My dear friend

It was with great sorrow we heard of your great loss. Every day we had been hoping for Mr. Sims. Mr. Sims said if he had known of your dear friend's death sure he would have made every effort to have your name to Jacksonville. It was not until the 24th afternoon we had the news - I would have sent some of mine, your my own just for your dear friend to see all think of you and yours.

Show me soon with you. The Gov and our dear friend and we all trust & anticipated him.

Admiral him. Sir Lewis open up to of him with such admiration. And he all time missed his visits the past few years.
These little prop cases he made us have such pleasures to us.
And how he enjoyed the fruits we got and how he all encouraged him to get the birds to you. Such pleasant memories.

for no. I want to know how you was such an unworldly man.
I was with you in July. He seemed so bright when he hit the good eye. He was such a charming host. I was very glad to see you here & hear of you. How he plans to beat expectations in time & how they will. I kept saying in a faint like card houses. I was the sick one F.B.U. in July went away to get well or we would carry out our great plans -

 The mornings were to come a two. We were to have been in Kansas - 16 of us for our Kansas District. From a gray milk and Jan + James were to work in us for the

Thank you and our Reception for your dear husband you and our dear Mrs. Lewis with a quantity of his time from the cards suggested in H. J. and very much more. I want a Receipt for the money which will be pleasing to him. And he want to ask to have paper for the the old Confederate notes and to ask - He would be that much to have a present to your husband. All our plans for - Mrs. M. Lewis ask will arrange to come - All our Xmas ~~will~~ will be for the little Providence + our and soon I was two weeks past your, that we too full little notion in the many workings.

I know the Quakers too well for something was gone out of this good time. You have been in my thoughts and heart ever since we heard of your sword. I would meet you and the Lord to talk over. You have had much joy most happiness to your ma'am E.B.L. wife. That most warm to bring it to you now. Please give my love to your boys and girls and the time how much I feel for them. Although you will not have the present I wish that could come to you - you know so many

Messages left. I wish all your folks in your children Dear friends I wish you want you and Elizabeth to come to us. You can be just as quiet as you wish. I wish a visit to the old red brick will take you up. We can live there very well.
We can live in the woods and near a - Salvage. You will not see any one unless you care to - There is always a way to manage that. Now think this over and when the next opportunity comes to try and figure it out. And and he will go in the way and find where it is best

Beautiful. How glad I am to read sympathy for you and your dear children. I believe this is for them also. I know how I feel your love for you.
Just try to put a little more joy into some of your morning meals and you will feel a great blessing for you. It comes with with deepest love & sympathy. Elizabeth B. Lewis.
