TIGERS MARK UP TOWN OF YEAR

Hazel Woman Passes Away Early Today

Mrs. J. R. Herning passed away this morning at 2:06 at the Murray Hospital. Mrs. Herning, 57 years of age, had been ill for some time.

She had taught school for 29 years and was a teacher at Hazel School for 18 years.

Mrs. Herning is survived by her husband J. R. Herning of Hazel; her mother Mrs. Marian White of Hazel; Jimmy Ehrigide whom she and Mr. Herning had raised; three sisters, Mrs. Lonnie Rayburn, Mrs. Robbie Black, and Mrs. Rachel Hendon, all of Murray; three brothers Jack White and Otley White of Murray and Gene White of Paducah.

She was a member of the Green Plain Church of Christ where the funeral will be held at 2:30 on Sunday.

Bro. Jay Lockhart will officiate, and burial will be in Murray Memorial Gardens.

The body will be at the home in Hazel after 2:00 o'clock this afternoon.

The J. H. Churchill Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

State Fair Ends With Horse Show

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — The 1963 Kentucky State Fair comes to an end tonight with its customary climax, the world championship freestyle stakes at the horse show.

A crack field of 10 or more of the high-steppers was expected to battle it out before a crowd of about 14,000 at the final session, with the brilliant mare, My My, from Daneshall Stables of Louisville a slight favorite over the stallion champion, Captain Denmark. It also was Indiana Day at the fair.

A loud-mouthed rooster from Ohio won Friday's featured rooster-crowing contest by sounding off 136 times in two half-hours, a white rooster owned by J. P. Enloks of Greenville, Ohio, was the soul of consistency, crowing 63 times in each period.

None of the other seven contenders was even close. The runner-up turned in a score of 96 crows.

There was a minor accident at the fair when an electric car which Fair Board President F. F. Curran was trying to start suddenly went into reverse and plowed Mrs. Virginia Elkins, 28, of Shepherdsville, against an automobile on display in the Coliseum concourse.

Mrs. Elkins, an employe of the fairgrounds, was treated for abrasions at a hospital.

Along with the horse show's three performances, today's program included a square dance festival and a "spectacular of Stars," entertainment in the stadium at matinee and evening performances.

WHAT HATH TIME BROUGHT?—President and Mrs. Kennedy are marking 10 years of married life this month, and they do look a bit different now (right) than they did at their wedding (left) in Newport, R.I. His hair is much the same, but hers, that's different.

Final Minimum Foundation Allotment Will Be Increased

The 1963-64 Final Minimum Foundation Program Allotment will distribute approximately $4,400,000 more to the school districts of Kentucky than the 1962-64 tentative allotment. This increased allotment will result from the following:

The tentative allotment for Instructional Salaries is based on the student attendance during 1962-63, and the educational preparation of the teachers employed in November 1962. The final allotment will be based on the increased educational preparation of the teachers employed last year and any new personnel employed in November 1963. This factor plus an additional growth allotment, due to increased student attendance during 1962-63 school year, is expected to increase the cost of Instructional Salaries $3,500,000 in the Final Foundation Program Calculation.

The increase in student attendance will also increase the allotment for Other Current Expenses and Capital Outlay.

In addition a growth allotment will be applied to transportation cost due to the increased number of students being transported on district operated school buses which will add an estimated $600,000 to the estimated equalized wealth of the school district. This share of the cost of the program on the tentative calculation is 3.75% more than the amount required on the 1962-63 final calculation which has caused a few districts to receive less from the program.

Most of the school districts will have an increase in their Foundation Program Allotment in the final calculation due to growth in attendance and training of teachers.

According to a release from the State Department of Education, Calloway County schools will receive $430,893.39 for the 1963-64 school year, or $17,831.14 less than last year.

The City School System will receive $198,391.13 for the period, $440.86 more than last year.

Executive Committee Kirksey P-TA Meets

The executive committee of the Kirksey PTA met September 9 at the home of their president, Mrs. Ken Adams, for a regular meeting. Suitable invitations to the first PTA meeting of the school year were made by the committee during the business meeting. Several things were taken on by the membership for a vote.

The importance of the need for more teachers was of concern to all present. It was brought to the attention of the committee that several teachers have many more students than the state recommends, and two teachers have well over forty students. The school board has not given any indication the school will receive any relief with the lack of teacher situation.

A pot luck luncheon was served. Officers and committee chairmen attending the meeting were: Messrs. Ken Adams, James Tucker, Malcolm Majors, Bobby Watson, Hugh Palmer, Alvin Urey, Cody Adams, Ray T. Broach, J. B. Burken, Kenton Broach, Harry Lee Potts, Roy Rose, Max Bailey and Billy Tidwell.

Funeral Of Mrs. Duncan Set Sunday

The funeral of Mrs. Amanda Duncan, age 85, who passed away on Friday morning will be held at 2:00 p. m. at the McDaniel Cemetery. Grandsons will be the pallbearers. Bro. Pafford Patterson will officiate. Friends may call at the Duncan home on Dexter route one until the funeral hour.

The Max Churchill Funeral Home has charge of arrangements.

Frost Warnings Are Posted, New England

Frost warnings were posted for inland New England today and thunderstorms dumped more than an inch of rain on parts of the South.

The Weather Bureau warned of temperatures dipping near freezing throughout New England and into the 40s along the Atlantic Coast.

Widespread rain swept the Southland from Virginia to New Orleans, where 1.32 inches fell during the night. Up to a half inch fell in western Virginia and North Carolina.

Thunderstorms also dumped up to an inch of rain on central Texas, where as much as 4 inches fell Friday.

Two sharp earthquakes hit Southern California Friday night and people ran into the streets. No injuries or damage were reported.

The tremor was so sharp that it appeared to rock the 13-story traffic control tower at Los Angeles International Airport.

The temperature soared to 92 degrees at San Diego, Calif., Friday to a record for the date set in 1878. But temperatures across the North had a touch of winter.

Ironwood, Mich., reported a 23-degree reading and the mercury sank to 25 at Ashland, Wis. Rhineland, Wis., had 26 and the 32 at Madison, Wis., was the lowest ever recorded there on the date.

Firemen Called Two Times Yesterday

Firemen were called last night at 10:30 when a trash can near the intersection of Industrial Road and East Main street was burning. The fire had spread to a pole. The booster was used to extinguish the blaze with no damage reported.

At 4:40 yesterday morning firemen were called to 1629 Miller where a car was on fire. Apparently the fire had smoldered all night since the interior of the car was gutted by the blaze. The booster was used to put out the fire.

Mr. Uchurch passed away on Thursday. Dr. H. C. Chiles will officiate and burial will be in the city cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be Carlos Jones, Mitchell Story, N. B. Ellis, Toy McDougal, Cecil Thurmond, Danny Cunningham. Honorary pallbearers will be members of the Murray Tobacco Board of Trade.

Quintuplets Born To South Dakota Woman Early Today

ABERDEEN, S. D. (AP) — The wife of a part-time farmer today gave birth to four girls and a boy, the first quintuplets to survive in U. S. history.

The infants, born to Mrs. Andrew Fischer, 30, were listed in good condition by the attending physician, Dr. James Berboe. The babies were six to eight weeks premature. The first baby, a girl, was born at 1:58 a. m. (CST) at St. Luke's Hospital.

The second girl was born at 2:03 a. m. and the third at 2:14 a. m. The boy was born at 2:39 a. m. and the fourth girl at 3:01.

Shortly after the last of the babies were born their father, 38, who works for a wholesale grocery firm for $78 a week, rushed to the family's rented farm, just outside Aberdeen, 40 miles from the city.

Berboe said Mrs. Fischer, who had expected twins was "all shock up" and her husband, father of five other children, four girls and a boy, was "down in the dumps. How would you feel if you were going to have five children at once?"

As soon as the babies were born they were placed in incubators by Berboe and his assistants, Drs. Bernard King and Al Janus. They weighed from 3 1/2 pounds down.

Before going to the farm, Fischer said, "I'm just now getting over my nervousness. My wife is sleeping and in excellent shape."

The Fischer's other children, Danny, 7, Charlotte, 6, Julie, 5, Evelyn, 4, and Denise, 3, had not been told they were going to have five children.

However, Fischer said Danny told him he hoped "Mom comes home with a boy."

There are two other sets of quintuplets known to be surviving in the world, both in the Western Hemisphere. The Diligent's quint, three girls and two boys born July 15, 1943, in Argentina, are still alive, as are the five born Sept. 8 to Mrs. Ines Maria Cuervo de Prieto at Maracaibo, Venezuela. The Diligent's include Maria Fernanda, Maria Christina, Esther, Carlo and Franca.

The world's first quint to survive were the Dionnes, all girls born in Canada May 28, 1934. However, one, Emilie, died Aug. 6, 1954.

I-24 Meeting Is Planned Next Tuesday

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Gov. Bert Combs and the governors of Illinois, Tennessee and Missouri will meet with President Kennedy next Tuesday to discuss the location of Interstate Highway 24 which will link Nashville and St. Louis.

The State Highway Commissioner Henry Ward will accompany Combs to attend the meeting at U. S. Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges and Rex Whitton, administrator of the federal Bureau of Public Roads.

The governors previously have discussed the possible routes for the 186-mile interstate highway. Some 111 miles of I-24 will extend through Kentucky.

Robert Young Hits Beaches Of Korea

U. S. FORCE, KOREA (AP) — Army Lt. Robert H. Young, whose wife, Lou, lives on Route 5, Murray, Ky., and other members of the 7th Infantry Division hit the beaches of Korea during Exercise "Bayonet Beach" in Korea, Sept. 5.

The U. S. Navy provided transports, landing craft, destroyers and minesweepers for the exercise. Air support was furnished by the U. S. Air Force and the air force of the Republic of Korea.

Lieutenant Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Young, 406 N. Eighth st., is a platoon leader in Troop B, 2d Reconnaissance Squadron of the division's 10th Cavalry. He entered the Army in November 1962 and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The 23-year-old officer was graduated from Murray High School in 1956 and from Murray State College in 1962. He is a member of Scabbard and Blade society.

BEHEADED FAMILY — "They were my enemies. I am a black man and they are not," is the reason given by Melvin E. Jackson (above) for cutting off the heads of his wife Evt, 23, son Miles, 4, and daughter Kim, 2, in Los Angeles. Police found him studying Black Muslim literature in his home amid a grisly scene of butchery.

Hume Fogg Of Nashville Is Downed 33 To 7 Last Night

The Murray High Tigers continued their winning ways last night with a 33-7 victory over Hume-Fogg Tech of Nashville, Tennessee.

A packed stadium watched as Murray's first team built up the score, then turned the chores over to reserves who continued with some good football, finally relinquishing one touchdown.

Murray's first score came with 7:44 left in the first quarter when Vaughn galloped 75 yards. Hogan-camp ran over the extra point.

Hogan-camp made the next tally with 3:10 left in the quarter when he went over from the five yard line. He made the extra point good.

Faughn again scored in the third quarter from the 32 with 10:34 left with Steve Doran kicking the extra point.

Don Lee went 37 yards with 5:11 left in the third quarter for the Tiger's fourth TD but the extra point try was no good.

In the final quarter Steve Doran passed to Ronnie Danner from the 23 for the score. The extra point was no good.

Hume Fogg got their lone score when Larry Bowman crashed through from the two yard line with 3:05 left in the game. The extra point was run over.

First Quarter
Hume Fogg received the ball and after making one first down, moved to the 45. After losing on the next two plays with attempts by Baker and Webb, Hume Fogg punted out. Vaughn received the ball on his own 25 and went the route-tee-the-75-Ben Hogan-camp made the extra point good.

Receiving the ball again, Hume Fogg could not gain against the Murray line. Ronnie Danner intercepted a pass on the Hume Fogg 30. Vaughn went to the 15 but a penalty put the ball back on the 35. Lee went to the 26 and Hogan-camp to the 17, then Vaughn to the 5. Hogan-camp broke through for the TD and ran the extra point with 3:10 left.

Second Quarter
Behind the rummage of Anderson Bowman and Baker Hume Fogg put the ball on the Murray 40 and had to punt out to the Murray 24. Murray failed to gain and punted on the fourth down with Wilkins making the stop on the Hume Fogg 39.

Johnny Rose and Hogan-camp stopped Baker on the 43 yard line and on the next play Baker passed down field only to have the ball intercepted by Steve Doran on the Tech 40 yard line. Vaughn went to the 29 but Murray was penalized back to the 40. Faughn passed on the next play and Bowman intercepted the ball and moved it to the 46. Baker got to the midfield strip where he was stopped by Warren and Hogan-camp. Danner and Banks stopped the ball on the Murray 44. Hume Fogg began chopping at the Murray defense gaining three to five yards at a time until they stood on the Murray 11 yard line with a first down, and little time left in the half.

Webb went to the 9, then the four. Baker went to the 3 with 19 seconds left. Anderson made no gain on the final play and Murray took over the ball. They had only one play left.

RETURN FROM TOUR
Messrs Ruth and Frances Sexton have returned from a European tour. They returned on the Queen Elizabeth and were met in New York by their sister Mrs. J. W. Atkins of McKenize, Tennessee, who went to New York by plane. They spent several days together before returning home.

Webb tried another pass but it was no good. With only seven seconds left in the game Bowman took the ball to the 12 when the horn sounded.

RONNIE DANNER

DON LEE

Don Lee went 37 yards with 5:11 left in the third quarter for the Tiger's fourth TD but the extra point try was no good.

In the final quarter Steve Doran passed to Ronnie Danner from the 23 for the score. The extra point was no good.

Life Begins In Mid-30's For AFL Backs

By NORMAN MILLER

UPI Sports Writer Babe Parilli and Tobin Rote, who battled one another for a job 10 years ago, are proving to the American Football League that life begins in the mid-30's for a brainy old quarterback.

Rote, who is 35 and missed nearly the entire pre-season schedule because of severely bruised ribs, made an impressive formal AFL debut Sunday by directing the San Diego Chargers to a 14-10 victory over the Buffalo Bills.

And Parilli, who is 33 and making a comeback from a broken collarbone last season, was equally brilliant in guiding the Boston Patriots to a 38-14 win over the New York Jets. Parilli was Rote's understudy with the Green Bay Packers back in 1953.

Another quarterback who was aging last season, Tom Flores of the Oakland Raiders, helped produce the biggest upset of the AFL's opening weekend on Saturday night when he came off the bench in the third period and sparked a 24-13 victory over the Houston Oilers.

Just as big a surprise from the standpoint of the score was the 59-7 rout of the Denver Broncos by the Kansas City Chiefs, the transplanted league champions.

Two of the AFL's glamor-boys were knocked out of action on the opening weekend. Fullback Cookie Gilchrist of the Bills, 1962 AFL player of the year, aggravated previous rib and ankle injuries at San Diego, while halfback Billy Cannon of the Oilers injured his ankle Saturday night against Oakland.

And speaking of casualties, halfback Paul Lowe of the Chargers, who missed nearly the entire 1962 season because of a broken arm, showed all his old running speed in the victory over the Bills before a crowd of 22,294 at San Diego.

Rote set up the Chargers' first touchdown with three passes that covered 70 yards, and with San Diego leading only 7-3 in the third period, Lowe took a pitchout and raced 48 yards for another TD. Rote completed 18 of 30 passes for 260 yards.

Parilli ran 10 yards for one touchdown, passed 32 yards to rookie Art Graham for another, and set up two more scores with his tosses in Boston's home-opening victory over New York before 24,120 fans.

Jim Bouton Clinches Flag With His Twentieth Victory

by United Press International

Not even the grandest of all Yankees is feeling as high as Jim Bouton today — and it's not all the result of champagne.

Winning the American League pennant is a matter of habit for most of the veteran New Yorkers, but there's nothing routine about a 24-year old pitcher clinching the flag and gaining his 20th victory of the season in the same night's work.

This is what Bouton accomplished Friday night with a masterful 2-0 denouement over the Minnesota Twins that boosted his record to 20-6 and gave the Yankees their fourth straight pennant, their 13th in 15 years, and the 28th in their colorful history. It was the earliest American League clinching since the 1941 Yankees put the flag away on Sept. 4.

Bouton, who posted a 7-7 record as a rookie last year, relied mainly on a "hopping fast ball" to strike out 11 Minnesota batters. He was mobbed by his teammates after retiring the last batter-in the ninth inning and was bathed with pink champagne in the clubhouse.

In Trouble Once Bouton gave up six hits and was in trouble only in the eighth inning when the first two Twins reached base and the bases became loaded with two out. But after falling behind 3-1 on Harmon Killebrew, Bouton induced the Minnesota slugger to ground out to Tony Kubek.

Fascial, who went eight innings before going out for a pinch hitter, was tagged with his ninth loss against 18 victories.

Chicago moved into a second-place tie with the Twins, 14 games behind the Yankees, by beating Washington 5-2. Elsewhere, Detroit nipped Baltimore 3-2, Boston defeated Kansas City 7-3, and Cleveland outlasted Los Angeles 7-6 in 12 innings.

Herbert Wine 12th Ray Herbert spaced out eight hits and contributed a two-run double to gain his 12th victory for the White Sox. Pete Ward got a single to tie a Chicago club record of total bases for a rookie with 278.

A ninth-inning sacrifice fly by George Thomas provided the winning margin for Detroit and helped Phil Regan to his 13th triumph in 20 decisions.

Dick Stuart and Lou Clinton drove in two runs each as Jack Lamba pitched two innings of scoreless relief ball to preserve the triumph for the Red Sox and Earl Wilson (11-16).

Joe Adcock's 12th home run of the season broke up the Cleveland-Los Angeles battle. Gary Bell, the fourth Indian pitcher, received credit for his seventh victory against five defeats.

Cardinals Refuse To Quit As Simmons Pitches Shutout

by United Press International

Those incredible Cardinals simply won't quit, particularly one bird who ruined the Dodgers last year and appears to be doing the same thing this year.

The culprit is 34-year old Curt Simmons, generally considered "all washed up" when he was dispatched the minors four years ago.

This same Simmons, who didn't cost the Cardinals a penny, cost the Dodgers more than a quarter million dollars last year when he shut them out in the final game of the season and forced them into a playoff.

He was up to his same old tricks Friday night when he pitched his third consecutive shutout in a space of nine days to beat both Warren Spahn and the Milwaukee Braves 7-0 and boost the streaking Cards within 2½ games of the National League lead.

The victory was the seventh in a row for the Cardinals and their 16th in the last 17 games. It not only ended an eight-game winning streak by Spahn but also enabled the Cards to gain a half game on the somewhat shaky Dodgers. They lost the opener of their two-nighter to the Phillies 3-2, but won the nightcap 3-1.

Strikes Out Seven Simmons gave up only five singles, struck out seven and contributed a run-producing double during a five-run second inning rally that clinched his 15th victory.

Not bad for a guy who lost his big toe on his left foot in a power lawn mower in 1953, supposedly lost his last ball in 1955 and lost his major league address, temporarily anyway, in 1959.

The Dodgers dropped their opener to the Phils when Maury Wills' wild throw in the ninth inning enabled two runs to score after Frank Howard had put Los Angeles ahead with a two-run homer in the top of the ninth.

Chris Short struck out 14 and hurled a four-hitter for his seventh win. Sandy Koufax started for the Dodgers, struck out eight to run his NL strikeout record to 284, and gave way in the eighth to loser Larry Sherry.

Ron Perranoski picked up his 15th victory in the nightcap when he blanked the Philles over the last three innings. Dennis Bennett was the loser.

The Dodgers broke a 1-all tie in the eighth when Ken McMullen grounded out to first baseman Roy Sievers with the bases full to account for the winning run. Sievers had no play at the plate.

Philles Top Giants In other NL games, Pittsburgh beat San Francisco 5-4 in 13 innings, Houston blanked New York 1-0, and Chicago nipped Cincinnati 3-2.

Willie Stargell, who hit a three-run homer earlier in the contest, ended the marathon between the Pirates and the Giants with a 13th inning triple off loser Bob Garibaldi. Bob Friend picked up his 17th triumph in relief.

Don Notzberg stopped the Mets on two hits to post his 10th win for the Colts. Roger Craig, who absorbed his 21st defeat against five victories, blanked Houston until the ninth when rookie John Bateman singled home the only run of the contest.

Rookie John Boccubella's eighth inning single snapped a 2-all tie between the Cubs and Reds and earned reliever Lindy McDaniel his 12th victory.

A two day gun hunt for fallow and white-tail deer has been announced for the Kentucky Woodlands National Wildlife Refuge located in the Between the Rivers area near Golden Pond, Kentucky.

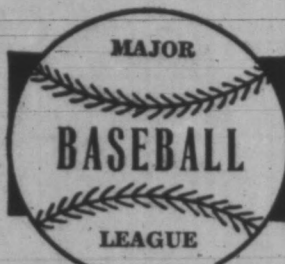

Refuge Manager Paul W. Sturm informs that hunting will be permitted on 25,000 acres of the Refuge from sunrise to noon on November 27 and 29 with a daily and season bag limit of one deer, either sex, per hunter.

Shotguns, 10 gauge maximum and 20 gauge minimum, with shells carrying a single slug, and plugged to hold no more than three shells in magazine and chamber combined may be used. Also permitted are center fire rifles .243 caliber or larger, muzzle loading rifles of 38 caliber or larger and semi-automatic rifles.

Preseason scouting, camping and the use of dogs is prohibited. The Refuge headquarters area and the Honker Lake waterfowl area are closed to hunting. The area open to hunting will be indicated by appropriate signs.

Hunters will be required to check in at checking stations where a federal permit may be obtained for the hunt.

Sturm reports that the deer population has reached a point where considerable crop depredation is recurring, this in spite of the 100 removals annually by the Kentucky Wildlife Resources for restocking purposes.

Freeze Causes Smallest Pack In Ten Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Agriculture Department report on the 1962-63 pack of Florida freeze concentrated orange juice shows how a natural disaster can cut down a crop.

The Florida orange crop for 1962-63 was apparently headed for a record low. This would be both for fresh fruit consumption and for processing. Then, in December, a sharp freeze struck the citrus groves of the Florida peninsula. Here is how the department described the effects of the freeze:

"The 1962-63 pack of Florida frozen concentrated orange juice, completed about July 1, was approximately 51.6 million gallons, 56.5 per cent below the record 1961-62 pack of 116.1 million gallons and

GREAT SPY MYSTERY THE FIFTH PASSENGER BY EDWARD YOUNG

CHAPTER 15

"This taxi the old lady invited the knot of her veil and rolled it up to the rim of her hat. And as she lowered her hands she removed her smoked glasses in one deft movement, turning her head toward Peter Carrington at the same time.

"Tell me, young man," she said, "what sort of ship is this Black Pearl?"

Carrington was staring at her, flabbergasted. It was the face of an elderly lady of strong character, of one who must have been known, perhaps twenty years earlier, as a "handsome woman." It was certainly not the face of Bill Howard.

"Are you quite well?" she asked, a little sharply. "You look as though you'd seen a ghost. Is my face so ugly?"

"I'm terribly sorry," he said, recovering himself, and made the first excuse that came into his mind. "For a moment I thought you were an old friend of my mother's whom I haven't seen for many years. But I was mistaken—please forgive me, it was very rude of me."

"Well, now, perhaps you can give me some information about the Black Pearl?"

"The Black Pearl, madam, is a sailing schooner which came into Briham two of three days ago and is due to sail for the West Indies sometime tonight. In fact, there she is." He pointed out of the window. They were about to descend the hill toward the harbor, and the Black Pearl was lying below them in the blue water.

"Ah, so I'm just in time."

"Just in time?"

"My son-in-law is a passenger. I understand, and I thought I'd come to see him off. My daughter married a Dutchman, you see—a Mr. Van Kringen."

"Ah, yes, I met him last night. Does he know you're coming?"

"No, I thought I'd make it a surprise. I haven't seen him for two years or so, though my daughter has been over to see me more recently, I only heard from her about his trip two days ago. I wasn't sure when he was due to sail, and coming all the way from Norfolk I was afraid I might be too late."

"Well, it so happens that I'm going out to the schooner myself in about fifteen minutes. You'd better come off in the same boat. But what about luggage? Where are you staying?"

"I haven't arranged to stay anywhere. I don't imagine there'll be much difficulty in finding a room in a boarding-house at this time of the year."

Carrington was now beginning to see the funny side of the situation, though what could have happened to Howard—or

He Gives Old Furs A New Lease On Life

By GAY FAILEY
United Press International
NEW YORK (AP) - There's life in the old mink yet. Or the old muskrat, beaver, raccoon, fox or other fur.

Fishman, a fifth generation furrier, proves it every day as he and his craftsmen give shabby, weebegone furs a new lease on life.

"I haven't found a fur yet we couldn't recondition," said Fishman, a graduate of the Fashion Institute of Technology.

As he talked, he went through the day's shipment of rundown furs that were piled nearly to the ceiling of his Seventh Avenue showroom.

The motley collection that one day included a mink coat from West Palm Beach, Fla.; a fitch from Canton, Ohio; a weasel coat from Chesapeake, Va.; a squirrel coat from Reading, Pa.; a beaver from Middleburg, Va.; a muskrat from Edmonds, Wash.; and a voluminous, but faded, wild mink coat from Lincoln, Neb., so ancient in style Fishman figured it was "close to 100 years old."

"But that's one of the best old minks I've ever seen," he said. "You know, mink is handed down from generation to generation."

Fishman's ABCO Furs is at the moment turning a vicuna fur rug with its off-white to beige and creamy tones into a coat for a California client.

He made into a jacket 28 skibi bobcats, which a couple in Texas had tanned themselves. He once made a kangaroo skin into a car coat. And an Indian parka of natural muskrat with badger trim around the face was made into a hooded, modern jacket for a client in Killen, Tex. The badger was re-done as a collar for a cloth coat.

Fishman said that about the most unusual request he has had come from a woman in the Midwest who brought a coat made of horsehide. Originally the skin belonged to a horse her late father had ridden and when it died, he had the skin made into a coat for her mother.

Now, the daughter wanted the coat converted into a jacket for herself.

Fur Loses Color
Fur loses some of its color even with the best of care, said Fishman, whose family has been in the fur business for 50 years, starting in Romania. Heat, air and sunlight all act on it, he said.

His craftsmen go to work in re-styling and rejuvenating only after a customer has had a free estimate of what the job will cost. The estimate is reached on basis of condition of the fur, which the customer either brings in or mails in, plus what she wants done in remodeling—a 17-page brochure gives a variety of styles.

A shaggy raccoon coat, vintage 1920, can be sheared, its color re-blended, and the fur "electrified" so that its surface takes on body. Fur, turned yellow with age, can be bleached white again.

The furs go through a series of processes including opening of seams, cleaning, re-oiling, re-coloring, re-cutting and re-stitching.

West Hazel Club Has Regular Meet At The City Park

The Murray City Park was the scene of the meeting of the West Hazel Homemakers Club held on Tuesday, September 10, with six members answering the roll by giving their favorite hymn.

Mrs. Herdrell Stockdale, president, presided. Mrs. Richard Nesbitt gave the devotion and Mrs. Con Millstead led in prayer. Mrs. Johnnie Orr called the roll and gave the secretary-treasurer's reports.

The garden and landscape notes were given by Mrs. Richard Nesbitt. She said evergreens grow very slowly and are more expensive than other plants but they lived longer than others and are good looking for years.

Announcements were made of the Annual Day to be held at the Women's Club House on Thursday, October 24.

The lesson on "Helping Your Child Learn the Use of Money" was given by Mrs. T. W. Nesbitt and Mrs. Con Millstead.

A basket lunch was served at the noon hour.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, October 8. Visitors are welcome.

Dear Abby . . .

He Let Go of The Reins!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I thought I was a "good" husband for 14 years, but now I wonder. We had three children. They were raised to understand that Mother was the boss, and Father was good for only the Jay check. My wife made all the decisions, and I let her. I wanted a peaceful home without arguments.

The result? My wife lost respect for me and my children did the same. Right now I am being divorced because I am "boring" to live with. I am giving my wife our home (paid for) and $200 a month for child support. I let her charge me with "mental cruelty" without protesting. Meanwhile, my brother sits at his table and eats steak, while his wife and children eat beans and bread. His wife adores him and his children worship him. His wife is law and he is treated like a king. So, who is crazy?

"TOO GOOD" - "DEAR ABBY: You're not, but when you abdicated your position as "head of the house," you invited the loss of face that followed. Being a "good" husband is not enough. Being respected is equally important. And about your brother: A man who eats steak while his wife and children eat beans is sick. And the family who could "adore and worship" such a man is as sick as he is. So don't rationalize your own evasions in terms of your brother's selfishness.

DEAR ABBY: I read somewhere that a woman should never go to sleep without "making up." I was taught that it is very bad for the complexion to go to sleep without washing your face. Can you please advise me?

DEAR ABBY: I read somewhere that if a woman has a quarrel with her husband she should never go to sleep without "making up" WITH him—not FOR him. You were taught properly. Always wash your face before going to sleep.

DEAR ABBY: How old does a man have to be before he starts acting old? John is 42 and I am 40 and we have been married 20 years. We have two sons, 16 and 18. John's place of business is only a few blocks from here so he comes home for lunch every day, which makes matters worse. I know that when a man is first married he likes to hug and kiss and show a lot of affection, but isn't he supposed to let up a little with the years? John is a wonderful husband in every way and I love him, very much, but I would be satisfied with just a good night kiss—if you know what I mean.

NO MATCH FOR HIM - "DEAR ABBY: Yes, I know what you mean, and your complaint is not uncommon. When a man and his Mrs. are not operating on the same frequency, they should visit their family doctor for some frank talk and advice. Your husband is too young to start "acting old"—and so are you.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "J": The answer is obvious. When you're with the one you love, you love the one you're with.

FOR SCHOOL LUNCHES - WASHINGTON (AP) - The Agriculture Department intends to purchase some surplus turkeys for use in the national school lunch program.

The department said Friday the ready-to-cook turkeys will be served in the hot lunch program to about 17.5 million children.

Bethany Class Has Meet; Officers Are Installed

Mrs. O. C. Wells opened her home for the meeting of the Bethany Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church held on Monday evening at seven o'clock.

An installation of the new officers was conducted by Mrs. Wells, the retiring president.

Officers are Mrs. Orville Anderson, president; Mrs. C. C. Farmer, vice-president; Mrs. Albert Key, secretary; Mrs. Ray Buckingham, treasurer; Mrs. Ethel Ward, assistant secretary-treasurer; Mrs. T. C. Emerson, social; Mrs. Gertrude Evans, program; Mrs. Naomi Miller, flowers.

Miss Ruth Houston is the class teacher. Mrs. Wells led the closing prayer.

In charge of arrangements for the evening were Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Albert Key. A social hour was held with refreshments being served to the seventeen members present.

Mesdames Redden & Howard Program Leaders At Meet

The Lynn Grove Methodist Church Woman's Society of Christian Service held its September meeting at the church with twelve members present.

"Our Methodist Heritage" was the program presented by Mrs. Lee Redden and Mrs. Dewey Howard. Taking part in discussion were Mrs. John Archer, Mrs. Carol M. Rogers, Mrs. Carl Lockhart, and Mrs. Joel Crawford.

Mrs. Sanders Miller, president, led the opening prayer and presided over the business session. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Rogers, who also called the roll. Mrs. Norman Lee, treasurer, gave her report.

The closing prayer was led by Mrs. John Archer.

Elkins-Grogan Vows Are Read Recently
Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Deborah Elkins, daughter of Mrs. Pauline Elkins and Lester Elkins, and Steve Grogan, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Grogan. The ceremony was performed on Saturday, August 3, at the Temple Hill Methodist Church by Bro. Joe Walker.

Miss Frances Wells and Wayne Garrison were the attendants for the couple. Only immediate members of the family attended the wedding.

Lydian Class Has Installation Of Officers At Meet
The home of Mrs. Pat Hackett on Poplar Street was the scene of the meeting of the Lydian Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church held on Tuesday evening at seven o'clock.
