B-52 In 9,000 Mile Trip With No Refueling

By CHARLES CORDREY
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UP) — A B-52 jet bomber, newest H-bomb and missile carrier of the Strategic Air Command, has made a record non-stop flight of more than 9,000 miles without refueling.

The spectacular performance took place last Dec. 15, but was disclosed only today. It is the longest flight of a jet bomber without refueling.

Cris-crossing the United States 500 miles an hour for 18 hours, the new giant of the skies gave a striking demonstration of its potential as an "airborne alert" aircraft.

The Strategic Air Command (SAC) will put a portion of its bomber fleet on constant airborne alert in the future to guarantee retaliatory power against destruction on the ground by Russian missiles in event of war.

Can Reach Russia
Armed with both H-bombs and Hound-dog guided missiles, the B-52's will patrol in continuous readiness to counter-attack should war break out.

A true intercontinental jet, able to reach any Russian target from North America, the B-52 proved its range without refueling to be about 9,000 miles greater than that of its predecessor B-29.

Its top speed is more than 615 miles an hour — just below the speed of sound at the 10-mile altitude where it operates.

The Dec. 15 mission, flown by a Boeing airplane company crew with two Air Force officers aboard, was notable in another way. It showed that jet bomber is the equal in range of the old, slow and recently retired B-36 piston-engine bomber — and far more lethal by reason of speed and weapons carried.

The B-52G, taking off at a record weight of about 240 tons, flew a course from Wichita, Kan., over Texas, California, Washington, Washington, back to Texas, thence to Minnesota, Virginia, Mississippi, and home to Wichita.

It landed with ample reserve fuel still in the tanks of its 185-foot wings.

With a single in-flight refueling, after it had reached cruise altitude, its range could have been extended about 2,500 miles for a total 11,500.

SAC received its first B-52G bomber last February. Described as the first "missile - platform bomber," the plane will carry two Hound-dog missiles under its wings and a heavy load of nuclear bombs.

Mock Election Underway At Murray State

A mock election is being held today on the Murray State College campus and students are casting votes for the Combs-Wyatt team or for the Waterfield faction.

The election was planned by the Combs-Wyatt students. The Waterfield faction on the campus had planned to have an election on next Tuesday following Waterfield's appearance here in Murray Friday.

Judge Weylon Rayburn, chairman for Waterfield in Calloway County charged that the election which is now in progress, was "rigged."

Rayburn made this charge in a paid political advertisement on the local radio station today.

In the advertisement Rayburn charged that an agreement had been made between Paul Turner, student Combs chairman and Joe Darnell, student Waterfield chairman, that no mock elections would be held this year.

Turner said today that no such an agreement had ever been made between himself and anyone.

Rayburn also charged that no announcement of the mock election had been made, however, Waterfield banners, streamers and other literature is spread over the campus.

The election will end this afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

Indictments Returned By Grand Jury
The May Grand Jury returned their report this morning to Circuit Judge Earl Osborne and also returned six indictments.

The jury commended the Fiscal Court on the condition of the county jail, court house, health center and the home for indigent citizens. Hilman Cole was foreman of the jury which was discharged on rendering its report.

The indictments are as follows: William Ray Parish, child desertion, trial set May 19.

Thomas Wheatley, child desertion, trial set May 13.

Cortez Morrell, taking property of another, fined $100.

The other two indictments were not released pending the serving of the warrant on the accused.

Freeze Placed On Area To Be Served By Power Agency

WASHINGTON (UP) — The House beat down a Republican move to add federal Budget Bureau controls to a bill letting the Tennessee Valley Authority raise its own construction money. The vote was 170 to 129. It also rejected amendments to permit the power agency to serve more Kentucky counties, but approved one, 130 to 89, providing that TVA receipts from power revenues or a new bond-financing program shall not be counted as part of the annual federal budget.

Speaker Sam Rayburn moved today to break the conservative-controlled House Rules Committee's logjam on the 2-billion dollar Democratic housing bill.

Exasperated because a conservative Republican-Democratic coalition has refused to allow the bill to come to the floor, Rayburn said the committee would be bypassed if it refuses to take prompt action.

He said one of three parliamentary devices would be used to shake the measure loose: A discharge petition requiring signatures of two-thirds of the House membership; use of the so-called "calendar Wednesday" procedure which would require completion of action in one day; or suspension of the rules to pass a resolution which would clear the legislation for House debate and amendment.

The Texan said he didn't want to be compelled to employ any of these methods but that he would do so if the committee doesn't act "pretty soon."

The Senate has already passed a $2,650,000,000 bill. President Eisenhower proposed a $1,650,000,000 program. The House version contains many spending features opposed by the President, but it also includes "must" administration features.

Elsewhere in Congress:
Thor Missiles: Air Secretary James H. Douglas told a Senate Military Appropriations subcommittee that the British government will "decide" when U. S. Thor missiles stationed in Britain will be made operational. He added, however, that the weapons can be fired only by agreement of both the British and American governments.

Foreign Aid: Asst. Sec. of State Livingston T. Merchant told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that approval of the President's $3,900,000,000 foreign aid program "is more important" this year than in the past because of the Berlin crisis and the impending Big Four ministers meeting at Geneva.

Rackets: Two witnesses told Senate Rackets investigators that the American Weekly, published by the Hearst Publishing Co., Inc. paid $4000 a year to "keep labor peace" and "assure delivery" of the Sunday newspaper supplement to Manhattan from Weehawken, N. J. The witnesses were John J. Padulo, former business manager of the supplement, and Joseph Fontana, present business manager.

Strauss: Lewis L. Strauss, bucking Democratic opposition for confirmation as commerce secretary, today continues reading a 29-page rebuttal to charges made against him by Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.), chairman of the Senate House Atomic Committee. Strauss, former Atomic Energy Commission chairman, began his point-by-point answer before the Senate Commerce Committee on Wednesday. Republicans predicted the committee and the full Senate would approve Strauss despite Democratic opposition.

Fallout: A Senate-House subcommittee on radiation tried today to determine what possible damage to health continued nuclear testing might cause by listening to two round-table discussions of scientists. Dr. C. L. Conner of Cornell University told the group Wednesday that more calcium in cows' diet would cut in half the amount of radioactive Strontium-90 in milk.

Highways: R. R. Bartelsmeyer, head of the American Association of State Highway Officials, told the House Public Works Committee 32 states would have to lay off trained engineers and technicians if federal outlays for interstate roadwork were interrupted. He urged the committee to retain the federal program of matching funds to the states at the present level.

Fred Astaire Is Top Winner

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Fred Astaire, belting the "old dad" nickname he hung on himself, let his famous dancing feet do the celebrating Wednesday night after his stunning sweep of nine television "Emmy" awards.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon presented two of the new awards and James C. Hagerty, presidential news secretary presented the other two in Washington.

Both Hagerty and Nixon arrived early at the hotel to avoid crossing the picket line. It was learned that Nixon earlier had told the show's sponsors he would not attend if he had to pass the pickets.

The pickets were members of the National Association of Broadcasters and Engineering Technicians, now involved in a contract dispute with NBC.

Other awards included: Loretta Young (best actress, dramatic series), Jane Wyatt (best actress, comedy series), Barbara Hale (best supporting actress, dramatic series), Ann B. Davis (best supporting actress, comedy series) and Tom Poston (best supporting actor, comedy series).

Perry Como won the best actor of a musical show award and Raymond Burr the award for the best actor of a dramatic series.

Omnibus, NBC, was named the best public service program.

HOOKS AND ANGLERS

by JIM HARMON

The weather is quite warm and the water at Kentucky Lake is also warm with the temperature around 70 degrees at surface. The water is clear and the lake level is 338.8 after a slow drop over the past few days.

Crappie fishing seems to hold the most interest at present with not too many trying for Mr. Bass and despite reports that the Crappie aren't biting some good catches have been over the latter part of last week and the weekend. However, most of these catches were made at the end of the week after the high winds present in the earlier part of last week had died down some what.

The fishing lounge at Fisherman's One-Stop reports some Blue Gill being taken from its waters and nice size at that. Rough water and bad weather conditions doesn't seem to affect the lounge results a great deal.

The Ledger & Times Fishing Contest has a new sponsor this week. The newest sponsor of the big contest provided by the daily paper is "Lindy's" One-Stop, located at the Irvin Cobb Turn-off on high 732. As Lindy expresses it, "It's on your way to Blood River."

Readers will observe from her ad on this page that Lindy has a fine supply of tackle, live bait, fishing licenses, lunch meats, groceries, gasoline and oil, motor boat oil, notions and a whole list of other supplies.

But most important and something the fisherman will do well to remember is that fact that Lindy offers "24 hour service". Just stop by at any hour at night and if the One-Stop isn't open Lindy will pop right out at the first knock with cheerful service.

"Lindy's" One-Stop has entry blanks and the scales to accurately weigh your catch. She will be happy to assist you in any way that she can.

A nice three and three-quarter pound Crappie has been entered in the contest in Class A by Barney Sanders of Mayfield. The weight was made out at Enix's Sporting Goods on the Concord Road.

The entry gives Mr. Sanders the lead in the Crappie Caught On Live Bait division of the Class A. Mrs. J. C. Maupin holds first place in the same division of Class B with a one pound six ounce crappie. Both anglers are tied in the race for the Grand Prize with 35 points each. Had either of them submitted a picture of their catch they could have gained an additional 10 points.

Mr. Sanders' three and three-quarter pound Crappie is certainly a nice catch and the men will really have to work hard to HOOK one that is larger.

Crappie fishing is still expected to produce some good results. The lake level is slowly rising now and many feel that the Crappie may still move in close to the bank and good fishing ensue.

Did you know that Kentucky Lake is the largest manmade lake, stretches 184 miles south with some 40 miles of the lake in Western Kentucky? It has an area of 216,000 acres or 408 square miles. It has 2200 miles of shoreline and its width varies up to 20 miles.

Kentucky Dam is the TVA's last on the Tennessee River and each year it is visited by a million or more people. It was constructed at a total cost of $115,000,000 and is the ninth largest in the United States. Its height is 206 feet from bedrock and its length is 8,422 feet making it the nation's fourth longest. Kentucky Dam produces 160,000 kilowatts of electric power.

Dr. Vinnet of 702 Vance Avenue, Paris, Illinois, has taken second place in the Crappie Caught on Live Bait division with a two and one-half pound catch. Mr. Vinnet catches 20 points in making his entry and trail's behind Mrs. J. C. Maupin and Mr. Barney Sanders in the run for the grand prize.

B-52 In 9,000 Mile Trip With No Refueling

By CHARLES CORDREY
United Press International
WASHINGTON (AP)—A B-52 jet bomber, newest H-bomb and missile carrier of the Strategic Air Command, has made a record non-stop flight of more than 9,000 miles without refueling.

The spectacular performance took place last Dec. 15, but was disclosed only today. It is the longest flight known to have been made by a jet bomber without refueling.

Cris-crossing the United States at 500 miles an hour for 18 hours, the new giant of the skies gave a striking demonstration of its potential as an "airborne alert" aircraft.

The Strategic Air Command (SAC) will put a portion of its bomber fleet on constant airborne alert in the future to guarantee retaliatory power against destruction on the ground by Russian missiles in event of war.

Girl Scouts Hold Check On First Aid, Emergencies

The Murray Girl Scouts checked the public Saturday May 3 on their preparedness for emergencies.

The Brownie Scouts with the help of the Murray Police Department, stopped cars and checked for first aid kits. Out of 700 cars stopped only 10% had first aid kits.

The Intermediate Girl Scouts spot checked the homes of Murray for emergency food, water and first aid kits. Out of almost 1000 homes about 20% had emergency water supplies and 75% have emergency food supplies. The 50% have first aid supplies. The most interesting thing that the Intermediate Scouts found were the 3 weeks supply of food, water and first aid supplies that Mrs. Wells Purdum had stored under her porch and the air raid shelter that Mrs. Guy Battle had supplied at her home. The girls were quite impressed by these things.

The Senior Girl Scouts were down town on the court square questioning the people on their knowledge of first aid treatment for drowning, grease fire, sun stroke, broken bones, unconsciousness, burns, serious bleeding and poisoning. The girls also demonstrated the correct first aid treatment for these things. Out of 200 people questioned 70% had the correct answers. The most interesting answer the girls received was to the question "What would you do in case of serious bleeding?" The woman replied "Put a gold ring next to the teeth or put sissors down their back."

The Murray Girl Scouts realize that "this is only a very small check that was made of OUR TOWN but we do feel that our people should be more aware of the necessity to prepare themselves for emergencies."

Mock Election Underway At Murray State

A mock election is being held today on the Murray State College campus and students are casting votes for the Combs-Wyatt team or for the Waterfield faction.

The election was planned by the Combs-Wyatt students. The Waterfield faction on the campus had planned to have an election on next Tuesday following Waterfield's appearance here in Murray Friday.

Judge Waylon Rayburn, chairman for Waterfield in Calloway County charged that the election which is now in progress, was "rigged". Rayburn made this charge in a paid political advertisement on the local radio station today.

In the advertisement Rayburn charged that an agreement had been made between Paul Turner, student Combs chairman and Joe Dandell, student Waterfield chairman, that no mock elections would be held this year.

Turner said today that no such agreement had ever been made between himself and anyone.

Rayburn also charged that no announcement of the mock election had been made, however Waterfield banners, streamers and other literature is spread over the campus.

The election will end this afternoon at 3:00 o'clock.

Fred Astaire Is Top Winner

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Fred Astaire, believing the "old dad" nickname he hung on himself, let his famous dancing feet do the celebrating Wednesday night after his stunning sweep of nine television "Emmy" awards.

"A great night for old dad," cracked the skinny Astaire when he accepted one of the awards given him by the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences. He will be 60 Sunday.

And then Fred showed the young fellows how to celebrate by joining a crowd of television and movie personalities at the Palladium and dancing with Barrie Chase, his co-star on the "Evening with Fred Astaire" show that earned him the awards, and with blonde beauty Kim Novak.

Astaire, whose sophisticated dances brought him stardom on Broadway and motion pictures, won each award for which he had been nominated, including best actor of 1958 in a single performance.

Fred Astaire
SINGLE PERFORMANCE

A total of about 60 pickets, many dressed in formal attire, paraded in front of the Moulin Rouge in Hollywood and at the Ziegfeld Theater in New York and the Mayflower Hotel in Washington during the ceremonies. Segments of the hour-and-a-half nationally televised program were beamed from all three spots.

The biggest winner next to Astaire was the Irish drama "Lifted Moon of Alban" which took four awards, including the best actress in a single performance award for its star, Julie Harris.

There were a number of two-Emmy winning shows, including

Indictments Returned By Grand Jury

The May Grand Jury returned this report this morning to Circuit Judge Earl Osborne and also returned six indictments.

The jury commended the Fiscal Court on the condition of the county jail, court house, health center and the home for indigent citizens. Hilman Cole was foreman of the jury which was discharged on rendering its report.

The indictments are as follows: William Ray Parish, child desertion, trial set May 19.

Thomas Wheatley, child desertion, trial set May 13.

Cortez Merrell, taking property of another, fined $100.

Lex Camp, charged with rape. Camp is now in jail pending bond of $1000. The incident allegedly took place last night at midnight, and Camp was picked up by police at 4:00 a. m. and placed in the county jail. His trial was set for the September term of court.

The other two indictments were not released pending the serving of the warrant on the accused.

Freeze Placed On Area To Be Served By Power Agency

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House beat down a Republican move to add federal Budget Bureau controls to a bill letting the Tennessee Valley Authority raise its rates 170 to 120. It also rejected amendments to permit the power agency to serve more Kentucky communities but approved one, 130 to 80, providing that TVA receipts from power revenues or a new bond-financing program shall not be counted as part of the annual federal budget.

Speaker Sam Rayburn moved today to break the conservative-controlled House Rules Committee's logjam on the 2-billion dollar Democratic housing bill.

Exasperated because a conservative Republican-Democratic coalition has refused to allow the bill to come to the floor, Rayburn said the committee would be bypassed if it refuses to take prompt action.

He said one of three parliamentary devices would be used to shake the measure loose: A discharge petition requiring signatures of two-thirds of the House membership; use of the so-called "calendar Wednesday" procedure which would require completion of action in one day; or suspension of the rules to pass a resolution which would clear the legislation for House debate and amendment.

The Texas said he didn't want to be compelled to employ any of these methods but that he would do so if the committee doesn't act "pretty soon."

The Senate has already passed a $2,650,000,000 bill. President Eisenhower proposed a $1,650,000,000 program. The House version contains many spending features opposed by the President, but it also includes "must" administration features.

Elsewhere in Congress:

Thor Missiles: Air Secretary James H. Douglas told a Senate Military Appropriations subcommittee that the British government will "decide" when U. S. Thor missiles stationed in Britain will be made operational. He added, however, that the weapons can be fired only by agreement of both the British and American governments.

Foreign Aid: Asst. Sec. of State Livingston T. Merchant told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that approval of the President's $3,900,000,000 foreign aid program "is more important" than in the past because of the Berlin crisis and the impending Big Four ministers meeting at Geneva.

Rackets: Two witnesses told Senate Rackets investigators that the American Weekly, published by the Hearst Publishing Co. Inc. paid $4,000 a year to "keep labor peace" and "assure delivery" of the Sunday newspaper supplement to Manhattan from Weehawken, N. J. The witnesses were John J. Padulo, former business manager of the supplement, and Joseph

TOP BILLING—When the girls of Mary Baldwin College, Staunton, Va., gave their annual pageant, top billing went to a cocker spaniel, Toto. Shortly after "enrolling" in the college a month ago, Toto began barking for his part in "The Wonderful Wizard of Oz." To ease his stage fright, the students played with the puppy in their "Oz" costumes.

To Buy Or To Make, Question To Decide

by Paris Road Club

There are several things to consider before 1 buy or make a garment.

1. Do I have time to make a garment
2. Do I have the skill, equipment, energy and interest to make a good garment that I will enjoy
3. Can I make a more attractive and durable garment for less money than I can buy one
4. Will I or my family enjoy wearing the garment
5. Can I save enough to pay me for my time or labor
6. Do I or my family require so many alterations in ready-made garments that it would be wise to make the garment.
7. Are patterns and materials available for making a garment
8. What are the resources for buying a ready-made garment

If I have time to make a garment what garments should I make. Children's clothes are very costly. Little girls and teenagers garments can be made at home very attractive, inexpensive, and with little time. Boys clothes are hard to make with the exception of shirts and coats.

Very little money can be saved on making house dresses, slips, brunch coats etc. Studies show you can save the most money by making dresses, dress-up dresses, suits and coats if you have enough skill you have a more durable garment if you make it at the same cost.

If I decide to buy a garment I must be sure the style is right and becoming to me. I should select a garment with good classic line, free of details that limits its use or date it as to the year it was purchased. It must be a well designed garment, wearable for several seasons, not too fussy or extreme. You may have to do some shopping but there are well designed, inexpensive garments available.

It must be a color becoming to me, one that fits into my wardrobe and not too light or bright to be practical.

It must be suitable fabric to you and to the occasion. If you are heavy, avoid stiff bulky fabrics also large prints and bright colors. Stick to fabrics of medium weight, soft texture and luster. If you expect much wear from the garment select a fabric that is sturdy, good quality and will wash or dry clean well.

Always try on a garment before buying to see if it is becoming in style, in color and does it fit well to all parts of the body. If it does not fit there is much time lost in fitting the garment. Be sure and check a garment to see if it can be altered if it does not fit. These same principles should be considered in buying a pattern if I decide to make my garment.

These are only a few points to guide your choice in deciding whether to buy or make your garment. Careful selection in relation to yourself, your family and your needs will increase family satisfaction in clothing and stretch your budget dollar. Sewing at home can be fun and an came to our project leaders less both your confidence and skill.

Christmas Lighting Lesson Topic

by Suburban Club

In December one of the lesson topics was Christmas Decoration. Emphasis was placed on the lighting of the decoration, and the safety of decorating and lighting. Here are some hints that could be used:

There are many different places for Christmas Decoration in the home. One important place is the front door to your home. A large key made of plywood or Styrofoam and decorated with green and red can be a very cheery greeting for the Christmas season. If a Christmas tree is what you would like for your door greeting, one may be cut from mesh wire. You can insert green, pine or cedar through the wire then decorate as desired.

An outside window box or porch box can be very effective especially if you use lights.

One of the oldest and the best decorations is the Christmas tree. To keep the tree green longer, add commercial fertilizer to the water in which the tree has been placed.

One elaborate decoration or center of interest should be in every room. The arrangements can be made from fruit, a basket of colored balls with colored lights. Candles can be used in many different arrangements, and white or decorated snowballs can be very nice.

The newest decoration is called a "Mobile." It is a decoration suspended in the air. The Kissing Bell with some mistletoe is a very suitable mobile. Angels cut from different colors can be very attractive. Even bells may be used.

Mrs. Wyle, representative for R.E.A. from Mayfield and from the T.V.A. of Jackson, Tenn., came to our project leaders' lesson and gave many interesting ideas for decorating and demonstrated what effect lighting can have on the decoration.

At the December meeting the members were shown several decorations "made" by the project.

HAS HIS 'HEART IN HIS HAND'—Warren G. Mauston, 72, one of the few persons in the world with "heart in hand," is ready to be discharged from Bethesda hospital in St. Paul. The strange device he is holding is an electronic "pace-maker." One wire from the battery-powered unit is inserted directly into his heart; the other is taped to his chest. The unit keeps the two halves of Mauston's heart beating regularly in pace. It is used to correct once-fatal "heart block." With him is special nurse Olga Holt and his wife.

CHIROPRACTIC
and
MAINTAINS
HEALTH

For more than fifty-eight years Chiropractic has been accomplishing wonderful things. That it has endured for that length of time is proof of its worth and merit. It has saved thousands of individuals from premature grave, and it has put millions of men, women and children on the road to health and enabled them to become useful members of society.

The practice of Chiropractic is based on the principle of correcting the cause of disease in the body. It does not believe in the use of drugs or medicines as remedial agencies. Disease is an effect, and every effect must have a cause. Chiropractic contends that the cause of disease in the body is the vertebral subluxation which creates pressure upon nerves and interferes with the normal transmission of vital nerve energy. The Chiropractic objective is to locate the place in the spine where nerve pressure exists, due to a vertebral subluxation, and, by proper adjustment, to restore the subluxated vertebrae to its normal position. Correct adjustment releases the pressure on nerves, and thereby removes the real cause of disease in the body.

SWEPT OVER NIAGARA—Non-swimmer Michael Fournier (upper), 8, risked his life by wading into the Niagara river in an effort to save 3-year-old Thomas Bradbury (lower), but to no avail. Thomas, playing on the bank about a mile above Niagara Falls, slipped and fell into the swift current. Minutes later he was swept over the falls to his death in cataract.

Housing 20 Years From Now Different

by New Concord Homemakers Club

Twenty years from now you will be able to buy your house by units and can trade these units for new units similar to what we do in cars now, thus letting a young family just starting out be able to start with a new house and expand as the family expands and after the family has homes of its own, reduce to the small house again.

In the near future you will be placing what you want for supper in a freezing compartment of your oven that will keep that meal frozen until time to prepare it, then it will be released and placed in the oven for you to eat upon returning to the house.

In the laundry you will be hanging your clothes in a wardrobe in the left hand side and they will be carried by conveyor belt to the laundry, washed, dried and returned to the right hand compartment for you to wear the next morning if you so desire. These were the things shown to us at Farm and Home Week as to what we can look for in the future. We are living in a changing world. We must prepare to change with the times.

Cherry Corner Is Topic For Good Grooming

by Mrs. Bill Stubbfield
As today's Homemaker steps out in the public or opens the front door, when someone calls, Her appearance tells a story, or conveys a message even before she speaks a word. Does this first appearance set up a barrier, or does it say, "What a charming person, I'd like to know her?" People will judge you first by what they see. If you go about with soiled clothes, carelessly put on, untidy hair, people will accept you at the low value you have placed on yourself. If you are clean, neat, fresh and well poised, your acceptance will be on that level. That well-groomed look does not come by accident; it is achieved by constantly working at it. However, the results are worth-while in the feeling of assurance that comes from being at ones best.

Every normal individual wants to be liked and to be charming. Fortunately physical beauty is not necessary, but other assets are. These assets are First, A GOOD APPEARANCE — a Good Health. Our health is the most important asset that we can ever have. Good health is the foundation of good looks, clear skin, bright eyes, shining hair, listening teeth, an alert manner. In order to maintain these we must have correct habits of eating, sleeping, exercise and care of the body. b. Good Physical Care. Cleanliness and freshness are indispensable factors in attractiveness. The odor of perspiration, unpleasant breath, uncleanness are unfavorable in the woman and man of today. c. Careful Dressing. In addition to a well-groomed body for that feeling of poise and assurance, we need well cared for clothing, carefully put on. Undergarments should be clean and well-fitted. Hose should fit well, with no wrinkles and seams should be straight. Outer garments should be clean and well pressed. All buttons and snaps on belts adjusted and length of dress should be even with no slip showing. Avoid "over-stuffed closets," clothes jammed into a closet or carelessly hung, come off looking tired and crumpled. Remember, too, that no fastidious person does a make-up job in public.

The Second main asset in Good Grooming, is a "Pleasing Personality." There are many things that contribute to a pleasing personality. Fortunately some people are born with many qualities, while others have to work for them in order to become a charming person. A. Well Poised Good posture, in sitting, standing and walking will contribute much to the feeling of poise. The outward appearance is only part of the picture. What you think, do, speak and how you act make up the other part. A high pitched voice that never ceases can quickly destroy all appearances of charm. Learn also to be relaxed, nervous habits, destroy the poised person. Few people are aware that they have nervous habits, so watch for them and be sure you aren't guilty. b. Interest in Others. It is truly necessary to like people in order to be liked. So if you really want to be liked, try doing things for others, help them solve difficult problems, be sincerely interested in their welfare, (not nosy or inquisitive). Too many of us are guilty in finding faults of others. A good practice to follow—is, if you can't compliment—don't complain. Courtesy and consideration of others is a must. If you and your family will practice these qualities at home, it will make a better living for you and others. c. Mentally Ageless. We all admire the elderly person who remains alert. As the years' creep on, we must keep interested in others, keep doing and learning new things. Accept changes and be happy and you will remain forever young and a person people will want to know.

The average offshore oil well requires about 240 tons of steel drillpipe, casing, tubing and line pipe, compared with 45 tons for a dry land well.

Sew Machine Attachments Are An Aid

By Betty Grove Club
Sewing machine attachments are not only fun to use, but they also enable you to have that satisfied feeling of creating a something lovely. They can transform a plain material into a pretty, decorative one. They can give a professional look to a homemade garment, and to do all of these things takes a little time and patience to learn how the attachments work. They are helpful to your family and your home. Some of the most used attachments are the cloth or seam guide, the adjustable zipper and clasp foot, the scissors, cutting gauge, the gathering foot, the quilter, different size hemmers, the edgestitcher, the multiple slotted binder, the ruffler and the tucker. These are usually standard equipment with your machine. Others can be purchased, such as the buttonholer.

Ruffles and pleats appear like magic, edges are hemmed or bound quickly, lace is applied with ease and large or small tucks are fun to make. Once you begin to use your attachments your sewing will become more interesting. Before beginning to use your attachments, you should be familiar with your machine, and know that it is in good condition, clean, oiled and properly adjusted. See that the attachments are attached to the machine correctly. Be sure the thumb screw is tightened securely or the vibration of the machine might loosen the screw, wiggle out of position. When this happens you may break a needle. You should check the position of this screw frequently. After you have threaded your machine correctly, place both the upper and bobbin threads under and in back of the attachment to avoid tangling of your thread. Be careful never to place your finger under the attachment but use your scissors instead. Test the tension and length of four stitches on a scrap of the fabric that you are going to use. This enables you to obtain the effect you wish. You should first practice with your attachments before actually using them. Do not attempt to sew in reverse when using any of the attachments. Be careful about the materials you use. The ruffler works beautifully on such fabrics as organdy, gingham and net, but it won't ruffle a heavy fabric such as denim. The binder works nicely on light or medium weight materials, but is unable to bind thick ones. The gathering foot does its best work on soft, light or medium weight fabric. It's a joy to use the tucker on lawn or organdy, but it will not mark some of the materials with a crease resistant finish. Take good care of your attachments. An occasional drop of oil or bit of petroleum jelly will help the movable parts of the attachment work easily.

Chicago To Mark Seaway Opening

CHICAGO — (AP) — Visitors to Chicago this summer will participate in one of the city's biggest tourist seasons. Along with the normal amount of activity in museums, parks, sports, concerts, beaches, there will also be the International Trade Fair from July 2 to July 18 to celebrate the long-awaited opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway. Participating in the observances will be Queen Elizabeth II, as monarch of neighboring Canada.

The Festival of the Americas, from Aug. 3 to Sept. 7, will include the Pan American Games from Aug. 27 until its conclusion. Call the Olympics of the western hemisphere, the Pan American Games will bring to the U.S. more Latin Americans than any other single event in recent years. Chicago is preparing not only to accommodate the athletes but to provide the necessary facilities for their competition. Rowing events, which cannot be held on the choppy Lake Michigan, will be moved to the rivers and canals of the Illinois Waterway.

Aples, pears and sweet cherries first developed in the fertile land around the Black and Caspian Seas many centuries before the New World was discovered.

The Australian system of secret ballot was first used in America at Louisville, Ky., in 1888.
