

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

---

1902-09-19

Letter from Melville B. Anderson to John Muir, [1902 ?] Sep 19.

Melville B. Anderson

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Anderson, Melville B., "Letter from Melville B. Anderson to John Muir, [1902 ?] Sep 19." (1902). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 4734.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/4734>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Friday Sept. 19,
Monte Park

[ 1 ]

Dear, Good Mr. Muir:

I have little to say save to thank you with all my heart for your encouraging letter. My doctor holds on to me every day except Sunday, and I am minded some Sunday to run over to Martinez and have a chat with you. You will then see how well I am and possibly we can form some plan for a little outing, which 03055 will be to you rather an inning, - for will you not be going Home!

So, if the weather be not too bad, and if it will be convenient to you, I will come Sunday week, Sept. 28, leaving P.F. I believe about 9 A.M.

Cannot you rather come & get me, incognito like a Prince of Nature? I <sup>(would)</sup> <sup>(will)</sup> not advertise your coming and <sup>(will)</sup> <sup>(would)</sup> introduce you casually as we (go) about to half a dozen good men & true. Better are not made than some I know here, and I count myself in corrigible to be <sup>more</sup> the better for knowing such. It would do them good to know you. But if you cannot or will not happen along here, then -! By the way, Andersen has gone East and woud be <sup>in</sup> immediate. Here, should he miss a visit from you? Yes, Miss. To you just come & spy out the land first, and not a soul shall know you are expected.

With cordial regards to Miss. Missis, I am yours gratefully

Wm. W. B. Anderson