

Nancy Worsencroft - The University's First Female Head Coach

Ken MacDonald

A four-year letter winner in riflery, Nancy Worsencroft would make history as The University of Akron's first female head coach of a varsity sport by guiding the Zips' riflery team for the 1973-78 seasons. Worsencroft would later direct the University towards two undefeated seasons and compile a record of 121 wins and only eleven losses for a .917 winning percentage.
