LINDAHOLM,

SANTA CLARA.

June 26/90

Dear Mr. Muir,

Your very cordial
note came yesterday,
and I am pleased to know I shall have friends on the noble mountain tops -

Tell Wanda and Helene, I am
privileging the privileges of my age

02869

by having a tent, which I hope they will use for dressing and bathing very often.

I am a novice in the Go Bernite, as well as they, and we can stand in one truck warden
together.

I am going by the way of Raymond, the first of July, from San Francisco on the five o'clock afternoon train.

We shall meet in the Go Bernite if all goes well.

With kind regards to Mrs. Muir from Mr. Myrick
and myself,
I remain,

Sincerely yours,
Emma A. Myrick
