Christmas Greetings

216) 4-1,11

N

We at Taylor Motors sincerely wish that somehow we could convey unto you, our friends and customers, the personal warmth and best wishes for the best and most joyful Christmas ever for you and your families.

For over 1900 years man has tried to find a better way to say "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year".

We realize we are woefully lacking in ability to even express our thanks to you for the privilege of doing business with you through this year and years past.

We would like to thank you personally, collectively and individually, not only for your business, but for recommending to your friends and neighbors that they, too, trade at Taylor Motors.

We trust that the faith you placed in us has even been strengthened and through the years to come you may point with justifiable pride to Taylor Motors and say, "That's my dealer".

Again, "Thanks" from the bottom of our hearts. May the future hold great things in store for you.

Try as we may, we cannot come up with a better way of saying "From all of us to all of you, we wish you a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year in 1967". STR.

Bill Mohundro and Elvin Thompson. Bill owns three Black and Tans, "Blackie", "Jim" and "Moose", a Bluetick and Walker ,"Rowdy". All We know about Red's 'hounds is that he has two Walkers, "Jack" and "Lady".

Wish we had a picture of J. P. Kilgore's Redbone, "Red" Ron England's "Ky. Sam" and "Lady", both Black and Tans; Otho Burton's Bluetick "Joe", his Redticks "Frank" and "Buck"; John C. Steele's Bluetick "Blue" and Redtick "Rock"; and hundreds more we know about but have never seen. Boys, when you come through Murray, stop at the Ledger and Times office. We are set up to get pictures of you and your hounds on the spot. If you come through at night call us at home (753-2450). Don't be a clock watcher, any hour from, 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. we are at home and eager to get your pictures. We aren't fussy about the hour.

A Fine Romance with No Marriage

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been go-, faith. (There may be a religious ing with a handsome, intelligent, "law prohibiting it.) ... successful young man for 3 years.

he dosn't know of ONE good marriage! Isn't that the most - ridiculous thing you've ever heard? We have everything in common and would make an ideal couple, but he says he doesn't want to spoil a perfect romance (ours) by getting married,

He says I am free to date others. but I have no desire to. How can I get him to marry me? I'll try anything.

WANTS TO GET MARRIED

DEAR WANTS: Your "handsome, intelligent, successful" young man is trying to tell you that he can't think of one good reason to marry YOU. And unless you can come up with one that makes sense to him, you'd better be content with a "perfect romance" because, as I see it, that is all he is going to offer you.

DEAR ABBY: I had a premature baby who lived only a few days. We had named him after his father. Well, two years later, I gave birth to another son. He was full term and very healthy. We wanted this child to carry his father's name, so we also named him after his father. My mother-in-law has given me no peace since. First she said it was "bad luck" to name this baby after the one who had died. I tried to explain that we named our second son after his father. not the child who died. Then she said it was "against the law" to iren in the the same name. Abby, will you please tell her there is no such and to knock it off? UPSET DEAR UPSET: Since you've already gone ahead and named the child, your mother-in-law would be wise to keep quiet. But I wouldn't tell her there is no such law until after I'd consulted (a) a lawyer, (b) a clergyman of my
