

Conference Canceled
3/11/20

Due to Coronavirus Concerns

A Tribute to Richard B. Drake & Ronald C. Wilson:

Reflections on How Two Historically Appalachian Colleges Responded to Tumultuous Times

Appalachian Studies Conference
Lexington, Kentucky – 14 March 2020

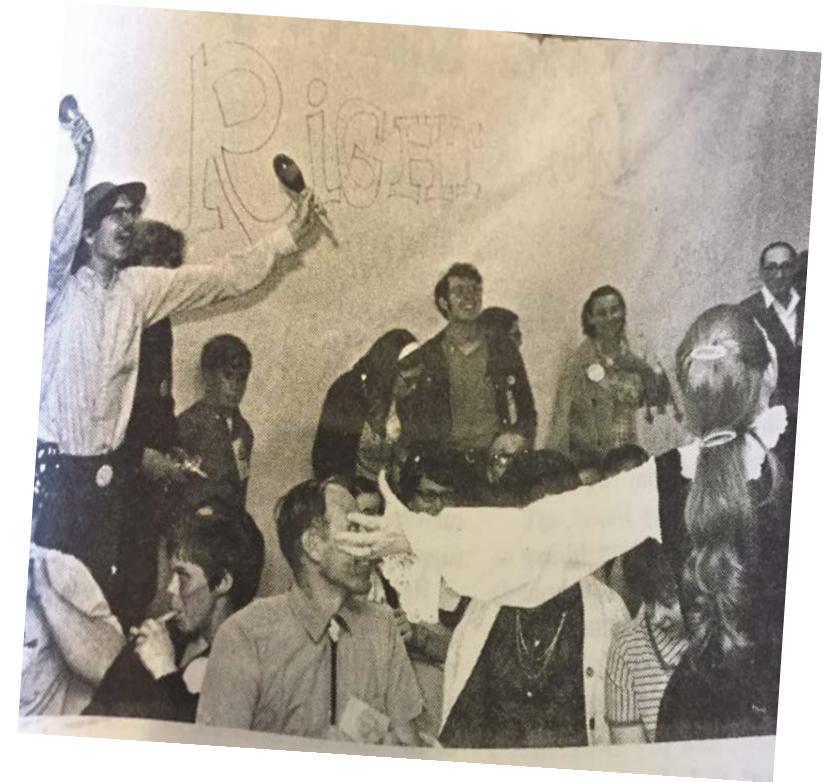

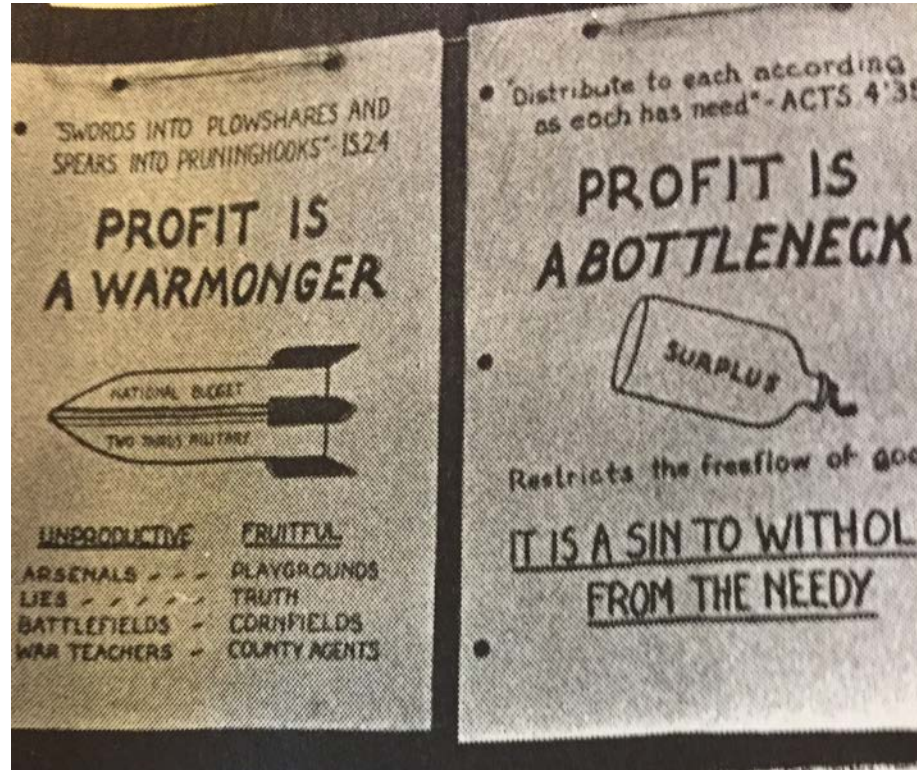

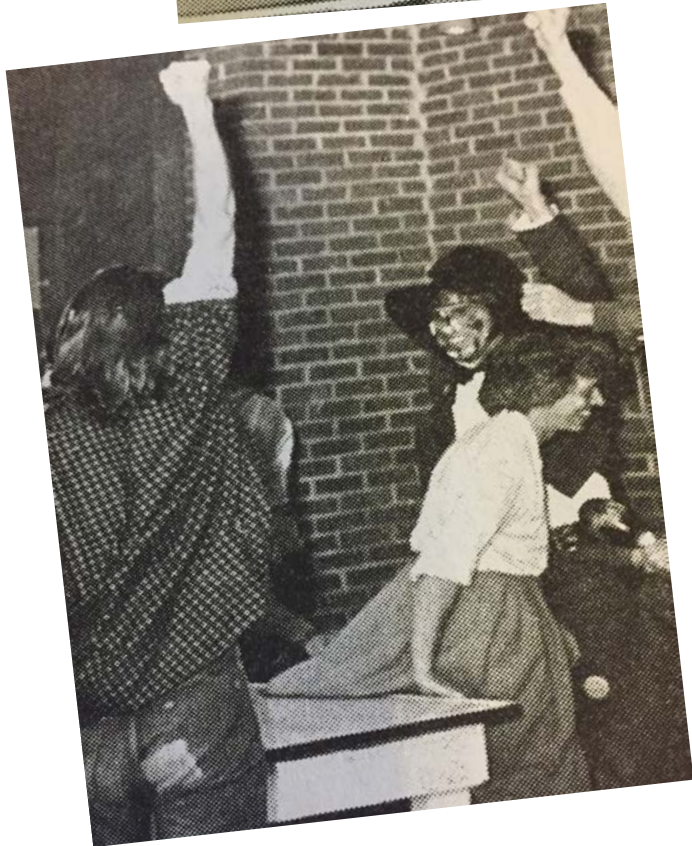

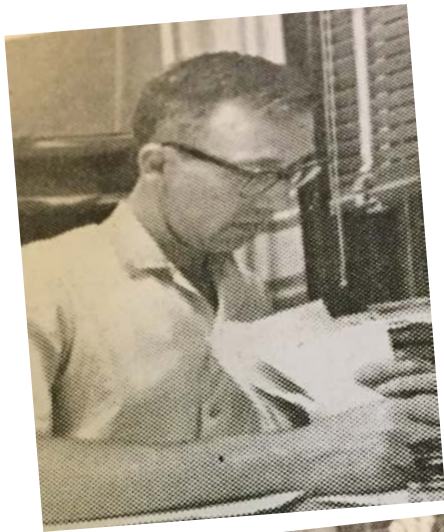

Council of Southern Mountains Annual Conference
Lake Junaluska, N.C. -- April 24-26, 1970

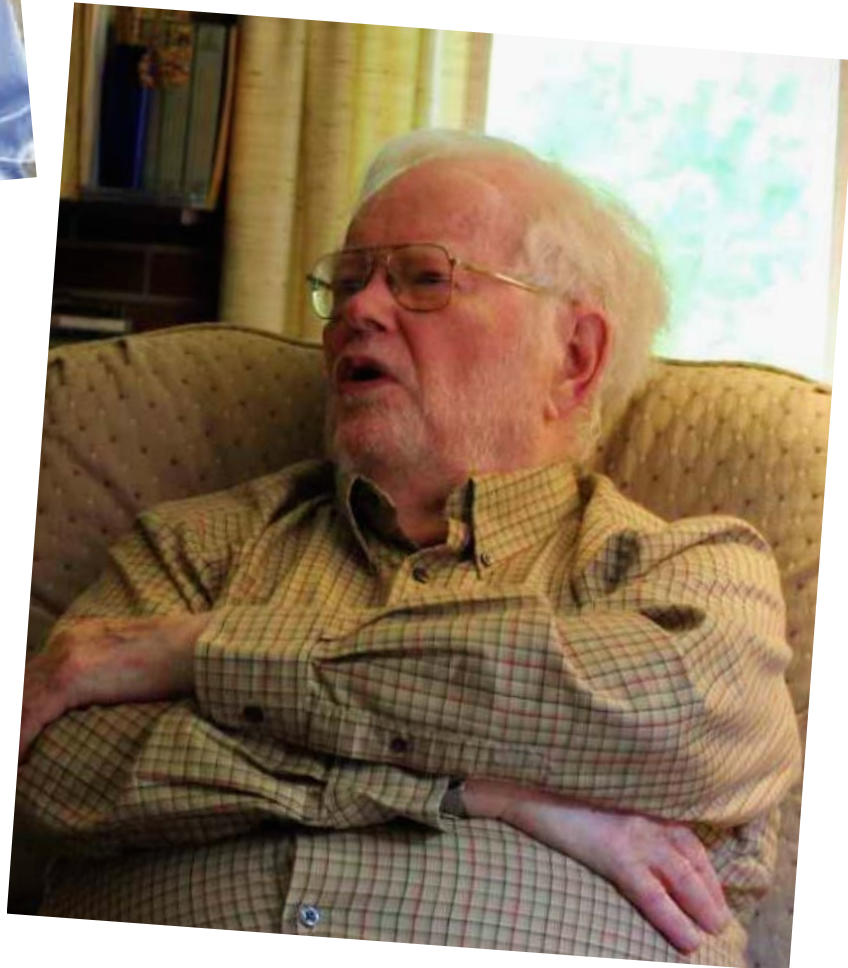

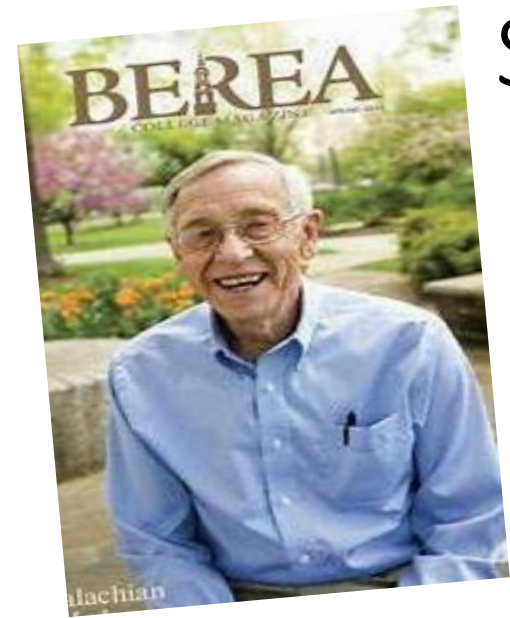

I was there – Sort of ???

Some VAGUE Recollections ????

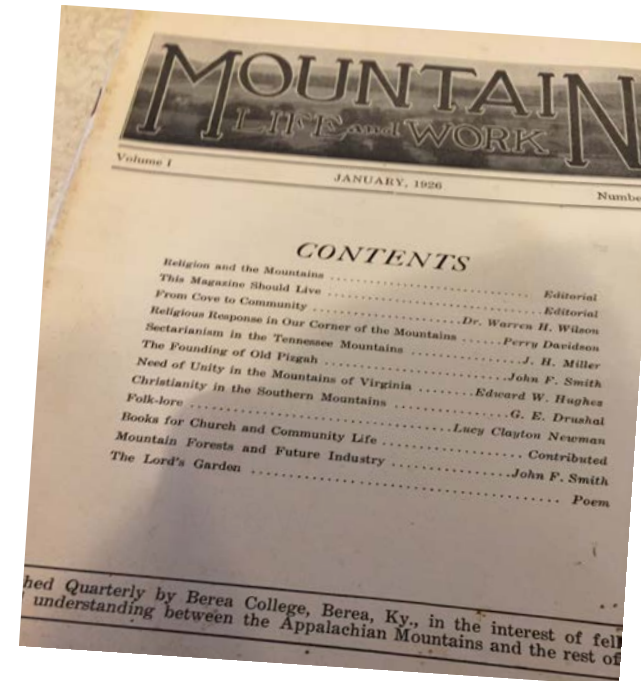

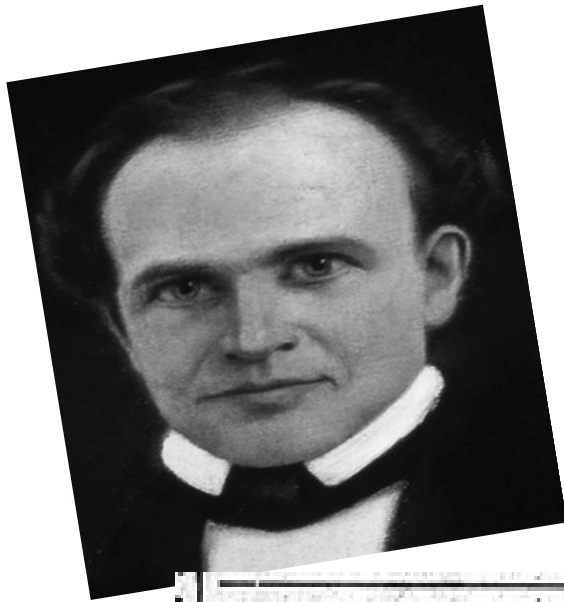

Summer Workshop -- Appalachian History & Literature Berea College – June 1988

Richard B. Drake – 1925-2019

Berea College – 1855-1955

"GOD HATH MADE OF ONE BLOOD ALL NATIONS OF MEN."

IS THE MOTTO OF

Berea College

BEREA, KY.

Christian, non-sectarian. Three college courses, Music, Academy, Normal, Manual. Tuition free. Incidental fee $4.50 a term. Expenses low. No saloons. 200 white and 215 Afro-American students. Go 1000 miles if need be to GET THE BEST EDUCATION. Address,
PRES. WM. G. FROST, PH. D., BEREA, KY.

OUR CONTEMPORARY ANCESTORS IN THE SOUTHERN MOUNTAINS

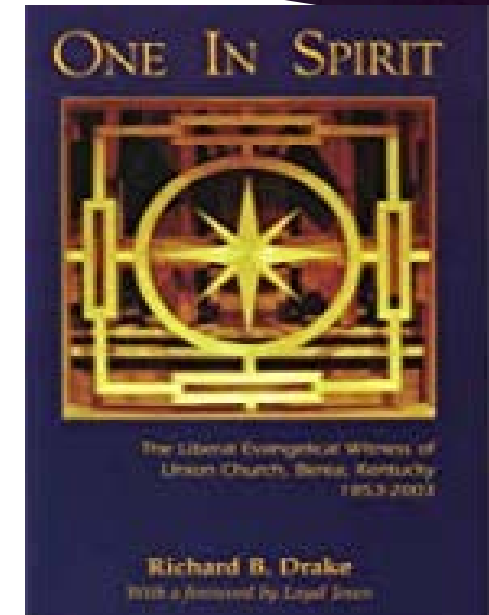

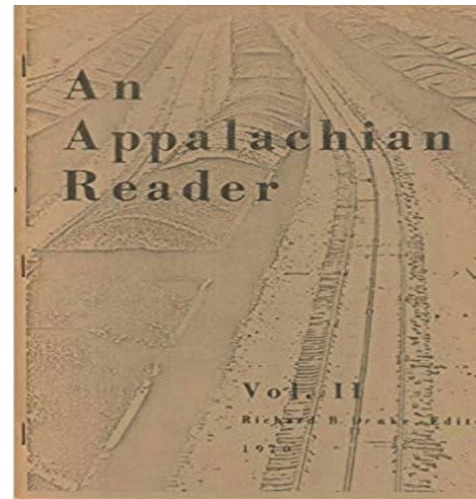

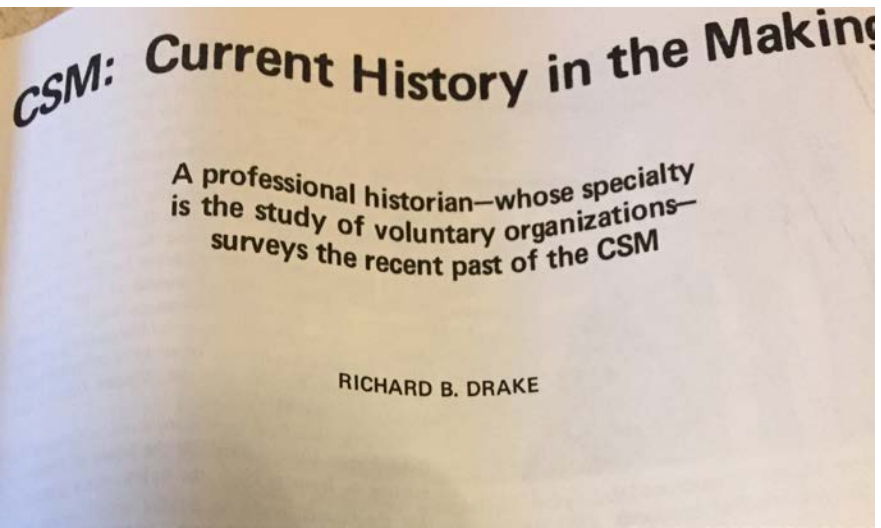

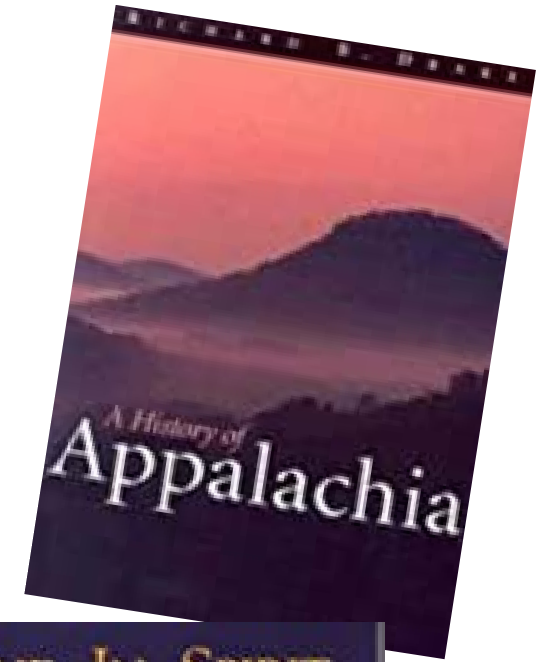

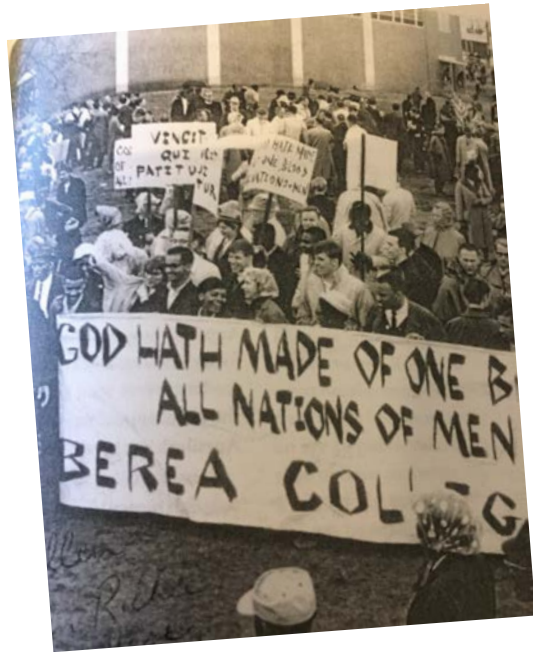

BY
WILLIAM GOODELL FROST

REPRINTED FROM THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY FOR MARCH, 1899

Dick Drake

Berea College Professor of History & Appalachian Studies Scholar

Ronald C. Wilson – 1936-2019

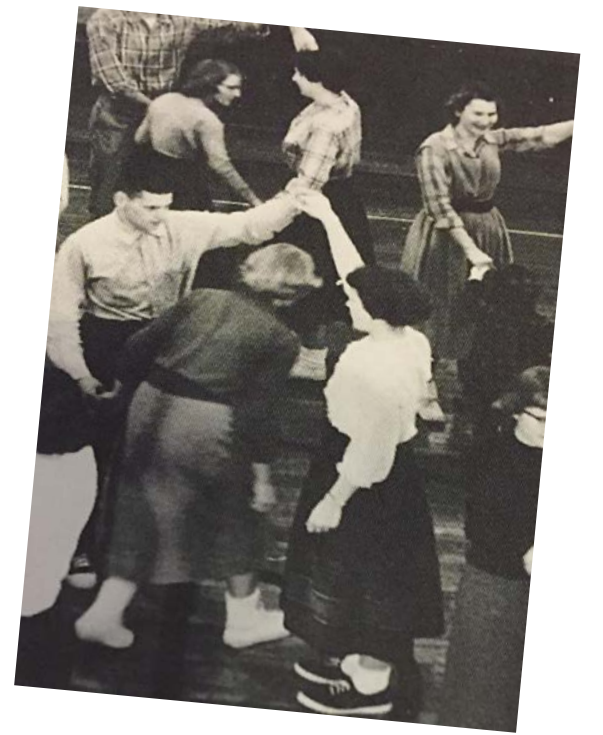

Asheville Farm School – Warren Wilson College
1894 – c. 1942

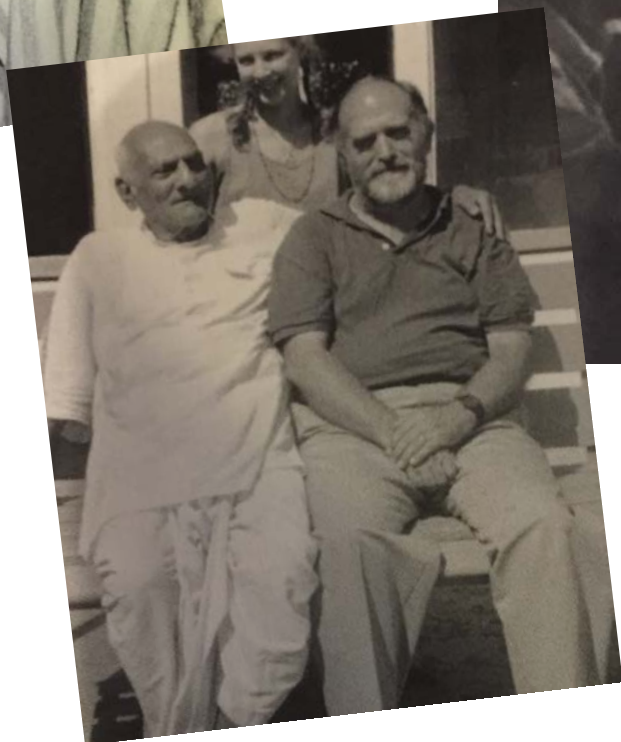

Warren Wilson College c. 1950-60 Evolving Mission to Appalachia and the World

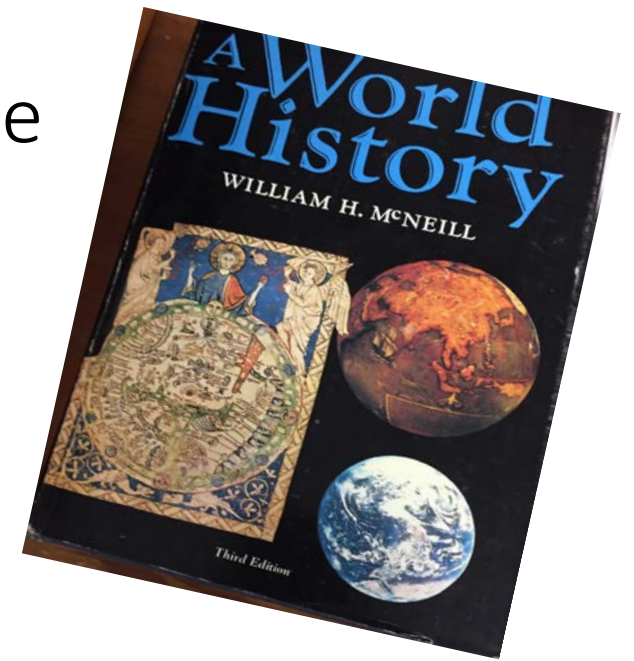

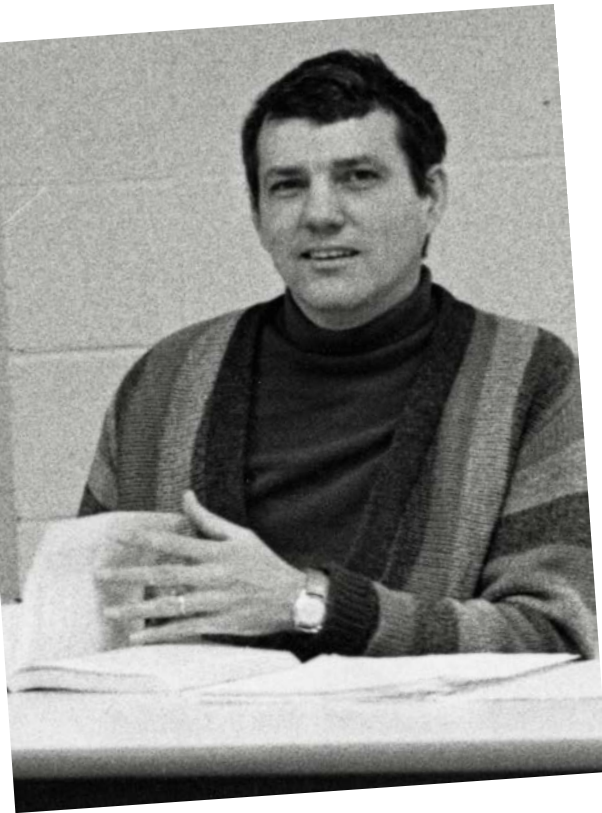

Warren Wilson College c. 1960-1990s
Evolving Mission & Service to Appalachia and the World

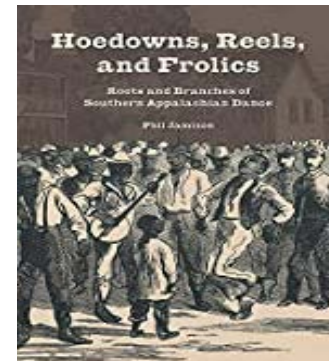

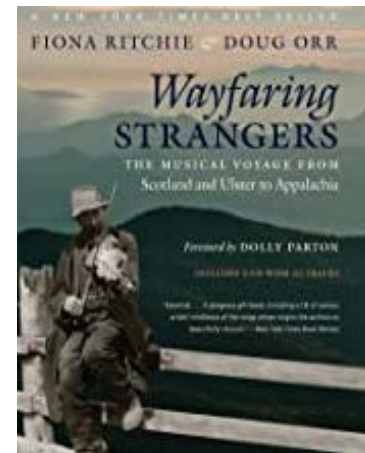

Ron Wilson – Warren Wilson College
Professor of History 1961 – 1993

Appalachian Studies at Warren Wilson College -- c. 1970 - 2020

Warren Wilson College's Evolving Outreach to the World & Appalachia

