A MAGAZINE OF

THE OLD PACIFIC AND THE NEW

EDITED BY CHAS. F. LUMMIS

"A magazine wholly unlike any other published anywhere. . . . The best there is in periodical literature on the Pacific Coast. . . . Ability and individuality powerful enough and original enough to give distinction to any periodical. . . . A voice listened to with respect and interest in all parts of the country."
—The Dial.

"Its lively independence and its genuine learning. . . . A steady evenness of worth and interest."

My dear Muir;--

I wouldn't think of going with the Cañon party if you are not to be in it. That was the only thing that made me hanker to arrange my impossible plans so as to go along; because I would really like to see you and the Cañon in conjunction. I hope that it will come about some time; and the way you mention is of course far the best of all—just we two together.

Although if there were three or four strictly congenial people I would not mind, and it is likeliest that when I go again it will be that way. Then, when we get at it, we will make a round-up, and go not only the main
