Marshall

November 1, 1910

3157 EIGHTEENTH STREET

My dear Mr. Muir,
I am sure you can not know the real pleasure I took in hearing of Mr. Marshall's delightful visit with you; and I am so pleased to have the splendid photo of yourself.

But we shall never feel quite satisfied until you come on to Washington for a visit with us. I wish you were here right now for we are truly having Indian summer in spite of the fact that November is here.

When are you coming?
Don't you think a winter in the east would be good for you after these several years in California? I do.

Let us know when to expect you, for come you must.

With love from all the Marshalls, little and big.

Myra C. Marshall.
