

ended his collegiate basketball career last night when his Eagles were eliminated from the K. I. A. U.

Paul Combs.

tournament in the toughest fight of the meet.

. . . Many a season will pass before we'll be privileged to see another athlete as prolific a scorer as Paul.

. . . This fellow led all centers in Kentucky with a season total of 184 points in 13 games. . . He added 13 against Transy Friday morning and 7 against Western for a grand sum of 204. . . Paul is 23 years old, weighs 155 pounds and stands 5 feet 8 inches tall. . . He is a senior and a veteran of three varsity seasons. . . He played quarterback on the Eagle grid eleven 3 years and was his team's outstanding performer. . . Before entering Morehead Paul attended Lee Junior College at Jackson, Ky. and Witherpoon High at Buckhorn. . . He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Combs Hazari.