BRIDGEWATER
COLLEGE

In Appreciation

MESSAGE FROM THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR INSTITUTIONAL ADVANCEMENT

Dear Bridgewater College Family:

We are grateful for the steadfast support shown by Bridgewater College's alumni, friends and parents during fiscal year 2019-20. We were especially heartened by the outpouring of support for scholarships. In an unusual year beset with financial challenges imposed by COVID-19, our caring Bridgewater family recognized that the need for student scholarships—particularly current scholarships—has never been higher.

In addition, donors generously gave to research and internship opportunities for learning outside of the classroom, capital projects, and athletic teams and programs. In the coming year, the Office of Institutional Advancement will continue to focus on these areas to help support the College's mission to prepare our students to become ethical and compassionate leaders in their communities as they find professional and personal fulfillment. Your partnership makes our work possible. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Maureen C. Silva, Ph.D.

MESSAGE FROM THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR FINANCE AND TREASURER

Dear BC Community of Supporters:

In unprecedented times, such as we experienced in fiscal year 2019-2020, the long-term importance of philanthropic support comes sharply into focus. Because of donor support, Bridgewater College was able to achieve remarkable new heights this past fiscal year, including the opening of the John Kenny Forrer Learning Commons. At the same time, we completed a host of other infrastructure and programmatic improvements across campus while also increasing student support.

You will find details of our operating budget and the Bridgewater College Endowment on the opposite page. Due to careful investment, our endowment remains robust and forms the core of the College's financial strength and stability. Because of it, our historically prudent fiscal management overall, and the continuing support of our donors, we are poised to make an even greater impact in the coming years. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Anne B. Keeler

On the cover: The John Kenny Forrer Learning Commons, which opened in February 2020, is the first building on Bridgewater's campus to be funded primarily through private philanthropy. This state-of-the-art facility is now the centerpiece of Bridgewater College's academic community and has quickly become a favorite place for students to gather, collaborate and learn.

Kennesha Parker '20 knows the value of helping others

AT THE CENTER OF EVERYTHING KENNESHA PARKER '20 does is her goal of helping people. From volunteering both on and off campus to her roles as a resident adviser and student ambassador and aspiration to become a homicide detective after college, Parker said Bridgewater College "set me up to be the person I want to be."

Parker, who majored in English with a minor in criminal justice, initially thought she'd attend school closer to her hometown of Laurel, Md., but visiting Bridgewater changed everything. She made new friends during her visit and admired the atmosphere on campus. She felt like she was home.

"I had the best four years of my life at this college," she said.

Parker, a self-described "people person," paid that sentiment forward in many ways while on campus, but most noticeably perhaps as a student ambassador

“Being part of the Student Support Foundation taught me that, even if it wasn’t apparent on the outside, many of my peers were struggling. Being able to help in some small way was so gratifying. That’s what philanthropy is all about.”

in which she led tours for prospective students and their families. In summer, as president of Bridgewater’s Student Ambassadors Association, Parker attended a student ambassador conference in Albuquerque, N.M. She was inspired by several of the sessions she attended, and afterward helped the College’s student ambassador program reach another level by increasing recruitment for new ambassadors and implementing a mentor/mentee system. In the fall semester of her senior year, she helped institute a new tour route system during open houses.

“We formulate people’s ideas about Bridgewater in hopes that they will want to connect with us and with the campus because of how we are describing our own personal experiences,” Parker said.

In November 2019, Parker, a resident adviser since her sophomore year, presented at the Virginia Association of College and University Housing Officers conference. Parker’s presentation on “Make it Clear: Setting Boundaries for Healthy Relationships” was voted third-best presentation of the entire conference.

“Being an R.A. instilled in me leadership skills but also made me realize I was making an impact,” she said.

Another way Parker made a difference on campus was through her involvement with BC’s Student Support Foundation (SSF). The SSF, one of 15 chapters across the country, was created by the Morgridge Family Foundation –MFF– (also a lead donor of the John Kenny Forrer Learning Commons) to help students gain hands-on experience with philanthropy. The SSF student board is empowered to distribute grant money (either to individual students or clubs and organizations pursuing service projects) and by doing so learn what philanthropic causes inspire them.

As fundraising chair of BC’s SSF, Parker was instrumental in raising the matching dollars, through raffles and other fundraising activities, required of each chapter by the MFF. In fall 2019, Parker attended the Florida summit for all Student Support Foundation chapters. Members of each school had the opportunity to share their approaches to funding projects, and were inspired on how to make an even bigger impact.

“Being part of the Student Support Foundation taught me that, even if it wasn’t apparent on the outside, many of my peers were struggling,” Parker said. “Being able to help in some small way was so gratifying. That’s what philanthropy is all about.”

CLASS OF 1971 ESTABLISHES CURRENT SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Reunion class gifts, presented to the College’s president during a class’s 50th reunion celebration, have generated more than $4 million of support for Bridgewater College and its students over the years. Traditionally, these generous reunion gifts have tended to support endowed scholarships or capital projects.

After meeting with President Bushman and hearing first-hand his perspective on the College’s most pressing needs and vision for the future, the Class of 1971 Reunion Committee was inspired to offer a class gift that was a little different.

The Reunion Committee has established the Class of 1971 Scholarship Fund as a Current Scholarship Fund* in which 100% of funds are distributed as scholarships. The scholarship—the first of its kind established at BC by a class in reunion—will have immediate impact on students.

“When we began our planning, it became evident that we are living in different times because of the pandemic,” said Lorraine Bittinger Lineweaver ’71, a reunion committee member. “Many of these changes are affecting day-to-day operations at colleges across the nation, as well as our reunion plans. But this global crisis has deeper impacts for today’s students—many of whom are feeling the financial effects on family income or jobs. We hope that the Class of 1971 Scholarship Fund will enable students to begin or continue their Bridgewater College experience, despite the difficult situations they are facing.”

By creating this fund, the Class hopes to raise awareness of the critical importance of investing in current scholarships both for students and for the future of the College. To make a gift, contact Colby Horne, Senior Director of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving, at 540-828-5745 or chorne@bridgewater.edu.

*CURRENT SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

With the Bridgewater College Endowment valued at nearly $92 million as of June 30, 2020—a strong position, particularly for an institution of our size—BC is able to expand its focus to include current scholarship support. With named current scholarship funds, 100% of the funds are distributed as scholarships. In addition, Named Current Scholarship Funds:

- Are investments with an immediate, life-changing impact on students
- Make a BC education within reach for families of all backgrounds
- Can be named with a $50,000 gift or pledge payable over five years or less
- Can celebrate your career and civic accomplishments, or that of a loved one
- Educate students about the investments others make in them—and the importance of giving back when they are able!

If you would like additional information about naming a Current Scholarship Fund, contact the Office of Institutional Advancement at 540-828-5448 or BCAdvancement@bridgewater.edu

LIFETIME GIVING

Bridgewater College is fortunate to have had donors who, over their lifetimes, have contributed generously in support of academic, athletic, student and capital projects. LASTING CONNECTIONS

Betty and I have maintained close connections to the Bridgewater College community since our graduation in the early 1960s. We can never repay the College for the positive influence it had on our lives and our extended family. The Vision for our Future: Strategic Plan 2025 gives us the opportunity of supporting the College in a meaningful way in years to come.

1880 SOCIETY

The 1880 Society is Bridgewater College's annual leadership recognition society. This select group of donors have made cumulative contributions of $1,000 or more during the fiscal year (July 1-June 30), and we honor them here by club level: President's Club ($10,000+), Heritage Club ($5,000-$9,999), Bell Tower Club ($2,500-$4,999) and Cornerstone Club ($1,000-$2,499).

LASTING CONNECTIONS

Bridgewater opened up the world to me. I was exposed to other cultures and viewpoints that I never would have had and that helped me grow up. I want to help as many as I possibly can to gain access to that kind of experience. That's why I've supported Bridgewater scholarships for years and a couple of years ago was so happy to endow a scholarship in honor of my wonderful, supportive parents.

LASTING CONNECTIONS

I am so glad I made the decision to attend Bridgewater. Growing up in Karachi, Pakistan, I wasn't quite sure what to expect when I first arrived on campus. My experiences and education, especially working with my mentor, Professor (Joe) Crockett, prepared me well for grad school at UNC. My professors inspired me to pursue an academic path myself, and today I am a chemistry professor at a liberal arts college in Illinois. I want to give back and make it possible for others like me to benefit from the Bridgewater Experience.

LASTING CONNECTIONS

When I think back on my time as a student I'm grateful for the opportunities I had to learn, both in the classroom and beyond. My professors encouraged me to research, question and draw connections across subjects, and by being involved in campus activities, I had the opportunity to put those skills into action. Now in my career, I see how that well-rounded education prepared me to adapt to our dynamic, ever-changing world. I give to Bridgewater College to ensure more students can benefit from those opportunities.

LASTING CONNECTIONS

We are grateful to Bridgewater for a strong academic program and other experiences during our college years that enabled our career successes and contributed to our fulfilling lives. As first-generation college students, our scholarships were invaluable. We give so that others can have these opportunities, and, with a company matching gift program, our dollars help even more.

NAMED FUNDS

Hundreds of donors over the College's life have created endowed scholarship funds. Today, the College is positioned to complement the endowed scholarship program with an equally robust current scholarship fund in which 100% of the contributions are distributed as scholarships.

CURRENT SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

With a $50,000 commitment, donors may name a current scholarship. In addition to having 100% of the gift distributed as scholarship, donors can also establish a legacy or honor another's memory. These current scholarships provide Bridgewater College the critical flexibility to lower financial hurdles for students attending BC—an investment with immediate, life-changing impact. Our generous donors have created the current scholarship funds listed below.

Class of 1971 Current Scholarship Fund

ENDOWED FUNDS

Endowed funds provide an opportunity to create a lasting source of support to students, faculty and College programs. The principal of endowed funds is permanently invested, while the earnings are spent in support of the fund's purpose, providing spendable resources in perpetuity. Our generous donors have created endowed funds listed below.

MAKING THE CONNECTION

Bridgewater gave Christian Sanchez '20 opportunities to delve deep into all his passions. A double major in mathematics and philosophy and religion, he also performed in theatre productions and was a member of the Math Club, Interfaith Board Association and Pinion Players.

The wealth of connections that BC provided led Sanchez to a prestigious paid internship at Johns Hopkins University's Applied Physics Laboratory. Now he's beginning a master of divinity at Princeton Theological Seminary.
