Dear Mildred:

Many thanks for your thoughtful letter on my Op-Ed piece. It is certainly rewarding to hear from you and others that my thoughts are on target. I'd be glad to talk with you about Mexico any time after September. (We have a large staff meeting and the meeting of our board in the next three weeks.) Call at your convenience and we can make a date. Meanwhile, I've enclosed a copy of my detailed Mexico report that should give you a good idea of what I thought was happening there.

You'll be glad to see my very positive comments on the Tribune, which I believe was really crucial to the positive outcomes of the Conference as a whole. You and your staff did a remarkable job especially considering all the unexpected difficulties and pressures that arose. It occurs to me I should have sent you these comments long ago!

Regards.

Sincerely,

Adrienne Germain
