

AMERICAN

American

AMERICAN

According to a 1990 census, there are 6 million more women in the U.S. than men in this country. Roughly 10% of all women 23 years old or younger will have had a child this year. The average age for a woman to be first married in 1991 was 22. In Alaska, the ratio of men to women is 11 to 8.

Michigan is in the Middle West region of the United States. 20% of the population is moving out of the state at any one time. People from Pennsylvania stay in the same place more than any other state.

In that same 1990 census, Americans named 134 countries as part of their ancestry. "Inspiring girls with the highest ideals of character, conduct, patriotism, and service that they may become happy and resourceful citizens." - Girl Scout Handbook

Project of the School of Design, University of California, San Diego, and Pacific Islander

is young: the longing for the distance

There were... I had... I had... I had...