Dear Mildred Persinger,

It is an intense disappointment to me, since just a little bit of paper required for permission to travel, has got delayed in the mail, and (which will perhaps reach me just late!) has made it impossible for me to attend the IWY Tribune, even the second week. My regrets and apologies. Perhaps it is not all sad; I can imagine the nucleus of International women, their colourful dresses, the varied personalities and the different points of view argued in different tongues. It must be wonderful also to see the big city in the dimension of Time; imagine Maximillin and Juarez in your midst, and the Tehuacan people who lived there some thousands of years ago.

Let us believe that peace development and understanding has reached a milestone already, and physical presence is not a sine qua non for participation. The paper I sent, on Women and Indian population may have reached you, and it could be, that it was included in the programme. Later, may be, when a resume can be presented, it will be possible to reach a copy of it to me.

Allow me to thank you for the kindly interest displayed in giving of your best to promote my desire to be present at the Tribune and meet you all. I would like to meet you very much and in the event of the delayed visit to my son in Maryland U.S.A. coming through, I suppose I could, if I have your personal address and telephone number. Please give my best compliments to Ms. June A Guettel of East Orange New Jersey in case she makes enquiries about me.

Greetings and best wishes.

Cordially yours,

Sarayu Sarangapani
(MRS. SARAYU SARANGAPANI)
