San Francisco Cal.

May 23, 1910.

Dear Mr. Murr:-

I was very much pleased to hear from you. I felt it quite an honor to receive a letter from such a busy man.

I like San Francisco very much. The second day I was here I secured a position in a Neckwear Factory as bookkeeper and stenographer for the small sum of a dollar a day. I am now working in an architect's office. They keep me pretty busy. Some of the specifications are forty-eight pages long and I have to make six carbon copies and sometimes more than that.

I find that working is not fun by any means, but it is sure to become easier with practice.

How glad I will be to see you when you come to San Francisco. I will give you my working address so that if it is more convenient to call on me down town you may. It is room

You have my other address.
Thanking you very much for your kind letter, I remain,

Ever your friend,
Charlotte Gaut.
