

THE GREEN GANG GOES TO PRISON

The Green Gang were taken over by State Prison officials yesterday morning. Left, Guard Milo McLellan and Captain Albert Welsh start three of the manacled convicts on their way. Left is John Hule. William Green hangs his head while Ansel tries to hide behind his twin brother. The picture on the right shows Alexander Magill being manacled. James E. Green, Jr., turns his head away as he sits in the Sheriff's office, already restrained. In the background is turnkey Earl Porter of the jail.

The Green Gang quintet which was caught in Rockland for burglaries April 27, drew a total maximum in sentences of 60 years, Thursday morning in Knox Superior Court.

Heaviest sentence awarded by Justice Tirrell was to Ansel Green who must spend from 12 to 24 years in Thomaston Prison. Probation on two previous sentences of five to ten years each from the February term of Knox Superior Court in 1948 for forgery was revoked by Tirrell. All sentences will run concurrently.

Next in years was John Hule, the only one of the group to stand trial, who drew a sentence of from seven and one-half to 15 years in prison.

William Green was sentenced to 6 to 12 years while Alexander Magill drew 3 to 6 years and James E. Green, Jr., 1 1/2 to 3 years. James and Magill were first taken to the court room for sentence shortly after 9:30 Thursday morning under heavy guard. Once sentenced, they were taken to the sheriff's office where prison officers shackled them and took them to Thomaston to start their sentences immediately.

each new man coming before the justice until Ansel was reached who drew the heaviest sentence of all.

The last three were lodged in the jail cell block until the guards returned from taking the first two to prison. They were then shackled and taken to the prison car waiting in the jail yard.

The departure for prison yesterday morning of the five convicts brought to a close a period in which they looted Rockland firms of several thousands of dollars in merchandise and cash extending over about three months. The burglaries ended with a gun fight at the Rockland Wholesale Grocery Company on the night of April 27 when James was taken by Patrolmen Spain and Lambert.

Charles E. Stone Jr. of Ash Point stopped his trial midway of the State's case Wednesday afternoon and entered a plea of guilty. He had been charged with the death of Barry Haskins, 14, son of the Owl's Head lightkeeper on a manslaughter warrant. The charges arose from Haskins' death when struck by a car on South Main street just over the Owl's Head line, in March. The court has yet to impose fine or sentence on the man.

The State presented testimony of State Police specialists and technicians in an effort to identify Stone's car as the death vehicle. The trial was stopped by Stone's plea midway of the testimony of Trooper Hamilton who is attached to the criminal investigation bureau.

The appealed cases of Raymond Ludwig of Rockland and Selim Ruohomaa, also of Rockland, on drunken driving charges did not go to trial prior to the dismissal of the jury Thursday noon. No official announcement has been made as to the plea of the defendants or the disposition of the cases.

Captain Albert Welsh of the Maine State Prison observed Thursday, as he waited to take the Green Gang members to prison, that it was just 15 years ago this term, the court that he came to the same court to take Alexander (Shorty) Magill to prison. On that occasion, Magill was sentenced on a bad check charge which started in Cam-

Well Water Saves Community When Fire Destroys Mrs. Marth St. Clair's Buildings

Fire Tuesday forenoon destroyed the 145-year-old residence on Carter's Hill, South Hope, owned by Mrs. Marth Powell St. Clair, and created a near panic among the occupants of the other dwellings in that small community. Glowing embers fell over a wide territory, setting fire to several roofs and endangering the nearby South Hope schoolhouse where a score of small pupils were immersed in their studies.

The buildings which became a total loss were occupied by Robert Carlton Athearn and family, formerly of Dedham, Mass. Mrs. St. Clair, the owner making her home in a nearby dwelling.

Mrs. Athearn was entertaining several callers when the fire broke out. Stepping to the door to get bottles of milk for the children, she sensed a strange sound coming from the direction of the barn, which adjoins the house. Going to the door again, she continued to hear it, and out of curiosity, she opened the barn door. Immediately she was confronted by a wall of flame.

A NEW PRINCIPAL ELECTED

A. Hamilton Boothby Of Calais Memorial H. S. Succeeds Mr. Clunie, Resigned

From a large field of candidates the Rockland School Board has selected a new principal of the High School in the person of A. Hamilton Boothby, who has been principal of Calais Memorial High School since 1945. Mr. Boothby will succeed Robert Clunie, Jr. resigned, beginning with the opening of the new school year in September.

An Added Burden

Increase In State and County Taxes Means A Higher Rate

City Manager Frederick D. Farnsworth announced today an added burden on the taxpayers of Rockland of $10,997 increase in State and County taxes levied on the city this week.

The county tax jumped from the 1948 figure of $16,750 to $21,948 while the State tax rose from the 1948 charges of $31,051 to $36,852. The increase levied on the city by the two governments will amount to approximately one and one-quarter mills on the tax rate.

These are taxes over which neither Farnsworth nor any member of the city government have no control. They merely can receive the bills and pass them along to the taxpayers in the form of taxes.

THE CONTRACT IS AWARDED

Cambridge Firm Will Build New Concrete Highway On Park and Main Streets

The new bituminous concrete highway along Park street from the railroad tracks to Main street and along Main to Camden street, will be constructed by the Warren Brothers Co. of Cambridge, Mass. City Manager Farnsworth made the announcement shortly after the opening of bids in his office Wednesday.

Bids received were $65,218.75 from Warren Brothers, $101,845 from Wyman & Simpson of Augusta and $80,910.75 from W. H. Hinman of North Anson.

The Warren firm is reported by Farnsworth to be among the originators of the bituminous concrete process and to be one of the most capable in the business. The firm received notification of award of contract this morning and have 10 days in which to commence work.

THE BLACK CAT

By The Roving Reporter

"Tap" told me of reading in an insurance magazine the story of a couple which had become miffed about something and lapsed into prolonged silence as their car rolled along. Finally the young man espied a mule and asked: "Relative of yours?" "Yes," was the reply, "by marriage."

The Eastern Maine State Fair is dead. At least that's what its president says. It will seem like a strange Summer when August rolls around without it.

The hero of the day in South Thomaston one hot day last week was Arthur Dennison, who donned a straw hat and hit for The Keag.

When a diesel locomotive drew into Thomaston at the head of a freight train the other night, residents of the West End mistook its strange whistle for a down fire alarm, and by pre-arrangement the West End alarm was sounded. No harm was done and the diesel proceeded merrily on its way to Rockland unaware of the mischief it had caused.

Walking through the woods at Castine, where he has a Summer cottage, C. V. Lowell of 834 Old County road, Rockland, picked up a pint bottle. Nothing strange about that except that this particular bottle contained a growing fern. The Black Cat agreed it was a strange find.

Pedestrians and motorists looked on with amusement the other day while a dog was center of attraction on Main street. The dog was a Great Dane and parked in the middle of the street, he was contentedly munching a huge bone. Nobody thought it wise to interfere, and traffic was held up several minutes.

Parrots do the darndest things. For instance there's the one owned by Mrs. Fred Lermund of Alden street, Camden. Dunks his cogninut in coffee every morning.

A Tired Woman's Epitaph

Here lies a poor woman who always was tired. Who lived in a house where help was not hired; Her last words on earth were: Dear friends, where I live there is help to be hired. Where washings ain't done, nor sweeping, nor sewing; But everything there is exact to my wishes. For where they don't eat, there's no washing up dishes; I'll be where long anthems will always be ringing. But, having no voice, I'll get clear Don't mourn for me now, don't mourn for me never. I'm going to do nothing for ever and ever! —Anon.

A Yale Authority

To Deliver Lecture On "The Weavers and Webs Of Persia" At The Farnsworth Museum

It was announced today that Mrs. Margaret T. J. Rowe, curator of the Hobart Moore Collection of Textiles of the Yale University Art Gallery will deliver a free public lecture at the Farnsworth Art Museum Sunday afternoon, June 5.

This event will climax the exhibition of Persian textiles to be held at the museum for a month beginning in mid May. The fabrics to be displayed will be from the Safavid period (1502-1736) of Persian history and will be exhibited in the museum's Square Gallery.

Mrs. Rowe's illustrated talk "Weavers and Webs of Persia," will deal not only with the items in the exhibition but also with the techniques employed, the types of looms, under what conditions the weavers worked at court, prices and types of design, especially in the 16th and 17th Centuries.

James Brown, director of the Farnsworth Museum, stated that those who attend the lecture will learn of the close connection of the art of this period with much work produced abroad and at home today. The great value of the art of the past as source material and inspiration for contemporary work is realized not only by all successful designers but it is also recognized as being essential to the complete enjoyment of art, Brown said.

This is the second Sunday afternoon lecture to be sponsored by the museum, the first being Miss Milfred Burrage's talk on the Index of Maine Design last March.

Mrs. Rowe's lecture is free to the public but those wishing to attend are asked to reserve seats by postcard as the capacity of the auditorium is limited.

THE COURIER-GAZETTE

[EDITORIAL]

Editor, FRANK A. WINSLOW

A FULL-TIME SECRETARY

Long years of semi-activity have served to convince many members of the Chamber of Commerce that the only way to make actual and material progress is through the acquisition of a full-time executive secretary. Such an official is an expensive attachment from the standpoint of dollars and cents, but so are all good things. The Chamber of Commerce—first known as the Rockland Board of Trade—has had a long and honorable career, and a handful of men have given as much of their time as they could afford in the hope of having new industries and other activities from which the whole of Rockland might derive returns.

Aside from the self-sacrificing efforts of these few men the Chamber has maintained a semi-dormant attitude and has little to show on the right side of the scorebook. Of course there is no definite knowledge of how often Opportunity has knocked at the door, but numerous other communities have seen industries spring up and have greatly enhanced their working forces. Rockland has little to offer for which the Chamber of Commerce might rightfully claim the credit. A notable exception is the Van Baalen Heilbrun plant at the Northend, which is today a most gratifying industrial factor, going ahead year in and year out without fanfare.

The spirit with which the community accepts the full-time secretary idea may be judged from the fact that two enterprising merchants have already offered to contribute $100 cash toward the remuneration for such an official. One week from tonight in the Community Building will be held the first in a series of high class entertainments, the proceeds of which will go into the secretarial fund. An entertainment, which, as elsewhere told, will give full value received. We hope to see a united citizenry getting behind the movement which is being forwarded by a very earnest, hard-working committee.

THE QUODDY PROJECT

The Maine Legislature's endorsement of a resolve appropriating $30,000 to finance a federal "preliminary investigation of the Quoddy project" is indicative of the State's vital interest in obtaining a factual report, Gov. Frederick G. Payne said. The appropriation resolve, which was enacted almost unanimously by voice votes in both Legislative branches, followed reports from Washington that Congress had failed to include the $30,000 item in either regular or supplemental budgets. The resolve, enacted by the Legislature and signed by Governor Payne, provides that the money "shall be used by the Joint International Boundary Commission."

The Quoddy project has had its many ups and downs, its encouragements and its disappointments, but with its advocates keeping everlastingly at it, the plan must some day be a winner.

"BOSS HAGUE" ROUTED

The attention of the political world was centered Tuesday upon the result of the municipal election in Jersey City, N. J., where Mayor Frank Hague Eggers was running for reelection. It was conceded that his defeat would be a body blow for the erstwhile Boss Hague, and the defeat came by a margin of more than 20,000 votes. It means a back seat for "I am the law."

DESERVE HEROES' RECEPTION

Now that the Berlin blockade has been lifted the opportunity is permitted to bestow full praise upon the men who have made the Berlin Airlift possible, and it is indeed fitting that a heroes' welcome should be given to the returning airmen, who at great personal risk have kept the Berlin area supplied with the necessities which would have been denied it by Russia. One cannot help wondering how the Germans feel about it. Do they fully appreciate this heroism and self-sacrifice, or will they adopt the sneering attitude which so many European countries have employed in the past? Remember the rating that was given the United States during the prolonged argument as to "who won the war?"

the Fellowship meetin.

At the Baptist Church, Rev. C. W. Small, pastor, morning worship will be at 10:45 a. m. Sunday School will convene at the close of the morning service. The Youth Group will meet at the Rockville Church at 6 p. m. The evening service will be conducted by a special deputation from Gordon College, under leadership of Rev. Franklin MacKerron. This group is made up of students who are preparing for the foreign mission field. Prayer meeting and Bible study will be held Thursday in the vestry. There will be special music at all the services.

New Scout Troop

Sponsored By the Littlefield Church—Gets Away To A Flying Start

The first meeting of Boy Scout Troop 203, now being sponsored by the Littlefield Memorial Baptist Church, was held Wednesday night. Various members of the Troop committee were introduced, and initial plans laid.

The new Troop has chosen red and black as its official Troop colors. The boys were told of the campsite that has been given to the Troop by Sherman H. Lord, and a committee member Lawrence Perry has given a building suitable for living quarters that will be moved to the campsite as soon as possible.

Mr. Perry introduced the Scoutmaster, Carroll M. Wixson, who told of the work anticipated, and introduced the various committeemen, Warren K. Dorr, Edward Cross, Kendrick Dorman, Perley Bartlett, Lawrence Lord, and Rev. John Barker.

The boys will meet at the church at 8 o'clock, Saturday morning to go to the site of their new camp, and begin work on its construction. Boys present at the meeting were, Clayton Dorr, Leslie Smallwood, Carl Gray, Raymond Wixson, David Deshon, Benjamin Perry, Blaine Cousins, George Brackett, Russell Wixson, Milton Glad, Warren A. Dorr, and Edgar Sukeforth, Jr.

Warren E. Dorr was chosen as acting assistant Scoutmaster, with Raymond Wixson as senior patrol leader, Carl Gray as scribe. Blaine Cousins and Russell Wixson as patrol leaders, and David Deshon and Milton Glad as assistant patrol leaders, and Benjamin Perry to be the bugler.

Knox-Lincoln League

Camden and Rockland Are Tied For Lead As Waldo-boro Whips the Former

The Knox-Lincoln League games of yesterday juggled the team positions somewhat as Camden dropped from the undisputed league leadership to a first place tie with Rockland. Waldo-boro ace slinger, Levensaler, held Camden to three hits in the Camden grounds while his teammates hammered out a 7-0 win over the league leaders.

Rockland, trailing Camden for the sun berth by one game, took Boothbay Harbor, 8-2, at Community Park to tie with Camden.

Lincoln Academy gave Thomaston a pasting in a five-inning game to a score of 8-1, at Newcastle. The league now stands tied up with Camden and Rockland at four games each in the win column and one in the lost side of the scorebook. Lincoln is a three-way and two losses while Boothbay and Waldo-boro tie at two wins and three losses. Thomaston has been unable to get rolling so far this year and have dropped four in a row.

The girls' softball league covering the same schools finds the schedule upset due to Camden not putting a team on the field this year. Right now, Boothbay leads with two wins out of two played while Rockland has two wins and one loss in three times up. Waldo-boro girls have a record of two and two and Lincoln Academy, one and one.

Independents and Shipyard Will Start the Softball League Going

The opening game of the Rockland Softball League will be played next Monday at 6:30 p. m. at the Schofield-White Park. The opener will be between the Independents and Shipyard teams.

Six teams make up the league this year. The DeMolay and Boys Club of Rockport are newcomers and both promise much strength and ability and will contribute much interest to the league schedule.

The league has always been a success in the way of entertainment for the people and also in the way of bringing honors to Rockland in their State League contests.

The league has been fortunate in its leaders and this year under President Nathan Witham there should be no exception. The Rockland Softball League has scheduled the following games for the opening week:

May 16, GSF Shipyard vs. Independents.

May 17, LPC Dragons vs. DeMolay.

May 18, Rockport BC vs. Merchants.

May 19, GSF Shipyard vs. Rockport Dragons.

May 20, DeMolay vs. Rockport BC.

Champions Go Afield

The Twin City Softball League All-Stars, will play the Perry team of Rockland in a softball game at Walton Field, Sunday, at 2 o'clock. Perry's Market won the State softball crown last year. They feature the pitching of Steve "Shorty" Korkovick who pitched all last season without a defeat, including tournament play.

The All-Stars made up of three players from each Twin City team feature Don Nagle, a newcomer from Philadelphia, as their star pitcher.

Bridge: Style Show

Attention is called to a coming event of considerable interest and importance to many. A dessert-bridge and style show at 1:30, May 19 in Universalist vestry, under the able direction of Mrs. Kay Newman and Mrs. Marie Berry Collins.

Reservations for tables should be made with Mrs. Martha Senter, (telephone 1275). Refreshments will be served while the many attractive young ladies model the latest in fashionable clothes and accessories, loaned for the occasion by Rockland merchants.

In the evening a buffet luncheon will be served after card games are ended. There will be a prize for each table. It is hoped many men will make reservations.

In the afternoon there will be reservations for those not wishing to play cards, in the parlor, under the supervision of Mrs. Edith O'Brien.

"OFFICE" WON THE CHAMPIONSHIP

But Everybody Was a Champ At the Cement Company's Banquet In Thomaston

Bowlers of the Lawrence Portland Cement Company six-team league were treated to a dinner by the Company Tuesday night to top off a successful season. The event was held in the Thomaston Masonic Temple, with the ladies of the Eastern Star providing a plentiful supply of lobster stew which had the bowlers coming back for seconds and then some.

This was a season of fireworks, in which the Office squeaked through to win the first half, and the Quarry winning the second half by a larger margin. The play-off to determine the champ for the year was won by the Office in a close and exciting five-string match.

Company awards were announced as follows: Large permanent trophy to be held by the Office for a year; individual awards to winning team members; and to Guy Robbins for high average (101); Ed Lynch for high match (338); and Fred Allen for high single (144). The teams were:

Office—Chapman, Ervin, Levan, Pomeroy, Lynch
Quarry—Pitts, Baines, Preston, Kelley, Tweedie, Allen
Laboratory—Hoch, Everett, Jenkins, Robbins, Day, Bisbee
Repairs—Sprawl, M. Preston, Barlow, Ransom, J. Staples, Jr., Lord
Electricians—Starr, Adams, Curtis, Seekins, Kangas, Leo, Bickford, Lime Plant—Flagg, Smith, Bodman, Stockford, Burnham, Gray.

The Kiwanis Club

Mike Di Renzo, Director Of Recreation, Reviews the Year's Work

Monday night, Mike DiRenzo, director of recreation, gave the club some figures on the activity for the past year. He stated that over 36,000 children have enjoyed the facilities provided, pool tables, ping pong games, basketball tournaments, and swimming activities.

He feels that with the further aid and encouragement of service clubs, the Legion, the Elks, and the Parent-Teachers Association, that in time Rockland will have a very fine recreation program. He thanked the Kiwanis Club in particular for its primary assistance, and steady interest in the program from the beginning.

A recent Legislative Act gives Sea and Shore Fisheries wardens authority to enforce Inland Fish and Game laws. The act in general gives Sea and Shore and Inland Game Wardens concurrent jurisdiction, as approved by Commissioner Stobie and Reed.

The Kiwanis Club, by popular request, will stage another Barn Dance at the Community Building next Tuesday night. Woodcock's orchestra will furnish the music. The orchestra will be elevated and a speaker arranged so that dances may be called. Come in your old clothes and have a good time. Prices will be awarded for the best costumes.

Several members of the local Sea Scout Ship will attend the supper and dance Saturday in Portland as guests of the SSS Maine. Mate Perry will accompany the group from Rockland.

Bray's Appointment

Will Serve On An Important Committee Of U. S. Savings and Loan League

I Lawton Bray, secretary-treasurer of the Rockland Loan and Building Association, received word today of his appointment to the Reserve Credits and Banking Relations Committee of the United States Savings and Loan League, the 57-year-old nation-wide trade organization of the savings association business. The appointment came from M. K. M. Murphy, Rutherford, N. J., president of the League.

The Committee on Reserve Credits and Banking Relations concentrates its studies on the effectiveness of the Federal Home Loan Bank System, which grew out of original studies of this Committee some 18 years ago.

This Reserve System for the savings associations, which now supplies one-half billion dollars of the money with which the associations make loans to home owners, is composed of district banks which have savings association men as their directors and which generally serve to even up seasonal and long term variations in the supply and demand of home mortgage money.

The Committee is concerned with the policies and practices which assure the maximum benefit of the System to the business for which it acts as the reserve credit institution.

MOTHER'S DAY
Of the many names that's spoken: Greeting this friend, or the other: There's never one that sounds so sweet As when we speak of Mother. Never love so sweet and tender— Never love so pure and true— Never sacrifice more willing Than your mother gave to you. From your infancy to manhood, Or the cradle to the grave, Never will a love be greater Than the one your mother gave. Let's pause for just a moment— Let's we all join in and say: "Oh Lord! Please bless the Mothers!" "Please make them happy Mothers' Day!" Fred C. Simmons, Waterville, N. Y.

Taxes On Beer Maine received $2,034,367 in 1948 from taxes on the sale of malt beverages, the Maine Division of United States Brewers Foundation announces.

This return was about one percent of the $108,908,090 collected in beer and ale taxes by all the States.

Fred A. Clough, Jr., director of the Foundation's Maine division, said high malt beverage taxes in Maine were responsible for the high rate of return. Maine collects a tax of $4.96 on each barrel of malt beverage, one of the highest rates in the country, Clough said.

World Sodality Day The Sodality of Our Lady of Good Hope observed World Sodality Day Sunday by receiving Communion in a body and attending a breakfast at Wadsworth Inn.

The speaker was Edwin L. Donovan whose topic was "Modern Man" expounding the capacity for good or evil in humankind, and referring to the pride Socialists should take in their Catholic heritage. Much of the progress in this country, explained Mr. Donovan, is directly attributable to members of this faith—in science, literature and various channels of historical significance and should be recognized as such.

The pastor of the parish, Rev. Charles F. Bennett, was celebrant of the Mass and was also guest at the Communion breakfast.

Lambert-Dickens The wedding of Miss Dorothy Louise Dickens, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Dickens, and Dean Alvin Lambert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lambert of Houlton, took place at the Chestnut Street Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, May 8. Rev. Melvin H. Dorr, Jr. performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with potted ferns and flowers. The wedding marches were played by the church organist, Mrs. Douglas Libby. A baritone solo was given by Gerald Ranney of Northampton, Mass.

The bride wore a gown of white nylon taffeta made with long sleeves and high neck and a finger-tip veil falling from a coronet. She was carried in marriage by her father. She carried a prayer book with a spray of stephanotis. Miss Jean Lambert of Houlton, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor and her dress was of pink net over taffeta. She carried a colonial bouquet. The flower girl was Judy Ann Lambert, clothed in white organza and carrying a miniature colonial bouquet. Peter Lambert was ring bearer and wore a white linen suit.

Mr. Lambert was attended by Walter Barrett of Nantucket, Mass., and the ushers were Thomas Dickens and Robert Anderson, brother and brother-in-law of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a green suit and a corsage of yellow roses, while the groom's mother was dressed in a black print dress with a corsage of red roses.

A reception, immediately after the wedding, was held in the church parlor. This was in charge of Mrs. Percy Hopkins. Those who served were Mrs. Doris Ogier, Miss Thelma Butterfield, Mrs. Stephen Gross and Mrs. Donald Lambert. Mrs. Thomas Dickens presided at the punch table; and Mrs. Harold Alexander had charge of the guest book.

After their wedding trip to Quebec City, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert will live in Houlton. Mrs. Lambert's traveling costume was a navy and red ensemble with a natural colored straw hat and bag.

The bride graduated from Camden High School and Children's Hospital, Boston. After serving three years overseas in the U. S. Army Nurses Corps, she attended Teachers' College, Columbia University, New York, and for the past two years has been in Houlton under the State Department of Public Health.

Mr. Lambert is a graduate of Houlton High School, attended Bates College and served five years in the U.S. Army, with three years overseas duty. He is employed by Farrar-Brown in Houlton.

Committee From the Senior Chamber of Commerce is Bending Every Effort

The Senior Chamber of Commerce will employ a full time male director within a short time, if the plans of the Working Committee of that body bear fruit. The plan has been approved by President Fred C. Gatcombe and the directors of the Chamber, and the go ahead signal has been given.

Funds must be raised to defray the expenses of the director who will be employed. First move in the program to raise the funds is the eight acts of professional vaudeville which the Chamber of Commerce is presenting at the Community Building Friday night, May 20.

Every effort has been made to engage top performers with the result that eight of the best acts in a wide variety of specialties will show at the Community Building, Leavitt Coffin, member of the committee, spent a day and a half in Boston for the express purpose of selecting the acts and has done an outstanding job.

The Chamber is trying not only to do a job for the business people of the city but for all people in the area. Support of the fund raising show will result in the exchange of a full evening of fine entertainment for the money paid into the Chamber's special fund. Tickets are now on sale with Chamber members having them. Both box offices will be open at the Community Building the night of the show to care for one and all.

Chamber of Commerce officials point out that a full time director of the Chamber will be concerned solely with the furthering of this cause; seeking new industry and helping that industry which is now here and so valuable to the city. He can serve the city and its people in many ways beneficial to the community as a whole.

Rockland Lions Have Netted Nearly $1000 Through Minstrel Shows; Southard For King Lion

Members of the Rockland Lions Club listened with appreciation, Wednesday while Maurice Nute, treasurer, revealed the financial results of the two minstrel performances.

The total receipts were $1499.81; federal taxes amounted to $206, and after deducting other expenses the club's net receipts were close to $1000, which makes a mighty comfortable egg nest for charitable and emergency purposes.

The club had as special guests Ois Lewis, Wesley Hoch and Norman Hammond who aided the club in the two productions.

The show last Monday night had a surprisingly good attendance, and patrons were rewarded by another snappy performance in which "Danny" Dandaneau and Otis Lewis carried off the honors. In his present organ music, Stafford Conger presented several novelty numbers which were much enjoyed. And Sam Savitt was right there keeping the crowd good natured.

The nominating committee of the following slate: Joshua N. Southard, King Lion; Keith Goldsmith, first vice president; Almon B. Cooper, second vice president; Arthur Jordan, third vice president; Maurice Nute, secretary-treasurer; George Shaw, tail twister; Leon White, lion tamer; and William Koster, Joseph Soffayer, Clinton Gifford, Howard Halver Hart, South Hope; Mr. and Mrs. Halver Hart, Jr. and Mrs. William Hardy Ormon, Mrs. Douglas Thoms, Boston; Walter Barrett and Arnold Larson of Nantucket Island, Mass.; and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Gross of Brewer.

The Rotary Club

The Members Make Tour Of Guatemala Personally Conducted By Senor Wood

Members of Rotary were entertained at the weekly meeting with colored slides of Guatemala, a Central America republic, taken by George Wood on his sojourn this past winter.

President "Jerry" Burrows, speaking of the fine job done by the Rotary Club at Boothbay Harbor, told of a home which it has purchased, very much in need of repairs, and through voluntary labor of the members have converted it into a delightful meeting place which must be seen to be appreciated.

Regarding attendance, President Burrows cited three members of the Bangor Club who have had perfect attendance for 25 years, 12 weeks; 31 years, 39 weeks; 31 years, 42 weeks, which is certainly an objective to shoot at. He stated that the club here would set today as a date for a 100 percent meeting.

Dana Jordan, in charge of program, presented George B. Wood—Spanish being used fluently in the introduction—who entertained the members showing colored slides.

Mr. Wood, speaking briefly of Guatemala, told of its mountainous ranges, mainly belonging to the Antillean system, also of the native language, being for the most part Spanish. The population, the speaker said, is about 70 percent Indian; the remainder chiefly Spanish.

The colored slides revealed the habits and industry of the people of Guatemala. Scenic slides showed a beautiful countryside with active volcanoes in the background.

Mr. Wood caught many pictures on religious pageants which were being enacted while he was there and were very colorful.

The imaginary tour of this republic proved very interesting and instructive, resulting in a good round of applause upon its completion.

Visiting Rotarians, Alden P. Head, Bangor; Harry A. Tozier, Portland. Guests, George Bernier, Lloyd Crockett, Charles Webster.

Modern Miracles

Let no one believe because of these few articles that an attempt is being made to minimize or explain the miracles which Jesus Christ performed during His earthly ministry; far from it. People today, all too many of them, are living in this rushing age bent only on what they can get out of life. "We only live once, so what?" These words are modern, but the philosophy behind them is as old as time. These people court science to give them the good things of life rather than God. "For a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth."

Is not the radio which blares in your home all day, to be considered a modern miracle? Is it man made or a miracle of God? Much is now known about atoms. Inside the atom there is a very tiny particle called the nucleus which corresponds to the sun in the solar system, and around this nucleus there revolve the electrons. Can atoms be seen with a microscope? No, more than 50 trillionths of an atom can crowd together on the head of a pin and yet electrons, as compared in size with an atom, would be like a fly in a great cathedral. These electrons revolve inside the atom with great speed, yet every one has space between it and its neighbor.

At present, the theory of carrying radio messages from one place to another is by radio waves in ether. The broadcasting stations set these ether waves in motion. Remember, those radio waves are not waves in matter but in ether, a medium which it is presumed, fills all space in the universe. The ether penetrates into these spaces in atoms through the walls of your house and comes forth in sound from your radio. Any radio mechanic can explain what takes place inside your radio.

It is marvelous what man can do with these electrons he can never see—man has merely discovered the laws, or a few of them, of atoms and this only recently. I listen to a sermon or a prayer meeting in Los Angeles. Dr. Lowe preached a sermon and then sat in the pew and learned how he sounded to his congregation—not a bad experience for any minister.

Radio activity is a law of the Creator—man the translator. Never should the laws of God be confounded as the work of man. William A. Holman.

MRS. CATHERINE LARRABEE

Catherine G., widow of Herbert L. Larrabee, died at 182 Camden street, May 5, after an illness of eight months. She was born in North Adams, Mass., daughter of Paul and Rosanna (Kearns) Roche but was a resident of Rockland since early childhood. Of a retiring nature her life was devoted to her home. She practiced neighborly kindness in the true christian spirit. A member of St. Bernard's Church, she was very active in its affairs during earlier years. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Margaret Burns, and four nieces and two nephews. Requiem High Mass was celebrated in St. Bernard's Church Saturday morning by the Rev. Charles F. Bennett. Bearers were Eugene O'Neil, Thomas Anastasio, Fred Carini, J. Donald Coughlin. Interment was in St. James cemetery, Thomaston.

Washington inherited Mt. Vernon from his half-brother Lawrence.

Camden Adventists Have Dedicated Their New House Of Worship In Lincolnville

Members of the Camden Seventh-day Adventist Church dedicated their new place of worship at Lincolnville Saturday with an all-day service directed by Elder J. Wyland Wood of Bangor, district pastor. For the past several years the church members had been holding services in a small chapel in Camden but the new church, bought last year from another denomination, is in Lincolnville, which is more centrally located.

Among those taking part in the dedication ceremonies were Elders R. W. Moore of Portland president of the Northern New England conference; P. I. Nosworthy, Portland, conference treasurer; L. P. Iangworthy of Gardiner, pastor of the Augusta district; and Mr. Wood. Services concluded with a social gathering in the local Grange hall. The church ladies served a noon-time meal to members and guests from visiting churches. Elder Wood has invited the public to attend the Sunday night meetings which will be initiated at the new church next Sunday.

BLANCH M. SHADIE

The death of Mrs. Blanche B. Shadie, wife of Boynton Shadie, occurred May 6 at her Camden street residence, following several months' illness.

A native of Washington, Maine, she was born Aug. 1, 1885, daughter of Alvah P. and Ida (Wiggins) Mears. Mrs. Shadie had been a resident of Rockland for 55 years. She was actively interested in a number of civic and patriotic organizations, having served as president of Edwin Libby Relief Corps, and was also a member of Ruth Mayhew Tent, D.U.V., and Educational Club; and the Littlefield Memorial Baptist Church. Thoughtful and kindly in her helpfulness to others, Mrs. Shadie was especially solicitous of the elderly and her comfort to them will be warmly remembered.

She was the sole survivor of a motor accident which occurred in 1941 at the Four Corners, West Rockport, when the four remaining occupants met their death.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two brothers, Galen Mears of Washington and Percy E. Mears of Dover, N. H.; also several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held Sunday at the Littlefield Memorial Baptist Church, Rev. John Barker officiating. A profusion of beautiful flowers emanked the casket. The bearers were deacons of the church, Harry Chase, Ronald Lord, Carroll Wixson, Ralph Conant, William Derman and Perley Bartlett. Interment was in Achorn cemetery.

Those from out of town to attend the rites were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blumer and son Conrad of Glens Falls, N. Y.; Mrs. Alton Blake of Waterville; Mr. and Mrs. Merton Davis, Mrs. Arlene Mears, son Dean and daughter Deanne of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McNaughton of Greenville Junction, Mr. and Mrs. Galen Mears of Washington and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Perry of Bangor.

MARGARET WIELDS THE GAVEL

British Visitors To U. S. Senate Find the Maine Woman Presiding

Fifteen members of the British Commonwealth Association entered the Senate Chamber Monday, to find Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine presiding—they said they had never seen a woman preside over such a body—and congratulated both the Senate and the Maine Senator. Earlier, the visitors, fresh from the association meeting in Ottawa, were guests of honor at luncheon in the Senate family dining room given by Senate and House Foreign Relations Committees. Senator Smith was one of the few "outsiders," besides committee members invited.

Sitting beside her was Sir George Harvie Watt, Conservative, United Kingdom representative in the Association, whom she had met at luncheon given by members of Parliament in London in 1947 for members of House Armed Services Subcommittee, of which she was a member on a tour of the European and Middle East theaters. Senator Smith had to use a firm hand on the gavel when Democratic Floor Leader Lucas asked Senate recess for five minutes to greet the British Commonwealth visitors. Democratic Senator McGrath of Rhode Island refused to allow Senator Johnston who was filibustering on a sales tax for the District of Columbia, to yield for the recess without losing the floor. Senator Smith pounded the gavel and ruled that Johnston could yield for this purpose without losing the floor and there was an informal reception on the floor, the visitors climbing the restraint steps to shake hands with Senator Smith.

Girl Scouts Met

Barbara Griffith Is Nominated For Commissioner; Good Reports

The monthly meeting of the Local Council of Girl Scouts was held in the Scout room at the Community Building recently. It was conducted by the Commissioner, Mildred Crie. It was decided that the annual Court of Awards would be held the 25th instead of the 20th, due to the auditorium not being available for the first planned date. The nominating committee brought in the following slate of officers, to be voted upon at the annual meeting in June: Commissioner, Barbara Griffith; Deputy Commissioner, Leona Whitehill; secretary, Dorothy Bird; treasurer, Mildred Crie; and Registrar, Helen Bray.

A discussion was held concerning the annual meeting June 2 with Mrs. Nelson appointed chairman of arrangements for the evening. The leaders were asked to leave their records with the Council for the Summer to avoid any loss of necessary papers.

The program for the evening consisted of very excellent reports from each of the 10 troops concerning their projects during the year and other outstanding events in which they had participated. The report for the Mariner Scouts, Troop No. 1, was read by Mrs. Griffith for their leader, Mrs. Mary Whittey; eighth grade Troop No. 5 activities were reported by members Helen Chase and Janice Beal, for their leader, Mrs. Whitehill; seventh grade Troop No. 4 report given by the leader, Mrs. Thelma Small; sixth grade Troop No. 9, report given by the leader, Mrs. Lillian Sylvester; fifth grade Troop No. 10 which has been divided into two troops, the first half of which was reported by the leader, Mrs. Tilly Anastasio, and the second half activities were reported by members Janice Rogers and Sandra Harriman for their leader, Mrs. Helen Fickett; the four Brownie Troops' reports were given by their leaders: Fourth grade Troop No. 3, Mrs. Kathleen Harriman; fourth grade Troop No. 11, Mrs. Evelyn Halligan; third grade Troop No. 7, Mrs. Eleanor Newbert; second grade Troop No. 6, Mrs. Marie Studay.

All members of the organization were asked to remember the special meeting May 13 at 7:30, in the Scout Room, to hear Miss Sanderson of the Regional Staff. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Phyllis Grispil, Mrs. Mable Bowley, Mrs. Sue Nelson, Mrs. Kathleen Harriman, Mrs. Katherine Philbrook and Mrs. Leona Whitehill.

Congo Church Chat

Attendance Sunday, almost reminded one of Easter when the local chapter of DeMolay attended worship, and Children's Day was observed in conjunction with Mother's Day. The Church School presented the first part of the worship service, led by Dorothy Greene. Mrs. R. E. Lindquist was at the piano while the Senior Department sang "The Mother's Hymn" written by William Cullen Bryant. John A. Munsey, general superintendent of the Church School presented 26 Bibles to those who have become 7 during the past year since last Children's Day. Ushers at the service, appropriately robed for the occasion, were Sally Cameron, Marilyn Seavey, Shirley Nelson and Marie Whalen.

Five children were christened Sunday. They were: Deborah Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. French; David Farnham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert O. Emery; Susan Jane, Judith Joan, and Meredith Ann, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Dana A. Jordan.

A robed was on the pulpit for Jane Elizabeth Roes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roes, born May 3, in Camden.

Recently, thirteen young people from the local Congregational Church and two chaperons attended the State Youth Rally held in South Portland in connection with State Congregational Conference. The young people had recreational period followed by supper and an address by Miss Helen Kenyon, first woman ever to be elected Moderator of the national denomination. Attending were Betty Crozier, Howard Crozier, Betty Griffith, Stephany Lindquist, Corinne Edwards, Marie Whalen, Milton Proctor, Sally Cameron, Barbara Boynton, Marilyn Seavey, Shirley Nelson, David Bird, Richard Burby, and chaperones Mrs. Crozier and Mrs. Burby.

Elected vice president of the State Women's Fellowship last week in South Portland was Mrs. Robert Lippquist of the local Congregational Church, who will work with Mrs. Charles Haynes, of Ellsworth, who is serving a second year as State president.

Odds and Ends will meet at the Congregational Church on Thursday night at 7:30. The Men's Association presents Rev. Alfred G. Hempstead Friday night at its regular meeting when Mr. Hempstead will report on his recent seminar at Washington, D. C.

ACES SPRING A SURPRISE

Nosed Out Lucky Strike A's To Win Championship At Camden

(By Joe Talbot)

The Aces provided the upset of the year by nosing out the Lucky Strike A's for the season's championship of the Speed League. The Aces won the first half while the Lucky Strike won the second half and were odds on choice to win the pennant (what pennant?)

Keith Richards, stalwart anchor man of the L.S.A.'s did his level best to pull his team through, and notched a fine 569 total for the five strings. His opponent, anchor man Leon Melvin, almost held his own and came through in the crucial moment to finish with a 129 single and a 544 total.

The Aces victory is a repeat over last year's performance, and this year they missed "Old Philio."

Or did they?

The Shellites are in as second-half champs of the Hot Shot League. With only one more match remaining they cannot lose but must roll the first half winner Boat Club to decide who will wear the championship belt. (what belt?) Well anyway to see who cops all the mazzuma.

This week the Shells knocked off Tom's Lunch 5 points to 0 with Margita and Bartlett slaughtering the pins for the totals of 398 and 392 respectively. Cliff Richards hit 306 to lead the lunchmen.

The Boat Club edged out the Legion in a hotly contested duel winning the total by 19 pins on the clubbing of Carl Cottrell, who hit 300 which is probably just about his lifetime batting average when he was participating in another field of sport. Same old story. Porter was high man for the Legion hitting a 292 total.

The Lucky Strike B's won the second half championship of the Independent League and now must roll the Rangers to decide who will wear the crown. (Yeah! we know. What crown?)

The B's had enough lead over the field to win in spite of the drubbing administered to them by the Giants who swept all five points from the new champs. Donut Whitehouse led the onslaught with a 334 total with Eddie Ames' 281 tops for the B's.

The first-half champion Rangers sharpened their claws for the coming relief at the expense of the Rockets with Cap'n John Kennedy paving the way with a 298 total. For the Rockets, the highest man was Harris with 267.

Slivers from the Alleys

Several of our bowlers are entering the State of Maine tournament to be held at Waterville May 14 to May 24 inclusive.

Hobbs, Melvin, Richards and Colwell are expected to enter the men's open singles while Det Aylward and Margaret Colwell will enter the women's singles. In the men's doubles we have Hobbs-Richards and a Melvin-Colwell combination while the ladies' doubles have Ames and Brown listed. Mixed doubles also come in for our share as we have L. Richards-K. Richards. Ames-Hobbs, V. Heal-W. Heal and M. Colwell-W. Colwell, four combies we are hoping will show well at the tournament.

To add to all this we have a ladies' team capable of taking the team championship or at least furnishing the keenest of competition. Members of this team are: G. Ames, V. Heal, P. Brown B. Whitler, and L. Richards.

At least this will definitely prove that Camden is a bowling town and capable of pitting their wares against any and all comers. And while we're on the subject our erstwhile State Champ, "Phil" Grover, did very well at the Sweepstakes held at the Huntington Avenue alms in Boston recently. He bowled 1036 to finish in fifteenth place in a field of two hundred fifty-five bowlers. 1092 took first money. Congratulations "Philio." And he hasn't rolled candelpins all Winter, either!

As you doubtless know, the clubs we have been reporting on all Winter, the "Lend An Ear" and K.S.G.s are inactive for the remainder of the season, but will resume operation in the Fall. The "Lonely Hearts" Club, however, will no doubt, continue operations all Summer, and unlike the Camden C.C. and Meg. Fish & Game, President Tom Aylward will continue doing business at the same old stand.

The Fourflusher League will hold its banquet at the Lobster Pound.

FIVE YEAR CLAM SURVEY

To Be Made Along East Coast At Cost Of $500,000—Boothbay Harbor Focal Point

Boothbay Harbor will be the focal point of a five-year survey of east coast soft and hardshell clam resources which it is hoped will determine a management plan for the multi-million dollar shellfish industry. John B. Glud, chief of the project for the Fish and Wildlife Service, said today.

The investigation, which will expend $500,000 in the five-year period, was instituted through the efforts of Commissioner Richard E. Reed of the Maine Sea and Shore Fisheries Department and Congressman Robert Hale of Portland.

Glud continued. Congress has already appropriated $37,500 of the funds and the present bill calls for $92,500 for each of five years.

Headquarters for the investigation will be at the research stations of the Sea and Shore Fisheries Department and the Fish and Wildlife Service at Boothbay Harbor and a five-man crew of aquatic biologists will be stationed there during the five-year period, Glud said.

In outlining the goals of the investigation Glud declared that it should be understood the findings of the survey were not pointed toward restriction of the clam industry in any way. "We plan to determine the effect of commercial digging on certain selected areas and just how much digging these flats will stand before they reach the point of depletion," he said.

There will be period surveys to determine productivity and in this manner a plan of management can be turned over to the State and members of shellfish industry, he continued. "We are starting from scratch all of this is so new there is no established technique for clam management," Glud continued.

The first test area will be on the Georgetown side of Sagadahoc

Bay. There, techniques for the collection of spat, or "seed clams" will be established. As soon as these are worked out the annual seed productivity of a flat can be estimated and methods for holding the seed on the flats established. "In this way we plan to find out if the collection of spat for the reseeded of other areas is practicable," Glud continued.

Sagadahoc Bay was selected, he said, for the first survey because its topography and concentration of diggers was especially suited to existing work methods.

"We are especially interested in the effect of the tides on larval clams and whether or not brush, grass, or wire barriers would aid in holding the small clams in certain areas," Glud continued.

Assisting Glud will be Dr. Richard E. Tyler, Walter Welch, Harlan Spear and co-operating with them will be Dana Wallace, shellfish specialist of the Sea and Shore Fisheries Department.

As the investigation covers the seaboard clam producing States, Dr. Charles Fish of the Marine Laboratory at Narragansett Bay will work on hard shell clams and at Rutgers University Dr. Thurlock Nelson will conduct work in the southern States. New York is the

Eight Top Acts

Will Feature Chamber Of Commerce Vaudeville Show May 20

Final plans are being made by the energetic Chamber of Commerce working committee which is sponsoring the vaudeville show at Community Building May 20.

Charged with raising funds to further the efforts of the Chamber along the lines of obtaining new industry and operations in general, the group have brought eight top notch vaudeville acts out of Boston for the occasion.

The booking agents have engaged a show which will have a wide variety of entertainment. The acts range from tumbling specialties to singers, comedy acts, acrobatic dancing and a dog act.

Many a year has passed since people of the area have had an opportunity to see a real vaudeville show such as the committee has arranged to show. The acts are considered the finest of their specialty obtainable in New England.

The committee in charge of the show is comprised of Maurice Nute, Harry Gerrish, Sam Savitt, Leavitt Coffin, Wilbur Senter, Sumner Perry, Almon Cooper, Keith Goldsmith, Robert Gregory, Sherman Daniels and Seth Low.

Tickets are now on sale for the show and may be obtained from Chamber of Commerce members.

The cement plant at Inkum, Idaho, is the largest in the State, and there are many limestone mines in the area.

WHS Future Farmers In District Competition At Monmouth Academy On May 4

The Waldoboro Chapter of Future Farmers of America attended the district meeting of the body at Monmouth Academy, May 4. Faculty member Joseph Hamblen accompanied the 12 boys who participated in the district competition in several fields.

The Waldoboro contestants were: Dairy, Rodney Jackson, Raymond Hutchins; Poultry Production, Bruce Nichols, Robert Orff; Poultry Marketing, Bruce Nichols, Robert Orff, Eggs, Lawrence Nichols, Bradley Witham; Rope Splicing, Vernon Hutchins, Walter Winchenbach; Rafter Cutting, Roger Ralph and Harold Lewis.

Schools competing were Waldoboro, Livermore Falls, Winham, Gorham, Wilton, Norway, Greeley Institute, Buxton, Monmouth, Buckfield and Fryeburg.

Livermore Falls carried off all first prizes in all divisions in addition to scoring the greatest number of points in the competition.

UNDEFEATED IN 13 GAMES

Appleton High girls' basketball outfit went through the season just past without a defeat, taking a total of 13 games in a row.

Coached by Miss Eleanor Fuller, who now teaches in Rockland Junior High, the squad offered a snappy, well-trained team to their opponents.

Two games apiece were taken from Islesboro Union, Rockport, Liberty, Monroe and Penobscot while a single game was copped from Eskine Academy.

Captain of the outfit was Gloria Mank with Marion Griffin serving as manager.

Prospects look good for a winning team next year as there is no Senior class at Appleton this year to take players away from the squad.

'49 TRACK SEASON OPENS

Rockland At Colby Saturday; Knox County Meet the 17th; Knox-Lincoln At Bowdoin the 21st

The track and field season is about to get underway in the county with Rockland, Thomaston, and Camden readying teams while St. George, Rockport, Warren, Union, Appletton, and the two schools on the islands are invited to a county meet late in the month.

Saturday will see a three-cornered meet at the Colby College field between Rockland, Gardner, and Lincoln Academy.

The annual Knox-Lincoln meet will be run off at the Bowdoin track in Brunswick on May 21. Competing will be Camden, Lincoln Academy, Rockland and Thomaston with the possibility that other schools will have teams ready by that time.

May 17, there will be a Knox County Invitation Meet at Rockland to which all schools in the county are invited. The running events will start at the Trotting Park at 1:15, and will be followed by the field events at the High School. Thomaston, Rockland, and Camden have already entered with entries expected from Rockport and St. George and the possibility of others placing themselves on the list of competitors next week.

The track season will end with the State Meet at Colby June 14, in which Rockland has already entered men.

Rockland has a well-balanced team this year with Charlie Foote the strong man of the squad with entries in the several meets in the dashes, high and broad jumps and the javelin and shot put.

Mark Holt and Dick McIntosh line up for the dashes with McIntosh also assigned to the discus. Top man in the shot put is rugged Wes Hoch who nears the 40-foot mark.

The 440-yard dash has Bob Van Fleet, Dave Holden and Charles Heino and entrants with good prospects placing in most any meet.

Mill Proctor takes care of the mile and half and takes a turn at the pole vault, too. The high jump finds Dave Ramsdell, Tim Barton and Van Fleet ready while the javelin list contains the entries of Foote, Heino and Holden.

Lincoln invariably has a strong track outfit and will offer real competition to the other entries in all meets in which they compete. Camden and Thomaston's strength is as yet unknown but listings of their men are due soon.

NOTES FROM ALL SCHOOLS

Warren—The Seniors served a chicken pie dinner to the teachers of the union Wednesday at the Congregational Church. Pupils and parents were solicited for food. Senior leaders of the project were: Chairman, Lucille Perry, assistant chairmen, Sarah Hartford. Girls on the decorating committee were Dale Messer and Mary Jane Boggs. The Seniors earned $30, which they have set aside with their class trip fund.

Rockport—More Junior Guild books have arrived. These books are very interesting. The Freshman and Sophomore classes enjoy them very much.

Waldoboro—The members of the Junior Class extended an invitation to the Seniors to attend a Farewell Party on June 3, 1949. The party is to be held at Percy Moody's Cottage on Jefferson Lake. This event is being looked forward to with great pleasure by both the Seniors and Juniors.

Thomaston—Edith Hunt, accompanied by Mrs. Ella Gatcombe, participated in the prize speaking contests at the University of Maine recently.

North Haven—North Haven High took a game last Sunday from the American Legion and have one scheduled this Sunday with the Villahaven Chiefs.

Union—The Junior Class of Union High School will present "Just Ducky," a three-act comedy, at the Town Hall tonight. Miss Ann Norwood of the faculty, is coach of the play. It was presented last night also.

Rockport—The Seniors have started working on their graduation program.

Rockland—The office Messengers this week are: Nancy Hamlin, Evelyn Norton, Jean Iott, Verna Valenta, Kermit St. Peter, Joyce Rice, Christine Roberts, Celia Robinson.

Thomaston—The eighth graders presented Penny Funnyland in the school gym Wednesday afternoon under the direction of Miss Mary Ellen Johnson. A wide variety of games and entertainments were available to the students at a penny apiece. Refreshments were served, again on the penny basis.

Waldoboro—The Waldoboro A. R. membership drive netted $91 with David Lentef leading the boys with 30 tickets sold while Janice Ralph took the girls' first prize with 11 memberships. Second place winners were Rosslyn Castner and Joan Robinson.

Rockport—A social was held last Friday in the Town Hall where "a good time was had by all." We wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. John Spear for chaperoning us.

Union—Baseball games for the coming week at Union included one with Warren at Union on Monday and one with St. George at Union on Thursday. Both are Junior Knox League contests.

Thomaston—The eighth grade English class, under the direction of Miss Johnson, issued the first edition of "Gab and Gossip" last week. The smart little publication brought a price of three cents per copy and was well received by the students.

Rockport—Mrs. Grace Brown attended the Spring meeting of the New England Social Studies Association held at Providence College in Providence, R. I. Saturday. The subject of the panel discussions was "How Can We Best Prepare Students In Social Studies?"

Warren—Charles Delham's name was omitted from the honor roll list. He is the only boy in school who made honors this quarter.

Rockport—Many of the students passed in essays last week to be entered in the contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce on "Area Schools" and topics connected with school.

Union—The girls' softball team at Union High opened its season last Monday at Warren, losing 26-21 in a hard fought game. Tuesday they tripped Appletton in a tight 13-12 game to have a game in cash side of the ledger.

Thomaston—Members of the Junior Class are planning a public supper to raise funds for the class treasury.

Rockport—The Junior Class is going to have a Cooked Food Sale May 21 at the Town Hall. They are hoping that a large group will come and purchase the tempting cooked foods which will be on display. Remember the date.

Thomaston—The Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Mrs. Esther Rogers, will leave Saturday morning by school bus for the Music Festival in Waterville. They will sing "The Green Cathedral" and "Czechoslovakian Dance Song."

ROCKLAND HIGH HONOR

The name of Alice Crie was inadvertently omitted from the honor roll. Alice had nothing below "B" on her rank card.

Junior Prom Success

Camden Event Last Friday Considered the Best Ever Held

The Camden High School Junior Prom, held at the Camden Opera House last Friday night, has been accorded the honor of being one of the best such events in the history of the school.

The class colors, red and white, were used in the decorations. A false ceiling of crepe paper in the class colors was over the dance floor with balloons in the center. The stage was decorated and had a back drop of red and white balloons which spelled out the word "Juniors."

Music was furnished by Wayne Drinkwater and his eight-piece orkette.

The grand march of the evening was led by class president Fred Hale and his partner.

Committee members for the dance deserve much credit for the arrangements and decorations of the highly successful.

F. H. A. PITTSFIELD SESSION

Last Saturday Elected Grace Gallanti Of Camden Vice President Of Maine Future Homemakers

Members of the Future Homemakers of America Chapters at Camden and Waldoboro High Schools attended the State convention of F.H.A. at Maine Central Institute in Pittsfield last Saturday.

Grace Gallanti, 16, Camden Sophomore and president of the Camden F.H.A., was elected State vice president. She nosed out Marian Moody of Waldoboro, also a Sophomore and secretary of the Waldoboro F.H.A. by a narrow margin for the honor.

There was a total attendance of 535 girls and faculty advisors from schools all over the State at the sessions. Howard Niblick, headmaster of M.C.I. delivered the address of welcome.

Alice Morse of Waldoboro, retiring State public relations chairman, gave a summary of the year's work in the business session which showed creditable effort on her part and that of her committee.

Camden's delegation of 35 girls was the second largest at the sessions; following Rumford which

The Fashion Follies

Presented By the Waldoboro Home Economics Class Last Week

Thursday night, May 5, the members of the Home Economics Class held their annual fashion show, "The Fashion Follies." This show compared the old fashions to the new, Margaret Moody stole the show by imitating the "flapper" of a few years back. The girls modeled many pretty Spring and Summer dresses, several suits, and an evening gown.

Background music was supplied by Edward Henny with his violin, accompanied by Sally Sprague and Philip Lee at the piano.

The stage was decorated as a garden with lawn furniture and bunches of forsythia blossoms.

After the show there was a sale of fancy work. The money made from this sale amounted to $12.90.

Refreshments of sandwiches, cookies, cupcakes, and coffee, made by the Home Economics students, were served.

The various chapters with Camden showing "Doing My Share" which was written by Evelyn and Eleanor Lunt. Girls participating in the skit were, Arlene Edgcomb, Beverly Arau, Bebe Leonard, Irene Heal and Jeanette Dymont. The new officers installed were: President, Nancy Caton of Presque Isle; first vice president, Grace Gallanti of Camden; second vice president, Shirley St. Cyr of Sanford; secretary, Gloria Jacks of Livermore Falls; treasurer, Natalie Johnston of Winslow; historian, Mary Pelletier of Old Town; parliamentarian, Hope Turner of Mapleton; public relations chairman, Ethelyn Hicks of Bucksfield.

Attending the State meetings from Waldoboro were Marion Moody, Dorothy Aho, Sally Sprague, Faye Winchenbach, Alice Morse, Joyce Scott and Betty Hatch. Their sponsor and chaperone was Mrs. Lowell. Dorothy Aho was the delegation's voting delegate to the convention.

The Camden group included Arlene Edgcomb, Mary Jane Thomas, Beverly Arau, Bebe Leonard, Martha Wood, Evelyn Lunt, Eleanor Lunt, Betty Perry, Janet Liliken, Jeanette Dymont, Gergette Bickford, Gail Willey, Irene Heal, Doris Conley, Joyce Reynolds, Lucile Drinkwater, Margaret Heal, Gien Payson, Dorothy Potter, Margaret Hansell, Doris Hopkins, Joyce Robbins, Beatrice Josslyn, Margaret Erskine, Jessie Barton, Emily Buchanan, Winifred Cothup, Sylvia Porter, Shirley Erskine, Mary Littlefield, Annie Erskine, Grace Galanti, Winifred Earl, Minnie Tranquillo, and the faculty advisor, Miss Carolyn Dudley.

Warren Honor List

Sevent Students Earn All "A's" On Principal Perkins' List

Fred Perkins, Jr., principal of Warren High School announces the following ranks for the third ranking period.

Seniors—All A's, Eini Riutta, Helen Carroll; As and B's, Mary Jane Boggs, Dale Messer, Sarah Hartford, Phyllis Payson, Lucille Perry.

Juniors—All A's, Joan Maxcy. Sophomores—All A's, Marion Starrett, Janet Philbrook, As and B's, Annette Cogan, Jean Fernandes, Maxine Lindsey.

Freshmen—All A's Ernestine Hartford, Alta Heald. As and B's, Sadie Gammon.

Preparation for the prize speaking contest began this week with Mrs. Grace Wylie and Miss Sylvia Gray as coaches.

The Senior Class Play, "Oh, Father" to be presented April 29 was canceled. Two parts were changed the first of the week because of sickness and given to Eini Riutta and Joan Maxcy. When two other members of the cast became ill on Friday the play was cancelled.

In Three Classes

Rockland Is In The L Group But Bowing To Camden At Present

High School baseball in Maine has been divided into three classes: L, for large school; M, for a medium sized school; and S for a small school. The teams of the different leagues making up High School baseball around the State fall into separate classes. A good example of this would be the Penobscot Valley Conference, better known as the P.V.C. Bucksport High School is in first place. Other teams making up the league are in the class "L" division: Brewer, Oldtown, Ellsworth, and John Baptist; class "M" schools, Orono and Bar Harbor are included in this conference group.

In the Knox-Lincoln league, class "M" Camden High School is leading; Rockland, the only class "L" school in the league, is in second place.

When this baseball season ends, teams ending in the first and second places will play off with other league teams of their class. Because of the large number of schools falling in the "M" and "S" divisions, and the relative few in the class "L" section, in some instances choices for championship play-off berths will only fall to first place teams.

This all boils down to this:

Rockland Spring Football Training Squad

Rockland High is insuring a wealth of football material next fall by the institution of Spring football practice this year. Under the guidance of Master Sergeant John Todd, 25 candidates are working out right now. They are getting the fundamentals of football, except scrimmage. Interesting to note is that only three men of the group are former members of the squad in the Fall sessions. Todd points out that these men will be as far advanced at the opening of the season next fall as they would ordinarily have been at the end of a season as subs. Most of the veteran football players are members of either the baseball or track teams this Spring and are not on the special training project.

Todd hopes to be able to form a Jayvee team this fall and to have several games. This training will pass along to the varsity outfit a plentiful supply of experienced players who will be ready at least a year ahead of the usual for varsity competition. Some really good material has been uncovered by the Spring sessions; men who will make mighty good prospects for the fall squad.

Thomaston Softball

Team Green But Gaining With Each Game—Play Lincoln Friday

Thomaston High, back in the girls' softball league of the twin counties this year for the first time in several years, is taking a trimming, but through hard practice is bringing the scores nearer together each game.

A game was dropped to Boothbay Harbor at the start of the season while Rockland took them 31-7 and Waldoboro 25-13. This Friday, they meet Lincoln Academy at Thomaston.

The one session of school which was recently instituted at Thomaston now permits longer practice sessions with the results that the team is rapidly improving. Knowledge of the rules of the game is evident now as the result of skull sessions.

The Rockland game saw the following lineup: Catcher, Charlene Spaulding; pitcher, Kay Lewis; first base, Susie Lundin; second base, Dot Crute; third base, Gloria Brooks; shortstop, Signe Swanhelm; outfielders, Helen Adams, Audrey Young, Winifred Korhonen and Roberta Mayo as an outfield sub.

The Waldoboro game saw several changes about in the lineup as the players were tried out in different positions and Priscilla Burton got into the game as an outfield sub.

Union In Win Column

After Losing Rockport and Islesboro Games, Takes Warren 19-0

The Union High baseball team, after dropping its first two games to Rockport and Islesboro, broke into the win column Monday afternoon by crushing Warren High 19 to 0 on the home field. The Union club showed its best ball of the season both offensively and defensively, banging out 15 hits and playing heads-up ball while in the field.

In the game against Islesboro last Saturday on the Union diamond, the Islanders rallied for four runs in the fifth inning to come from behind and win 19 to 8. Bob Day, Union shortstop, highlighted this game by belting a second inning double with the bases full, one of the longest hits to be seen on the local diamond in recent years.

Tuesday afternoon, the outfit continued in the win column by tripping Appleton 26 to 9 to rate 300 for the season to date.

CARAVAN O' SMILES
At a special assembly Thursday morning a preview of the "Caravan O'Smiles" was witnessed by Senior and Junior High. It was very much
