Time Dependence of Step Fluctuations on Vicinal Cu(1 1 19) Surfaces
Investigated by Tunneling Microscopy
[Phys. Rev. Lett. 71, 3521 (1993)]

M. Giesen-Seibert, R. Jentjens, M. Poensgen, and H. Ibach

The experimental data in Fig. 3 have been misplotted. Figure 3 should be replaced as shown. The activation energy as well as all conclusions of the paper are not affected.

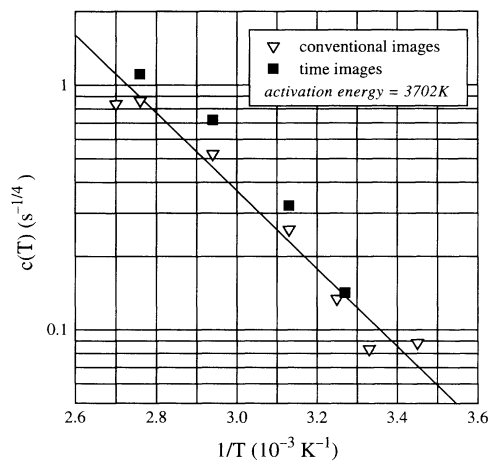

FIG. 3. Arrhenius plot of $c(T)$ defined in Eq. (6). The triangles and squares refer to data obtained from conventional and time images, respectively.
