

---

I Can Make a Difference

by Flora Floris

---

Submission date: 02-Nov-2020 11:07PM (UTC+0700)

Submission ID: 1433966497

File name: plagiat.pdf (262.49K)

Word count: 782

Character count: 3610

CHAPTER 11

I CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

(inspired by Starfish story)

Willy Ardian Renandya
National Institute of Education, Singapore

Flora Debora Floris
Petra Christian University, Indonesia

A young female English teacher, Ms. Hana Lee, was walking by a classroom and saw a more senior teacher, Mrs. Kyung-Ja Kim, tutoring a student.

Ms. Lee knew the student, Young-Hee, who was also in her class and was known to be falling behind. She had tried to help him and then gave up because he did not seem to make any progress. So she thought that she'd better pay more attention to the brighter students in her class. She said to herself, "It is a waste of my time. There is no way I could make a difference to this student; and there were many students like Young-Hee in the school".

The next day, she ran into Mrs. Kim in the corridor and said to her, 'Mrs. Kim, I hope you don't mind me saying this, but I think you are wasting your time. I know the student you are tutoring. He is hopeless and you're just wasting your time. Also there are so many students like Young-Hee in the school. You cannot possibly make a difference."

The senior teacher listened patiently and then said calmly, "I know I cannot possibly make a difference to every student. But I can make a difference to Young-Hee, Ms. Hana Lee."

Reflection:

In today's world, it is easy to be discouraged and to question the extent to which we can make a difference in the life of another especially if we feel that we are not rich or smart enough to act. The story I can Make a Difference is actually a reminder of the important role we play in our lives. It is a reminder that we should help each other whenever we can even in small ways.

The classroom discussions encourage the students to take their time to remember that they have made and they can keep making small changes in their own context. The activity of making an animated video aims to offer the students opportunities to practice writing a short story that might inspire their classmates, teachers and people outside their classroom.

I Can Make a Difference

---

ORIGINALITY REPORT

---

2%

SIMILARITY INDEX

2%

INTERNET SOURCES

0%

PUBLICATIONS

0%

STUDENT PAPERS

---

PRIMARY SOURCES

---

1

dehoctienganh.blogspot.com

Internet Source

2%

---

Exclude quotes  On

Exclude matches  < 4 words

Exclude bibliography  On