as to acquiring the old Calaveras grove

Martinez, Apr 28, 1900

My dear Lukens:

I have written to Senator Perkins as you desired recommending you as a member of the Appropriations Committee on the Calaveras Grove.

While the iron is hot we should I think strike for Government ownership of all the Sequoias of the Sierra.

I hear that the large holdings of the bankrupt Moore & Smith firm are now for sale by the creditors. Stir up the Water & Forest Club on the matter. The move done by the Government for the Sierra forests the move will be done for those of the South.

Ever Yours John Muir
