JOSEPH C. PICKARD,
MAYWOOD, ILL.

December 1st. 1890

My Dear Mr. Muir,

Returning from a long sojourn in New England, among native homes, with brothers & sisters, I find a copy of the Atlantic Monthly
- kindly sent by you. I have read your contribution to that number with the interest which attaches to all others that I see. Thanks for your thoughtful kindness. I wish I could pay "in kind", but I have written little that you would care to read.

I take pleasure however, in extending knowledge of yourself & of your published book on the "Mountains of California" among my friends in Maine & Massachusetts from Portland to Cape Cod.

With heartiest good will,

Your friend
J. C. Pickard
