Very well we will
hope to see James & Mrs Hay this summer.

We will be so pleased to have a few lines from
you. Mother & I often talk about you.

Mother joins me in kindest love.

Believe me
Yours Affectionately

Dear Cousin

What a pleasure
it gave us to receive the fine large photos
last week of yourself & friends, they are beautifully taken & it is so good of you in them both,
we do prize them

Mother is very feeble just now since the middle of March. She has not been downstairs, gets up a bit in the evenings but I do hope when warmer weather comes she will get a bit stronger.
I am so thankful
I have kept well
this last winter, by

Staying indoors &
managed to keep free
of cold.
What a great tour
your ex-president is having & so royally received. I saw he was invited to Dunfermline Carnegie's town, but cannot accept to go.
The stays are all
