Dear Mr. Muir:

Flügel and I will come (D.S.) next Saturday morning on the Los Angeles Express, reaching Martinez at 10.24 according to the time-table. I shall be at Benicia the night before & suppose I can make the connection with the train in question.

Flügel has been reading your book - American literature is one of his interests. He is ~~very~~ full of eager anticipation of the visit. You will find him thoroughly alive, and as ~~the~~ familiar with <sup>the</sup> stratification of books as you are with the black letter of the rocks. If you are interested in any glen or crevasse of the Middle Ages you will find him <sup>an</sup> Agassiz on the subject.

With cordial regards
to dear Mrs Muir
Yours faithfully,
Melville B. Anderson
