

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1913-04-01

Letter from Rose S. Taylor to John Muir, [1913 Apr].

Rose S. Taylor

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Taylor, Rose S., "Letter from Rose S. Taylor to John Muir, [1913 Apr]." (1913). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 3977.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/3977>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

(Apr. 1913)

Mr. John Muir,
Martinez, Calif.
Permit me to say to you that the "Story of my Boyhood and Youth"
has found a great place
in our home and in our hearts.
We gave it to our son
Paul, who has entered the university. The book is full of inspiration and courage
and the atmosphere

of the early Wisconsin days. We are Wisconsin people and are familiar with the scenes of the book. I'm glad you wrote this book. I'm prouder than ever
of the U. W.

Pardon me if this letter is an intrusion on your time.

Very truly

Rose S. Taylor

Mrs. H. J. Taylor

U. W. 85

1711 Douglas St, Sioux City, Ia