Tribune '75

Block 5, Jayanagar,
Bangalore 560041
India.
10th June 1975.

Dear Mildred Persinger,

A paper on "Women and Indian population" was posted to you today. In the event of my journey being delayed I will be obliged if it could be read or otherwise presented for discussion.

There are still some hurdles to be cleared especially with respect to foreign exchange. June Duetel wrote to me she could help me out by sharing her room with me. Dr. May the IFUM President has also been kind enough to let me know where to get in touch with her at Mexico City.

I hope to make it to Washington by the end of this week ^{my son RAN'S} and with ~~his~~ ^{his} help attend the Tribune. I have given the addresses of all three ^{overleaf}. In the event of their having any advance information for me, a message can be left by writing or telephoning my son.

Eagerly looking forward to meeting you at Mexico City and wishing the Tribune a meaningful success,

I am,

Cordially yours,

Sarayu Sarangapani
