for elementary school

In 1872 - - p. 381 - Besides the schools already mentioned there has been in successful operation the most of the time for 20 years a Normal Training School, where young ladies, mostly graduates of the high school, have had the advantages, under the direction of a skillful & experienced teacher, of training in the best methods of instruction, in school economy. Unquestionably this school has had much to do with the present high standard of the new schools. Every teacher enters the school room with a commendable knowledge of the best methods of instruction recognized by the best educators in the city. Not are they novices in teaching, for they have had a year's experience, and some of them more, under the instruction of a competent teacher, for this school unites the theory as well as the practice of the
