My dear Mr. Muir:-
Had it not been
that we intended
calling upon you
at once, this acknowledgement of
your kind remembrance, would have
reached you days
ago.

I was surprised
and delighted with the "Story<sup>23</sup> of your Boy-hood," which was read

and much enjoyed in the club. I especially enjoyed the "dandy
doctors" and the roof
episodes; for being much of a Tom-boy girl, the sympathy it awakened
was genuine. My husband and I have enjoyed
pleasant hours reading
it together. We read
many books of interest
aboard evenings at home.

Your story will be read aboard in the club. It comes next to having had the pleasure of your company at the club. Friday afternoon.
