OOLONG
TEA

Presently I've been brewing
blackcurrant tea in my jipurese tea pot.
The teapot becomes piping hot
to the touch...deep red-brown tea...
its hearty western flavor spurts out of the spout into a small, round cup.

... this tale of tea ends.
I give my special thanks to Twinings, my favorite tea company, and to Lipton and Red Rose
when the budget gets tight.
