
- F. Equitable Salary Funds shall be disbursed monthly, and shall be given only to the pastor involved. A semi-annual statement will be sent to the chairperson of the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee.
- G. Social Security
A local charge conference will be allowed to designate part of the salary compensation as social security. This amount shall not exceed 6.15% of the salary paid by the local charge. The amount thus designated by the local charge will not be counted in an equitable salary application.
- H. Travel Supplement
  - (1) The Annual Conference provides a travel supplement through the Equitable Salary Fund for pastors of churches/charges faced with inequitable transportation costs due to the geographic spread of the parish or the distance of the parish from hospitals and other institutions requiring frequent visits by their pastor.
  - (2) Pastors shall qualify for the travel supplement when:
    - a. The Charge pays the Equitable Salary Apportionment in full for the previous year.
    - b. The pastor receives salary from the Equitable Salary Fund.
    - c. The pastor lives in the parsonage or in other housing within the parish boundaries.
    - d. The pastor resides more than 20 miles from the hospitals most often used by parish members and/or 30% of the parish families reside more than 10 miles from the parsonage.
  - (3) The travel supplement program shall be administered as follows:
    - a. Travel supplements shall be disbursed by voucher on the basis of actual miles in excess of 4,000 quarterly or 16,000 annually driven in performance of pastoral responsibilities up to a limit of 20,000 miles. (4,000 to be covered by supplement.)

- b. The mileage rate shall be that approved by Annual Conference for Boards and Agencies.
- c. Clergy couples shall not be compensated for extra travel for commuting between their parishes.

I. Continuing Education

The Commission shall provide the difference between what the local charge pays and seventy percent (70%) of the Conference recommendation.

1. This money shall be provided for Effective Members and Associate Members of the Annual Conference and for Full-Time Local Pastors who have completed the courses of study.

2. This money shall be vouchered on a reimbursement basis.

J. The District Superintendent shall recommend the adjusted amounts which must be approved by the Commission on Equitable Salaries before payment can be made. This recommendation from the District Superintendent shall be accompanied by a form provided by the Equitable Salaries Commission and completed by the pastor, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the District Superintendent indicating income from all sources. If the pastor does not return the signed application, no equitable salary supplement will be paid.

K. Six years is the normal number of years that a charge may receive equitable salary assistance. To receive equitable salary assistance beyond six years there must be a re-evaluation of the charge by the Cabinet and the Equitable Salaries Commission.

L. The Equitable Salaries Commission recommends that all money given to the minister for housing by the charge he/she serves be considered income if the minister is not a resident in the charge which he/she serves.

M. The Equitable Salaries Commission recommends that no equitable salary supplement be granted that would increase the total minister's salary to a figure more than thirty percent (30%) above the minister's appropriate category.

N. Cooperative Parish Ministries

Directors or Coordinators of Cooperative Parish ministries which have been approved by the Board of Missions, and application made by the District Superintendent to the Commission on Equitable Salaries by January 1 preceding the appointment in June of the same year may be eligible for funds not to exceed $7,000. No pastor shall be eligible to receive funds unless the charge he/she serves agrees in writing to release him/her for these added duties. Assistance will decrease by twenty-five percent (25%) each year over four (4) years of the initial request, unless superseded by section M.

O. Missional Situations

Missional Situations are when areas — rural, inner city, transitional or engulfed neighborhoods, or areas where new churches are organized, demand an effective ministry but are not capable of providing such ministries without equitable salary assistance. To be eligible for assistance the appropriate committee of the Board of Missions must verify that it is indeed a missional situation. Assistance will decrease by twenty-five percent (25%) each year over four (4) years of the initial request, with an annual review, unless superseded by section M.

EQUITABLE SALARIES FOR NEWLY SET-UP WORK

Notes: 1. In all cases where a new work is being considered, the District Superintendents shall notify the Commission on Equitable Salaries by January 1 preceding the Annual Conference session that the work is to be effected; providing the projected cost to the Equitable Salaries Commission.

Notes: 2. This schedule applies to pastors who are in probationary or effective conference relationship and who have had a minimum of four (4) full years of service prior to this appointment.

1st Year: Note: First full year of church's organization. The Equitable Salary may be according to the pastor's category.

Special Note: The District Superintendent may apply to the Church

Extension Section of the Board of Missions for a salary that is more in keeping with the amount received by this pastor in his previous appointment.

2nd Year: The grant depends on amount received first year. At the beginning of the second year, the newly established church must assume one-fourth of the pastor's salary.

3rd Year: The grant for the third year depends on amount received second year. At the beginning of the third year, the newly established church must assume one-half of the pastor's salary.

4th Year: The grant for the fourth year depends upon the amount received the third year. At the beginning of the fourth year, the newly established church must assume three-fourths of the pastor's salary.

Notes: 1. Except where the administrators of this salary schedule feel an extreme case of hardship exists, no salary funds will be granted to a church after the fourth full year.

Notes: 2. A "new Church" may be interpreted to mean an "engulfed" situation or a relocation project, if it is determined to be a church extension responsibility by the Church Extension Section of the Board of Missions. The District Superintendent must provide a substantiating statement from the Conference Board of Missions that the engulfed situation is in reality an engulfed situation.

Notes: 3. The local church shares of this salary schedule is interpreted to mean — all sources of income from the local church.

Notes: 4. These figures are minimum and any amount of funds from any source in any guise added to these figures will be subtracted from the Conference support given.

Notes: 5. In all cases where a newly set-up work is attached to an existing charge, these become charge figures.

Notes: 6. The moving expenses for pastors assigned to newly set up congregations will be paid by equitable salaries.

P. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that the South Carolina Conference designate fifteen percent (15%) (or actual expenses) of monies funded by this commission as parsonage allowance. This request is made to satisfy the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service.

Q. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that all funds held in "reserve" be invested.

R. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that the equitable salaries for effective members of the Conference (under 15 years) be indexed to the average salary package which includes salary, amount designated for utilities, travel, and amount designated for Social Security of all effective members of the Conference during 1986; and we recommend that it be indexed at seventy-one percent (71%) of the Annual Conference salary of the preceding year and that the resulting number be rounded to the nearest $50.00.

S. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that an interpretation of its task and policy procedures be given as a part of the District Pastor Staff Parish Relations Committee Workshops. It is further recommended that this interpretation be done by a member of the Commission upon invitation by the District Superintendent.

T. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that the following not be eligible for equitable salary support:

1. Retired supplies

2. Part-time local pastors

3. Pastors on leave of absence except as provided in continuing Resolution 201

4. Pastors not living within the bounds of his/her parish or who are not giving full time service to that charge, except:

a. Students pursuing ministerial credentials.

b. Pastors serving charges that provide no parsonages

c. A member of a clergy couple living with his or her spouse in one of the parsonages provided.

5. Special appointments categories A, B, C as defined in Para. 443 of the 1984 Discipline: "Various special appointments within the itinerancy of the United Methodist Church."
- U. In accordance with decision No. 492, the Judicial Council, a minister or member in good standing of the annual conference who is left without an appointment be entitled to full minimum salary and that this provision be subject to a six year limit.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

Report No. 1

The Episcopal Committee met August 24, 1985 and January 4, 1986 following the last Annual Conference. Its next scheduled meeting is May 10, 1986 at 10:00 A.M. at the Methodist Center.

The Committee is mindful of its responsibilities as specified in paragraph 734, the 1984 Discipline, and welcomes the advice and counsel of members of the Conference and its Boards and Agencies.

For the second successive quadrennium, the Episcopal Committee has sought ways to address the Administrative burden of the Episcopal office, in the hope that our bishop may be able to function to the maximum of his effectiveness as our chief shepherd and pastor within the bounds of the South Carolina Conference, officially known as "The Columbia Area".

Following the election of the present committee, the members decided that a sub-committee should be appointed which would make an analysis of the duties to be performed by an "Area Assistant".

In the event that the Annual Conference should decide to establish such an office, the following was seen as a legitimate basis for doing so.

AMENDMENT TO EPISCOPAL COMMITTEE REPORT NO. 1

The Episcopal Committee moves to amend its Report No. 1 by adding:

"Funding and Staffing of this office will become effective at Annual Conference, 1987."

Job Analysis for Administrative Area Assistant

1. The Administrative assistant (hereafter referred to as "AA") shall be appointed by and responsible to the bishop.
2. The AA may be delegated by the Bishop to represent him/her upon a variety of Conference, Denominational, Ecumenical or other occasions.
3. The AA shall undertake to answer correspondence to the Bishop's office which does not require the Bishop's personal attention, and shall keep up correspondence relative to sickness and/or death in ministers' families.
4. The AA, at the Bishop's request, shall convene certain meetings related to the functions of the Bishop's office.
5. The AA, at the direction of the Bishop, shall undertake to solve problems and develop communication and understanding where individual churches of the Annual Conference are concerned, with particular emphasis on the smaller churches.
6. The AA shall preach/speak throughout the Area upon invitation, serving as a personal representative of the Bishop's office to carry greetings and gratitude to local congregations.
7. The AA shall sit with the Cabinet at all sessions except appointment-making sessions and thus acquire intimate understanding of Annual Conference problems and program in order that he/she may serve as an interpreter of these problems and programs for the Bishop when he/she is called upon to appear. This relationship to the Cabinet in all its sessions will be in strict accordance with all Disciplinary provisions, and he/she will not vote on issues before the Cabinet for decision. He/she will serve as advisor to the Cabinet.
8. The AA, at the direction of the Bishop, shall have responsibility for the correlation and coordination of designated business details related to the Bishop's office.
9. The AA, at the direction of the Bishop, shall serve as official host for the Area when the occasion requires.
10. The AA shall assist the Bishop in the discharge of duties and responsibilities in all other appropriate and acceptable ways.
11. The AA shall care for administrative details assigned to him/her in order to free the Bishop for a closer and continuing contact with laypersons and ministers of the Conference.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

FROM

THE EPISCOPAL COMMITTEE

AND THE TASK FORCE

FOR NEW CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND REDEVELOPMENT

RESOLVED: THAT the South Carolina Conference approves the Report No. 1 from the Episcopal Committee and the Report from the Task Force for New Congregational Development and Redevelopment entitled "A Proposal for Developing and Implementing a Strategy for New Congregational Development and Congregational Redevelopment within the South Carolina Annual Conference" subject to the following conditions:

- (1) The Area Assistant and the Director for New Congregational Development and Redevelopment shall be the same person.
- (2) The Budget outlined in Report No. 1 of the Episcopal Committee, when approved by the Council on Finance and Administration, shall be the joint budget providing for the functions of both positions.
- (3) The allocation of time of the Area Assistant/Director for Congregational Development and Redevelopment shall be in accord with the provisions of the final paragraph of Section III of the Task Force Report, which says: "The portion of time the Area Assistant spends as Director of New Congregational Development and Congregational Redevelopment shall be determined by the Bishop in consultation with the New Congregational Development and Congregational Redevelopment Coordinating Committee and the Episcopacy Committee."

Report No. 2

A Joint Resolution to the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church from the Episcopal Committee and the Episcopal Housing Committee.

The 1984 Discipline, paragraphs 735 and 927, directs each Episcopal Area to provide a residence for the Bishop of that area, and establishes the procedure for the Episcopal Residency Committee to follow in so doing.

Since we have observed that the housing needs of our various episcopal leaders have differed considerably during the last 25 years, it appears that the purchase of a residence should, if possible correspond to the needs of each individual episcopal family. In the judgement of these committees, the purchase of a residence should await the assignment of a new bishop in 1988, in order to determine whether a house or an apartment would be the most suitable.

Following the conclusion of his/her period of service with us, if the Annual Conference and Episcopal Housing Committee of that day are agreed, a similar procedure could be followed when the new bishop is assigned — that is, the property which we purchase in 1988 could be sold if so desired and a new residence purchased in keeping with the needs at that time.

In order to accomplish this goal, a permanent Episcopal Housing Fund is needed by the Conference to assure funds for purchase and maintenance as these needs arise. We therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

RESOLUTION

RESOLVED, (1) that the Conference Treasurer be directed to establish an Episcopal Residence Fund to be held in reserve until such time as it may be needed to purchase an Episcopal residence in accord with paragraphs 735 and 927 of the 1984 Discipline.

RESOLVED, (2) the principle and interest payments received on the loan from this time forward from Bishop Roy Clark shall be deposited in this fund.

RESOLVED, (3) the Council on Finance and Administration be directed to include in the Annual Budget an amount sufficient to supplement the Housing Allowance which will be received from the Episcopal Fund in order to meet the payments and provide for upkeep and insurance on the Episcopal Residence following its purchase by the Episcopal Housing Committee.

A. McKay Brabham, Jr., Chairperson Episcopal Committee, and The Episcopal Housing Committee
Charles A. Graves, Chairperson

The S.C. Conference

Report No. 3

The Episcopal Committee will welcome the Bishop assigned by the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference to the Columbia Area in 1988, regardless of gender or ethnic origin.

THE COMMITTEE ON DEACONESSES AND HOME MISSIONARIES

The committee is responsible for informing and educating South Carolina United Methodists of the role, responsibilities, and service opportunities for Deaconesses and Home Missionaries. Recruitment of United Methodists interested in becoming Deaconesses and Home Missionaries is a basic duty of the Committee, along with maintaining a continuing relationship with both active and retired Deaconesses and Home Missionaries, within the South Carolina Conference.

During 1985 the Committee addressed the above stated responsibility in the following ways:

- Completed a slide/tape presentation showing S. C. Deaconesses and Home Missionaries and their work.
- Provided interpreters for mission saturation events as well as speakers for other local and beyond-the-local church activities.
- Set up a booth at the 1985 annual conference providing history and current information about Deaconesses and Home Missionaries.
- Hosted a luncheon for active and retired Deaconesses and Home Missionaries of the South Carolina Conference. Luncheon was a simple meal with the additional money going to a hunger mission project.

- Continued efforts to establish a structured working relationship with other agencies of the conference, such as the Committee on Career Planning and Counseling, Wesley Foundations, and UMYF groups, for the purpose of securing additional opportunities to tell the Deaconess and Home Missionary story.

The Committee projects the following activities, events and programs during 1986:

- Extend participation in mission saturation events, and to seek other opportunities for speakers and other presentations.
- Explore with other agencies the possibility of conducting within the annual conference a Christian Vocations Conference.
- Continue the luncheon at annual conference with the possibility of selling tickets for a simple meal with the additional money going for hunger.
- Providing information and interpretation of Deaconesses and Home Missionaries during annual conference.

The Committee on Deaconess and Home Missionary Service appreciates the opportunities to educate, enlist and serve the members of the South Carolina Conference and the United Methodist Church as a whole.

THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

The diaconal ministry is recognized by The United Methodist Church as a called-out and set-apart ministry of those who personify the servanthood to which all Christians are called.

The Board of Diaconal Ministry was created in 1976 by the General Conference, among other things, to be responsible for certification of professional workers in the United Methodist Church, to interpret diaconal ministry in the Annual Conference, and to recommend to the Annual Conference candidates for consecration as diaconal ministers. It is also charged with the responsibility for recertification and placement of professional employees of the Church.

The S.C. Board of Diaconal Ministry strives to promote the visibility of the diaconal ministry by placing a display at Annual Conference which highlights the work of local diaconal ministers. The Board also distributes brochures which describe the role of the diaconal minister in S.C. with step-by-step instructions for entrance into diaconal ministry.

The Board continues to strive for implementation of its 1980 recommendations to the Annual Conference regarding adequate base salaries, travel and housing allowances, an insurance program, a pension plan, and other employee benefits commensurate with the diaconal minister's training, ability, and experience.

We thank Bishop Clark and others who continue to be supportive of this Board as it carries out its responsibilities.

Parker Evatt, Chairperson

THE COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES

For Report of the Committee on Standing Rules see SECTION IX this JOURNAL.

THE TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST CENTER

The Board of Trustees has responded to several requests to improve office space, outdoor beautification and community projects.

The Conference Treasurer's office was renovated in early May, 1985. Computer section was relocated and private office was built for Conference Treasurer.

Concrete picnic table and benches were placed outdoors for use by Center personnel. In addition, a sidewalk was built in front of the Center to connect with existing street sidewalks.

Contract has been approved with City Engineer to install additional drainage systems to improve a water run-off problem.

Our major concern is a continual heating air conditioning problem. The original contractors have been contacted for further testing and re-evaluation of the system.

Verdell Barr was elected Vice-Chairperson of the Board of Trustees to replace the late Rev. Eugene McCants.

We commend Mrs. Becky Buie, business manager of the Methodist Center, for outstanding service.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE*ASBURY CHURCH — GREENWOOD

The church was discontinued in 1964. The property was sold October 1985 for the amount of $1,900.00. This amount has been placed in the Conference Board of Trustee's Account.

ST. PHILLIPS CHURCH

The attorney has made the Deed transferring the property to the new owner. The property was sold for $1,000.00 and the funds were placed in the Wesley Foundation Account by the Conference Board of Trustees.

WESLEY CHAPEL CHURCH — INMAN

The church discontinued service on January 5, 1985 because of low membership and financial obligations. There are two parcels of property. A cemetery with 1.83 acres, located two or three miles South of Inman, and a one room church building on a large lot of land, in the town of Inman.

The Board of Trustees are recommending that the church and lot be sold and the cemetery be maintained by the church given watchcare of the property.

RUFF'S CHAPEL — RIDGEWAY

This is simply an update of what has taken place since the Annual Conference 1985.

1. A charter from the secretary of the state is being made to charter the Ruff's Chapel Cemetery Association.
2. About $2,500.00 has been raised to start renovation.
3. A plan for repairs/renovation has been made.
4. The change in Deeds should be taking place soon.
5. The $601.00 will be paid as agreed. (See page 125, Conference Journal)

BEULAH CHURCH — ABBEVILLE AND ANDERSON COUNTIES

On Thursday, June 6, 1985, the 1985 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference approved the sale of this property. This property contained two and one-half acres, for $2,500 and the buyer to pay for survey and legal costs. However, this property cannot be located. There are no land markers or corner pins, no tax records in the courthouse and two deeds that lead to no where.

Therefore, the recommendation of the Conference Board of Trustees is that this property be written off, and the Conference Board of Trustees place this information in an inactive file for future references, if any. (See page 125, 1985 Conference Journal.)

WESLEY CHURCH

The Board, at the request of the Florence District officials, recommends that Wesley Church, discontinued by the Annual Conference in 1977, be placed under the trusteeship of the Mount Zion Charge of Kingstree.

This property consists of a decaying church building and a cemetery on two acres of land. It is located on Highway 377 in Williamsburg County, about 8 miles southeast of Kingstree. The Mt. Zion Charge conference is authorized to remove the decaying building and to maintain and develop the remaining land as a cemetery.

TABERNACLE CEMETERY

Your Board recommends that Tabernacle Cemetery, located several miles east of Lynchburg, S.C., be deeded to the non-profit legally chartered Tabernacle Cemetery Association. The Tabernacle Church has been discontinued and dismantled for several generations. The original property deed shows two acres of land. It was donated by the father of the late U.S. Senator Ed (Cotton Ed) Smith. A well planned and maintained cemetery covers much of the land. The Association intends to develop the entire tract of land as a community cemetery.

*The South Carolina Conference Board of Trustees are setting up a permanent filing system to keep the information for both active and inactive church properties. This information/form will be used to aid us in reporting annually. Filing will be kept with the Conference Treasurer's office.

DISCONTINUING A LOCAL CHURCH

For reason beyond the control of denominational offices, it becomes necessary to discontinue mission and ministry in a local church. The Book of Discipline in Paragraphs 2546 and 2548 recognizes this painful fact by spelling out the church-law-steps on how this should be done.

Since 1982 the Conference Board of Trustees has led in researching what the current status is of churches discontinued from the late 1780's until 1985. The current count of such sites is more than two hundred-thirty. The Board has evidence to believe that discontinuation is one way the Methodist family loses members. We suggest several things of a personal nature, not included in the Discipline, which may be used when a church is closed.

1. Let there be no surprises. Talk openly for several months in sensitive care with the remaining members and families. This is a traumatic experience for people whose church is being discontinued.
2. If property and membership are to be placed under an adjoining charge conference, bring Methodist Men, United Methodist Women and Youth as well as elected officers in that charge into a friendship and cultivate relationship with those who are losing their church.
3. Officers from the closing church should be invited to be officers in the congregation with whom they will be placed.
4. Should some remaining member prefer not to be placed with the officially chosen congregation, have persons from another church reach out to them.
5. The receiving charge conference should begin immediately to make provisions for the care of abandoned property - especially cemeteries.
6. Record all church closings, not just in Conference Journals, but in the central file of abandoned churches in the Conference Treasurer's Office.

THE COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The three major functions of the Annual Conference Commission on Archives and History briefly stated are (1) assisting the Annual Conference constituency to appreciate the general importance of history especially as it relates to our denomination; (2) serving the Annual Conference in the preservation of the Annual Conference history, and (3) assisting local churches in appreciating and preserving their history.

During 1985, your Conference Commission placed major emphasis on the appreciation aspect of our functions as we continued to celebrate the Bicentennial of Methodism. History night at Annual Conference 1985 drew applause due largely to the historical address given by Mrs. Eulalia Cook Gonzales, a retired missionary, and the presence of Dr. Charles Yrigoyet, Jr., our General Secretary of the National Commission on Archives and History, who spoke briefly.

Inspiring music for the celebration was under the direction of Dr. Victor Bilanchone, and the parade of banners by different conference organizations added color to the occasion co-sponsored by The Commission on Worship.

The historical program for 1986 will be given by the Commission on the Status and Role of Women along with the clergywomen of the conference as they celebrate thirty years of ordination. In 1987, we will have another significant reason to rejoice as we celebrate the Bicentennial of Methodism in South Carolina.

In the preservation of the Annual Conference history, we continue to solicit material for the Clafin and Wofford archives. Mrs. Louisa Robinson is currently serving as archivist at Clafin and progress is being made there in the organization of materials. Mr. Herbert Hucks, Jr. was presented a plaque during the 1985 historical night program in appreciation for his many years spent as archivist at Wofford. Dr. A.V. Huff, distinguished history professor at Furman University and also author of the recent book "A South Carolina History of Methodism" is now a member of our Commission.

The Commission offers such aid as can be rendered to local churches as requested. During the past year, four churches have sought status as historical sites.

We are pleased to have the new Guidelines for Local Church Historians now included in the Council on Ministries series. "This guide is about your local congregation, its life and work as the body of Christ and the way you and others may use your gifts in Christ's mission," according to the editors.

Hopefully, each district in the conference will include this section of the guidelines when holding the next job function workshop. Every local church, that has not done so, is requested to begin a local history as a project of our South Carolina Bicentennial year.

Esther K. Witherspoon, Chairperson

THE COMMITTEE ON THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Committee on the Annual Conference met on September 5th and November 26th, 1985. Because the 1985 Standing Rules differ from the requirements of Paragraph 704.2, the members of the Committee elected by the Annual Conference were joined by the members prescribed in Paragraph 704.2. Twenty-nine members were present at the September meeting, and twenty-five members were present at the November meeting.

The Committee was organized with Bishop Clark as chairperson, The Rev. Marshall L. Meadors, Jr. as vice-chairperson, The Rev. Delos Corderman as secretary. The remaining three members of the Executive Committee shall be: The Rev. Ellen Younker, Chairperson of the Commission on Worship, Mrs. Ethel Manning and Mr. Manson Smith. The executive committee was authorized to conduct necessary business regarding the annual conference session between meetings of the entire Committee.

Bishop Clark set the date of the 1986 session, June 1-5, 1986. The Committee reviewed arrangements for the session and received suggestions for improvements in review committee settings. The number of available large meeting areas is limited, however. The Committee set the agenda, as far as possible, approved the theme for the Monday evening, June 2nd, event: In Defense of Creation: The Nuclear Crisis and a Just Peace, and set the theme for the special evening event on June 4th: Celebration of the 30th Year of the Ordination of Women. Mr. Wilson Mount was invited to be the song leader for the informal worship Wednesday evening, June 4th, and also to lead hymns during the sessions in Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Center.

Bishop Marjorie Matthews will be invited to be the ordination preacher. The Rev. Mary Lou Santilian Baert was selected as the leader of the Bible study during the session. The Rev. Angelin Jones-Simmons was selected as the preacher for the Memorial Service on Tuesday morning, June 3rd. The Committee also prepared a list of leaders for the Bible studies for future sessions of the Annual Conference.

The Committee also requested accountability regarding goals and progress in the quadrennial Missional Priority in applicable reports to the session.

A sub-committee composed of Ethel Manning, Sara Shingler, Dan Winchester, Harry Kent and Bob Bailey was appointed by Bishop Clark to determine the person(s) to give the State of the Laity address at the session.

Wofford College, Spartanburg, SC was chosen as the site of the 1987 session, May 31 - June 4, 1987.

Roy C. Clark, Chairperson

COMMITTEE ON THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

We succeeded! At the last session of the Annual Conference, we made a commitment to publish the 1985 JOURNAL and to have it in the hands of our constituency no later than October 1, 1985. This deadline was met, and we are grateful for the cooperation of our Conference Secretary, the Reverend Delos Corderman, as well as the entire staff of Print Media Services, our publishers and distributors. After being tardy for so many years, this — for us — was a notable achievement.

We are especially proud of the Book of Remembrance that was published for the first time this past year. The decision has been made to continue to publish this section of the JOURNAL separately, for the families of the deceased. It was well received by them and certainly cuts down on the size and cost of the JOURNAL.

The contract for the 1986 JOURNAL has been awarded to Print Media Services. The bid for same includes the following:

Pre-Conference Journal	2500 copies	$ 7,418.04*
Registration Packet	2500 copies	$ 1,130.75
1986 JOURNAL	2500 copies	$23,287.62*

*includes cost of postage and mailing

Print Media Services, an agency of the South Carolina Conference Council on Ministries, has served us well and we are glad for the opportunity of depending upon this office once more.

The 1986 JOURNAL is designed with several helpful and, we believe, practical changes. Advertising rates will remain the same. Only three recommendations are presented for action by the Annual Conference:

- 1) that future editions of the JOURNAL not include the Fund Analysis which was published for the first time in the 1985 edition; this information is already included in the Pre Conference Journal and does not need to be repeated;
- 2) that all future editions of the JOURNAL include an alphabetical listing of the ministers of the Conference with their service records.
- 3) that all reports on nominations and resolutions be submitted to the Conference Secretary no later than June 15, 1986.

The recommendations are based on the desire of the Committee to lessen publication cost as well as the size of the JOURNAL.

The budget request to the Council on Finance and Administration for the 1987 JOURNAL is set at $60,000.00 with the understanding that $10,000.00 of this amount is for reducing the deficit which has accrued over some difficult years in the recent past. It is also understood that any surplus funds derived from advertising fees will be applied to this deficit.

The Committee on the Conference Journal expresses deep appreciation to all upon whom we greatly depend as we strive to fulfill this vital responsibility. We believe we have finally succeeded in setting a new pace in meeting our publication deadlines as well as reducing our deficit situation. This is a pace that we intend to keep.

Know that we are open to constructive criticism and helpful suggestions. We want to serve you faithfully.

Samuel K. Harmon, Chairperson
M. Eugene Mullikin, Secretary

South Carolina Conference 1984 - 1985

The year of 1984 was quite a historic one for U.M.W. in the S.C. Conference. The mandate calling for inclusiveness was evident in many and varied ways. U.M. Women have been involved in Knowing, Doing and Being.

KNOWING

Our Knowing was fortified through our intense training. N.O.T.E. was held in New York. Our Core planning with conference presidents, district officer training day with a KEDE followed by all districts with the same fairs, our regional School of Missions, our Conference School of Christian Missions, our two quadrennial events - legislative skills and our financial workshops were also held. Many of these you will be hearing about along with our district projects for three years, "Share the Vision -- Say Yes". . . Yes, we believe to know is to do.

DOING

Our paramount task is Missions. Approximately one-third of the income to the Board of Global Ministries comes from us. We have converted our 1984 goals into biennial goals for 1984-85 so that we can further implement what we started in such a noble manner last year.

The program of Christian Personhood gathered 1,577 women for the Spiritual Life Enrichment held at Lake Junaluska during the month of May. Such a gathering and responsibility caused us to select a special person to chair this committee as a special segment of our work.

The area of Christian Social Involvement sponsored a political workshop in November. A dramatic presentation was given at the School of Christian Mission highlighting the "Care of God's Earth." Members participated in seminars on peacemaking and education.

Supportive Community involved Native Americans in some of the activities of the Christian School of Mission. One thousand, two hundred and twenty five dollars was realized from the craft sales.

The following were achieved through Christian Global Concerns:

collected from each member, $1.00 to be contributed to the Wallace Family Life Center promoted the Appalachian Development Committee with a representative to groups throughout the conference; used New World Outlook and materials on United Methodist Committee on Relief; made kits for the migrants in Rural Missions, Inc.

Other projects initiated to achieve the goals were:

World Federation Day held on November 10;

Observance of World Day of Prayer by local units

Call to Prayer and Self Denial in groups

BEING

The real you who are willing and able to gain knowledge and then perform tasks as outlined for you also are creative enough to establish the work that it may be motivation for others to come and do likewise. Is the future approached or does it just sweep upon us? This determines whether that future can be looked at joyfully or fearfully. Depending on the past, our position today is clearly outlined...so we can now tiptoe into readiness. Indeed, we are predecessors of the future. What will it be? What will it be? Please send in slides of your activity.

THE BOARD OF LAITY

This was a year of change for our Board. A great deal of effort and time was spent working with the Study Committee approved by the 1984 Annual Conference to study the Board of Laity and the Conference Lay Leader election process. This committee was chaired by the Honorable James Harrison. The committee conducted a very complete, thorough and impartial study of the Board of Laity. In many ways, it was a time of sharing and learning — give and take — as life is. The recommendations of the committee were approved by the 1985 Annual Conference.

The Board has worked very hard to implement the recommendations of Annual Conference. I am pleased to report that the Board is reorganized and it is functioning well. Many new lay persons are serving on the Board. As authorized, three divisions of work make up the new Board: Stewardship; Lay Life and Work; and, Age Level and Family Ministries. Training sessions have been held to familiarize all of us with our new duties. One work area is new to our Board, that of Age Level and Family Ministries. This division is working very hard to become knowledgeable and helpful to our churches and districts. Some of this work has been a responsibility of the Board of Education. Dr. Ralph Cannon and their Board have been most helpful and cooperative in this new work. We are most grateful for their help.

Change, challenge and learning characterized our work in 1985. But our work is just beginning. The Board of Laity is more representative and inclusive. I'm pleased that we can say it is a New Board of Laity.

J. Dan Winchester, Conference Lay Leader

Report No. 2

In January and early February, Job Function Workshops were held in five districts to train local church leaders how to more effectively do their job.

Three stewardship workshops were held as a follow up to the 1984 Year of Stewardship. In February, one hundred seventy-five persons attended a Spartanburg District Stewardship workshop with leadership provided by Bill Miller of the General Board of Discipleship and Fletcher Carter of CCOM. On Saturday, September 14, Norma Gaskill of the General Board of Discipleship, led a Workshop on Stewardship for Children at Columbia. The following day, the Florence-Hartsville Districts provided seven hundred persons a workshop led by Kenneth Callahan, Norma Gaskill, Becky Buie, Fletcher Carter, Jim Gadsden and Clelia Hendrix in the stewardship area.

Training for Instructors of District Lay Speaking Schools was held in Columbia on March 29-30. Thirty-seven persons completed the training. The following courses were offered: Lay Speaking — The Basic Course; The Lay Speaker Cares for Others; The Lay Speaker as Peacemaker; and The Lay Speaker Communicates His Faith.

Cluster Group Leaders were trained and given Pre-Conference material on April 28 in Columbia. Seventy-eight persons (78) participated.

More than fifteen hundred (1,500) persons attended the Laity Convocation at Lake Junaluska on August 9-11, 1985. Speakers were the Reverend Dr. Wallace Chappell, Bishop Roy C. Clark, the Reverend Dr. Karen Collier, and Mr. J.C. Hipp. Workshops and leaders were: The Spoken Word — Wallace Chappell; United Methodist Curriculum — Karen Collier; Ministry of the Laity — Evelyn Burry; A Program of Caring — Elizabeth Norrell; Outreach Ministry — James Gadsden; Church Revitalization — Fletcher Carter; Wills and Special Gifts — Elaine Jenkins; Women's Work — Ethel Manning; Men's Work — Harry Kent; and Youth Ministry for Youth — June Willson.

The Board of Laity continues to supply names of speakers to local churches for programs for United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, Older Adults and others.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Report No. 1

At this quadrennial mid-point the Conference Council on Ministries continues to work toward the objectives and goals set by Annual Conference. With the appointment a year ago of James S. Gadsden as Council Director and Susan Henry-Crowe as Associate Director for Outreach Ministries, new skills and insights were added to the good organizational structure already in place. Mr. Fletcher Carter continues to serve as Associate Director of Nurture. In September Barbara Stoops joined the staff part-time, adding a new dimension in Communication.

Two special studies, mandated by the 1985 Program Evaluation and Planning Committee, were concluded on schedule and approved at the December Council meeting with recommendations to Annual Conference. Dr. William M. Epps chaired the study on Conference Homes for the Aging and Reverend Thomas Bowman chaired the study on Conference Camps and Retreat Centers. Both committees researched faithfully through descriptive materials, on-site visits, interviews and surveys to meet the stringent time-line.

A third study, requested by the Conference Council on Ministries, was made of the needs of South Carolina's children. The report suggested advocacy and program for the Annual Conference and local churches.

Other major accomplishments of the year included the following:

- a momentous Missional Priority Festival
- two new sites added to the Salkehatchie Project
- over 400 youths attended a winter retreat
- more local churches reaching out in mission
- hundreds trained through educational events to give effective service
- a new Communications Committee organized
- and - as this report is being written, new brochures herald the "Bishop's Convocation on Making Disciples."

These and other programs and events are indicative of the many hours of qualitative, sacrificial service rendered by hundreds of United Methodists who comprise boards, agencies and committees that bring life to Conference programs. Our only critical concern is the lack of increase in our World Service and Conference Benevolence giving.

We are indebted to the capable members of Council and of dedicated staff for their servanthood. As we serve God and humankind through the channels of our connectional church, we feel appreciation for challenge, see growth in inclusiveness and experience empowerment in unity.

CONTINUED PROGRESS TOWARD OUR VISION

The five (5) objectives adopted for the 1985-88 quadrennium include: 1. To Enable us to Understand, Affirm and Live Out Our United Methodist Heritage; 2. To Engage in Continuing Intentional Evangelization; 3. To Engage in Intentional Strategies to Achieve More Equitable Sharing by the Black Constituency in the Conference; 4. To Gain for the Church the Benefits of the Changing Role of Women; 5. To Strengthen Our Witness for God's Kingdom in the Social Order.

A number of indicators suggest that we are well on our way toward reaching the objectives.

History and Heritage. Continued awareness and appreciation are expressed by many districts and local churches through services of worship emphasizing history and heritage.

Evangelism. We are continuing our emphasis on evangelism and church growth. Interest was heightened by the Bishop's Convocation on Making Disciples. More than a thousand (1,000) persons, both lay and clergy from nearly every church in the conference responded. We must work to offset the loss of membership experienced in past years.

Black Involvement in the Conference. We are seeing more involvement by blacks in the boards, commissions, agencies and committees of the Annual Conference. We continue to work for a strong black presence, voice, and participation. In addition, we have a growing Korean Constituency with the organization of two congregations (one in Charleston and the other in Columbia). Also, we must find ways to minister to the Native Americans in our state. Presently, we do not have a Native American congregation belonging to the conference, although two (2) churches are located in South Carolina, but belong to the North Carolina Conference.

Women Leadership and Participation. More and more, we are benefitting from the new leadership and participation of women in this conference. In addition to serving as Chairpersons of Councils, Boards, Committees and Staff, we salute the first woman District Superintendent in the SEJ and take pride in the fact that she is one of us.

Kingdom. Individuals and churches from the mountains to the sea have participated in outreach ministries in 1985. $172,364.94 was given to UMCOR for African Hunger Relief and the Mexican Earthquake. $91,864.55 was contributed to Hungrief of which $19,464.90 remained for use in South Carolina and $23,022.72 was contributed to Church Extension Partnership to assist Small Membership Churches struggling to improve their facilities. Other outreach ministries both near and far have been enhanced by our commitment, dedication and compassion. For all these we are grateful to God and to the community of the faithful.

STUDY REPORT SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST HOMES FOR THE AGING INTRODUCTION

The Program Evaluation and Planning Committee of the South Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church recommended to the Conference Council on Ministries (CCOM) on March 16, 1985, the following:

That CCOM make a study of Conference homes serving the aging including the purpose, vision, short-term and long-term financial needs, projected cost to the Annual Conference, and the Annual Conference obligation to the homes.

Further, that the study be completed in time to be submitted to the members of CCOM at least one week prior to the December 1985 meeting. CCOM approved the recommendation and established an ad hoc committee or task force to accomplish the desired task.

Process Used

The committee met six times:

June 25 — The Methodist Center
July 26 — The Methodist Center
August 7 — Central Church in Florence and The Methodist Home in Orangeburg
August 25 — Greenwood Methodist Home
October 21 — The Methodist Center
November 15 — The Methodist Center

Several additional work sessions were held by selected members to prepare drafts for review by the entire committee.

SUMMARY

The Committee members were unanimous in their feeling of pride over the many favorable aspects of administration and services offered to the senior citizens of South Carolina by the United Methodist Homes. The Administrators were most cooperative in providing materials needed for study by the Committee. They also gave their time for on-site visitations and were open and frank in answering questions of the Committee. Excellent meals were provided at Orangeburg and Greenwood.

Both of the established homes are financially sound. Loans have all been repaid promptly. Buildings are in good shape and buildings and grounds are properly maintained. Neither Home plans any additional requests to the Conference for funds except for those funds used to aid in the support of low income residents. Personnel at the homes are well trained and are paid salaries comparable to those for similar positions in their area. Personnel turnover has been negligible. They provide most of the services needed by the residents. Both Homes are well planned and well managed and present an appearance of which the Conference can justly be proud. Line item funds are used to assist residents who cannot pay fully for their support. Both Homes have adequate land for planned development. They both have well prepared literature to provide information to residents and to people in the state. Both encourage visits to the Homes and both will provide speakers to local churches throughout the state.

Pee Dee Manor at Florence was approved by the Annual Conference in 1983. A Board of Trustees has been elected, a gift of land adequate for anticipated future needs has been received, a feasibility study has been completed, and plans for construction have been developed. Construction is planned to be done in three phases. The request to Conference for a capital funds campaign was tabled in 1985.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The South Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church should be proud of its beautiful, efficient, and well-managed homes for the aging. In an effort to improve still further the services offered to the elderly by the Annual Conference in South Carolina the following recommendations are made:

1. That the CCOM encourage congregations to establish programs designed to meet the needs of the elderly within their own homes and communities so that instead of moving to an institution, they may continue to live at home and still enjoy a good quality of life in familiar surroundings.
2. That the Conference Board of Health and Welfare ministries work with the existing Homes in the development and promotion of local church programs for the elderly.
3. That the existing Homes and any Homes established in the future consider the possibility of operating under a South Carolina Advisory Council of United Methodist Homes, making it possible for the Homes to work together and still maintain their identity and autonomy. The details of organization, duties, and responsibilities of this Council could be worked out by the Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries assisted by the existing homes.
4. That the Homes be encouraged to tell their own stories effectively and aggressively. An annual public relations program should be coordinated through the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries.
5. That CCOM designate proper authority for maintaining complete historical data on the origin and administration of Methodist facilities in South Carolina to accommodate the needs of the elderly. This record should include all dates and descriptions of financial campaigns, construction, administration, financial operations and services.
6. That currently existing and proposed United Methodist Homes should manage their own financial capital funds campaigns in the future.
7. That by 1988 a thorough statewide feasibility study be made by the Annual Conference on needs for the elderly before approving additional locations for United Methodist Homes.
8. That the Annual Conference continue to undergird its ministry to the elderly through the line item for the Methodist Homes which shall be used only to assist residents who have problems paying established rates.
9. That CCOM in cooperation with the feasibility study committee recommend procedures for establishing new homes to be approved by the Annual Conference.

STUDY REPORT ON SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST CAMPS AND RETREAT CENTERS

INTRODUCTION

On March 16, 1985, the Program Evaluation and Planning Committee (PEP) recommended to the Conference Council on Ministries (CCOM) that "a long-term study be made by CCOM to include the philosophy, needs and future of the camps and retreat centers with two (2) separate budgets and visions by December 1985 with completion time to fit a schedule whereby findings can be mailed to CCOM members prior to the December 1985 CCOM meeting for discussion at that time."

The recommendation was approved and the following persons appointed to the task force:

Rev. Thomas Bowman, Chair
Rev. Herbert Fogle, Secretary
Rev. Mike Alexander
Rev. Lloyd Hatton
Dr. James Nates
Rev. Angelin Simmons
Rev. Susan Ulmer
Mr. Richard Wilhite
Mr. Hal Willson
Mr. James R. Wright
Rev. Susan Henry Crowe, ex-officio
Dr. Clelia Hendrix, ex-officio
Dr. James Gadsden, ex-officio

Six meetings of the entire committee were held plus sub-committee work sessions and conferences. On-site visits were made to Asbury Hills and Sewee Retreat Center. Interviews were held with Mr. Wesley Voigt, director of Asbury Hills and Mr. Wayne Lineberger, director of Sewee Retreat Center. Rev. E.H. McDowell, Sr., Chair of Asbury Hills Board of Directors, was in attendance for the Asbury Hills on-site visit; and Mrs. June Willson represented the Sewee Board of Directors for the Sewee on-site visit.

Research included descriptive materials shared by directors of selected camps and retreat centers in the Southeastern Jurisdiction, Annual Conference Journal reports, minutes of CCOM meetings, and requested data shared by the directors of both camping properties.

PROJECTION

Projecting where we hope to be 10 years from now:

Our ultimate goal for the Asbury Hills United Methodist Camp and Sewee Coastal Retreat Center is that they become self-supporting with a minimum amount of financial assistance from the Annual Conference. A substantial amount of any Annual Conference support should be directed toward programming and scholarships for needy and underprivileged participants. Programming must be related to the vision and missional goals of the Annual Conference.

Asbury Hill's facilities should be able to accommodate a variety of groups, experiences and activities. For example, different age levels, summer and winter activities and accessibility for persons with handicapping conditions. Presently at Asbury Hills, it appears that the kitchen and dining areas are adequate for the projected use. The bath house, cabins, and trails will need upgrading. Voluntary missional groups should be used to assist with property upkeep and new building projects.

Staffing an institution can be a problem for any group. The camp should have a minimum number of persons on staff with opportunities for churches and groups to provide their own resource persons and program activities. If the facilities are adequate, several groups can enjoy the camp simultaneously. This arrangement would minimize staff costs and provide a wide variety of creative programs.

Special effort should be made to intentionally integrate the staff and seek more participation from ethnic minority constituency in the conference.

A positive program of interpretation and promotion should be implemented to improve the image and increase constituency involvement in programs and activities of the camp. Annual Goals should be set for minimum camp usage for a period and an intentional public relations campaign instituted to increase participation to a maximum. Councils of volunteers organized statewide could facilitate this endeavor.

Sewee Retreat Center

We offer three alternative pictures, either of which may evolve within the next few years:

1. If gifts from supporters are forthcoming in the next two years in sufficient amounts to challenge a statewide groundswell of contributions, we can envision the razing of the present structures and the construction of a permanent, suitable retreat center built by an appropriate plan to accommodate a variety of groups, experiences and activities. The Board of Directors is challenged to lead the search for a minimum of $10,000,000 to make this dream come true.

2. If a philanthropist or a developer can be found who will purchase the property, build a retreat center (in cooperation with the Sewee Board of Directors); and if the purchaser would rent or make available the facility for seminars, conferences and retreats with first refusal for usage given to the S.C. United Methodist groups; then we can envision a viable coastal retreat center to accommodate a variety of groups, experiences and activities.
3. If by June 1987 neither of the above alternatives appears possible for development of the Sewee property into a viable retreat center in which the United Methodist Church can take pride, we envision the South Carolina Annual Conference re-assessing its commitment made in 1983 and divesting itself of this property according to Recommendation #9 of this study.

Recommendations

- (1) That the Annual Conference reaffirm its commitment as stated in Standing Rule #3 of the 1985 Conference JOURNAL to establish a unified Board of Camps and Retreats by 1988; and that the two present Boards begin immediately to proceed toward attaining that goal.
- (2) That the Boards of Asbury Hills and Sewee increase cooperative planning with other boards and agencies of CCOM (such as in training events) in working toward achieving the goals and objectives of the Annual Conference.
- (3) That the Boards of Directors of Camps and Retreat Centers be related to the CCOM through the Board of Education, in order to provide an opportunity to strengthen programming and provide checks and balances.
- (4) That the Board of Directors of Camps and Retreat Centers address the following specific concerns in written operational policies:
  - a Administrative costs as related to CCOM guidelines
  - b Decreasing funds expected from the conference line item
  - c Employment Policies
  - d Use of volunteers
  - e Internal and external public relations
  - f Scholarships for underprivileged and handicapped children and youth
- (5) That the Board of Sewee Retreat Center initiate and maintain dialogue with The James L. Belin Board of Trustees in a cooperative effort to fulfill the missional goals of the Annual Conference in keeping with the original intent of the 1981 Annual Conference approving the establishment of a Coastal Retreat Center.
- (6) That the two Boards of Directors of Asbury Hills and Sewee Coastal Retreat Center continue their efforts to raise funds for buildings and improvements from various sources including the South Carolina Annual Conference but with greatest emphasis upon the private sector, supportive church groups, and interested individuals.
- (7) That a broad-based advisory committee of United Methodists, appointed by the Board of Directors, make annual visits to the camp and retreat centers, recommend improvements, and assist the Boards of Directors with public relations activities throughout the Annual Conference.
- (8) That no funds be expended on building at Sewee until a long range plan is adopted by CCOM.
- (9) That if Sewee Retreat Center cannot be developed properly by the Annual Conference, that the property be sold and proceeds used to strengthen the camping and retreat programs of the Conference as directed by the Conference Council on Ministries.
- (10) That in the future a feasibility study be made by CCOM before the Conference takes definitive action toward establishment of other camps and retreat centers.

POSSIBLE FUNDING FOR OUTREACH MINISTRIES

In the fall of 1985 an Ad Hoc Committee, recognizing the needs expressed by several institutions and outreach ministries, began talking about the need for a possible Capital Fund Campaign for outreach ministries. The idea was brought to the December meeting of the Conference Council on Ministries and a committee was formed to pursue the idea.

At the request of the committee for possible help from Finance and Field Service of the National Division, Board of Global Ministries, the Reverend Pete Barber, Director, agreed to meet with the committee at his own expense, to hear the concerns. He came and brought along a consultant who had worked closely with Finance and Field Services on other projects. They listened to the idea and concerns of the committee. Several questions were asked by them which the committee could not readily answer, so it was agreed that the only course of action would be to present to the 1986 session of the Annual Conference a proposal to begin a process to determine whether the conference would support a funding campaign for outreach ministries. The proposal with budget request has been before CFA.

A PROPOSAL TO BEGIN A FEASIBILITY STUDY OF A POSSIBLE CAPITAL FUND CAMPAIGN FOR OUTREACH MINISTRIES

It has been suggested that there is a need for financial support for a variety of programs which of themselves would probably not be able to generate a conference-wide financial campaign; even if they could, there are some of us who feel that the possibility of a combined campaign should be studied. In perfect timing with this, the Office of Finance and Field Service, National Division, General Board of Global Ministries, is developing a Capital Funds Planning Process Manual for Annual Conferences. We are in a position to buy into this program as part of its development.

Basically, in outline form, the program operates as follows:

- a. The Conference Plans Council collects data from all available sources to determine needs - what we must do, what we should do, and what we could do.
- b. A draft of this information is passed down to the churches.
- c. District meetings begin to pass reactions back to Conference Plans Council.
- d. Input is studied and a revised draft is shared with conference.
- e. A feasibility study begins to determine how much of needs might be met.
- f. Finally a document is produced which is carried to the Annual Conference for a yes or no answer.

We are looking at a year-long study, with a vote to come in 1987.

The vision stated here expects input from all areas of the conference as to needs and desires, and a close study of the potential for extra-mile giving by our membership.

REPORT NO. 2

Proposed Objectives and Goals for 1988

In prayerful pursuit of the vision

That the United Methodist Church in South Carolina respond to God in mission: proclaiming the Word, nurturing the faithful, and ministering to the world

We reaffirm the quadrennial objectives adopted in 1984 and propose goals for 1988 as listed below.

Goals statements describe specific, measurable steps to be taken to reach objectives. Thus, they generally contain percentages or numbers. Most of the percentages and numbers in the goal statements below refer to the 1,083 churches and 12 districts in the conference. Some relate to the 46 counties in S.C. and to data from the 1983 S.C. Statistical Abstract of the State Budget and Control Board.

1. Objective: To enable us to understand, affirm, and live out our United Methodist Heritage
  - Goal 1.1 To form Accountable Discipleship groups in 30% of the churches.
  - 1.2 To increase by 20% the number of churches using Cokesbury's Bible study resources.

- 1.3 To develop a "statement of understanding" with each conference institution regarding its mission as it relates to the mission of the churches and the conference, including present and future levels of financial support by the conference.
- 1.4 To engage 60 churches in an in-depth exploration and appropriation of disciplined spiritual exercises, evangelical outreach, solidarity with the poor, and ministries to the world as "our parish."
- 1.5 To aid new churches and churches in changing communities in exploring styles of ministry embracing racial inclusiveness.
- 1.6 To develop indepth stewardship programs in all churches, to more fully appropriate all the human resource potential of stewardship as a style of life; to include a greater understanding of and foster a better sense of ownership in the Conference budget.

2. Objective: To Engage in Intentional Evangelization.

- Goal 2.1 To increase Sunday Church School enrollment and attendance by 5%, church membership and average attendance at worship by 2%.
- 2.2 To continue to establish effective lay calling programs in every district.
- 2.3 To organize 150 new adult church school classes.
- 2.4 To enroll 80% of our churches in a local church Sunday School promotion campaign.
- 2.5 To implement practical training models for strengthening broadly-graded and non-graded Sunday Schools.
- 2.6 To expand in all churches the family life development program including all age-level groups with specific emphasis on Youth and Singles ministries.
- 2.7 To provide care structures sustaining pastors in covenantal ministry.
- 2.8 To establish new congregations in communities where projections indicate a population sufficient to support a vital church and among missional constituencies and including 2 churches in counties presently without a black UMC.
- 2.9 To review all congregations with regard to their growth and missional potential and vitality.
- 2.10 To resource existing congregations in terms of leadership, funds, and program development to help them realize their potential for mission and outreach.
- 2.11 To encourage innovative forms of mission including cooperative parishes and community outreach programs, etc.
- 2.12 To develop ministries with teenage parents.

3. Objective: To Achieve More Equitable Sharing by the Black Constituency in Annual Conference.

- Goal 3.1 To implement fully the Missional Priority on Strengthening the Ethnic Minority Local Church for witness and mission.

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, on behalf of the colleges and campus ministry units, is grateful for the support given by the United Methodist churches in South Carolina.

For the 1985-86 academic year merit scholarships of $500.00 were awarded to two students from the Conference who were attending United Methodist Colleges: one at Emory University and the other at Columbia College. For 1986-87, at least two $500.00 scholarships will be made available through the United Methodist Student Day Offering.

The Board has continued to utilize the high school directory to aid our colleges in recruiting United Methodist students. Annually, pastors are asked to up-date a form giving names and addresses of rising high school juniors. A computer printout is shared with Claflin College, Columbia College, Spartanburg Methodist College, and Wofford College; and the colleges make contact with the students. Currently, 5,000+ students' names are listed. The benefit of the listing to our United Methodist Colleges is evident through its repeated utilization over the last six years. Our goal is to increase the percentage of responses received from pastors, only 31% for the current year.

During July 1985 a black female student from Arkansas visited in the Conference to interpret and promote the Black College Fund. She attended a parent-student-staff luncheon at the Clemson Wesley Foundation, met with two small groups of pastors and laypersons in the Anderson District, talked individually with 6-8 other ministers, met with a group of clergy and laity in the Columbia District, and spent two days at Youth Annual Conference where she made a brief presentation and met informally with several small groups.

For 1985 our churches paid $700,752.11 (58.3%) of the $1,201,615.00 asking for the Senior College Fund. While this represents a small percentage increase over 1984, the monetary gain is significantly less than for any year in the recent past.

Our four full-time and six part-time Campus Ministers have continued making visits to local churches to interpret their programs and to provide for local parishioners a clearer view of the United Methodist presence and witness on our college campuses.

For 1985 our churches paid $175,138.26 (70.1%) of the asking ($250,000). While this represents a 3.5% increase over 1984, real income from churches was less than for 1984 because of a reduction in the apportionment for 1985.

The Board is committed to insure that our United Methodist students continue to feel the presence of the church on our college campuses. Because campus ministry is solely dependent on funds received from churches to provide salaries, building and operation budgets, and program budgets, we must realize an increase in funds if present programs are to be continued. In addition, we must assess the need for the extension of programs to other college campuses.

The Board is indebted to all pastors and laypersons who have given their support to Higher Education and Campus Ministry. Please read the college and campus ministry reports which follow and carefully consider inviting one of their representatives to your parish that others may hear their story.

Carolyn Briscoe, Chairperson

CLAFLIN COLLEGE

The 1985-86 academic year has been a very good year for Claflin College, and we continue to appreciate the support of our work by United Methodist of South Carolina and the nation. We are grateful for support through the Senior College Fund and the Black College Fund. The latter recognizing Claflin as a missional priority by the general church. She is a special mission college in our family of 123 United Methodist Colleges located across America. She serves students from deprived circumstances, students who otherwise in all likelihood would not have received a college education. The following report to the 1986 session of the South Carolina Conference summarizes some major activities and highlights of the year:

Academic Affairs

The academic life of the college is in its initial phase of new growth and new directions, the heart of which is an intensive effort to improve the performance of our students on standardized examinations. Implicit in this effort is a concomitant attempt to alter and improve instructional models.

For the second consecutive year enrollment increased at Claflin. The fall of 1985 witnessed the enrollment of 760 students, a 17% increase over 1984. Of this population 268 were men and 492 were women. The freshmen class consisted of 290 students. It is anticipated that 125 seniors will be graduated at the next commencement compared to 75 last May. The successful increases are due to the diligent labors and support of our pastors, layworkers, alumni, trustees and friends.

The faculty was upgraded with the addition of a distinguished United Negro College Fund journalism professor and two Woodrow Wilson Fellows.

Claflin believes in the centrality of liberal arts in her curricula. Course offerings remain adequate with expansion in the sciences and business administration. Internships in business increased, and cooperative education became more viable. However, enrollment in religion and philosophy steadily decline.

Student Affairs

The chief focus of administration during the year was the quality of student life. Some 300 students had to share living quarters built to adequately accommodate 200. Funds were expended to make critical repairs, and furnishings were replaced. With funds from the Black College Fund the central heating plant was overhauled. A federal energy loan has been awarded the college to replace 250 windows in residential halls.

Extra-curricular activities were improved with the fielding of a men's basketball team with a full-time coach, and the women's softball and volleyball teams. The weekly "Power Hour" remains a campus highlight. Vesper Services were held monthly, and each Monday a campus wide assembly took place.

The choir toured the state and the east coast, and the college band appeared in numerous parades.

The college's honors program was revitalized through extended participation of honor societies. The four fraternities and four sororities stressed honors and services. In two instances standards for membership were raised. Many of these happenings have been placed on video for public distribution.

Finance and Development

The Endowment Campaign brought $450,000 of new funds to the college, and for the first time in her history, the endowment exceeds $1,000,000. Moreover, the college erased a long-standing cumulative deficit, and at the same time geared up for a major Capital Campaign.

Faculty and staff development remains a major thrust at Claflin. Through much study, learning and hardwork along with continued support of the annual and general conferences, the future of Claflin appears bright.

Oscar A. Rogers, Jr., President

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

The 1985-86 Academic year has continued an encouraging period of growth, record enrollments and strengthened academic programs at Columbia College. With this report to the 1986 session of the South Carolina Conference comes our deep gratitude for the many ways that the Conference has assisted in the ongoing mission of providing private church-related higher education for women.

This year, our enrollment has remained steady at a capacity of nearly 1200 students. By the Trustees' action of putting a cap on enrollment, we have been able to raise admissions standards and have been experiencing a modest but significant increase in freshman SAT scores over the past two years. A newly-established honors program is now in progress with the first course, in history. An English course will be added in 1986-87. The "Center of Excellence" grant, awarded by the South Carolina Commission for 1984-85, has been extended for 1985-86.

We have been especially appreciative of visits to the campus by Dr. Thomas Trotter and Dr. Julius Scott, General Secretary and Associate General Secretary of the Board of Higher Education and Ministry of the United Methodist Church. Dr. Trotter addressed the faculty and staff at an opening fall workshop, and Dr. Scott spoke at the opening Convocation. Both met with students, faculty and staff, and we were pleased by their favorable comments, as reported in the Advocate in October. We were also grateful for a State newspaper editorial in strong support of the college and the service that it continues to render to the community and state.

Through a second grant from the National Methodist Foundation, Catherine Eaker of our Speech and Drama Department, has written and produced a sequel to the successful bicentennial drama, "Susanna's Daughters," which toured to over thirty of our churches last year. The new play, "Susanna," focuses upon Mrs. Wesley herself and is now prepared to travel for church programs. The College has also provided our United Methodist Churches with numerous speakers, musical groups and special programs, including a series of breakfasts and luncheons for ministers in several districts.

This year, Columbia College has been working closely with other South Carolina private colleges in urging our State Legislature to increase tuition grants appropriations and to encourage prospective students and their parents to find out about these grants and other forms of scholarships and financial resources available to them to enable them to attend our United Methodist colleges. This will continue to be especially important in coming years as costs of higher education rise and pressures increase for full funding by state appropriation for the state colleges and universities.

The 1984-85 fiscal year at Columbia College was very successful. Income for current operations reached $8.4 million enabling us to function again with a balanced budget. Approximately 80% of our income was produced by student tuition and fees while gifts and grants accounted for $939,000, 11% of the revenues. The Conference contributed $276,015 to the College through the Senior College Fund. The current fiscal year promises an income of some $8.6 million, projecting another balanced budget.

A newly-established faculty development program has significantly increased faculty participation in a wide variety of projects to enhance professional growth, teaching and institutional advancement. The faculty-student international exchange program has been furthered with a Columbia College faculty representative teaching in Korea last summer and a Korean faculty member in residence at Columbia College in the spring. We have had eighteen foreign students enrolled this year.

In its ongoing commitment to serving South Carolina Methodism through a Christian-oriented liberal arts education for women, Columbia College is grateful to the churches of the South Carolina Conference for their financial support and for their help in identifying and recruiting students. You have helped to make this one of the best years ever for the College.

Ralph T. Mirse, President

WOFFORD COLLEGE

Wofford is stronger today than at any other time in its history. A record enrollment of over 1,100 outstanding students, a fine faculty, a record fundraising year, and national recognition give Wofford much for which to be grateful. To United Methodists of South Carolina, we extend our thanks for your support, both tangible and intangible, which has contributed significantly to Wofford's position of relative strength.

A U.S. News and World Report survey of college presidents listed Wofford last fall as one of the best regional liberal arts colleges in the country. Wofford was one of only 221 colleges in the New York Times' book Best Buys in College Education.

While external recognition is important, what happens day-to-day is fundamental. This year of campus life has been characterized by leadership from the student government. Cooperation, caring, and good citizenship among students is affecting the entire campus community.

Partnerships between Wofford and secondary school teachers increased. Special courses, institutes, and the publication of South Carolina: One of the Fifty States, the official state history textbook for eighth graders written by Wofford's William R. Kenan, Jr. Professor Lewis Jones, helped the college contribute to the improvement of secondary education.

Commitment to Christian values and to leadership through service characterize Wofford education. Active organizations include the Campus Christian Association, the Religious Life Council, Bible study groups, and a number of denominational groups supervised by adjunct chaplains. Wofford has been served well this year by interim chaplain LeGrande Moody, and a permanent appointment for a full-time Campus Minister has been made for the 1986-87 year.

The college's most recent fiscal year ended on August 31, 1985. Current operating revenues were $9.4 million, with a small operating surplus. More than 70% of the college's operating revenues come from student tuition and fees. Gift and investment income, which totaled more than $1.5 million, or 17% of total revenues, continues to be important.

In February 1986, the Board of Trustees approved an operating budget for 1986-87, calling for expenditures of more than $10.6 million. Increases in student comprehensive fees will be $765, yet the fee will continue to be hundreds of dollars below those of other comparable colleges in the region.

The Rev. Dr. Bryan Crenshaw, Development Committee Chairman, announced six 1985 "broken records", most notably $3,381,683 in total support for Wofford, including a record of $282,292 from the Senior College Fund of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Though there is a serious threat to all of independent higher education's ability to provide affordable diversity in light of proposed federal budget cuts, no student should be discouraged from considering Wofford for financial reasons. Grants and loans, the South Carolina Tuition Grant program, and Scholarship resources from private gifts are all available.

Joab M. Lesesne, Jr., President

COLUMBIA WESLEY FOUNDATION University of South Carolina

Here at the University of South Carolina, we serve, at varying levels of involvement, 3500 students each school year. Presently, approximately 400 students receive our weekly newsletter at their request. We send denominational mailings several times each school year, these often include leaflets from local churches near campus and we issue written invitations from the ELM community to freshmen at the beginning of each semester. Special events are designed specifically for United Methodist students at the beginning of each school year and a class in Wesleyan Theology meets weekly each semester.

The ELM community offers Sunday morning worship, fellowship and lunch, supplied primarily by local church women's organizations, discussion groups on Sunday afternoons, opportunity for outreach involvement through ministry at Midlands Center, retirement homes, blood drives, Washington Street soup kitchen, projects through Inter-faith Council, special missional offerings and many other missional programs as designed each semester by the student coordinating committee. Through this committee students are given opportunity to learn or enhance leadership skills which will be tremendous gifts to the local churches with which they affiliate after graduation.

We have Bible Studies and prayer support groups meeting at various times and days during the week. On Wednesday afternoons we offer a mid-week Communion service followed by supper and music rehearsals with the ELM Singers and instrumental groups.

Thursday afternoons at 12:30 a small group gathers for a quiet service of prayer and contemplation. Friday activities range from groups going to a movie to scheduled events here at the center such as all-night paint and clean-up parties to coffee house music fellowship gatherings.

Additionally, members of the ELM Singers, and the clown ministry travel extensively to South Carolina churches sharing in worship, youth group meetings, retired persons' luncheons and general campus ministry interpretation.

In February and March students from the University joined with community people to produce Jesus Christ Superstar. This endeavor was co-sponsored by the ELM Center and the Act One Theatre company. Special Sunday performances were offered to churches and youth groups across the state and the response was exciting.

Various athletic activities, intramural sports and unlimited special programs, retreats, dinners, celebrations and worship experiences, following the seasons of the church year while seriously looking at the three traditions represented by this ecumenical ministry, are among the program offerings of campus ministry here at the University of South Carolina.

Debra Quilling, Campus Minister

Fiscal Condition/Long Term Needs:

To continue Clemson Campus Ministry for the next 10 years, we will need $43,000 per year with at least a five percent increase per year. I foresee the following major expenses in the near future: Air conditioning unit (present one is 20 years old); construction of direct outside entrance for the co-op; word processor and printer; painting inside and outside building; further winterization of building.

Dreams/Visions/Hopes for Future:

To become self-sustaining through an endowment fund. This may be achieved by donation from alumni, friends, parents, and fund-raisers. Even a partial endowment would help. Unfortunately, present policies tend to discourage this means of support. A capital funds campaign might achieve this goal for all Wesley Foundations. There has been at least a 30 percent increase in student participation each year. I am confident that we will reach more United Methodist students each year. Our Covenant program has brought new excitement among students for United Methodist Campus Ministry. I hope to see this program grow.

ORANGEBURG WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Orangeburg Wesley Foundation, a ministry of South Carolina United Methodism to the College communities of South Carolina State College and Claflin College, is very happy to make the following report to the South Carolina Annual Conference. The foundation serves two academic communities, a public institution, South Carolina State College, and a church related institution, Claflin College. Program activities are designed to meet the needs of our diverse communities.

The O.W.F. ministers to the College Communities of South Carolina State College and Claflin College, by designing programs for mind, body, and soul. The program consists of the following areas: 1) Worship; 2) Christian Education; 3) Retreats; 4) Counseling; 5) Lay and Ministerial Recruitment and 6) Christian Social Action Programs.

The foundation sponsors and co-sponsors the following worship experiences: 1) Mid-Week Prayer Services; 2) Vesper Services; 3) Special Worship Events (Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, and Family Life Celebrations); and 4) Religious Emphasis Week (Annual Evangelistic Thrust of the College community).

A variety of retreat and conference opportunities were provided for Wesley Foundation members. Our students participated in the following retreats: Young Christians for Global Justice Conference, N.A.A.C.P National Conference and Conference on Apartheid, Interdenominational Theological Center Conference on the Ordained Ministry, and the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation Social Action Retreat.

The following counseling services are provided by the Director and other volunteers: 1) Career Counseling; 2) Drug and Alcohol Abuse; 3) Loneliness; 4) Sexual Abuse and Harassment; 5) Money Management; 6) Family Crisis; 7) Peer Pressure; and 8) Religious Indoctrination, etc.

Several Bible Study groups were conducted during the year. The areas of interest were Christian Commitment, Conversion, and the Gospel of John. A special study was designed for persons interested in the Ordained Ministry.

The O.W.F. also sponsored United Methodist Student Day on September 14, 1985 at South Carolina State College and Claflin College. Two hundred fifty four persons participated in this important event.

Finally, the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation Board of Directors and Director wishes to thank the South Carolina Annual Conference for the new facility and for your support of Campus Ministry.

Larry McCutcheon, Director

WINTHROP WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Winthrop Wesley Foundation continues to serve the present fragmented age by focussing upon our convenental relationship with God, neighbor, and world. We affirm our oneness in Christ by continuing our ten year ecumenical ministry with our Catholic and Presbyterian brothers and sisters. Our life together focuses itself in the liturgical expression of worship, shared Bible study, and involvement in social justice issues.

Again, hunger and third world poverty claimed much of our attention, energies, and commitments. We were in the leadership in involving the entire campus during African Famine Relief Week. Led by three students who fasted on behalf of the poor, hundreds of Winthrop students, faculty, and staff persons gave their support to relieving hunger in Africa. Robert Jolly, a member of Broad St. U.M. Church in Clinton, was one of the three students who fasted during this week. Over $3,500 was raised from student concerts, athletic events, worship services, sales, marathons, and fasts.

Campus Ministry brought United Methodist Betty Williams Perkins to campus to speak on world peace. Mrs. Perkins was the 1976 recipient, along with Malread Carrigan, of the Nobel Peace Prize for their work to bring peace to Ireland. She spoke to two classes, a luncheon meeting, a supper gathering, and over 800 persons at a convocation event in Tillman Auditorium.

Beneath the headlines there continued the United Methodist Church's ministry of caring for persons through small group settings and personal counseling. The church was present at many of those moments of joy and pain that the Winthrop community experienced in 1985.

BAPTIST COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON

After a year's absence during the 1984-85 school year, a part-time chaplain was assigned to serve the United Methodist students at Baptist College in the fall of 1985. Regular fellowship meetings are being held and counseling is made available for students. We are in the process of identifying all our Methodist students who attend Baptist College. Next year we will work with the college administration during the fall orientation process to make contact with new students entering the campus. We will work to build participation in a broad range of study and fellowship opportunities.

Paul W. Harmon, Campus Minister

FURMAN UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Furman University Wesley Foundation meets weekly on Wednesday evenings for dinner, study, prayer, and fellowship. An average of twenty-five students attend. Bible studies, films, ecumenical dialogues with clergy of other denominations, assertiveness training, United Methodist history and polity, dating and marriage, personal tragedy, faith, witnessing, and effective communication have been some of the weekly topics discussed this year. In addition to Wednesday fellowship and programs, students have an opportunity to participate in a retreat each term, intramural sports, and other special activities.

The campus minister assists with program and activity planning. The campus minister also provides personal counseling. Some of the most common issues confronted in the sessions are: career choice, drug and alcohol abuse, personal faith, illness, financial loss, and relationship encounters.

Furman Wesley Foundation continues its visitation ministry to Oakmont Nursing Home and the Carolina Retirement Center in Greenville. This is not exclusively Wesley's program but has expanded to incorporate many of the larger student body.

Wesley participants are involved in many churches in the Greenville District. Some of the churches are: Aldersgate, Buncombe Street, Lee Road, St. Mark, Salem, Triune, and Travelers Rest. Furman Wesley Foundation continues to encourage students to become more involved in the local church. The Furman Wesley Foundation, with membership not exclusively United Methodist, promotes the United Methodist tradition.

LANDER COLLEGE

My goal in campus ministry is for students to increase in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and other people--to realize as Jesus did, the importance of being in the Father's house in all stages of their lives and to accept their God-given identity as children of the King of Kings. Just as God has taken the initiative with each one of us who are Christians to make us his own by his grace, we in campus ministry--and by this I mean not only chaplains and campus ministers but all those who are related to the campus through students in their congregations or by employment on college staffs--we in campus ministry see a need both to minister to and be present to students and faculty and staff who may not yet see a need for church or Christ in their lives.

As in many other ministries, we are involved in planting seeds, the fruits of which we may not see in the time we have together on campus. Yet we seek nevertheless to have more students awaken to Christian responsibility and commitment. I as chaplain want to promote thinking and decision making about relationships and career that are not centered on self but on Christ. We have a responsibility even in public education to teach that we are spiritual as well as biological beings, and we have a responsibility to teach that the gospel can be subject to close academic scrutiny and that the gospel still stands.

My purpose in campus ministry is five-fold: 1) to be an on-campus interdenominational witness for Christ and Christ's church, 2) to be available for pastoral counseling to students, faculty, and staff and to carry out general duties such as hospital visitation, weddings, memorial services, and occasional campus worship, 3) to help co-ordinate religious activities on campus and to be a resource to campus religious groups, 4) to serve as a liaison between local churches seeking to minister on campus and the Lander community, and 5) to interpret Lander campus ministry to community groups and churches.

One special project in which I was involved last year was world hunger education. In November the BSU and I co-sponsored a series of programs on hunger, including a talk by an Erskine professor on hunger problems and solutions, a bake sale to aid malnourished children in Puerto Rico, and a hunger banquet-communion service attended by fifty students. In the spring I worked with individual students and the Student Government Association in fund-raising for Students Against Famine in Ethiopia (SAFE). During exam week we held a one-day fast and a "Bread of Life" benefit concert, and collections were taken both in Greenwood and among the Lander community.

This year I am advisor to Sigma Iota Chi (Sisters in Christ), a Christian sorority that recently pledged sixteen new members. I have served on the steering committee of Ground Zero for Peace, and through a grant from the PC(USA) I am co-sponsoring Dr. Helen Caldicott, a noted peace speaker, with the Lander Speakers' Committee in April.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

The Board carries out its work in six (6) standing committees: Golden Cross, Program and Training, Facilities for the Handicapped, Nominations, Conference Homes and Retired Ministers' Homes. The Golden Cross offering in 1985 was $16,552.60 and will be used for nursing scholarships, emergency medical aid and upkeep and insurance for retired ministers' homes. Two homes which had not been used for two or more years were sold during 1985: the Walker home in North Augusta and Pigeon Point home in Beaufort. Because of a trust clause, proceeds from the Walker home must be held in trust and only the interest may be used by the Board. Proceeds from the Beaufort home plus a sizable contribution by a local church were received in January 1986 and divided between the Greenwood Methodist Home and the Methodist Home of Orangeburg to provide housing for retired ministers. There are now four (4) apartments at the Greenwood Methodist Home and two (2) duplex apartments at the Methodist Home in Orangeburg provided through the sale of homes no longer used and other special bequests.

The Board encourages members to continue making gifts for additional housing and has implemented a Policy Statement for Acceptance and Use of Trust Assets or Assets Otherwise Transferred Subject to Conditions to facilitate this process.

Additionally, the Board is working on methods to identify such gifts in a permanent way at the Homes.

We continue to affirm a strong and positive relationship with our Methodist Homes in Orangeburg and Greenwood, The Epworth Children's Home in Columbia and the United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee in Florence. The Nominations Committee of our Board has again nominated persons to serve on these Boards.

Programs of this Board included publication and distribution of Caring, a newsletter to local church Health and Welfare Representatives, and a study on Children's Needs. A study on Needs of the Aging was not completed due to the Conference Council on Ministries' special study on the Homes for the Aged, and may be completed at a later date.

We urge your continued support of the work of our Homes, Golden Cross, our designated programs through the Conference Council on Ministries and our Board members as we have Christian concern and love throughout our church.

Ann B. Warner, Chairperson

EPWORTH CHILDREN'S HOME

It is always a joy to share with the Annual Conference a report of the work of Epworth Children's Home. Limitations of space do not permit a detailed report of all that takes place through the Epworth ministry in a year. However, perhaps this report will describe something of the magnitude of services received by children, youth and families during the past year because you helped to make it possible.

Epworth has grown greatly since January 20, 1896, when two children from Lynchburg came to live in the Coleman Home located on 131 acres of land just outside the City of Columbia. The spirit which provided the impetus for its beginning continues as Epworth reaches out with a wide range of services. Once an orphanage to shelter destitute orphans, Epworth has changed through the years to meet the needs of South Carolina's dependent, neglected and troubled children and families. In recent years, our emphasis has been on helping families to resolve conflicts and returning children to rehabilitated homes.

Now residential group care on the Columbia campus offers a variety of kinds of care. Temporary and emergency care can accept children into immediate care who are at physical or emotional risk. The Intensive Care cottage serves young boys who have emotional problems. Some children living on campus need compensatory education, which is offered in campus classes. Foster family homes offer care in a family environment for preschool children and others for whom it is appropriate. Many children and families receive counseling, diagnostic and evaluation services, parent training, and in-family aid without the children coming to live on campus. Services to mentally retarded persons and their families are being broadened and include the Infant/Parent Education program at College Place Church, a summer camping program, referral services, and conferences and seminars.

Through special grants from the Kendall Foundation, we are developing foster family homes for minority children and establishing a program of early intervention for minority children under age two.

During 1985, the Social Service Department received 636 new inquiries; 163 children were admitted into care while many others were served through diagnostic/evaluation, counseling, in-family and other outreach programs. An additional 588 children, parents and siblings received services through the Division of Mental Retardation. Nine students graduated from high school and 11 were in higher education, including one who completed seminary.

Goodgion I and II cottages have been completely renovated and several others have been redecorated and refurnished. There is an ongoing need to keep the cottages and other buildings pleasant, comfortable and useful.

St. 7 Kas

We have completed a study of the needs of children in S.C. in response to the 1984 request of the Annual Conference. The findings of this study, describing the plight of children and families in our state, was presented to the Conference Council on Ministries in November, with recommendations for greater involvement at both local church and Annual Conference levels. CCOM referred this information to the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries for specific recommendations to the Conference.

During the past decade, the Annual Conference has requested that Epworth (1) provide services to mentally retarded persons, (2) provide counseling as an alternative to abortion for unmarried, pregnant women, and (3) study the needs of children in South Carolina. These things we have done without requesting additional funds from the Conference. We want to stand ready to provide whatever services are needed, but we must depend on voluntary gifts of United Methodists in S.C. to cover the costs of additional services. The Board of Trustees maintains a commitment to provide as much service as our constituency is willing to fund.

The operating budget for the past fiscal year amounted to $1,680,976. Contributions through Work Day, Mother's Day and First Sunday promotions provided 30.9% of our operating funds. Voluntary gifts received from churches totalled $520,370.29. Included are some special individual gifts given through churches. Your free-will gifts are vital to this ministry.

We are grateful that Epworth continues to be the beneficiary of estates and special gifts which become part of the permanent fund and give in perpetuity. The permanent fund income provided 37% of the needed funds. Proceeds from ten such bequests were received during the year. These and the proceeds from the sale of the land from the A.J. Roberts estate have substantially increased the income from these sources and make possible additional and higher quality services to children, youth and families.

In addition to these resources (voluntary gifts and permanent fund income), we must find sufficient funds to provide the remaining 32.1% of our operating budget.

A history of Epworth Children's Home by Mrs. Gay Hutchins and Dr. Alan Keith-Lucas has been published, providing a permanent record of the 90 years of child care provided by this institution. Epworth is unique because a plan to establish a Methodist program to care for destitute and neglected children was completed before any children were taken into care. Most orphanages started after children were already being cared for and the need was recognized for an organized support system. This history records how Epworth has evolved from an orphanage (which was needed at the turn of the century) into a multi-service program addressing the many needs of children and families in today's complex world.

As we look to the future, one of the great needs is to build a new Intensive Care facility. The cottage presently used is inadequately designed to provide the full range of care necessary to help these children deal with their lives. A unit is needed that could also care for an equal number of girls in a similar setting. The Board of Trustees is now exploring possibilities for expanding this program.

We are grateful for an extremely dedicated and forward-looking Board of Trustees, an excellent professional staff, and an Annual Conference constituency which wants to be involved in ministry and mission. We are thankful for what the Spirit of God has done through Epworth over the years and that you continue to heed Christ's mandate to help those in need.

Charles A. Hutchins,
Executive Director
Robert W. Peak, Chairman,
Board of Trustees

GREENWOOD METHODIST HOME

Greenwood Methodist Home is pleased to present to the Annual Conference this eighteenth report on the ministries and services offered to the aging by this Church-related Home. We trust you will read this report carefully in order to catch a glimpse of the work which this Home is doing through the enablement provided by the South Carolina Conference; we invite you to visit with us and see for yourself both what is presently being done and what is being planned for the future. We believe you will share our sense of excitement in this very special ministry.

During 1985 our Nursing Center served 127 persons, with 11 of that number being served under the Medicare program, 38 as Medicaid patients, and 78 as private (self-paying) patients. New admissions during the year totaled 26 persons (8, Medicare; 2, Medicaid; and 16, private). Capacity of the Nursing Center is 102 persons.

Through your "Support Fund" contributions in 1985, you enabled the Home to assist a total of 19 persons who required financial aid in order to have the cost of their care fully paid. That assistance required $95,000.00 of the "Support Dollars" given to the Home by the Churches of the Conference. Approximately $30,000 of the "Support Fund" contributions were used to assist with other costs in the Nursing Center. Our report to the Conference would not be complete without our conveying to every United Methodist in South Carolina who had a part in giving to the "Support Fund" the gratitude of those persons for whom you helped to provide a Home!

Perhaps the highlight of 1985 was the opening of our second group of "garden apartments" during the Summer. Completion of Bristol Court and its 18 apartments brought to a total of 30 the number of garden apartments in our "Heritage Hills" Retirement Community. This lovely new building is now home for 24 persons, and two (2) one-bedroom units remain to be sold. Our family is growing, and we find that an exciting experience!

Aldersgate Court continues to be home for those persons who moved in during the Summer of 1979, less the several persons who have died in the intervening years. The Aldersgate census is now 14 persons residing in 12 apartments.

Planning is underway for the construction of cottages in the area acquired in the Fall of 1984 for duplex cottage sites. The four (4) duplex apartments are fully occupied, and we hope to construct at least three (3) additional dwellings (single-family cottages) during 1986. Adding the residents of this area to the garden apartment census, and our well residents now total 51 persons.

A Development and Resource Planning Committee of the Board of Trustees is busy at the task of planning for our next major project. A congregate housing activities center is an unmet need, and a recent "market study" has validated our impression that there are persons who need and desire this kind of facility. At least another year of planning is required, and a considerable amount of money is needed before we can begin. A $31,900 Grant for planning made by The Self Foundation, Greenwood, has provided significant help, and will equip us for the task.

We ask your continued interest and support. We encourage your visits.

Ted R. Morton, Jr.,

THE METHODIST HOME, ORANGEBURG

Numerous exciting undertakings filled the days of life at The Methodist Home in the last year. We will enumerate some of them in the following paragraphs, but let it be said to begin with that every effort put forth was to enhance the quality of life of our residents. From the campus beauty shop which serves some 25 residents every day, six days a week, to the Chaplain's sermon on Sunday morning, the concern for residents is central in our planning and work. Some 155 full-time staff members, plus another 25 on a part-time basis serve the needs of the 365 older adults who make up The Methodist Home community.

Thirty-five or so dietary workers prepare some 1300 meals every day. Our food service is inviting enough to have generated $30,000 in revenue from guests just visiting the Home over the last 12 months. A dietary survey is taken periodically to determine residents likes and dislikes for meats, vegetables and desserts. Menus are posted daily.

A new residential building and an inventory control building has been added to The Methodist Home Campus and the maintenance shop relocated. The new residential building, built in the form of a capital "H", provides for 47 residents. It includes three 2 bedroom apartments and four 1 bedroom apartments. The rest are all single rooms. It also provides a guest room for overnight visitors, a convenience not enjoyed before. All rooms have been furnished by memorial gifts, including the beautiful lounge. These buildings were opened on May 1, and consecrated on September 15.

Stair Vps

With the above new construction we were able to demolish the three remaining temporary World War II barrack buildings giving now a completely updated and/or new facility.

A bond issue floated in 1972 matured in July. Thankfully, funds were on hand to pay this indebtedness of more than $300,000. Careful cost reporting has resulted in increased Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement. Though still not adequate, it does relieve residents assistance fund requirements. The installation of a computerized energy conservation system is resulting in a $100,000 a year decrease in operating costs. The Methodist Home continues to operate in the black and has finally passed the $1,000,000 mark in the Residents Assistance Endowment Fund.

In addition to the duly elected Board of Trustees, the Home is blessed by an exceptionally fine Board of Visitors composed of two persons from each of the 12 districts in the Conference. They form an excellent sounding board for the staff and also a splendid public relations network across the state. On campus the Residents Advisory Council serves as a ready source of residential input and strengthens the lines of communication between residents and staff.

One of the most important accomplishments during the year was the purchase of an in-house computer allowing us, on October 1, to become fully computerized in our business office.

Methodist Home population consists of persons from every district in the Conference. There are 17 from out of state and 53 or 14.6% of our total population who are non-United Methodist. The average entry age of residents over the last five years is 84 years.

The Methodist Home is proud of its 31 years of service and for the quality of care she provides. She stands as an equal to the very best in the field and takes pride in doing so at reasonable fees. Your line item support and special gifts through memorials, bequests, etc., will insure the Home's continuing ministry to older adults.

J. Richard McAlister, Chairman
Ernest M. Heape, Executive Director

THE METHODIST MANOR OF THE PEE DEE

The Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee is a planned retirement center for persons of good character regardless of race, religion, color or national origin on 75 acres of land located in Florence just off U.S. 76 at I-95. The property is a gift of an interested couple.

The Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee is designed to grow with the demand for occupancy. At present more than 325 persons have indicated interest in residency. Accommodations in the main building will range from 320 to 900 square feet of living space. Patio housing is also planned.

Residents of The Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee will be secure in an atmosphere providing loving care where each will be able to associate with peers in social, cultural, civic and recreational activities.

The Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee needs funding for the common area which includes cafeteria, administrative offices, lounges, craft rooms, barber and beauty shops, and site development. Construction can begin when these costs have been assured. More than a half million dollars has been contributed to date.

Robert C. Faulkner, Chairman

ASBURY HILLS UNITED METHODIST CAMP

The Camp's isolation and insulation from everyday distractions make it an ideal site for many organizations across the Conference to engage in spiritual growth retreats aimed at understanding, affirming, and living out our Methodist Heritage. The same properties make the Camp an excellent location for a variety of training-oriented meetings. The Camp has been used for these purposes countless times since its original founding in the late '50's. In 1985, the Camp served 42 client groups totaling 1230 persons for various sorts of retreat objectives. We regret that the facilities limit the number of groups that can be accommodated. We are working toward improved facilities for adult groups for all seasons of the year.

Although the Goals the CCOM has adopted for this year seem principally addressed to adults, the Camp (as a natural setting) provides an effective location for extending many of the Quadrennial Objectives into the child's sphere of learning activity. The Camp has for many years provided Christian growth experiences for children. One of the continuing objectives of the Summer Camp program is to increasingly involve and include ethnic minority children and youth in the program. In the Summer of 1985, 703 children, youth and adults were served during the nine week period. I would like to point out that in 1984 we had a 100% increase in ethnic minority campers and in 1985 we had an increase of 85% over 1984. The efforts of our Board and staff are slowly showing some results in this area.

In combining all the user groups together, Summer Camp, Weekend users and single day users, we find that comes to a total of 7690 camper days. This figure does not include the 7 weeks of volunteer time, 6 days of volunteer time, and 866 hours of volunteer time given in service to Asbury Hills.

The increasing age of our facility shows in the increased amount of maintenance necessary to maintain a satisfactory Camp and Retreat Center. Major items of repair, replacement or upgrading in 1985 included: building a retaining wall at the Recreation Building for erosion control, repairing facilities at the Outpost Cabin, reseeding areas of grass at several sites. Repairing and painting two bridges and walkways, sealing a part of our main asphalt road and refurbishing two of the bedrooms at the Rice Lodge.

The percentage of Line-Item apportionment being paid by the churches was 66% as of the end of the 1985 Conference year, an increase of 2% over 1984. Of this amount, Asbury Hills received $100,971.23. The Asbury Hills United Methodist Camp Board of Directors will attempt to develop and maintain an operating reserve adequate to carry through the annual cycle. The Camp, at the present time, has one outstanding debt, a loan from the Conference Board of Trustees for $3,600.

For some time now, demand for weekend and weekday use by adult groups has inspired a vision...a vision of a Conference and Retreat Center to accommodate adults within a new area of programming: for family life seminars; for marriage enrichment; for planning retreats; and for Conference programs. With more than adequate existing support services, this building to house year-round events will provide sleeping quarters for up to 90 guests, including special rooms for handicapped and senior citizens. As of December 31, 1985, the Camp has received a total of $239,248 in pledges and cash gifts for this vision of the future.

E.H. McDowell, Sr., Chairperson

SEEWEE COASTAL RETREAT CENTER

The Coastal Retreat Center is growing in popularity as church members and church groups discover the beauty of its location on the Intracoastal Waterway.

The increased use in 1985 demonstrates the advantage of the facility as an ideal site for retreats, picnics, day camps, family camping and class outings. During the year, Sewee Coastal Retreat Center was used over 5,000 person days.

The Retreat Center offers facilities for use by United Methodists as a resource for achieving the goals and objectives of the Annual Conference. Each person or group using the site develops their own program and provides their own meals.

Overnight accommodations in two dormitories will be available in the spring of 1986, and a modern kitchen will be provided in the recreation building. Full camper hookups are available for recreational vehicles. The Board of Directors raised funds for these projects, and numerous church groups sent work teams to do construction and painting. A swimming pool and bath house is available, as well as a paved boat landing, pier, and floating docks in the Waterway.

User fees are kept at a minimum in keeping with the missional concept of the Conference, while maintenance, operating fees, and loan payments are provided by 40% of the line item for Camps and Retreat Centers.

Sewee Coastal Retreat Center is located on 42 acres of land, bordering the Intracoastal Waterway, 25 miles north of Charleston, off Highway 17.

Board of Trustees

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

Given the complex nature of our world, the South Carolina Conference Board of Church and Society seeks to make a Christian response. We have tried to be faithful to the Judeo-Christian tradition, making it applicable to this highly modernized and technological age.

We also feel that war is incompatible with the teachings of Jesus and we strongly support the Council of Bishop's Pastoral Letter, In Defense of Creation; The Nuclear Crisis and A Just Peace.

We have and will continue to offer support for the following programs: A Focus on Central America, Peace With Justice, Alternatives to the Death Penalty, Literacy Sunday, Unemployment, the Alston Wilkes Society, The Christian Action Council, A Model for a Free Medical Clinic, Environmental Concerns, Outreach Ministries, Support for Those Involved in the Criminal Justice System, Child Abuse and Opposition to State Sponsored Lotteries.

Our request for funds are within the guidelines set by C.F.A.

THE CHURCH AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE REPORT

I. Introduction

In the spirit of the church's responsibility to the issue of criminal justice the Board of Church and Society sponsored two workshops. Their purpose was to explore a variety of criminal justice issues and the role of local congregations could and should play in addressing this. The focus of the workshops was upon the principal actors in crime and justice victims, police officers, offenders, jurists, and correctional and supportive services workers. After identifying problems and issues experienced by persons in the criminal justice process the workshop then asked: What role should the church play in helping these people cope with the aftermath of crime in their lives?

II. Findings and Interpretations

The findings of the workshop are very consistent with those reported in the research literature on the impact of crime in the lives of persons involved in the criminal justice process. It may be surprising to note that there is great similarity in the experience of the victim, the offender, the police officer, the correctional officer, and indeed anyone touched by crime and the criminal justice process. Each experience social isolation, emotional stress, deterioration in interpersonal and family relationships, moral indignation, anger, confusion, loss of privacy, lack of sufficient or appropriate resources and support, and a feeling of vulnerability to other victimizations. The point to be made is that it is not just the participants in the crime drama who suffer. Everyone suffers. After all, our lives are intrinsically tied together. What affects one, affects all, whether offender, victim, police officer, judge or church member.

III. Restoration: The Church's Mission

Historically intervention has been the expression of one or more of four basic attitudes toward criminal behavior: Restitution, Rehabilitation, Retribution, and Restoration.

Restitution is a practical and immediate concerns option which provides an incremental approach to making wrong things right. Essentially it says "Pay what you can on what you owe for what you have done for as long as it takes." The strengths of this approach are its practicality and its appreciation of contingencies which affect the situation in which the crime was committed. Its weaknesses are that it can be myopic in not giving due consideration for the principles and potentialities involved. As such it may be guilty of being simplistic.

Rehabilitation, on the other hand, does what is best for society in the long run. The strengths of this approach are its concern for the big picture and its emphasis on ultimates. Its weaknesses are that it tends to overlook the reality of what is at hand and can be very spurious in its application.

Retribution exacts payment for the wrong committed, normally without consideration for the circumstances or the persons involved. Its strengths are its firmness and fairness. Its weaknesses are its rigidity and inflexibility.

Restoration re-establishes relationships among people to their original condition after a period of time in which either Restitution, Rehabilitation, or Retribution has been affected. The Amish, for example, will banish a transgressor for a specific period of time based on the severity of the transgression; but after that time the person is reinstated or reintegrated into the community as though the transgression had not occurred. In other societies where Restoration is practiced, it is a crime to even mention the initial transgression once a person is reintegrated. Restoration values the quality of relationships more than principles.

Endemic to the Gospel, however is the radical notion of restorative justice which speaks directly to the issues of isolation, dehumanization, inequality, inequity, and recidivism which have and continue to plague our efforts in criminal justice.

While it may be presumptuous for the Church to think that it can reshape the criminal justice and law enforcement systems with its notion of restorative justice in the twinkling of an eye, it can begin to reshape its own life as a place where victim, incarcerated, enforcer, and helper can experience shalom together in community with others. But it is this "community of others" which has erected, in its own way, the walls and barriers which separate the blessed from the oppressed. As a first step in reshaping its life together the blessed must see a mirror of themselves in the oppressed. The oppression of each one involved in the crime and punishment scenario is a caricature or reflection of a type of oppression which is common to every human being. The victim characterizes the times when bad things happen to good people. The Victim represents the more general condition of having little or no control over a wrongful act perpetrated against oneself. The Incarcerated reflects a whole set of continuing circumstances some of which are short lived, others of a longer duration. The Helper mirrors the helplessness that we all experience in the face of enormous issues. Some, like the helper, can cross the chasm which separates them from the world of blessed to extend a caring touch.

Each caricature of ourselves in the crime and punishment scenario reminds us of the sets of conditions for self-enclosure to which we are all susceptible and to which we have all succumbed. As such they remind us that we all wear the masks of pride, presumption and despair -- in one way or another. The universality of sin bonds us all with the untouchables and unreachable as those who "yearn to breathe free." To this common predicament which makes brothers and sisters of us all the Gospel presents the realities of redemptive dying and restorative living which charges and enables the Church to be the community of the forgiven and the forgiving.

IV. Congregational Goals

The workshops explored ways in which local congregations can develop programs of awareness, education and advocacy which begin the process of restoring the life of the community. Below are summarized suggestions for local congregations.

Awareness

1. Invite police and correctional officers, inmates, victims, and their family members to share their experiences in various settings.
2. Develop a jail ministry in which congregational members can work directly with the incarcerated.
3. Develop a ministry to families of crime victims, the incarcerated, police, correctional officers, and other officials of the criminal justice system.

Education

4. Promote church education around criminal justice issues through preaching, counseling, and teaching which develops positive attitudes toward such values as justice, mercy, equality, and discipline in the church membership, especially in the formative years of childhood.
5. Use resources of the Alston Wilkes Society and other agencies for educational programs in the local church.

Advocacy

6. Befriend a victim, an offender, or an officer of the criminal justice system and their families.

- 1914 Start Vps
7. Encourage the development of victim compensation, counseling, work release, educational program, and other options which can help rehabilitate both victims, offenders and their families.
  8. Develop active interest and participation in the operation of local government agencies and advocacy groups promoting social justice.

V. Conclusion

We, the Board of Church and Society, recommend that each local church give priority to designing ministries of restoration as it relates to issues of criminal justice.

RESOLUTION TO SUPPORT THE FARMERS AND THE RURAL CRISIS IN OUR COUNTRY

WHEREAS, the South Carolina United Methodist Conference recognizes an immediate crisis exists for the continuing livelihood of persons involved in the production, harvesting and marketing of food and fiber.

WHEREAS, the past four years there has been a deteriorating farm economy and it is estimated that a third of the nation's 2.3 million farms are in real danger of failing.

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church supports the right of persons and families to live and prosper as farmers and farm workers--we support governmental and private programs designed to benefit the resident farmer rather than the factory farm. (The Discipline, 72 k, p. 95)

BE IT RESOLVED that the 1986 South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church:

- urge clergy and churches to become well informed on the rural crisis and communicate with state and federal legislators and officials regarding the severity of the rural crisis. Letters ought to be written by individual local church members and ministers to President Reagan, the Secretary of Agriculture, S.C. State Senators and S.C. Representatives and Governor Riley.
- urge churches to offer spiritual, emotional, economic support to families suffering from farm crisis.
- urge the federal government to establish a comprehensive, long term agricultural policy which preserves family farm systems, promotes healthy rural communities, stewardship of natural resources and economic justice for those who produce food and fiber.
- urge the federal government to give low-interest rates to family farmers and ask for a moratorium on farm foreclosures until the present crisis is over.

RESOLUTION ON THE RESURGENCE OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

A resurgence in South Carolina of Ku Klux Klan efforts to recruit new members, particularly among young people, has been widely reported in the media.

We affirm the principle of freedom of expression, however, we recognize the evil of racism and therefore call upon the South Carolina United Methodist Conference and all South Carolina United Methodists to call attention to the resolution adopted by the 1980 General conference of the United Methodist Church and embark on a program of education in the church on the current resurgence of the Ku Klux Klan and its challenge to us as witnesses of the Christian gospel, continue to express our abhorrence of the values and practices espoused by the Ku Klux Klan and express our minds and hearts in this coming electoral season and urge that candidates for government positions name the struggle against racism and its symbols as a top priority.

RESOLUTION ON TERRORISM

The recent explosions at airport terminals in Europe, the hijacking of an oceanliner, the killing of innocent airline passengers, and the death of Marines in Lebanon have brought much attention to the problem of terrorism.

We deplore these acts, and indeed all acts in which the murder, torture, captivity, or threat thereof, of innocent people are used as a strategy for political ends. In general, we deplorable any use of violence and fear as tools to achieve social and political objectives through intimidation.

Therefore, we call on the South Carolina United Methodist Conference to condemn, and to promote an understanding of the nature and consequence of, terrorism and its causes.

RESOLUTION ON SOUTH AFRICA

The vast majority of Blacks in South Africa are struggling to throw off the shackles of apartheid. Apartheid is a system of laws that enforces racial segregation and disenfranchisement. Blacks are required to live in designated areas far away from employment opportunities which keeps black families separated for long periods of time. Blacks in South Africa make up seventy-two percent of the population, but they are not allowed to vote or take part in the government. Persons who speak out against the government's policy are often "banned;" that is, confined to their homes and forbidden to speak to the press or groups of people.

We, the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, recommend that each church in this conference observe Human Relations Day, March 1, 1987 and use that opportunity to pray for the people of South Africa, study the issue and determine what actions they can take as Christians and as congregations. Materials for this observance will be provided by the Conference Board of Church and Society.

RESOLUTION ON NICARAGUA

Despite continued support from our government, the CONTRA war in Nicaragua has not succeeded. They do not have popular support in Nicaragua and, according to the Miami Herald (12/27/85) have not achieved any of their objectives. They have inflicted much suffering on innocent victims: 148 killed so far and 281 civilians killed in 1985. The CONTRA's are not democratic, according to Edgar Chamorro's testimony at the World Court, and are accused of many human rights violations by such human rights groups as America's Watch.

We of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church recommend:

1. That each local church take advantage of opportunities to study and learn more about the complex issues in Nicaragua through films, persons, and resources from the Board of Church and Society or other groups;
2. Support for a negotiated settlement between the United States and Nicaragua;
3. An end to U.S. Military aid to the CONTRA, and that this be communicated to the President and our congressional representatives by a letter from our Bishop;
4. That we support the Council of Bishops and express our own deep concern over reports indicating serious denial of human freedom and abuses of human rights that are imposed by the Sandinista government as well as by the Contras.

RESOLUTION ON THE DISPLAY OF THE CONFEDERATE FLAG AT THE STATEHOUSE

The flag of the Confederacy has flown above the South Carolina Statehouse since the Civil War. It occupies a central place in our state's history. Its precise meaning, however, has been open to widely varying interpretations by both historians and laypeople alike. To some, it has stood for the sovereignty of the states over the federal government; to others, it has stood for an extremely painful era. It has also meant, for some, a war against the abolition of the despicable institution of slavery. One interpretation, however, cannot be disputed: that the flag of the Confederacy is an historic artifact.

Whereas the flag of the Confederacy may be interpreted as support for an immoral cause, and thus may alienate some South Carolinians; and whereas the flag may correctly be deemed an historic artifact and not a living allegiance; the South Carolina United Methodist Conference hereby recommends that the flag of the Confederacy be permanently removed from the Statehouse flagpole, and placed where it may receive adequate understanding and reverence as part of our state's history. Such a place may be the South Carolina State Museum.

We earnestly request the officials of the state be asked to adequately display the flag in a reverent manner for future generations.

RESOLUTIONS ON PEACE AND JUSTICE

In words from the Bishop's Proposal on Peace, "We write in defense of creation. We do so because the Creation itself is under attack. Air and water, trees and fruits and flowers, birds and fish and cattle, all children and youth, women and men live under the darkening shadows of a nuclear crisis. We call the United Methodist Church to more faithful witness and action in the face of this worsening nuclear crisis." We therefore resolve that congregations in the conference:

- (1) Study the Council of Bishop's Peace Proposal and related materials (letter, study guides).
- (2) Make recommendations for action to their Administrative Boards.
- (3) Take part in observing a Peace Fair that will further inform members of the facts of nuclear build-up and will encourage commitment and action on this most serious and vital issue of our time.
- (4) Cooperate with other people in our state through the Christian Action Council in its peace-making efforts.
- (5) Observe World Order Sunday on June 7, 1987 as a peace emphasis.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Conference Board of Education sees its primary mission as that of strengthening the local church in its full program of Christian Education, with principal emphasis on the Sunday School. We provide training and motivation in the fields of Church School growth and renewal, curriculum selection and use, leadership education, and certain specialized age level and family ministries. We give particular support to ethnic minority and small membership churches.

A Conference-wide rally on "Sunday School Teachers: Gifted and Called" was held in September at Washington Street United Methodist Church, Columbia, with 320 participants. Leadership was provided by the General Board of Discipleship and Cokesbury Educational Services.

A workshop on "Starting New Sunday School Classes" was conducted by a nationally recognized leader, Dr. Kirk McNeill. Sixty (60) persons attended.

EMLC Associates (Consultants available to local churches in each district) received refresher training through a Lab School held in May at Francis Burns United Methodist Church, Columbia with Walter Willis as leader. Twenty-nine (29) persons received this training. Trained Consultants are available in every district for all churches.

The Heritage Project (an autonomous task group financed through the Board of Education) held a training event in April with 45 participants. The Single Adult Fellowship (another autonomous group reporting through our Board and receiving some support from Board allotments) held an April and a September retreat.

Seventy-two (72) persons participated in a one-day Older Adult Assembly at Columbia College in May. Pilot projects in local church family life development were conducted at Bethany United Methodist Church, Charleston and at Clemson United Methodist Church. These were preceded by a consultation in March with 75 participants and with leadership provided by Barbara Mitchell of the Florida Conference Staff.

A Drug Prevention Education Weekend was held at Mauldin United Methodist Church in April and in connection with it there was a seminar and lab for leaders of such weekends. Human Sexuality Weekends were provided at First United Methodist Church, Laurens; Clemson United Methodist Church and Friendship United Methodist Church, Rock Hill.

Christian Workers' Schools and similar training events were held in 21 locations including four (4) in EMLC churches. A confirmation lab was held in June at St. John's United Methodist Church, Rock Hill. Lab leaders and CWS instructors gathered at White Oak Conference Center in January for an updating and enrichment retreat and newly selected District Coordinators of Leadership Education were trained at White Oak in May. Junaluska Lab Schools were attended by 39 adults (of whom 16 received scholarships from the Conference Board) and 9 youth and children.

The Board of Education continues to solicit requests for services from local churches and suggestions from all constituents as to needed and useful programs to enrich the local church.

Ralph Cannon, Chairperson

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The Conference Board of Evangelism sees its role as that of providing resources, training, and motivation to equip pastors and local churches to be engaged in effective evangelism. The Board realizes that evangelism means more than winning new converts. It involves nurture and growth in discipleship, as well.

Our 1985 School of Evangelism focused on Church Revitalization for Mission Ministry. Approximately 100 persons attended the session which featured workshops on motivating and developing lay leadership, mission outreach strategies, church management for revitalization, and the Biblical theological foundation for church growth.

The Board made limited progress in its program to train and implement district revitalization teams, mainly due to the elimination of the program for 1986. However, the Board feels that church revitalization is an important aspect of its work and will work toward the reinstatement of a new revitalization program after further study and planning.

Through our C.C.O.M. staff liaison, Mr. Fletcher Carter, the Board is presently working with five churches who have requested our services in the area of renewal revitalization. The program has been presented to several other churches, upon request, and they are presently considering its use. Results so far indicate that the churches involved with this program are experiencing positive measurable results.

The Grand Strand Leisure Ministries continues to receive financial support channeled through the Board of Evangelism. Although the Board is not directly involved in program planning or in supervision of this ministry, one of our board members does act as a liaison with the Grand Strand Board.

The 1985 session of Annual Conference called for: 1) a committee to be established to develop a coordinated thrust in congregational development and redevelopment, and 2) to hold a Bishop's Convocation on Making Disciples in 1986. Through the participation of the chairperson, staff liaison, and other members, the Board has been an active participant in both of these areas.

W. Robert Borom, Chairperson

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The South Carolina Conference Board of Missions continues to seek ways to interpret the programs, plans and policies of the General Board of Global Ministries to districts and local Churches of the Conference. ### SPARTANBURG METHODIST COLLEGE

Spartanburg Methodist College, as a missional agency, increased its educational ministry in 1985. As I report to the United Methodists of South Carolina on their college, I appeal, first of all, for stronger missional linkages across the conference between the college and local churches so that an even greater impact can be made in the lives of persons through education. Our appeal to United Methodists for stronger linkage is four-fold: (1) Full payment of the SMC apportionment by each local church; (2) Mission Specials from local church groups for helping special needy groups of students; (3) A gift of at least one endowed scholarship for each county in South Carolina; (4) Encourage United Methodists to study at a United Methodist College.

SPECIALIZED MINISTRIES (A)

ALSTON WILKES SOCIETY came into being because Rev. Eli Alston Wilkes dreamed of helping people leaving prison readjust to the outside life. The goals of the Alston Wilkes Society are to help former offenders readjust to the community, implement reform in the South Carolina criminal justice system, get South Carolinians involved through volunteer participation and increase community acceptance of the former offender. Some of its programs include recruiting and training volunteer friends to visit forgotten inmates; providing community residential programs for newly released persons; securing suitable employment for former offenders and their families; youth home for juvenile boys 13-16 years old; parole planning; family assistance and counseling. The 1985 budget for this agency was $1,823,339. The South Carolina Conference contributed $9,416.00.

APPLACHIAN DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE (ADC), a General Conference Structure, provides a direct missional response to human needs, ecological concerns, economic development issues, and natural resource problems in the Appalachian region. Because the Appalachian region geographically embraces many districts and Annual Conferences, such a unified approach is essential. The mandate for the Appalachian Development Committee (ADC) is found in The 1984 Book of Discipline (Par. 1414.10). United Methodists in South Carolina contributed $1,030 in 1985.

BENNETTSVILLE-CHERAW AREA GROUP MINISTRY. Finding strength in numbers, eleven small churches in this area formed a cooperative ministry to develop strong, informed and active members in individual congregations. The ministry seeks to provide programs for children and youth, leadership training in Christian education, evangelism and missions. Joint Daily Vacation Bible School is held, and the churches have experienced membership growth, and remarkable improvements in their physical facilities. This cooperative ministry is the only one cited by the Board of Global Ministries in the Southeastern Jurisdiction. 1,500 persons were served with 1,800 volunteer hours. The total budget for 1985 was $20,920. $7,708 was contributed by the Conference.

To help people experience a vital relationship with Christ, foster understanding among the races while at the same time provide for basic human needs rank at the top of our priority list. The number of people served in 1985 — 3,800 with 2,000 volunteer hours. This agency has a total budget of $110,198. The South Carolina Conference contributed $7,494.00 in 1985.

CHRISTIAN ACTION COUNCIL South Carolina's inter-church agency. Its purposes emphasized in the Council's program development are:

Cooperative Christianity - the churches growing in appreciation of one another and finding ways of common witness and service, and

Christian Social Witness - study and action on public issues in light of Christian morality

SPECIALIZED MINISTRIES (B)

ANDERSON CRISIS MINISTRIES seeks to bring churches and social agencies together to serve needy and hurting people. Their expressed desire is to help individuals become productive members of society. This is done with a staff of four persons: a director, Mr. Archie Morgan, an assistant director, a street counselor and secretary, and a camp counselor. This agency has the only crisis line in Oconee, Anderson, Pickens, and Abbeville Counties. In addition to answering crisis calls 24 hours a day, the center provides counseling and referral services, operated camping program for inner city and low-income families, programs dealing with drug and social adjustment, care centers in high risk crime areas, and teaches photography to youth in Vocational Rehabilitation Schools.

GRAND STRAND LEISURE MINISTRIES. GSLM is a project of the Grand Strand Council on Ministries. It operates four programs: (1) Campground Ministries with 5 chaplains providing services at 7 campgrounds. The chaplains are seminary students who are paid $150 per week for 15 weeks a year. Rev. Some are stranded away from home with no resources, some are runaways, some have been abandoned, some on drugs and other addictions. (4) Surf and Sand Mission is a vacation

Bible school type program held for a month at two different locations with 200 to 300 children present each day. The conference contributes $12,000 to the Grand Strand Leisure Ministries.

GREATER SPARTANBURG MINISTRIES. The Spartanburg District Council on Ministries, under leadership of Dr. McKay Brabham, helped initiate a committee in July 1974 to study and determine the need of an Urban Ministry in Spartanburg. In August 1974 the Spartanburg District Council on Ministries endorsed the basic concept of an ecumenical ministry. At the same time other denominations were endorsing the program and including it in their budgets. The birth was good and the program was developed and matured into an effective ministry of reaching and touching "forgotten" persons in Spartanburg and adjacent counties. Greater Spartanburg Ministries served 11,411 people in 1984. Volunteers gave 1800 hours in programs such as providing chaplains to youth corrections facilities (Spartanburg Boy's Home, Spartanburg Girls' Home), the Children's Shelter, family court, city and county jails, Northside Correctional Center, Livesay Work Release Center. In addition GSM provides religious services, counseling, and tracts to migrants in Spartanburg County. The director, Rev. Roy Russell, a member of the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, counsels with street people and those referred by the courts. GSM operates "The Market Place" which provides clothing and other goods at thrift-shop prices to the needy and also provides employment for juvenile offenders referred by the Family Court. The 1985 budget totaled $81,252 of which the conference contributed $8,000. In addition to direct support by churches, GSM benefits from an endowment fund it set up in 1978.

KILLINGSWORTH. Killingsworth is a transition home for women who have experienced a crisis in their lives. As they move from a time of difficulty or brokenness to a more wholesome and holy life we provide a supportive community of love and concern and challenge. In addition to room and board, we offer counseling, education, spiritual development, job placement, and growth through healthy interpersonal relationships. Killingsworth provided residential care for 125 women in the first nine months of 1985. Volunteers gave 580 hours of service. Budget for 1985 was $97,900; the conference provided $10,773.

PHOEBE TAYLOR MEDICAL CLINIC is a new specialized ministry housed within Bethlehem United Methodist Church, John's Island, South Carolina. Presently the clinic is operated by a single private practitioner, Dr. Harold J. Elliott, M.D., with two clerical assistants, as a private fee-for-service community clinic, open five days per week.

Its primary purpose is to provide adequate medical care for all people regardless of their ability to pay — adequate medical care offered as an expression of Christian love. The care we seek to provide includes training in good nutrition, prevention of disease, good health habits, assistance in obtaining available welfare and insurance benefits, counseling and referral, and calls to the home bound.

The 1985 budget was $392,277 to which the conference contributed $4,500.

UMVIM (UNITED METHODIST VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION) has as its purpose the attempt to involve lay and clergy in a more meaningful way in the life of the church. During 1984 a medical doctor spent 2 weeks in Africa; packaged and shipped 602 pounds of medical supplies, eye glasses, TB Kits, mid-wifery kits, school supplies; secured a coordinator for recruiting volunteers to rebuild houses in McColl, SC (Tornado disaster); an eleven member building team raised money and built a church in St. Vincent; 3 Ophthalmologists spent a total of six weeks in Jeremie performing general eye care for surgery patients; selected and now funding, through contributions from churches across the Conference, a third Haitian student at Columbia College; secured two agronomists for LaGonave and Petit Gouave and funding same. Purchased and shipped an X-ray unit for the TB Clinic in Jeremie. Sent a volunteer to this unit plus a second unit which has been contributed.

The operating budget for 1985 was $2,000. The Conference funded the total operating budget.

WALLACE FAMILY LIFE CENTER. Located in the tri-racial, rural area of North-west Marlboro County, South Carolina, the Wallace Family Life Center seeks to provide a special space for our community to "dance with God." Through various programs of family life enrichment and education, we continually seek to find new ways to reach out, from neighbor to neighbor. The center currently offers the following programs each week:

Adult Education program, Continuing Education, and Literacy tutoring (Child care provided).

Adult Enrichment programs (guest speakers, singing and sharing, crafts, films, and the opportunity to meet wonderful friends (Lunch included).

Aerobics Exercise and Nutrition Class (led by celebrities from outside and within Marlboro County!)

Young Adult Group (discussions, guest speakers, films, recreational trips, and refreshments.) Children are welcome.

Children and Youth meetings (on rotating basis: Reading stories, watching films, singing, outdoor recreation, trips, crafts, and refreshments).

In 1985 the center served over 215 persons. Volunteers gave 2,245 hours of service. The 1985 budget was $44,083. The conference contributed $10,000.

REPORT FROM THE TASK FORCE FOR NEW CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND REDEVELOPMENT A PROPOSAL FOR DEVELOPING AND IMPLEMENTING A STRATEGY FOR NEW CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND CONGREGATIONAL REDEVELOPMENT
WITHIN THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE VISION STATEMENT

Our vision is to develop new congregations and to redevelop existing congregations so that we may fulfill the mission that Christ has given us to receive persons into the church and to equip them for service and outreach. Our specific goal is to receive members at a rate equal to — or in excess of — state population growth between 1986-2000 by:

1. Establishing new congregations in communities where projections indicate a population sufficient to support a vital church and among missional constituencies.
2. Reviewing all congregations with regard to their growth and missional potential and vitality.
3. Resourcing existing congregations in terms of leadership, funds, and program development to help them realize their potential for mission and outreach.
4. Encouraging innovative forms of mission including cooperative parishes and community outreach programs, etc.

PROCEDURE

- I. Establishing a Coordinating Committee composed of one representative of existing appropriate conference boards and agencies, appointed by the board or agency chairperson, a representative of the Cabinet, and one person from each district appointed by the District Superintendent. The Bishop will chair the Coordinating Committee. The Committee shall be responsible for developing overall strategy and plans for congregational development and redevelopment for annual conference approval to be implemented by the various conference boards, agencies, districts, and local churches.
- II. A strategy for congregational development and redevelopment will include:
  - A. Developing membership growth and church development goals to recommend to the annual conference.
    1. Study state's population and projections of growth and distribution by communities.
    2. Use such projections in consultation with District Superintendents to select areas in which to begin new churches.
  - B. Identify communities and constituencies in our state for which we have a missional responsibility.
    1. Develop ways to respond to these responsibilities in cooperation with the districts either through formation of new congregations or the use of existing congregational resources.
  - C. Identify in cooperation with District Superintendents churches which need and have the potential for redevelopment in order to fulfill their mission. Assist the churches in their development using existing conference resources and newly developed resources.
  - D. Develop funding and personnel resources for congregational development and redevelopment.
    1. Recommend to the annual conference plans for funding this as a major resource initiative.
    2. Work with the Cabinet in providing ministerial leadership with skills and commitment to meet new church and congregational redevelopment needs
- III. The coordinating committee shall be activated immediately (within 30 days) after the adjournment of this session of the Annual Conference.
  1. All unused funds allocated for the Task Force set up by the 1985 session will be available to the coordinating committee for the remainder of 1986.
  2. The Council on Finance and Administration is requested to fund the coordinating council in the amount of $2,000 for 1987.

- IV. The Annual Conference will provide $20,000 for research and planning during 1987. These funds will be used to begin the work as outlined in Section II. A comprehensive plan and strategy will be presented at the 1987 Conference.
- V. The Coordinating Committee will be responsible to the Conference Council on Ministries.

THE COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

This year, the Commission on Worship planned and carried out three programs. These included two separate workshops on worship for the Charleston and Orangeburg Districts, on April 30, and April 28, respectively. The Charleston workshop focused on involving children in worship, while the Orangeburg workshop was more general in nature. Over 100 people of many ages and races attended each.

In addition, the Commission co-sponsored with the Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music and the Other Arts Music and Worship Convocation, February 1-2, and the Youth Choir Festival, May 10-11. Both events were held at Columbia College and were well attended.

The Commission on Worship also planned and conducted many of the worship services at Annual Conference 1985 including: the Daily Communion Services, the Sunday Evening Service of Holy Communion, The Memorial Service, and the South Carolina Bicentennial Service.

We look forward to an exciting 1986 during which we will be sponsoring five programs including the Youth Choir Festival, the Music and Worship Convocation, Resources for Heritage Sunday, Resources for Inter-racial Worship, and Resources for Women in the Pulpit Sunday.

THE COMMITTEE ON CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING

The Committee on Career Planning and Counseling met in November 1985 and January 1986 and continued to implement programs designed to develop comprehensive career planning opportunities for persons at various stages in their lives. Discovery Weekends (Career assessment workshops for youth and young adults) were held in Union in April and Bamberg in August. A Discovery Weekend planned in North Augusta in May had to be cancelled due to lack of registration. We have had 19 inquiries beyond these three in 1985 and have sent information to persons interested. The Discovery Weekend in Bamberg cut across age and racial lines and included some adults, one of whom is continuing to follow up with other career counseling. A Discovery Weekend is planned for March 1986 in the Valley Area at Langley, and a career assessment workshop for the Columbia District youth is also planned in March at Virginia Wingard. A Discovery Weekend brochure was developed and mailed to pastors, to the Youth Director of Lake Junaluska, and were distributed at the Annual Conference. Four articles were written for the Advocate concerning the work of the Career Planning and Counseling Committee. Articles on Discovery Weekend have been placed in district digests and newsletters as well. The executive committee of the Career Planning and Counseling Committee participated in the Bishop's Symposium on Support for Parish Ministry in April, 1985. Dr. Salters participated in a career development training workshop for supervising pastors with the Board of Ordained Ministry in the summer of 1986. Austin Watson and Ben Barnes met with the EMLC Committee and wrote a proposal for support for funding to identify and cultivate candidates for ministry from minority churches. $1500 has been received from the EMLC for this funding for 1986 and that task force is establishing this program. A career assessment workshop for ministers is planned for May 1986, to be led by Dr. Salters. Career Counseling for ministers is available, and fee supplements where financial assistance is necessary are also available. Contact Dr. Salters for further information on these issues. The other task forces working on pre-retirement, women, and mid-life career changers are involved in implementing their programs. The Committee also plans to participate in the Youth Fair on April 26 in Columbia. The Committee appreciates the support from various groups within the Conference and hopes to continue to provide meaningful experiences in career development.

THE COMMITTEE ON PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

In 1984, the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling was given new objectives and goals adopted by the conference calling for "fee supplements enabling clergy to receive services from a conference approved Pastoral Counseling Service." Effective June 19, 1986, this committee will offer a program titled, "Pastoral Counseling Services: Fee Supplement Program" which will serve under the mandate of:

Objective #5: To strengthen our witness for God's Kingdom in the social order (C.C.O.M. Vision Statement '85-'88).

C.P.C.C. Objective #2: "That by 1988 there shall be in place in the S.C. Conference an effective system for dealing with pain." (adopted at the '84 session of the Annual Conference)

C.P.C.C. Goal 2.2: To begin in 1986 allocating a percentage of the C.P.C.C. budget for fee supplements, enabling clergy to receive services from approved Pastoral Counseling Services.

Through this program the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling seeks to assure the availability of pastoral counseling for the following:

- (A) Clergy who are related to the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church in the following categories:
- (1) Full Connection
  - (2) Probationary Members
  - (3) Associate Members
  - (4) Local Pastors (Full-time and Part-time)
  - (5) Student Local Pastors
  - (6) Certified Candidates for Ordained Ministry
  - (7) Retired
  - (8) Any of the above for a period of six (6) months following location or termination.
- (B) Family members of Clergy listed in (A) above in the following categories:
- (1) Spouses
  - (2) Surviving Spouses who have not remarried

  - (4) Children who for mental or physical reasons are legal dependents of the Clergy family.
  - (5) Divorced spouses for a period of six months from the date of divorce

(C) Diaconal Ministers of the South Carolina Conference, U.M.C. and their spouses and children as outlined in (B) above.

The amount of the fee supplement is to be based upon the financial ability of the person to pay. The maximum fee supplement to be paid from the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling funds shall not exceed $30.00 per session for individual counseling and $10.00 per session per person for group counseling. The Counselor will set the amount of fee supplement under the supervision of the director of the counseling service/center. The fee supplement may have to be adjusted by the committee in the light of available resources.

The limit on the length of time the fee supplement will be paid for any one counselee shall be one year provided that it may continue if a peer review procedure is initiated by the counseling center. Directors shall submit their requests for fee supplements on a monthly basis directly to the Conference Treasurer for payment on vouchers provided by the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling. Vouchers will be prepared so as to protect confidentiality and provide accountability.

Since 1967, Dr. Iverson Graham, Jr., Ed.D. has served as Conference Director of Pastoral Care and Counseling providing Professional Counseling, Professional Consultation, a professional resource person and he worked in establishing the following Pastoral Counseling Service that have been approved by the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling as well as by the Conference to service our new Fee Supplement Program:

- (A) Grand Strand Pastoral Counseling Center — First U.M.C., Myrtle Beach — Dr. Kenneth Smith, Director
- (B) Spartanburg District Pastoral Counseling Center, 109 Kent Place, Spartanburg — Dr. Mitchell Kyllonen, Director
- (C) Pastoral Counseling Service, Trenholm Road U.M.C., Columbia — Dr. Paul Carlson, Director
- (D) Pastoral Counseling and Personal Growth Center, Trinity U.M.C., Greenville — Dr. John Miller, Director

Dr. Graham's retirement becomes effective June 18, 1986, and we will not offer the office of The Conference Director of Pastoral Care and Counseling. The committee expresses sincere appreciation to Iverson for the Christian Ministry that he has rendered within our Conference.

The Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling shares on a steering committee named by Bishop Clark to plan a Clergy and Spouse Retreat. We will continue to convene the annual dialogue regarding pastoral care needs and the pastor care networking annual meeting.

Report No. 2

During the calendar year 1985 a total of 780 counseling sessions were held with 166 eligible clergy and laypersons and their family members. In addition, in cooperation with the Board of Ordained Ministry, nurturing interviews were held with 80 candidates for the Ordained Ministry.

Last spring I led a three-day retreat for ministers' wives at Spring Maid Beach. The attendance was excellent and the group was lively and verbal. I was greatly impressed by the quality of their participation, by the depth and beauty of the worship services, and by the care that obviously had gone into the planning of the retreat. My wife and I thoroughly enjoyed sharing this experience.

As I enter the retired relationship at this session of the Annual Conference, I want to express my sincere appreciation to all the persons who have served on the Committee of Pastoral Care and Counseling during the past nineteen years, to the bishops and cabinet members under whom I have served, to the Conference Council on Ministries, and to the Conference itself for the privilege of serving in this capacity. Most of all, I am grateful to the men, women and children who comprise our parsonage families for the opportunity of sharing with you in times of personal and familial conflict. Even as you have shared your pain with me, so I have shared with you. I am convinced that when two people meet in open and honest dialogue, neither will ever be the same again. You have been my clients, my colleagues, and my teachers, But most of all you are my friends.

Even though I am retiring from the Conference, I am not retiring from ministry. I plan to continue the practice of marriage and family therapy in Florence.

Iverson Graham, Jr., Ed.D, Director

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling of the South Carolina Conference has worked hard to clarify programs. Therefore, portions of the guidelines listed on page 245-246 of the 1981 South Carolina Conference Journal are changed in the following manner:

II B1. (to read) Must be a duly ordained minister in good standing within his/her denomination.

The Committee grants approval to the Saluda Psychological Services Center, Incorporated, 120 Saluda St., Rock Hill - Dr. David B. Riddle, Director. Thus, the Saluda Center becomes a part of our Fee Supplement Program effective June 19, 1986.

We recommend that the 1986 South Carolina Annual Conference applaud Dr. Iverson Graham, Jr., for his excellent spirit in ministering as Conference Director of Pastoral Care and Counseling 19 years in the South Carolina Conference.

Lunne Abram Rouse, Chairperson

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRY

1985 was a growing year for Youth Ministry in South Carolina. The Conference Council on Youth Ministry continues its policy to have a council with 50% of its members ethnic minority. Of our elected officers both our Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson are ethnic minority.

During the year 1985, the Conference Council on Youth Ministries offered seven programs. Of these seven, three of these were new programs. All of our programs were implemented to the fullest. Approximately 4,950 teenagers and adults participated in youth ministry on the District and Conference levels. There was a 30% increase in participation in the conference programs in 1985. Approximately 45% of these persons were ethnic minority.

The strongest program during 1985 was again our Youth Annual Conference. YAC is a week-long event where we offer spiritual growth experiences, workshops to give skills to take back home, workshops on issues of importance to teens, election of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries for the coming year, and election of Youth Service Fund projects. Scholarships are given to ethnic minority and small membership churches from the Youth Service Fund Administrative funds.

Giving to Youth Service Fund increased in 1985. Awards were given at Youth Annual Conference to the top ten churches giving to YSF. Receiving the top award for the largest contribution was Bethany United Methodist Church, Summerville. Under the leadership of Mandy Landers, Youth Service Fund Chairperson, each District was given a goal of $1,000 for YSF. Although we did not reach the $12,000.00 total-youth giving to YSF is on the way to making this a reality. Projects receiving YSF money were: Salkehatchie Summer Service, Killingsworth Home, Anderson Crisis Ministry, Vashti School and Women in Crisis.

The first Spiritual Life Retreat held at Springmaid Beach was a positive experience for those attending. Most of those attending came from small membership churches where there are not enough youth to go on retreats. The conference is offering a valuable experience for those churches.

The CCYM continues to be strong—the youth and adults work well together in planning and implementing youth programs. Our officers for 1986 are: Toris Quick, Chairperson; Marsha Fulton, Vice Chairperson; "J" Stevens, Secretary; Mandy Landers, Youth Service Fund Chairperson; Leah Johnson, Projects Review Chairperson; and Mary Margaret Weeks, Communications Chairperson.

Growth in numbers took place in the South Carolina Conference in 1985 in Youth Ministry. But more important — spiritual growth, leadership development, and growth in skills and understandings of youth workers were an important part of our year. Youth from the CCYM and from youth week experiences are talking with the adults about Christian vocations. Also, local church growth is happening because of Youth involvement in the District and Conference programs.

Toris Quick, Chairperson
June Willson, Youth Coordinator

THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Commission on Religion and Race continues to go about the task of "examining ethnic minority representation on all the conference boards, agencies, commissions and committees, as well as the governing boards of related institutions" — Discipline paragraph 729.

As we continue our responsibility of monitoring, we celebrate the election and service of capable ethnic minorities to genuine decision making roles of leadership. However, we are disturbed by the absence of excitement of boards and agencies who share in this process. The spirit of realizing inclusiveness must be one of an enthusiastic, prayerful spirit which boasts of the joy to be contributing to what is God's will.

We seek to continue our journey by:

- increasing the awareness of Continuing Journey Sunday
- enlisting more memberships into the Henry Evans Society
- promoting the celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday
- We commend South Carolina United Methodists on their first cross-racial appointment. This was a major step toward future equitable appointments.

We further commend black and white churches who were deliberate in initiating shared worship experiences across racial lines.

RESOLUTION by the S.C. Commission on Religion and Race

WHEREAS the S.C. Annual Conference has the highest number of Black United Methodists in Methodism:

BE IT RESOLVED that the S.C. Annual Conference welcomes the opportunity of a Black Bishop serving as its Episcopal leader.

We further hope that the Episcopacy Committee will co-sponsor this resolution with us.

Vera Bodison, Chairperson
Maggie Pasley, Secretary

MISSIONAL PRIORITY COORDINATING COMMITTEE

The Missional Priority Coordinating Committee is made up of a representative from each Board and Agency within the Annual Conference. This Coordinating Committee is composed of 1/3 laymen, 1/3 laywomen, 1/3 clergy, with 50% racial Ethnic Minority persons. The Missional Priority Coordinating Committee is accountable to the Conference Council on Ministries.

Your Priority Committee this past year has sought to be about its task in terms of fostering understanding and clarity about this critical need in the Ethnic Minority Local Church. This committee longed recognized that the journey toward grasping this priority would not be easy but the Gospel mandates us to press forward.

This Priority is not nor has ever been a "BLACK THING" but rather it's a movement by the General Church to equip Ethnic Churches to be MISSIONAL rather than being a MISSION. This Priority is a response to the 305 Black and 2 Korean congregations in South Carolina. Congregations that desperately need to be equipped for MINISTRY AND MISSION. This Priority is a response to the 45,000 Black United Methodists in South Carolina, a growing number of Asian Americans a large population of Native Americans.

The Missional Priority Coordinating Committee has been faithful to the goals and objectives of this mandate of the church. A primary concern has been that of interpretation and the best ways to inform our Local Churches, and to best equip our Pastors' to interpret the Priority to their congregations.

At last years' EMLC Pastors' School, great emphasis was placed upon MISSIONS and the need for Pastors', Churches, and Laypersons to actively engage in MISSIONS.

Persons from the General Church were there to give insights and directions for greater participation.

This past February a "Resourcing and Interpretational Event" was held in Columbia to further interpret the Missional Priority to churches in South Carolina. Leaders from across the State and out of State resource persons came together with about 250 persons both Black and White to further understand the Priority, and to be informed of some of the unique problems that the Ethnic Church is confronted with. This event was well received and from the evaluations was certainly a valuable experience.

Of the 50% EMLC money retained in S.C. $19,172.50 more was granted for buildings, land purchases, renovations, parsonages and leadership development.

The Missional Priority Coordinating Committee is pushing forward with great anticipation hoping that the spirit of this Priority will capture, motivate, and simulate all United Methodist in South Carolina.

Edward H. McDowell, Jr., Chairperson
Sara Shingler, Secretary

A COMPREHENSIVE PLAN for the

ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCH MISSIONAL PRIORITY

The EMLC Coordinating Committee, which is composed of 1/3 laymen, 1/3 laywomen, and 1/3 clergy, with 50% of the members being persons from ethnic minority groups in South Carolina, has developed a comprehensive plan as mandated by the missional priority.

The document gives attention to the fact that our conference has the largest black constituency in United Methodism, and recognizes the need for facility improvement, recruitment of ethnics for ministerial leadership, and aid for the development of programs and outreach ministries.

The EMLC Coordinating Committee recognizes the black community as our largest ethnic minority constituency in South Carolina, but is aware of strong and growing Korean congregations in our state, and a presence of native Americans (through without organized congregations related to our annual conference), and a growing number of Hispanics as well as other Asian-Americans in our state.

The Comprehensive plan gives attention to the biblical and theological foundation which require us all to be engaged in witness and mission, and sees the importance of the priority in enabling us all to be so engaged together.

Recruitment and training of pastors and lay leadership is given real priority, and attention is given to ways in which to encourage and insure ethnic participation in the life of the church at all levels.

Funding criteria emphasize the fact that funding proposals must come from ethnic minority local churches, or from boards and agencies within the conference for purposes directed specifically to the purposes of the Missional Priority.

Grants may be made for land purchase, or for assistance in purchasing, erecting, or up-grading sanctuaries, education and activities buildings, and parsonages. Program ministries may also be approved for grants if they are outreach ministries to strengthen the church's ministry to its community. Also, grants may be made for leadership development.

Each proposal for funding is evaluated by the coordinating committee before being recommended to the Conference Council on Ministries for approval, and plans should include methods for tracking accountability.

The EMLC Coordinating Committee is constantly seeking through its representative membership on boards and commissions to hold the Missional Priority before the planning and action bodies of the Conference, and through committees within itself seeks to address such things as spiritual development, promotion interpretation, reporting, and evaluation monitoring. A funding proposal committee makes recommendation to the full Coordinating Committee, though the Executive Committee is authorized to act on behalf of the full committee in an emergency requiring limited grants.

The comprehensive plan is intended to help us achieve the goal of the missional priority in helping to move the church towards mutuality in ministry and mission and wholeness.

THE COMMISSION ON STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The Commission on Status and Role of Women has been actively involved in monitoring various programs of the S.C. Annual Conference. In keeping with the Missional Priority, information was obtained and shared not only for female/male participation but also for minority/majority participation.

Figures have been maintained for participation at Annual Conference since 1982. The 1985 participation showed a marked increase in the percentage of women and ethnic participation. Participation in the sessions of Annual Conference continues, however, to be dominated by white male clergy. The Commission on Status and Role of Women is seeking ways to address this so women feel empowered and affirmed and thus take an active role in all areas of church participation.

Two conference events were monitored: the Laity Convocation and Pastor's School. Pastor's School was very inclusive with women and minorities in major leadership roles. The Laity Convocation did have ethnic and female participation but was overwhelmingly dominated by white males.

Elected leadership in local churches was monitored by obtaining statistics from quarterly conference reports of local churches. Listed below are statistics for 1985 and 1986:

Position	1985			1986
	Men	Women	Couples	Men	Women	Couples
Lay Leader	87%	13%		85%	15%
Admin. Board Chairperson	83%	17%		81%	19%

It is noteworthy that PPRC Chairpersons tend to be from small rural churches when the chairperson is a woman. Further, it is noted that the Discipline mandates 1/3 (33%) of the trustees to be women.

Participation of local churches in Women in the Pulpit Sunday on the designated date or another date of the church's choosing was monitored. Request for information was mailed to all pastors: 122 responded with 106 stating they did observe Women in the Pulpit Sunday. 37% of those observing the Sunday were led by clergy while 63% were led by laywomen. Again, more participation was noted in small rural churches.

Members of the Commission assisted in Job Function Workshops and the Chairperson participated in the National convocation on Pornography, Violence and Christian Values. In the fall, one member of the General Commission Secretariat provided training for members of the Commission and led a one-day workshop for women in local churches.

The Commission has been actively involved in planning special observances as we celebrate thirty years of ordination for women within the United Methodist Church.

On September 27, the Commission will sponsor a one-day workshop at Virginia Wingard United Methodist Church in Columbia on Changing Roles of Women in the Church and The World.

As the Commission looks to 1987, efforts will be made to assure equal and full participation of all women, clergy and lay, in all areas of leadership within the church.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

Our commission's purpose is to be an advocate and enabler of Christian unity and interreligious cooperation in our conference and its churches, to the end that Christians of all denominations can worship, study and work together in a truly inclusive fellowship and, further, that Christians and people of other faiths can learn to be good neighbors and advocates for the betterment of the whole human family.

Our training event for local church CUIC leaders was cancelled due to low registration. We are reinstating the CUIC breakfast at the 1986 Annual Conference and re-designing our programs and emphases to meet the challenge of low interest in CUIC matters more effectively.

We have fiscal needs in three areas beyond what we already receive.

- (a) Administrative Funds for sub-committees to meet
- (b) Support for interpretations
- (c) Maintenance or increase of our training budget to send our people to Jurisdictional and national workshops and conferences.

We have organized our selves in task forces to work in five (5) specific areas: (1) celebration, study, prayer; (2) coalitions and joint task forces; (3) conciliar unity; (4) church union; (5) interreligious concerns. We are also making a study of the involvement of District Councils on Ministry and local church work areas in ecumenical and inter religious concerns. Our hope for the future is that every congregation and every District Council on Ministry will recognize the importance of this area of the church's life and enthusiastically join in our work.

Theodis Palmer, Chairperson

RESOLUTION

In an effort to make possible a greater familiarity with the Consultation on Church Union (COCU) Consensus to be considered at General Conference we submit the following Resolution to the S.C. Annual Conference:

- WHEREAS: "The Church of Jesus Christ exists in and for the world, and its very dividedness is a hindrance to its mission in that world." (Discipline, Preamble to the Constitution); and
- WHEREAS the United Methodist Church believes that Christ wills for the church to be visibly one; and
- WHEREAS the 1984 Book of Discipline (par. 69) affirms that "along with other Christians, we are a pilgrim people under the Lordship of Christ;" and
- WHEREAS significant ecumenical proposals continue to emerge throughout the Church of Jesus Christ which envision the achievement of unity through a process of interim stages rather than a single act; and
- WHEREAS in 1962 the United Methodist Church became a founding member of the Consultation of Church Union (COCU); and
- WHEREAS in 1976, 1980 and 1984, the General Conference of the United Methodist Church affirmed the Mutual Recognition of Members, wherein the baptisms of every person conducted by the member denominations are recognized by one another as membership in the Church of Jesus Christ; and
- WHEREAS the COCU Consensus will be before the 1988 General Conference, as it will be before all the member communion's highest legislative bodies, for "claiming" as a theological basis for our continuing life together "in quest of a Church of Christ Uniting";
- THEREFORE the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns recommends that the COCU CONSENSUS: IN QUEST OF A CHURCH OF CHRIST UNITING be read and discussed in local churches (wherever possible in company with congregations of other communions) during the 1986-87 period so that General Conference action may be informed by response from congregations; and that
- The Conference CUIC cooperate with other leadership in enabling this process.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The South Carolina United Methodist Foundation, Inc. was organized seven years ago to be a vehicle for long term stewardship education and cultivation for the benefit of the institutions to which we are committed as United Methodists in South Carolina. The persons who began this work had a vision; a part of that vision was the desire to help people with accumulated assets to be faithful in the use of those assets for the benefit of the Church.

Having been founded just seven years ago, the Foundation is relatively new; however, its member institutions represent many years of accumulated service to people of all ages. Wofford College and Columbia College were both founded in 1854, Claflin College in 1869, Epworth Children's Home in 1896, Spartanburg Methodist College in 1911, The Methodist Home (Orangeburg) in 1953, and The Greenwood Methodist Home in 1971. Now an eighth institution is making its appearance on the scene, The United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee, which has already applied for Foundation membership.

Several features make the Foundation unique. All gifts to the Foundation are gifts to endowment. Thus, they are never spent. Instead, they become a part of an endowment fund which is managed by a competent committee of trustees with investment experience. It is the income and only the income from these gifts which is used. In effect then, these are gifts that keep on giving. They are a permanent investment towards the future support of the institutions of South Carolina United Methodism.

A second unique feature is that income from the endowment is distributed to the member institutions in equal shares. The By-laws of the Foundation do permit the Foundation to receive and invest gifts of $5,000.00 or more for the benefit of one or more institutions. Thus far, however, no donor has desired to pursue that provision of the By-laws in making a gift. Every gift to the Foundation received to date has been a gift for investment to benefit all member institutions equally.

The Foundation exists to work on behalf of all the member institutions of the conference. When a donor is identified with an interest in only one of the member institutions, that donor is referred to the appropriate development officer of that institution.

If there is one word which the Foundation could share with every United Methodist in South Carolina, that word would be a word of encouragement to have a will and to keep that will current. The person qualified to draw a will is an attorney. The initial cost is nominal when compared to the long term liability of an improperly drawn last will and testament. Your will should be representative of your responsibilities and obligations. It should also be representative of the causes and institutions in which a person believes.

Numerous publications are available from the Foundation to assist United Methodists in South Carolina in estate planning, in current and deferred giving, and in the development of life income plans.

TRUSTEES OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST ADVOCATE Report Number 1

ADVOCATE trustees have worked diligently to maintain our commitment to publish the best, most reliable source of information on South Carolina United Methodism.

UMAC AWARDS: We commend the editor, Mrs. Maryneal Jones, and the staff for outstanding work during the year: work duly recognized and honored by the national United Methodist Association of Communicators at their annual meeting held this year in Charleston, S.C.

UMAC awarded the S.C. ADVOCATE three out of four national awards in competition among United Methodist newspapers of less than 15,000 circulation for 1985. For the second consecutive year, the S.C. ADVOCATE won GENERAL EXCELLENCE and EDITORIAL CONTENT/WRITING. This year the S.C. ADVOCATE also won LAYOUT AND DESIGN.

In addition, UMAC presented Mrs. Jones the BEST NEWS STORY award for her clear and dispassionate coverage of the Bynum tax story.

Since becoming ADVOCATE editor seven years ago, Mrs. Jones has received 10 awards in UMAC's national competition. We feel this not only confirms the professional journalistic skills of the editor and staff, but also assures our readers that the S.C. ADVOCATE is a consistently reliable and well-written conference newspaper. We intend to continue this tradition of excellence by constantly seeking to improve our conference newspaper.

PERMANENT FUND: In early 1986 ADVOCATE trustees established a PERMANENT FUND to endow the ADVOCATE. This action formalized a board policy of protecting cash assets received from sale of the Lady Street building. It also keeps faith with the original donors who provided the Lady Street building to generate operating funds for the S.C. ADVOCATE. And it provides a means by which interested persons can contribute now and in the future to ensure operating income for the newspaper.

Initial payment into the Permanent Fund consisted of $500,000 on hand from sale of the Lady Street building and the previously received payments from the $350,000 interest-free loan made to The Methodist Center to construct new conference offices. ADVOCATE trustees will add to the Permanent Fund each year by preserving the remaining loan payments to be received from the annual conference.

ASSOCIATE EDITOR POSITION: This year ADVOCATE trustees upgraded the part-time staff position of assistant editor to that of a full-time associate editor. The Rev. David Arant will be fulltime in this position following the 1986 Session of the Annual Conference. We welcome David to the ADVOCATE staff. He brings to the task maturity, news and editorial skills, and insightful knowledge of South Carolina United Methodism.

READER INTERESTS: In 1985 35,000 South Carolina United Methodist laypeople and ministers read the S.C. ADVOCATE regularly. A review of the newspaper's contents revealed that 109 laypeople and ministers used the S.C. ADVOCATE as a forum for expressing their opinions on issues of vital concern. A dozen laypeople contributed columns or interpretive articles. And seven ministers submitted guest editorials. We applaud such interest and involvement from those who share our belief that the S.C. ADVOCATE is an essential link between the local church and conference structures.

Further evidence of our readers' interest came when we discontinued the Sunday School lessons. We heard our readers across the annual conference saying that they wanted the lessons continued. So, by popular demand, we have reinstated the weekly column. We appreciate that kind of partnership.

In an effort to address needs among our readership, we have instituted two new regular columns. Last June the Rev. Dr. John Miller, a certified pastoral counselor, began writing a column which responds to questions submitted by readers. Dr. Miller's demonstrated knowledge and sensitivity have generated a significant and loyal readership.

Recently we began a monthly children's column designed to appeal to young readers. We believe this column will further promote the ADVOCATE as a family newspaper, while establishing the ADVOCATE as essential reading for South Carolina United Methodists of all ages.

FINANCIAL CONCERNS: Our five-year financial outlook (computed on conservative fiscal assumptions) projects ever-growing budget deficits, beginning in 1986. The reason is simple: the cost of publishing the ADVOCATE is increasing at a faster rate than income.

The most dramatic and alarming cost increase has come through postal rates. The current 1986 postal rate reflects a drastic 67% increase over the 1985 rate, i.e., $32,500 in 1986 compared to $19,500 in 1985! This budget item alone adds approximately $1 to the cost of each subscription.

Against this trend the ADVOCATE trustees have made every effort to contain costs and expenditures. We have worked to maintain affordable subscription rates. We have resisted the prospect of filling our pages with advertisements. And we have limited our annual requests for conference subsidies. Fiscal responsibility dictates, however, that the trustees take prudent steps to offset anticipated deficits.

Toward this end ADVOCATE trustees will review present subscription rates and plans, while promoting increased circulation. We will seek some increase in advertising rates and volume. And we will ask the S.C. Annual Conference to supplement the 5% increase in subsidy we had planned to request prior to the two unexpectedly high postal rate increases in 1986.

CONCLUSION: We appreciate the opportunity to serve South Carolina United Methodists through the pages of the ADVOCATE. As stewards of your trust we commit ourselves to continue publishing a conference newspaper that upholds the highest standards of professional journalism, while providing the most reliable source of information on South Carolina Methodism.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES SOUTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST ADVOCATE REPORT NUMBER 2 RECOMMENDATIONS

1. In a year in which The ADVOCATE has experienced a 67% increase in postage costs, The Advocate Board of Trustees has requested Council on Finance and Administration to appropriate for the 1987 Conference year $49,612.50 (up 5% over 1986) to subsidize the cost of publishing and mailing The ADVOCATE. We ask the Conference to support this request and to approve this level of support.

2. The trustees have requested Council on Finance and Administration to approve a special supplement in the amount of $3,400 to help offset our 67% increase in postage costs. We ask the Conference to support this request.

3. The ADVOCATE Board of Trustees respectfully requests that the Conference give its endorsement to The ADVOCATE as our official conference newspaper, urging each pastor, local church, and United Methodist to become a regular reader by subscribing through the All Family or Church Leader Plan, or individually.

Respectfully Submitted,
Van B. Thomas, Jr., Chairman

THE MEMORIAL SERVICE SERMON

Hebrews 11:10

"For he looked forward to the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God."

Revelation 21:2

"And I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband."

These words sum up the lives of all true believers and those that we memorialize this morning. We look forward to a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

The writer of the book of Hebrews pictures Abraham traveling toward a city, looking, searching for this special place, but never arrives. The writer says he sojourned, traveled, roamed, wandered in the land of promise as in a foreign land living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise.

However, he desired a city which has foundations. The writer gives us the implication that he never arrived in that city while on earth.

As it was with Abraham, so it is with the human family; we never find that city in this world. All of our cities are incomplete; full of crime, anguish, despair, ungodliness and injustice. Also, our knowledge, our characters and our accomplishments are incomplete.

Paul sums it up beautifully in his Hymn of Love: "For now we see through a glass darkly; for now we know in part."

Our Lord realized this in his earthly journey also, for He said, "The birds of the air have nests, the foxes have holes, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.

Are we saying that God is closer to the animals than to us? O, no, there is another chapter to our story, another sequence yet untold.

We have our mountain top and valley experiences in this incomplete world. We have our moments of heightened joy that comes so far, few and in between the sorrows of the world. However, our Lord reminded us as He prepared for his ascension, "Let not your hearts be troubled...in my father's house are many mansions. I'm going to prepare a place for you and I'll come again."

A place where thirst is quenched by water and hunger is satisfied.

A place where there is no humiliation and divisiveness.

A place where there is no more clergy against clergy, clergy against laypersons, laypersons against clergy.

A place where whites will no longer be against blacks and blacks against whites.

A place where women and men will not be shaken by the turbulent winds of life.

A place where the corroding hands of time will have no effect on us.

A place where justice will roll down like waters and righteousness like an ever flowing stream.

A place where nations shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.

A place where nations shall not lift up swords against nations, neither shall they study war no more.

The ones we memorialize today, while on this earthly pilgrimage, experienced their unwillful hopes and unfulfilled dreams. Yet, amidst these adversities, they longed for a city where life would be complete.

And, once in a while, I too, as a fellow laborer, need to be reminded that I'm a transient and a pilgrim.

Dr. Sandy Ray, a noted black preacher, makes the point that we have no continuing city here. He tells of how he found himself enjoying this world a little too much; getting along too well here, becoming adjusted and settling down to this world as if it was his permanent home. He stated that once in a while he needed something to remind him that this will not be the end.

Some years ago, he stated, he was rushing home to a funeral of one of his ministers, and as he was going from Columbus and as he was in a rush, he got on the wrong plane. When he got near Washington, he was asleep and the stewardess came and shook him and said: "Fasten your seat belt, we're coming into Washington." Then she said: "This flight terminates in Washington." But he had a ticket to go to New York! He got terribly distressed, and as soon as he got off the plane in Washington he rushed up to the counter and told the agent, "Look, I have a New York ticket and my flight has terminated in Washington." The agent said: "O yes doctor, you go right to gate No. 2. You have continuing reservations!"

We must so work, so serve and so live wherever we're sent that when we come down to death, when death calls at the grave and says, "Your flight terminates here," there'll be another messenger who will walk up and look at the ticket and say, "O yes, this flight does terminate, but you have continuing reservations."

John on the Isle of Patmos who was in the spirit says, "and I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away; and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband."

I do not think I understood for a long time why there was to be no more sea. I saw no connection between the absence of the sea and the heavenly life. And then I remembered that John was a prisoner on an island and the sea became the walls of his prison. It was the sea that shut him in. It was the sea that stood between him and his work. It was the sea that kept him away from his friends. So, it was only natural that he should write, "when I get home to God, the narrowing, cramping, confining walls of this island prison will be gone, for there shall be no more sea."

Golden streets, gates of pearl, the welcome table. But no more sea.

But the good news about heaven that I like best is where John states of those who overcome and reach the heavenly home, "and he shall go in to come out no more." There is permanency in that city. There's completeness.

There in our eternal home are many abiding places. They suggest permanency and spaciousness because Jesus said, "There will be an unnumbered multitude of all nations and kindreds and peoples and tongues."

There will be variety there, as we have never known here. There will be children from far and near. There will be saints of all ages; the saints will be there, impetuous Peter, sorrowing Thomas, cautious Phillip, John with his heart on fire, Eugene McCants singing, "when we all get to heaven what a day of rejoicing that will be, when we all see Jesus, we'll sing and shout the victory," and those who have served in the South Carolina Conference.

I don't know completely what life in the eternal home is going to be, but the promise is that God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes. No more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain.

"I know not, I know not,
what joy awaits me there,
what radiance of glory
what bliss beyond compare

For Glory, dwells in Beulah Land!

In the name of the Creator, the Son and the Holy Spirit! Amen

The Rev. Angelin Jones Simmons

ROBERT ALLEN BROWN

November 8, 1922 — May 10, 1986

"We know that as Christians, through our Christian lives, we preach our own sermon and all that we can do, in such a celebration of worship, is but for a moment to recall very brief glimpses to give us hope and to give us help. At about 7:45 on last Saturday evening, Robert Brown laid aside this earthly body, one that had served him well but one that had suffered much and was ready to be laid aside, and in its place he claimed that resurrected body given by his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ." With these words from his District Superintendent the body of Robert Allen Brown was returned to God's good earth from whence it came to await that day when "The trumpet shall sound and the dead shall be raised incorruptible."

Robert Allen Brown was born in Palmyra, Pennsylvania on November 8, 1922, a son of the late Charles and Ella Grace Smith Brown. He received his education in the schools of that area and completed the Conference Course of Study at Duke Divinity School. His college education was interrupted with the outbreak of World War II and he answered the call to serve his country in its time of great crisis. He served honorably on active duty and continued his support through the various veteran's organizations and at the time of his death was chaplain of the Lynchburg Post #140 of the American Legion. Following his discharge from active military duty, Bob moved south to eventually make his home in Scranton.

His earlier years in Pennsylvania were spent in the EUB Church and on August 29, 1971, he became a member of the Scranton United Methodist Church. Immediately he began to study and work to prepare himself to serve his local church, serving as the Chairman of the Council on Ministries, Chairman of the Administrative Board, Lay Delegate to Annual Conference, Teacher of the Adult Bible Class, and as a Certified Lay Speaker in the district. Wherever there was a need and an opportunity to serve, Bob was always ready and willing to serve and to give his all for his local church and for the Christ whom he served.

In the summer of 1978 Bob felt the hand of God on his life calling him to a higher service in the church and he immediately began preparing himself to serve as a pastor in the South Carolina Conference. In a letter dated October 2, 1978 to his District Superintendent, Dr. George Watson, Bob said: "Due to my age and lack of college education I would find excuses, but God's insistence has assured me that I can do all things with His help. I love people and I love to share with them." That was the spirit with which he answered the call and the spirit with which he served.

Bob Brown served the Ruby Charge, the Dorchester Circuit, and at the time of his death he was serving as pastor of the Lynchburg Charge.

Robert Allen Brown leaves behind to follow later into that everlasting Kingdom, his wife, Nancy Floyd Brown; daughters Mrs. Susan Matthews, Mrs. Donna Cook, Miss Elizabeth "Beth" Brown and Mrs. Shelly McKnight. He also is survived by one son, James F. Brown.

All who were acquainted with Bob were deeply impressed with his determination and zeal, and even though the number of years he served were only eight, he packed a heap of ministry into that period of time.

Funeral services were conducted on Monday, May 12, 1986 at the Scranton United Methodist Church by his District Superintendent, Rev. W. Harvey Floyd, assisted by Revs. Charles Moore, Joseph Poston and Lindsey Rivers. Burial was in the church cemetery.

REUBEN THOMAS FARMER
August 1, 1900 — March 23, 1986

The Rev. Reuben Thomas Farmer's life spanned the first eighty-five years of this century. He was born in Lee County near Bishopville on August 1, 1900, the son of Samuel Silvester and Mary Kennington Farmer. After studying in Lee County public schools and Aynor High School, he finished Carlisle Military School in Bamberg. He furthered his education through LaSalle Business Course, then Emory University and the Conference Course of Study as he responded to God's call to serve as a minister.

Mr. Farmer and Almeta Mary Sue Talbert were married in the Methodist parsonage of Rev. German in Bethune on September 1, 1924. Their children are Reuben Zach, a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference, and Evelyn F. Boone.

First licensed as a Baptist pastor, he began his ministerial career as pastor of Harmony Baptist Church in 1925. He transferred to the Methodist Church in 1945. He received his deacon's orders from Bishop Clare Purcell in 1947 and elder's order from Bishop Costen J. Harrell in 1949. He served the following United Methodist pastorates: Summerville Circuit, 1945-50; Rowesville Charge, 1950-56; Glendale Charge, 1956-57; Union Charge, 1957-60; Mt. Vernon 1960-64; Rowesville, 1964-68. After retiring in 1968, he served at Sawyerdale as a retired supply. He was a Master Mason in Progress Lodge 356.

The Rev. and Mrs. Farmer made their retirement home in Rowesville. Although not employed by the church in his later years, his ministry never ceased. He continued to serve the church and fellow persons and to show an active interest in the life of the congregation and the connectional church.

Reuben Thomas Farmer was a 'good shepherd' to those in his pastoral care and many beyond.

JAMES CARSEY INABINET
July 13, 1898 — July 9, 1985

James Carsey Inabinet was born in the town of Bowman, a son of the Rev. James Kirkland Inabinet and his wife, Elizabeth Felder. He was reared by his stepmother, the late Minnie Quattlebaum Inabinet. He was first married to the former Miss Belle Funchess who died in 1950. He was united in marriage a second time with the former Miss Sadie Peeples, who faithfully stood by him for 34 years until his death at age 86.

The Rev. Mr. Inabinet is survived by his wife, known by her friends as "Sue", a son, J.C. Inabinet, Jr., and a daughter, Mrs. Mildred R. Bennett.

Having been born in a small rural town, Mr. Inabinet's ministry for the most part was upheld and guided by a compassion for people close to his heart and background. In 1962, the Rev. Mr. Inabinet was selected by the Town and Country Commission of the South Carolina Conference as the outstanding Minister of the Year serving a rural circuit appointment.

During his ministry, Mr. Inabinet served 17 charges and 41 churches. He served appointments in the South Carolina United Methodist Conference for 56 years before retiring for the third time in June 1977 at Main Street United Methodist Church in Bamberg.

It was my good fortune to have known Brother Inabinet for more than 40 years. In my own ministry, he was pastor of my home church. During his closing years I was privileged to share his fellowship as a resident of The Methodist Home, Orangeburg. Even in times when his mind wandered off to earlier times, his Christianity showed through. As he listened to readings of Scripture and the singing of hymns, he joined in repeating the familiar words that had been dear to his heart for so long.

Mr. Inabinet was a man of strong convictions and often dared to be different in speaking out on issues he felt detrimental to society. He served his church well and supported its system. He was a veteran of World War I and a Master Mason for 60 years. He was truly a faithful pastor, a loving husband and father, and a good friend. As with the Apostle Paul he "fought a good fight, finished his course and kept the faith". "Henceforth there is laid up for him a crown of righteousness."

Funeral services were held at 4:00 P.M. on July 10, 1985 in Saint Paul's Church Orangeburg, with the Reverends Carl N. Harris, William H. Felder and Ernest M. Heape officiating. Burial was in Memorial Park Cemetery.

One of McCants' favorite songs expressed his hope:

"When we see Jesus coming in glory
When he comes from his home in the sky;
Then we shall meet him in that bright mansion,
We'll understand it by and by.

Farther along we'll know all about it
Farther along we'll understand why;
Cheer up, my brother, live in that sunshine,
We'll understand it all by and by."

ISAIAH DeQUINCEY NEWMAN
April 17, 1911 — October 21, 1985

Senator Isaiah DeQuincey Newman was born in Darlington County, South Carolina, the son of the Rev. Meloncy and Charlotte Morris Newman. He graduated from Clarke College in 1935 and Gammon Theological Seminary in 1937. Rev. Newman married Annie P. Hinton, native of Covington, Georgia on March 26, 1937. Their daughter, Emily, resides with Mrs. Newman in Columbia, S.C.

Rev. Newman was licensed to preach in August of 1929 (South Carolina Conference); ordained deacon, 1933 (Atlanta Conference). He was received into full connection in December 1933 (Atlanta Conference); transferred in South Carolina Conference in 1937 and retired in 1974.

"You are writing a gospel,
A chapter each day,
By deeds that you do,
By words that you say.
Men read what you write,
Whether faithless or true,
Say, what is the gospel according to you?"

During his ministry, Rev. Newman served the following appointments: Bethune 1932-33; Red Oak-Hapeville (Atlanta Conf.) 1933-34; Marietta (Atlanta Conf.) 1934-36; Covington (Atlanta Conf.) 1936-37; Kingville-Providence 1937-38; St. James 1938-40; Wellford-Reidville 1940-42; Orangeburg Station 1942-50; Sumter Dist. Supt. 1950-56; Wesley (Charleston) 1956-58; Silver Hill 1958-60; Organizing Pastor of Francis Burns 1962-64; Camden Cir. 1969-75; West Sumter 1975-82; Organizing Pastor of Middleton-Rosemond 1983-85; Pastor Emeritus of Middleton-Rosemond June 1985 - October 1985.

"He who has learned to disagree without being disagreeable has discovered the most valuable secret of a diplomat"

(Apples of Gold)

The work of Senator Newman gives creditability to the above quote. As state field director in South Carolina for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People from 1960-69 he used diplomacy and the ballot box as instruments for social change. He confronted racial discrimination with voter registration drives and appeals for more black participation. His election to serve as a state Senator for Richland, Chester and Fairfield Counties in 1983 showed that his efforts were not in vain and his beliefs were personified in that one historical event. Along with his ministerial work and service as a lawmaker, he served on: Bd. Educ. (Atlanta Conf.), 1934-37; Social & Economic Relations; Bd. Missions; Conf. Missionary Sec., 1956-72; Del. Nat'l Convention, Democratic Party, 1968, 1972, 1980; Personal Rep., Pres. Jimmy Carter; Solomon Islands, Independent Celebration, 1978; Director, Governor's Office of Rural Dev. Assistant, Commissioner of the State DSS; Bd. State Dept. of Health and Environmental Control; Rich. Memorial Hospital Bd. Directors; Winthrop College, Bd. Visitors; Pres. & Chairman Board of WDPN-FM 103 in Columbia.

Dr. Newman received many honors and awards, among them are the following; the first black elected to the South Carolina State Senate since Reconstruction, October 1983; Hon. D. Hum., Morris Col.; Hon. D. Hum., Wofford College; Hon. D. Hum. Let., Univ. of S.C., 1984; Hon. D.D., Claflin Col., 1984. "They that know God will be humble." Dr. Newman accepted these and numerous other awards and honors as a man of God. He helped so many of us during his life in so many ways. He was never motivated by any personal gain, instead he worked with a hunger for justice and was fed by God.

I have never known any minister who better demonstrated the courage to be active spiritually, socially and politically. His life was complete with the dimensions, (love for self, love for others and love for God), that are eternal shining lights on Christian character.

During the early stage of his infirmity in Richland Memorial Hospital, Dr. Newman had a vision of a church being developed in the Meadowlake sub-division of Columbia, S.C. Thanks to his sincere work, his wife, Anne, Dr. M.L. Meadors, the Cabinet, financial contributors, his medical administrators, members and friends of the church, prayer and God he lived to see the vision turn to reality in what is now know as Middleton-Rosemond United Methodist Church at Meadowlake. This was his final pastorate, which he served with dignity and strength standing or in his wheelchair. His work lives on in us as we strive to good for humanity. Pastoring to Rev. Newman and Rev. J.S. Dial has made me a witness to the value of retired ministers. If you are ever blessed to be a minister to retired ministers, be their pastor for you are appointed so to be, but also be their student and their wisdom you will see.

"Well done, good and faithful servant.

If this accolade of Our Lord is deserved by any of us, it is deserved by the Rev. Newman"

(Bishop Roy C. Clark)

Memorial Service was conducted at Shandon U.M.C. in Columbia on Wednesday, October 23, 1985. Over 1,500 state officials and lawmakers, relatives and friends were at the service conducted by Reverend Luonne A. Rouse; Dr. Newman's brother, Bishop Ernest Newman, and Bishop Roy C. Clark. Over 200 people attended the graveside ceremony with additional leadership from Dr. George E. Meetze, state Senate chaplain and brothers of Omega Psi Phi, social action fraternity. Interment was at Greenlawn Memorial Gardens, Columbia, S.C. It seemed appropriate that the celebration of Dr. Newman's life would conclude at Middleton-Rosemond U.M.C. Multi-Purpose Center, which he brought life to on May 26, 1985.

BESSIE BELLAMY PARKER
May 12, 1912 — January 25, 1986

Bessie Bellamy Parker was born in Longs, S.C., the daughter of Doc and Emma Long Bellamy. She received her education from the Horry County Public Schools, Newberry College, Coker College, and Emory University. On December 26, 1940, she was married to Reverend William L. Parker and they had two daughters, Willie Richardine (Babs) and Sarah Elizabeth. Also, she claimed as her own a stepdaughter, Mrs. Ronald Harvey and a stepson, Reverend Carl L. Parker.

"Mrs. Bessie" as she was affectionately known, first served the church as a layperson. She was most helpful to her preacher husband in the churches he served until his death August 20, 1961. In 1950 at the request of the District Superintendent and in response to the church's need, she answered the call of God to leave her teaching profession and enter ordained ministry. This was to be the pattern of her ministry - to serve where the church needed her. Her compassionate love and outreach ministry covers the entire S.C. Conference and is indelibly engraved in the places the church assigned her: Ruby (1950-57); West Kershaw (1957-59); Pinewood (1959-62); Associate, Trinity-Sumter (1962-63); Twitty-Hartsville (1963-69); Little River (1969-74); Indian Field (1974-78). After official retirement, she continued to serve until her death as Minister of Visitation at Lyttleton Street United Methodist Church and as a special Conference Mission Interpreter and Motivator.

Some other areas of her service include: Trustee, Greenwood Methodist Home, Salvation Army Board, Little River Improvement Association, National Speakers Bureau, Chaplain, Kershaw County Soil Conservation District.

To know "Mrs. Bessie" was to love her and be blessed by her love and friendship. One example of the contagion of that love is seen in her leadership of the Methodist Activity Club, a retiree fellowship at Lyttleton Street. As Minister of Visitation at Lyttleton Street, she saw the great need for retired persons to have additional opportunities for fellowship and service. The Methodist Activity Club was begun and soon had an average attendance of over 100 and a mission involvement in many areas, including tending the Salvation Army kettles at Christmas time.

On Sunday, January 26, 1986, at 2:00 P.M., her family and friends, in a Service of Celebration at Lyttleton Street United Methodist Church, conducted by Dr. Ralph Cannon, Reverend James Alewine and Reverend W. Harvey Floyd, Jr., gave thanks to God for his good gift of Bessie Bellamy Parker. Interment followed at Andrews Chapel United Methodist Church, where she was laid to rest beside her preacher husband "Bill".

CHARLES RAY PURDUE
January 5, 1924 — April 1, 1986

Charles Ray Purdue was born in Greenwood, S.C., the son of George P. and Lucy E. Purdue. He was married to the former Sarah Frances Poole of Athens, Georgia. Their family had three daughters; Mrs. Delores Robinson, Mrs. Susan Terry, and Mrs. Jane Bratcher.

He served for a time in the U.S. Navy, and was in Pearl Harbor when it was attacked by the Japanese, an event which marked the entrance of the United States into World War II.

He received his AB degree from Lander College in 1959, and later was graduated from the Conference Course of Study. He was licensed to preach in 1955, ordained deacon in 1958, and received into full connection and ordained elder in 1962.

During his active ministry he served the following appointments: Greenwood Circuit, Warrenton, Red Bank, Fairfax, Harmony, Bethel (Anderson), Piedmont Park, Gray Court, and Brown Swamp. After being granted Disability Leave in 1982, he made his home in Greenwood, and maintained his charge conference membership at Main St. UMC.

He was an artist with both pen and knife. He freely used his skills in calligraphy to fill in certificates for the church, while letters he wrote were beautifully decorated with designs and pictures. His woodcarving of birds in flight and hands folded in prayer were expressions of great feeling.

He was a poet, and often expressed the teachings of Jesus in verse form, while he also used this medium to give expression to his own insights and feelings. Many of his friends cherish a poem written especially for them.

He greeted most people he met with the words, "I love you." And those who knew him knew also these words were genuine.

He was glad to make visits on behalf of the church, to teach Sunday School Classes, to letter certificates and scrolls—all as long as he was able. He had planned to attend Morning Worship at his church on Easter Sunday, but that morning he was physically unable to go. However, he insisted Frances go, even as they both had planned to do. On Tuesday night, Charles Purdue's free and loving spirit left the body which had grown tired and weak.

The service celebrating and giving thanks for his life was held at Main Street United Methodist Church in Greenwood, April 3, 1986. The Rev. C.J. Lupo, Jr., pastor, and the Rev. James Copeland led the congregation in worship. Mr. Fred Alewine, a long-time friend, paid tribute to his contribution to the Mason Sunday School Class, and read one of Charles' favorite poems which he had written. A part of it follows:

The Pearl of Great Price

You can search the whole world over
For things considered nice;
But you will never be richer
Till you've found the 'Pearl of Great Price.'
We might be on an ocean
Or on a mountain high;
Or on a lonely avenue
Where people pass you by.
You may not be aware of this,
That 'Pearl' is very near;
Just reach right out and touch Him,
That Priceless Pearl most dear.

Pursue God's Pearl of Value,
Enriched with Great Love;
Let your search be endless
For that Jewel from Above.
Try to imitate Him—
You won't be classed a fake;
It's righteous plagiarism
When done for Jesus' sake.
Call him Jesus, Master, Savior
Blessed Redeemer, Lord, and Friend;
King of Kings and Joy and Peace,
Our Life-Giver without end."

Ministers present at the service served as an honorary escort. The entombment was in the mausoleum at Greenwood Memorial Gardens.

— C.J. Lupo, Jr.

BRICE WASHINGTON SHUMPERT
February 22, 1921 — August 11, 1985

The Reverend Brice Washington Shumpert was born on February 22, 1921 in Lexington, S.C., and grew up in the Red Bank area of Lexington County. He was the son of the late Early C. and Bertie Shumpert.

On April 1, 1944, he married Lillie Mae Kyzer of Lexington, S.C. He is survived by his wife, Lillie Mae, and two daughters, Mrs. Christine Tindall and Mrs. Dianne Kyzer, both of Lexington. Rev. Shumpert was a Mason of the Greenwood Chapter and a member of the Hejaz Shriners Temple in Greenville.

Even as a small boy, Rev. Shumpert seemed drawn to the calling of a Pastor and would gather his playmates together so they could be the congregation and he could be the "preacher". In 1959 Rev. Shumpert began the Conference Course of Study at Emory University and completed that study in 1962.

Rev. Shumpert realized a long time dream when he was appointed to begin serving the Eutawville-Target Charge as a pastor in the S.C. Methodist Conference. He served this charge from 1958-61. In addition he served the following charges: Bailey Memorial (Clinton) 1961-62; William-Lodge-Cross Swamp, 1962-63; McClellanville-Ocean Grove-Wren Chapel, 1963-66; Berea-Hood's Chapel, 1966-72; Liberty Chapel-Friendship, 1972-82; Galloway Memorial, 1982-84; Walnut Grove, 1984-85. He retired in June 1985 and made his home in Red Bank until his death.

Our brother served faithfully in his calling as Pastor and Friend. Wherever he went he gave freely of himself and his love, and sought diligently to remain faithful to the Commission of Jesus Christ. Wherever he went he brought love, and laughter, and life. His ministry has not ended but continues in the lives of those he touched.

After a long period of illness and declining health, Rev. Shumpert died on August 11, 1985. The funeral was conducted at Red Bank United Methodist Church, on Tuesday, August 13, by Rev. Dan Bradley, Rev. Clifford Carter, and by Chaplain Hugh Bickley. Burial was in the Red Bank UMC Cemetery.

Success

If, after I have crossed the great divide,
My hovering spirit, lingering near by, hears
The comments that my recent passing caused;
I'd want no sorrow ringing in my ears.
But I should like to hear the low-pitched voice
Of one whom I had touched in passing say,
"My heart has more of sunshine than before,
Because, in life, his footsteps came my way."
If I could know that I had been the means,
Some lonely life to cheer or lift or bless,
As I walked down the long and rugged trail;
Then I would feel that I had known success.

PETER EMANUEL SINGLETARY
July 4, 1918 — March 10, 1986

Peter Emanuel Singletary was born on July 4, 1918, to the late Ben and Minnie Chandler Singletary near Kingstree, South Carolina. He departed this life on Monday, March 10, 1986, in the Lower Florence County Hospital at Lake City after a few years of declining health.

Funeral services were held for the Reverend Singletary on Saturday, March 15 in St. Michael United Methodist Church near Kingstree. St. Michael is the church he grew up in and returned his charge conference relations to when he went on a disability leave from the South Carolina Conference.

Pastor Singletary completed his elementary and high school education in the public schools of Williamsburg County. He graduated from Claflin College (1942), Cleveland Bible College (1949), and Gammon Theological Seminary (1952). He also studied at Oberlin and Howard Theological Seminaries.

Pastor Singletary was admitted on trial to the South Carolina Annual Conference (1866) in 1952, ordained a deacon on October 17, 1954, and ordained an elder and received into full connection October 14, 1956.

Carrie Bailey, of Hartsville, South Carolina and Peter Singletary were married October 4, 1959. To this union a son, Derrick Emanuel, was born May 18, 1963.

Pastor Singletary served faithfully the following appointments: St. Luke, Timmons-ville, Wesley Aiken, Mount Holly, North Marlboro, Mayesville, Denmark, Kingstree Circuit, Oswego Circuit and the Springtown Parish.

During Peter's years of active ministry, he gave the very best that he had to lift up our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and to lead the congregations he served into building new church buildings, new education buildings and improving those buildings that needed improving. While serving the Oswego Circuit, two new churches were built and while serving the Springtown Parish, a new education building was added to the Springtown Church.

Pastor Singletary was involved beyond the local church. He served as a Trustee of the Florence District for a while. He also was a member of the following Boards and Commissions of the South Carolina Annual Conference: Board of Evangelism, American Bible Society, and Religion and Race. He was further involved in the Boy Scouts, the NAACP and a Masonic Order.

If when this life of labor is ended,
And the reward of the race you have run;
Oh! the sweet rest prepared for the faithful
Will be His blest and final "Well Done."

JESSE WISE TOMLINSON
July 10, 1906 — October 23, 1985

Jesse Wise Tomlinson was born in Sumter County, South Carolina, on July 10, 1906, the son of Robert Wise and Isabelle Jane Wilson Tomlinson. He attended the public schools of West Columbia, (New Brookland). He graduated from Wofford College with an A.B. degree in 1930 and completed the Conference Course of Study through Emory University in 1932. He also attended Erskine Theological Seminary.

On November 20, 1935 he was married to Helen Brown of Spartanburg, who was indeed a very special help-meet in his ministry. To this union was born one daughter, Jane Elizabeth (Mrs. Richard Franklin) of Fairfax, Virginia.

Jesse was licensed to preach June 15, 1930 on recommendation of Brookland Methodist Church. He was ordained Deacon, November 12, 1933, Elder November 3, 1935, and was received into full connection in the Upper South Carolina Conference November 12, 1933, and was retired June 1972.

His appointments were: Bailey Memorial (Clinton), 1931-32; Glendale 1932-36; Swansea, 1936-37; Greenwood Circuit, 1937-40; Green Street (Union), 1940-43; Montgomery Memorial (Pacolet Mills), 1943-45; Langley, 1945-50; O'Neal Street (Newberry), 1950-54; Cambridge (Ninety Six), 1954-59; Grace (Lancaster), 1959-63; Limestone Street (Gaffney), 1963-67; First Kershaw, 1967-71. He was granted disability leave for the year 1971-72.

He served the Upper South Carolina Conference as an assistant statistician and on the South Carolina Board of Hospitals and Homes, being one of the original board members of the Orangeburg Home.

Upon retirement Jesse and Helen moved to Spartanburg. For health reasons he was not able to be as active as he would have wished, but he was a beloved member of the Cannons community.

Under his leadership the churches he served made significant spiritual progress. There were also some significant physical improvements in church facilities, but the spiritual growth of churches was his primary concern, and to this he devoted his life. Jesse was a student all his life. His love of books and learning was second only to his love of God. Even in retirement he continued to study and write sermons.

Jesse accepted the appointments given him as an opportunity to serve God and proclaim the Good News of his Lord, Jesus Christ. He was a man of strong faith, great character, compassion and love for his people. The effects of his work in the Christian ministry will be felt for years to come by those who were fortunate enough to know him.

A faithful husband, loving father, a proclaimer of the Gospel, a Shepherd of the flock—these are but a few words one may use to describe this Christian gentleman.

It was on October 23, 1985 that Jesse departed this life to spend eternity with his risen Lord, who came to meet him on that glorious journey to his heavenly Father's bosom. On October 26, 1985 his funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Kenneth G. Bobo and District Superintendent, Raymond T. Gibson, at Cannons Camp Ground United Methodist Church. Though it was a time of "official" mourning, it was time of rejoicing as the choir and congregation sang such hymns as "And Are We Yet Alive", "A Charge To Keep I Have", "Ask Ye What Great Thing I Know", and "O God, Our Help In Ages Past". Just as he had done with his family for many years at the close of the day, we recited the 23rd Psalm, for, indeed, the Lord was Jesse Tomlinson's Shepherd.

PERRY WATSON TURNER, JR.
July 17, 1922 — December 13, 1985

Perry Turner lived, believed and loved. Those three words don't tell the complete story but they come close to catching the essence of his spirit.

I never knew Perry when he wasn't alive, lively and positive. Because he was alive he helped inject life into others. The people of his parishes, the churches he served and the interests he embraced came alive under his influence. Wherever he served it was evident that people and situations were made better. He received appointments that would have been too challenging for many of us and helped them to develop and flourish. Can we ask more than that a vigorous, caring, effective persons came among us and improved our lot as well as that of all around us? Perry was that kind of person.

Perry believed. Early in life he embraced all that's stated in our historic confessions of faith. He believed in the church to which his life was devoted. He believed in persons to whom he was appointed to serve. He believed in the United Methodist Church and was burstingly proud to be one of her pastors. He believed that gentle goodness would exert itself and triumph over wrong. He was a positive, optimistic, fun-loving and sharing man who believed in his mission and looked to a gracious God for guidance in all things.

Perry loved. He loved his family. And his family loved him. Nedra, Vickie, Kathy and David were dearer to him than life and they dearly loved this man who was husband and father to them. In addition to the people he served he loved the brothers and sisters who shared a pastoral calling; persons of our denomination and other denominations. And his was a robust love. He was not a starry-eyed visionary but a flesh and blood man who saw all the rough realities of life and met them with a spirit he learned from our Christ; the spirit of love.

He was born July 17, 1922 and they named him Perry Watson Turner, Jr.; his mother having been Carrie Bishop until her marriage to Mr. Turner. He was a native of Newberry and attended the schools of that city until he had graduated from Newberry College. While a student at Newberry College he married Nedra Bouknight, also a native of Newberry. Together they went to Candler School of Theology while serving appointments in our Annual Conference. Vickie (Harvey), Kathy (Glasgow) and David are their children that came to further bless their marriage and enhance their ministry. They presented to all their parishes one of the finest models of a parsonage family. David's death in an automobile accident, with all its sorrow, did not embitter them but seemed to draw them closer to one another, those they served and to God.

Perry's earthly life ended December 13, 1985. A heart attack in 1983 had caused him to take a disability leave the same year. He had served with vigor and distinction the following appointments: Bath-Clearwater, McCormick, Joanna, Bethel (Anderson), Lynwood-Trinity (Lancaster), Pelzer, Gordon Memorial-Greenbrier (Winnsboro) and Langley. In addition, he gave helpful leadership to a variety of Conference agencies.

A service to celebrate his journey into life eternal was held December 16, 1985 at Trinity Methodist Church in Spartanburg. Dr. James H. Nates and Rev. James Alewine led the service of worship. Perry's body is buried at Rosemont Cemetery in Newberry but his spirit is at home with God.

JOHN EDWARD VOORHEES, SR.
October 23, 1922 — February 9, 1986

The God who loves us, the Christ who redeems us, the Holy Spirit who communicates with us, dedicated parents, and historic St. Matthew United Methodist Church in Taylors, S.C., all conspired to make effective the call of the Reverend John Edward Voorhees, Sr. to a distinguished ministry in the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Dynamic and forceful preacher, dedicated and effective pastor, authentic community activist, keen analyst of humanity, possessing a captivating sense of humor, always loyal to his Master he served, John validated his call.

He was born October 23, 1922, to the late Mr. Albert and Mrs. Martha Nevarious Voorhees. His intellectual knowledge was received from North Greenville College, Duke University and other institutions of higher learning. He never ceased to be grateful for inspiration which he gained at Duke. There was a radiancy in the life and personality of John in school which continued throughout his entire life. He was a veteran of World War II.

He did well all the tasks a minister is called to do, but most of all he loved being a pastor. Having learned the need of people to be loved and cared for, he gave himself as one called to the task, with genuine love and effectiveness. This is perhaps his most enduring memorial. People will remember the difference his pastoral care made in their lives long after his sermons are forgotten.

He shared his unlimited gifts in the following appointments: Pendleton Circuit (Bethel, Bethel Grove, Mt. Zion), Rowesville Parish (Prospect, Central, Mayes Chapel), and at the time of his demise he was serving the Jefferson Parish (Hopewell, Mt. Elam, Sandy Grove, Wesley Chapel).

Every church he served was to him an opportunity to witness for his Lord and this he did with utmost ability.

On June 2, 1956, he married Sunnie Cheeks, and to this union eight children were born. This lovely couple seemed to be most attracted to young people, which triggered them into becoming foster parents for so many homeless boys and girls. Their home was a haven of blessing, peace and goodwill.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sunnie Cheeks Voorhees, four daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth V. Goodwin, Mrs. Donna V. Robinson, Mrs. Angela V. Bowman and Mrs. Martha V. Owens, four sons, Mr. Travis Scott Voorhees, Mr. Robert W. Voorhees, Mr. Gregory A. Voorhees and Mr. John Edward Voorhees, Jr., one sister, Mrs. Florence Brown, three brothers, Mr. Albert Voorhees, Mr. William Voorhees, and Reverend Beckworth Voorhees, twelve grandchildren, one great-grandchild and a host of nieces, nephews and other sorrowing relatives and friends.

He answered God's call to his final appointment in the Veterans Medical Center in Columbia, S.C., February 9, 1986. An impressive Memorial Service was held on Thursday, February 11, 1986, 6:30 P.M., at Hopewell United Methodist Church, Jefferson, S.C., where he was presently serving. Funeral services were held on Thursday, February 13, 1986, 3:30 P.M. at St. Matthew United Methodist Church, Taylors, S.C. Leading the services were the Reverend Jimmy Montgomery, Reverend James E. Alewine, Reverend Levi Green, Reverend Kevin Jefferey, Reverend Oliver N. Greer and the Reverend Clyde A. Anderson. Other attendants were a large number of friends, former members and fellow ministers of the South Carolina Conference. His body was laid to rest in the St. Matthew United Methodist Church Cemetery, Taylors, S.C.

"Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary;
The day must dawn and darksome night be past;
All journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last."

Clyde A. Anderson

NINA ELEAZER BAUKNIGHT
January 18, 1899 — April 4, 1986

Nina Eleazer Bauknicht was born into this mortal life on a cold January 18th in 1899. On the warm afternoon of April 4th in 1986, after 87 years on her earthly pilgrimage, she was born into eternal life.

On January 18, 1918, she became the wife of the Reverend Pinkney L. Bauknicht, which was the beginning of a shared ministry that spanned more than half a century until the death of her husband in 1978. During this time she was always a loyal and devoted wife who gave birth to four surviving children: Dr. P.L. Bauknicht, Jr., of Murrells Inlet; Mr. Lavoy D. Bauknicht of Lancaster; Mrs. Nellie M. Brooks of Columbia; and Dr. Charles M. Bauknicht of Columbia.

Mrs. Bauknicht was quiet, unassuming, gentle, and always ready to respond to the needs of her family, her friends, and the hosts of parishioners she encountered across the years. "Her children rise up and call her blessed" for the fond and cherished memories she left to all of them. Her faithfulness to her tasks will not soon be forgotten by her church, her home and her community. Her name is written large in the annals of those who have "fought a good fight, have finished their course, and have kept the faith."

Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church in Columbia, where she and her husband worshipped during their latter years was a fitting location for the service of memory of her life conducted by the Reverend C.W. McNair and the Reverend William C. Reid on April 7, 1986. She was buried in Greenlawn Memorial Park, almost within earshot of Asbury Memorial United Methodist Church, which was organized by her husband after his retirement and where the name "Bauknicht" is memorialized on one of its buildings. Appropriately, the shadow of the steeple will often cast itself over the last resting place of one whose life we might well emulate.

— William C. Reid

ANNIE RUTH MOSELY ETHEREDGE
December 8, 1945 — June 9, 1985

Mrs. Annie Ruth Mosely Etheredge was born to Lester Mosely and the late Johnnie Mae Culbreath Mosely in Saluda County, December 8, 1945. She died Sunday, June 9, 1985 in Self Memorial Hospital, Greenwood.

Annie joined Pleasant Hill Baptist Church at an early age. She also worked faithfully in the Mine Creek Baptist Church. Following her marriage, she became a member of Branch Hill United Methodist Church. Her service was faithfully rendered in the United Methodist Women of Silver Hill United Methodist Church, Spartanburg.

A 1964 graduate of Ridge Hill High School of Ridge Spring, SC, Annie met and married Ernest C. Etheredge on December 22, 1965. To this union three children were born. A daughter, Darlene Yevoen, preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories: her husband, a daughter, Lakicha Ann, a son, Anthony Tyrone, all of Spartanburg; her father, Mr. Lester Mosely of Ward; one sister, Mrs. Mary H. Butler of Johnston; two brothers, Mr. Albert Mosely of Saluda and Mr. James P. Mosely of Johnston; nine aunts, eight uncles; a father-in-law, Mr. Sam Etheredge, Sr.; eight sisters-in-law, seven brothers-in-law; nieces and nephews and many other relatives and friends.

Services were conducted from the Branch Hill United Methodist Church, Saluda, S.C., 3:00 P.M., Wednesday, June 12, 1985, with the Reverends W.A. Lee, Larry Humphrey, and Raymond T. Gibson, officiating.

CLELIA BANNISTER GARRISON
July 7, 1900 — December 15, 1985

Mrs. Clelia Bannister Garrison, wife of the late Reverend Edward King Garrison, completed her rich life of eighty-five years on Sunday morning, December 15, 1985. Born in Anderson County, S.C. She was a daughter of the late Alexander Monroe Bannister and Lida Kathleen Chesney Bannister Fant. Surviving family includes two daughters, Mrs. Oby B. (Kathryn) Lyles of Darlington, S.C., and Mrs. Charles A. (Clelia) Hand, Jr. of Charleston, S.C.; eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. The eldest daughter, Mrs. Carroll E. (Elizabeth) Hendrix preceded her in death in November, 1984.

At eighteen, Mrs. Garrison married her minister and added to her duties as church organist all the responsibilities and respect of the minister's wife. Rev. and Mrs. Garrison remained devoted to each other throughout sixty-two years of marriage and service through the church. Mrs. Garrison enjoyed teaching Sunday School and working actively in missionary societies.

Her home was always a center for happy encouragement of creativity, for engaging conversation, and for comfortable hospitality. She greeted family, friends and strangers alike with a delightful wit and a dainty manner, both natural expressions of inner harmony and overflowing gratitude for God's gifts of life and vocation.

After her husband retired, Mrs. Garrison was able to live in her stately old home in Darlington, close to family and part of Trinity United Methodist Church, which the Garrisons had served from 1945 to 1950. Members of the church loved her, cherished her wisdom and emulated her charity.

In fragile health, but ever keen and alert, she overcame frailty and banished any hint of self-pity by means of a gentle optimism grounded in mature, joyous faith in Jesus Christ. She embodied the essence of Christian love, welcoming with peace and serene confidence whatever God wrought.

The community of faith gathered in worship to celebrate and to proclaim Advent hope and Easter triumph on Tuesday, December 17, 1985. She was laid to rest beside her husband in Grove Hill Cemetery in Darlington.

CLAUDIA McCALLUM HUCKS
January 7, 1892 — September 8, 1985

Mrs. Claudia McCallum Hucks lived ninety-three years of faith and love before she was gathered into life eternal. In the words of the great Christian educator, Horace Bushnell, Mrs. Hucks grew up a Christian and never knew herself to be anything else but a Christian.

Mrs. Hucks was married on February 24, 1919, to the Reverend Mr. Robert Pinckney Hucks who served faithfully as a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference. Their happy marriage was blessed by four children: Robert, Jr., Frank, Norman, and Elaine. Mrs. Hucks left a legacy of faith to her four children and to her several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

As the wife of a Methodist minister, Mrs. Hucks had her own ministry in every church to which they had been appointed to serve. She found her own ways to serve and was always actively involved as a faithful member of the church and as a caring, supportive wife of a minister. Her legacy of the life of faith and love will live on, not only in her children, but in all those whose lives she touched so personally, and, who in turn, touched others.

Mrs. Hucks' life of faith and love was remembered and celebrated in Christian Worship at her funeral on September 10, 1985, in Charleston, S.C.

NOVEL RICHARDSON JONES
July 16, 1894 — September 6, 1985

Mrs. Novel Richardson Jones, widow of the Reverend Arthur M. Jones died at The Methodist Home, Orangeburg, S.C., September 6, 1985. She was born in Andrews, S.C., July 16, 1894. She married Mr. Jones, August 29, 1922. He was teaching school at the time of their marriage. He was admitted into the South Carolina Conference, November 4, 1932. Two children were born into their homes: Mrs. Anne Jones Wilson, Box 1515, Gainesville, Georgia 30503-1515 and Arthur Marion Jones of Sarasota, Florida 34243.

Funeral services were conducted at Nichols Methodist Church, September 8, 1985, by the Reverend Bruce Sayre, the Reverend Hank Watson and the Reverend Doctor S.M. Atkinson.

Interment the same day at the Jones-Nichols Cemetery.

The above are the facts of her life, but how do you describe such a beautiful personality, such a dear, kind and humble lady? Certainly not by mere factual statistics. It was the privilege of this writer to have known the family for more than fifty years as the devoted wife of this minister, mother of two fine children, queen of many dull parsonages in those days, where the touch of her hands and heart made them brighter for her family and to the communities where they were called to serve. She was one of the dearest ladies one could wish to know. She made the ministry of her husband richer with never a complaint. Beneath her gentle spirit was a strength of character and a deep dedication to her calling as a minister's wife. This was her highest vocation.

When the time of retirement came, Arthur and Novel chose to live in the town of Bishopville. The following expression of how much she meant to her church and community so beautifully expresses her life by a close friend: "A serene and gentle lady, Mrs. Novel Jones, came to live in out town several years ago in retirement."

Novel entered into the life of the community immediately. She joined Bethlehem United Methodist Church, The United Methodist Women, the circles and the Jacob L. Shuford Sunday school class. She was also interested in the Daughters of America and was an active member of the DAR Chapter until her death.

The Jones home was so graciously shared on many occasions. It was always open for guests and meetings.

Novel's strength and courage were especially evident when she had to give up her home and move to The Methodist Home in Orangeburg, where she could no longer care for herself. Her friends could truly say of her - "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount on wings as eagles, they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint." Isaiah 40:31.

SUSAN VIRGINIA ALEXANDER KING
February 23, 1909 — December 3, 1985

Mrs. King received her elementary education at Mayesville Institute School under the founder, Miss Emma J. Wilson. Miss Wilson was a teacher and mentor of Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune.

Mrs. King taught the first grade at Mayesville Institute School for more than 35 years. Her classrooms extended into the community and wherever she went, she inspired and taught, showing young people a better way to live. She was an advisor, a historian, a musician and philosopher. Her life was one of service to the community. Whether it was raising funds for the Cancer Society or for her church or giving to a needy cause in the community, she was always there.

Mrs. King has left us temporarily, but she will never die for her teachings and cultural influence in this community will live forever.

All we can say is: "Thanks be to God for lending us this life as we look to meet her at the Final Graduation in the sky."

Survivors include three stepsons, Rev. Delco King of Onancock, VA., Robert King of Orlando, FL., Ervin King of Washington, D.C.; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Sara L. Brown and Mrs. Cora L. Campbell of Chicago, IL, and Mrs. Lois Dale of Ft. Washington, MD.; two brothers, Rev. State W. Alexander, Jr. of Charlotte, NC, Carl Alexander of New York, NY; three sisters, Miss Viola Alexander and Mrs. Gladys Bates of Mayesville, SC, and Mrs. Loretta S. Lewis of Brooklyn, NY.

The order for the public worship of God, "Witness To The Resurrection" for Mrs. King was held at Trinity Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) on Saturday, December 7, 1985, at 1:00 p.m. conducted by Rev. W.S. Jones, Rev. Dwight Nelson, Rev. O.J. Nelson, Rev. James Washington, Rev. Delos Corderman, Rev. Dr. Robert E. Bligen, Rev. Dr. George Wilson, and Rev. State W. Alexander. Interment was held at the Mayesville Cemetery.

Life is real, life is earnest
And the grave is not its goal
Dust thou art, to dust returneth
Was not spoken of the soul
Let us then be up and doing
With a heart of any fate
Still achieving, Still pursuing
Learn to labor and to wait!
Learn to labor and to wait.

ESTHER HOLT MIMS

Esther Holt Mims was born in Spartanburg, the daughter of Mrs. Eunice Parnell Holt and the late James Rufus Holt of our Conference. She began her life in a loving home that consisted of parents, three sisters, and one brother. Esther was a young child when her father felt God's call to ministry, and so much of her childhood was spent as a "preacher's kid". Shortly after her graduation from Winthrop College, she and Rev. Dwight H. Mims were married on June 1, 1969. From childhood until her death, much of Esther's life revolved around the United Methodist ministry.

"Creativity" is the characteristic that was most obvious in Esther. Her public school teaching was often punctuated by her art-work and writings. She was in demand as a teacher in her church as well. In 1984 Esther wrote a play in celebration of the Methodist Bicentennial which was presented by the Hartsville District UMW at the Conference UMW meeting. Her ability to organize and create was recognized by her husband who welcomed her gifts to their shared ministry.

Esther's lasting influence and faith is shared by her survivors: her husband, Dwight; her children, Hillary and Brian; sisters, Marion White, Abbie Beach, and Jane Carnes; and a brother, Grier; and her mother. The funeral services were held at 4:00 P.M. on Sunday, November 24, at Johnston UMC with Sinclair Lewis, Mike Vandiver, Guy Shealy, and Arthur Holt officiating. Burial was at the Harmony UMC Cemetery in Johnston.

ETHEL CROUT SMITH

May 8, 1896 — May 25, 1986

The gentle spirit of compassion and love that marked the life of Ethel Crout Smith was abruptly and unexpectedly interrupted by a fatal heart attack on Sunday, May 25, 1986. For more than 50 years she had shared the Christian Ministry with her husband and the fruits of their labors continue to be experienced by the countless lives they touched.

Born in Gilbert, SC on May 8, 1896 to Paul S. and Alice Koon Crout, she married D.W. Smith, a widower with a daughter less than two years of age on December 22, 1915. This daughter, Amilee (Mrs. Ralph B. Heaton), was accepted in every sense as Ethel's own. From her union with D.W., Ethel became mother to four other children: Doris (Mrs. Julian W. Smith), Rev. Paul E. Smith (member of the South Carolina Annual Conference), Dr. Betty (Mrs. Ray Cline), and Alice (Mrs. Henry R. Whitmire). To these five children Ethel Smith was an exemplary mother and friend. Also surviving are eleven grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

For the nearly 60 years of marriage, Ethel was D.W.'s faithful companion. When he accepted God's call into the Christian ministry after nearly ten years of marriage, she willingly endorsed and supported his decision although it necessitated the sacrifice of their house and a comfortable income in order to move to Spartanburg where he attended Wofford Fitting School and Wofford College. Facing the hardship of maintaining her household under those early years of educational preparation and subsequent years of moving about in the itinerant ministry, Ethel lived the life of a minister's wife with grace and dignity and beautifully complimented the work of her husband. In churches where they served, she was actively involved as teacher, worker and church leader. She was especially active in the Junior Department and in the work of United Methodist Women.

After his "retirement" in 1956, the Smith's moved into their own home on Greenville's eastside. He continued serving churches in the Greenville areas as a Retired Supply until 1968. At the request of the Greenville District and the Cabinet of the South Carolina Conference, the Smiths began laying the groundwork for a New Church in the Taylors areas of Greenville. Opening their own home to eight persons who responded to a called meeting on February 9, 1968 to consider starting this new church, the Smiths nurtured the fellowship from its birth for the first five years, during which time the church experienced phenomenal growth. Now, 28 years late, Lee Road United Methodist Church is a vibrant congregation of 850 members, due, in large measure, to the faithful ministry of Ethel and D.W. Smith. Brother Smith became Pastor Emeritus of Lee Road Church, a title he held until his death on July 28, 1975. Ethel Smith remained very active in this church right up to the time of her death, seldom missing a worship service or her Sunday School Class (of which she was President at the time of her death). She enjoyed unusually good health for one in her 90th year. She was considered the "Mother" of Lee Road Church and left an indelible mark upon all members and constituency of this church.

The writer became Senior Minister of Lee Road United Methodist Church in June, 1985 and had the honor of knowing Ethel Smith only for a short period of time; however, in that period of time, she became a trusted friend and counselor, beautifully complimenting the ministry as she had done for more than sixty years.

Though abruptly interrupted by her death, that gentle spirit of compassion and love which marked her life lives on in all who knew her. We shall all be eternally grateful to Almighty God for having known Ethel Crout Smith. Her memorial service held at Lee Road Church on May 27, 1986, was conducted by her District Superintendent, The Rev. George S. Duffie, Jr., The Rev. William T. Cooke, Jr., and the writer. Interment was at Woodlawn Memorial Park, Greenville.

GERALDINE FLETCHER WELLS
October 9, 1912 — March 18, 1986

Geraldine Fletcher Wells, wife of the Reverend Robert N. Wells, was born on October 9, 1912, in Marlboro County, South Carolina, and died March 18, 1986, in Bennettsville, South Carolina. From this union was born a son, Robert N. Wells, Jr. She was the daughter of Edward Gibson and Annie McKenzie Fletcher.

Geraldine was a strong person upon whom the family and friends relied for counsel and comfort during difficult periods. She gave herself willingly to others and was an enthusiastic supporter of her husband's ministry.

Due to his sight problem, she served as his chauffeur in the parishes he served and read to him that he might continue his effectiveness as a preacher. She complemented his ministry in the local church as a church school teacher, church secretary, pianist and officer in the United Methodist Women.

A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Duke University, she taught in the public school system for 37 years and was an avid fan of the Duke Blue Devils.

A service of celebration and commitment was held in Pine Grove United Methodist Church in McColl, South Carolina, on March 20, 1986.

JOSEPHINE COTTINGHAM WOODARD
April 30, 1912 — October 19, 1985

Josephine Cottingham Woodard was the devoted partner in ministry with Cellis L. Woodard for forty-five years. Their discipleship together was varied and effective in local church pastorates, district superintendency, and as Methodist Home Administrator, "Jo", as she was lovingly known to friends and church members, was mother of three; James Cellis (deceased), Sarah Ann, and William L. and five grandchildren. These family members "rose up and called her blessed and her husband praised her." This loving person was well prepared for service being a native of Marion, South Carolina, the daughter of Henry K. Cottingham and a graduate of Columbia College.

After retirement and removal to Spartanburg, Jo and Cellis postponed full retirement and accepted supply assignment to Greeleyville in order that Cellis could have opportunity to preach the Good News and provide pastoral care. Such was the dedication of this excellent team.

Jo's funeral was conducted in Trinity United Methodist Church, Spartanburg on October 21, 1985 by her pastor, Dr. James H. Nates.

BENJAMIN SCOTT COOK
September 27, 1984 — May 12, 1986

Benjamin Scott Cook, son of the Rev. Pierce Embree and Joellen M. Cook, Jr. was born in Bamberg September 27, 1984. From almost the moment of birth, it was evident that Scott had special problems with his bones which would require special care and would limit his life expectancy drastically.

In the twenty brief months of his life here with us, he was surrounded by love and care the likes of which one seldom experiences in a full lifetime. His family, his doctors and nurses, his church family and the staff at the National Institute of Health all gave of themselves unstintingly. In turn, all of those whose lives were touched by Scott learned something of life and love and courage.

Scott died in his mother's arms on May 12, 1986. In addition to his parents, Scott is survived by his brother Pierce Embree III and his maternal grandparents.

"He shall wipe every tear from their eyes, there shall be an end to death, and to mourning and crying and pain; for the old order has passed away! Then he who sat on the throne said, 'Behold! I am making all things new!'"

JAMES WILLIARD JOHNSTON III
November 11, 1970 — July 13, 1985

Jay was born and died in Sumter, South Carolina. He was the son of the Rev. James W. Johnston, Jr. and the late Kathey Boozer Johnston.

Jay's life was short lived. He was born with a congenital heart condition which necessitated open heart surgery as a small child and several hospitalizations throughout his life. He lived within physical limitation but what he was able to do, he did his best. He was an honor student in the Gilbert and Sumter schools. He wrote several articles for his class that won special recognition from the President of the United States Education Award and the Governor of South Carolina Education Award. He played in the bands, both at Gilbert and Sumter schools. He loved sports and was a staunch supporter of his schools' athletic teams and players. Jay had a pleasant smile and warm disposition and was admired by young and old alike. He was a dedicated Christian and a participant in his church's activities. He was not a quitter and was determined to give his life in the fight against heart disease. He wanted to be a doctor someday and though he never achieved this goal, the courage and determination he displayed over the years, was an inspiration to all who knew him.

A memorial service was held at Mt. Hebron United Methodist Church, West Columbia, July 15, 1985 conducted by Reverends Wayne Horne, Jerry Temple and Kenny Barwick. A trio, Mary and The Fishermen, sang Jay's favorite hymn, "In Remembrance Of Me." He was buried in the Mount Hebron UMC cemetery.

He is survived by his father, stepmother, Kathy Ann, sisters Rebecca and Jessica Johnston.

WHEREAS such occasions provide an appropriate opportunity for a concrete expression of the "connection"; and
WHEREAS reconciliation and restoration of the minister and the strengthening of the Church are the primary concerns; and
WHEREAS The Discipline 1984 Para. 723, provides for the establishment of a Sustentation Fund designed for the purpose of providing emergency aid to the ministers of the Conference who may be in special need, therefore

SECTION XI

HISTORICAL RECORD OF SESSIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

A detailed history of the South Carolina Conference has been published in The History of South Carolina Methodism by Albert D. Betts (Columbia: The Advocate Press, 1952), and the following chronology is based on the information contained in Dr. Betts' history. When John Wesley called his lay preachers together in London on June 25, 1744, to "confer" on the work of the growing Methodist Societies, the die for the annual Conference was cast. The practice was brought to the American shore as the Methodist Societies grew in the Colonies.

In colonial times Conferences were not neatly divided by the geographic divisions we find today, and, correspondingly, it is difficult to trace precisely a lineage that would make it possible to identify "the first Conference." Dr. Betts refers to the "first American 'Annual Conference'" (p. 34) as the one held in George's Church, Philadelphia, July 14, 1773, on the call of John Rankin who had been sent to America by John Wesley. The South Carolina Conference was organized in 1785, when a "section" of the Annual Conference was called at Louisburg, North Carolina, on April 20, 1785, the first Annual Conference at which Francis Asbury presided. About two years later, on March 22, 1787, the first session of the South Carolina Conference was held in Charleston, with both Bishops Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke sharing responsibilities as presiding officers. From that beginning, the Sessions are delineated as shown in the tables which follow:

SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE JOURNAL

SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
BECKY L. BUIE, TREASURER - COLUMBIA, S. C.

REPORT TO CONFERENCE

YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1985

1. This report presents summaries of the following funds handled by the Treasurer:

Exhibit A

Cash receipts, disbursements and beginning and ending cash balances by disbursing authority, fund or department.

Exhibit B

Invested fund changes and balances including investments held by the Treasurer and others to give a complete picture of funds available to the Conference.

2. The following notes are an integral part of this statement:

- 2.1 All Conference records are maintained and all returns and reports are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, thus recognizing income when received and expenses when paid.
- 2.2 According to the Standing Rules and Resolutions B-146 local church reporting, the Conference Treasurer is required to keep the records open for fifteen days after the year end in order to receive and give credit to churches for late returns. Reflected in these statements are $ 1,324,906.63 receipts and $ 1,410,103.91 disbursements handled by the Treasurer in the period January 1 - 15, 1985. (Corresponding prior year amounts were $ 1,562,648.39 and $ 1,593,870.33.)
- 2.3 At the end of each month, earned income received on investments by the Conference Treasurer is distributed to the Conference Boards and Agencies and to certain district funds on the basis of balances held by the Treasurer on the last business day of the month. Funds which have a zero balance on any day during the month do not receive any distribution. The remaining balance of the income is transferred to the Contingency Fund.
- Approved vouchers, short term loans and transfers to other Boards, Agencies or Funds are made from the Conference Contingency Fund as authorized by the Council on Finance and Administration (CFA).
- 2.4 The Benevolent budget for the year ended December 31, 1985 was $ 1,604,377.00 of which $ 1,295,082.51 (80.7%) was collected leaving $ 309,294.49 uncollected.
- 2.5 Becky L. Buie, the Council's Treasurer, is bonded for $ 1,000,000.00 in the capacity as S. C. Conference Treasurer; no additional coverage is carried.
- 2.6 These statements do not include
1. Details of the individual fund balances (and the related allocation of income) comprising the Trustees' funds.
  2. Data regarding real property owned by the various Conference agencies and related debt which is carried only in memorandum records.
  3. Data regarding the liability and method of funding the retirement program.

130 Years of Women's Higher Education

Columbia College --a liberal arts college with roots in a proud Southern heritage -- traditionally has responded to the changes in our society as it directs the education of young women. Today the roles of women continue to grow in variety and complexity.

To meet the challenges of life in the 1980's, a young woman needs what Columbia College can give her: confidence that comes from solid academic preparation, courage that evolves from working and completing in extra-curricular activities, and most important, a commitment to a lifetime of achievement and service.
