

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CREATIVE EVENTS/ORIGINAL EVENTS

Perceived Attitudes Toward the Use of Original Material in Forensics Oral Interpretation: A Survey
Keith D. Green, Mankato State University
Scott D. Ford, Anoka-Ramsey Community College1
Maintaining Integrity II: Further Thoughts On Ethics
and Original Literature
Thomas G. Endres, St. Olaf College.....5
Creative Events: An Historical Perspective
for the Development Conference on Individual Events
Bruce Wickelgren, University of Northern Iowa.....7
Solving the Forensic Dilemma: Events Teaching Debate and Individual Events Skills
Roger C. Aden, University of Nebraska.....9
Recommendations from Creative Events/Original Events.....14
Open Discussion on Creative Events/Original Events.....15

USE OF WORKSHOPS FOR TRAINING JUDGES

Some Answers to Popular Questions about the Use of Workshops for training Individual Events Coaches and Judges
Clark D. Olson, Arizona State University15
Workshops: A Direct and Interactive Forum for Forensic Coaches/Judges
Valerie Swarts, Clarion University
Elighie Wilson, Illinois State University.....18
Recommendations from Use of Workshops for Training Judges.....20
Open Discussion on Use of Workshops for Training Judges21

TOURNAMENT MANAGAEMENT PRACTICES

The Gradual Elimination Forensics Tournament
Duane Aschenbrenner, University of Nebraska at Omaha.....21
Forensic Tournament Managment via Computer Program
Virginia Fish, Cathy Marine, Charlotte Patrick, James Riley
Northwest Community College22
Integrating Wellness and Forensics:
Tournament Management As A Starting Point

Susan Rickey Hatfield, Timothy L. Hatfield, Cynthia Carver
Winona State University 26
Position Paper on Double Entries
Mike Wartman, Normandale Community College..... 29
Recommendations from Tournament Management Practices..... 32
Open Discussion on Tournament Management Practices 32

A RATIONALE FOR EVENTS TO BE INCLUDED IN I.E. COMPETITION

A Philosophic and Pragmatic Rationale for Individual Events
Steve Hunt, Lewis & Clark College..... 33
Justifying the Present with One Eye on the Future:
Criteria for the Selection of Event Categories
Kenneth W. Haught, St. Cloud State University..... 36
A Rationale for Events to be in I.E. Competition
Norbert H. Mills, The University of Toledo..... 39
A Developmental Rationale
John McKiernan, University of South Dakota..... 42
A Rationale for Events: An Agenda for Change
David Douglas Dunlap, Pennsylvania State University 45
Recommendations from a Rationale for Events to be Included in I.E. Competition 48
Open Discussion on a Rationale for Events
to be Included in I.E. Competition 48

STANDARDS FOR EVALUATION/JUDGING

The Individual Event Ballot: Pedagogical Tool or Narcissistic Soapbox?
Kevin Jones, Otterbein College 49
Everything is What It Is and not Another Thing:
A Hierarchical Criteria for Evaluation in Informative,
Persuasion and Communication Analysis
Gary Allen; George Dennis, Southeastern Illinois College..... 53
A Proposal for the Creation of Uniform Judging Philosophy Statements in Individual Events Competitions: An Attempt to Empower Coaches/Critics and the Forensic Community
Dr. Rob Tucker, Iowa State University 60
Avoiding the Schism: An Assesment of Attitudes

Toward Performance of Literature in Competitive Environments
 Cindy J. Kistenberg; Paul H. Ferguson
 University North Carolina at Chapel Hill.....63
 Recommendations from Standards for Evaluation/Judging69
 Open Discussion on Standards for Evaluation/Judging70

ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT/PUBLICITY

Earning Support for Individual Events Programs
 Robert W. Greenstreet, East Central University.....70
 The Cultivation of Administrative and General Support for Individual Events Programs: Some Practical Suggestions
 Robert S. Littlefield, North Dakota State University73
 Creating a Climate of Support For Forensics Programs
 Larry Underberg, Manchester College77
 Strategies to Enhance University Support for Individual Events Programs
 Dr. Edward J. Harris Jr., Suffolk University80
 Recommendations from Administrative/Support/Publicity82
 Open Discussion on Administrative Support/Publicity83

ETHICAL QUESTIONS FOR COACHES/COMPETITORS

Ethical Considerations for Forensic Educators
 Sheryl A. Friedley, George Mason University.....84
 Looking in from the Fringe: A Need for Commonality and Accountability in Professional Ethical Standards in Forensics
 Sujanet Mason, Luzerne County Community College.....85
 Ethics and Forensics: There is a Need
 Joel L. Hefling, South Dakota State University89
 Have We Been Offering too Much Help?
 Patricia Kalanquin, University of Wisconsin-Whitewater.....90
 Recommendations from Ethical Questions for Coaches/Competitors.....93
 Open Discussion on Ethical Questions for Coaches/Competitors.....93

ROLE OF GRADUATE ASSISTANTS IN THE I.E. PROGRAM

Personnel Requirements in Forensics Education
 Don Brownlee, California State University, Northridge.....94
 Making the Transition from Undergraduate Competitor

to Graduate Assistant Coach
 Michael Kirch, Illinois State University..... 96
 Training Forensic Graduate Assistants: A Development Course
 Regina A. Kostoff; Suzanne M. McKeever, Ball State University..... 98
 Short-Term Loss, Long-Term Gain: Professional Development
 Of Graduate Assistants
 V. William Balthrop, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.... 105
 Recommendations from Role of Graduate Assistants
 In the Individual Events Program 108
 Open Discussion on Role of Graduate Assistants
 In the Individual Events Program 109

HIGH SCHOOL/COLLEGE CONNECTION IN I.E

The High School/College Connection In Individual Events
 Charles John McGeever, Shepherd College..... 109
 The High School/College Connection in Forensics
 C. Thomas Preston, Jr., University of Missouri-St. Louis 111
 An Overview of the Bradley Summer Forensics Institute
 Gary C. Dreibelbis, Bradley University 117
 Recommendations from The High School/College
 Connection in Individual Events..... 118
 open discussion on The High School/College
 Connection in Individual Events..... 119

ROLE OF RESEARCH IN INDIVIDUAL EVENTS

The Role of Research in Individual Speaking Events
 Colan T. Hanson, North Dakota State University 119
 Open-end Questions: Exploring the Qualitative Nature of Our Quantitative Studies
 Edward Jeff Daniel, Jr, New York University..... 123
 The Role of Research in Individual Events
 James F. Weaver, Iowa State University 125
 Recommendations from Role of Research in Individual Events..... 131
 Open Discussion on Role of Research in Individual Events..... 132