Cinderella to be Crowned At Frosh-Sponsored Dance

At the stroke of eleven Cinderella and her court will reign over "Springtime in Fantasy," the freshmen semi-formal, Friday night, May 19. Held in the T-G Gym, this event promises to be one of the biggest of the year for the freshmen class. The dance is open to members of all classes for 75 cents a couple.

A special Philadelphia combo will be featured in the gay springtime theme of this dance. Elected by the freshmen men an unknown Cinderella will add to the magic of the evening. This magic will continue from eight to twelve; Prince Charmings will return their girls to their dorms by 12:30, or their magic coaches will disappear and turn into Model T Fords.

One of the following girls will be selected as Cinderella: Ruth Reed Irene Schweitzer, Barbara Wilkinson, Myrna McGrath, Kitty Lyttle, Edna Seifert, Joan Searfoss.

A new idea of combining program and ticket is being introduced.

Y Groups Feature Discussion of Gripes

The provocative topic, "Are Your Gripes Justified?" brought out the largest group of the year to participate in the Y Fireside Chats. The subject itself drew many students and, in addition, a doggie roast followed, complete with 'cokes', root beer, and songs. The topic, naturally enough, found the group particularly vocal and well-informed, with more than enough gripes to go around.

The most important discussion centered around the problem of a decaying "Rec" Center and many proposals for improvement were made, completing those made earlier at the Y Retreat. The Y is definitely committed now to making over "Rec" Center and giving it a college campus atmosphere in any way possible. Suggestions from the student body are definitely in order.

Norma Young '50 and Keith Taylor '50 were the student leaders and

Bomberger Elected By Future Seniors As Class President

In a general election held last Thursday, Dan Bomberger '51, was chosen to lead next year's senior class. Dan thus replaces Don Stauffer '51, who served as president of this year's Junior class, and who with Jack Young '51, ran against him in the election.

Dan is a pre-med student from Myerstown and has been active in campus activities throughout his college career. He was recently appointed head waiter for next year, is vice-president of Sigma Rho and a member of the Meistersingers.

He is also a member of the James M. Anders Pre-medical Society and participates for Fetterolf's aggregation in intra-mural sports.

Other officers in the class will be chosen this week. Nominations for vice-president, secretary and treasurer will be taken tonight at a class meeting, and voting will take place at a later date.

WSGA Plans Banquet For Women Students

Women's Student Government Association representatives, including Student Council members, hall presidents and senators, will be installed in their respective offices at the WSGA Banquet this Wednesday evening in the upper dining room. All women students, both resident and day students, are invited to attend the dinner at 6 p.m.

Those to be installed include: WSGA president, Mary McPherson; vice-president, Marty Daniels; secretary, Jane Gulick; treasurer, Marjorie Matteson; senior representative, Patt Richardson; junior representative, Jane Hartzel; sophomore representative, Helen Lightfoot; chairman of hall presidents, not decided; Frosh Customs committee chairman, not decided.

Hall presidents' and senators, elected last week in the various dorms, will also be installed. The new presidents are: Bairs, Lois Johnson; Bancroft, Dolores Myers; Clamer, Dorothy Shertz; Duryea, Marie Linder; Fircroft, Elizabeth

Thespians Score Hit With "Junior Miss"

by Doug MacMullan '53

Sometimes if a play is done poorly, the task of writing any review on it is by far much easier. But when you come up against a performance like Junior Miss it is difficult to know how and to whom to give credit, for this last Curtain Club production under the guidance of Jean Frederick '50 and Tom Davis '52, is the best thing on the Ursinus stage this year.

So rather than attempt any act by act, scene by scene criticism, it will be better to make this in the nature of a goodbye to those members of the Curtain Club who are leaving us and a declaration of wholehearted support to those who remain.

The quartette of players that is leaving is made up of Joan Deacon who made a successful debut as Ellen Curtis, Bill Keller as the much harassed father Harry Graves, Virginia Smith as the adolescent Judy, and Tom Swan portraying the irritable J. B. Bill Keller's performance did not belie the experience he has previously had on the stage, and Ginny Smith's creation of Judy

Attention Faculty!

On Tuesday, May 16, at 6:30 p.m. the Ursinus Chapter of the American Association of University Professors will hold its annual dinner meeting in the President's Dining room.

Guests from other colleges will attend and a discussion program is being arranged. The price of the dinner is $1.25.

Queen Doris Neill Reigns Over May Day Pageant

May Queen Doris Neill and her court reigned over "The Land of Sunshine and Flowers" last Saturday on Patterson Field.

Witnessed by a large audience composed of parents and students, the queen's presence culminated the attempts made by Phyllis Letson '53 as Mary Ann and Betty Leeming '50 as Sniffles, to free her from the terrible magician, who was portrayed by Mary Schoenly '52.

Many obstacles had to be overcome before reaching the castle. There was a contest between Sniffles and the Magician in which clever Sniffles was victorious, though not until such obstacles as a witch, a dragon, and a vamping mouse had been vanquished. Then the Sun Queen in all her glory once again reigned supreme over the "land of sunshine and showers." One hundred and thirty girls participated in the pageant.

Pageant is Colorful

The event was certainly one of the most colorful ever seen on the College campus. The costumes were especially appropriate for each part of the program, allowing each act to be easily identified. Also to be mentioned is the precision with which each dance was presented—obviously a result of much practice and work on the part of all the participants.

The entire pageant was cleverly written and directed, and the audience was not long in showing its appreciation for the work which was expended in the production. The pageant was penned by Dorothy Garris '51 and directed by Miss Maribelle Waldo.

Softball Game

A father-daughter softball game followed the performance and at 5:30 p.m., a buffet supper was served in front of Freeland Hall.

WAA Gives Awards And Installs Officers

Varsity Club

Steve Muench '51, was elected president of the Varsity Club last Thursday. Also elected were Reid Watson '51, vice-president; Ira Bronson '51, treasurer; and Will Wimberg '51, secretary. Plans were made at this time for the May Day take-off which will be sponsored by the Varsity Club.

Debating Club

At the last formal meeting of the year, the Debating Club elected officers for next year. Jeanne Stewart '52 replaced Doris Dalby '50 as president, and the assistant man-

Curtain Club to Give Three-Act Drama Tomorrow Evening in Bomberger Hall

by Emile Schmidt '51

Rope is coming! Tomorrow evening the Curtain Club will offer its last production of the year when Patrick Hamilton's suspenseful drama, Rope, will be on view in Bomberger Hall, beginning at eight o'clock.

Church Film Strip to be Shown Wednesday Evening in Pfahler

The slide film "So Much to be Done," which was produced on the Ursinus campus recently by the Audio-Visual department of the Evangelical and Reformed and Congregational Christian Churches, will be shown in S-12 at 6:45 p.m. Wednesday.

Photographed here in January by "Omar" Marcus, the slide film portrays the importance of the church-related college.

It stars Parker Worley, Ursinus assistant librarian, as the young minister, and Tom Swan, Curtain Club president, as John Martin. Many other Ursinus students appear in smaller roles. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

into the alternating whirlwind and zephyr will always be to her credit. However, the best performance of the evening I think can safely be attributed to Tom Swan. When Tom is on the scene you never get the feeling that the players are merely trading lines. His relaxation and fluency is pleasant to see and hear.

The group that remains merits no less amount of praise. Veteran Nancy Bare did a fine job with the character of the ever tranquil Grace Graves, who remains a constant straw in the tornado of the family hurricane. She was seconded in her good work by Mary Jo Lucas '52 as the "Evervess

REGISTRATION!

Registration for next year's classes may still be made with the Advisers this week. Since the numbers to be admitted to certain classes and sections are limited, failure to register now will restrict choices of dilatory registrants.

Yess Yes" type Fluffy Adams. Mary Jo was probably the runner-up for the most engaging performance of the evening.

Of course Don Aikens turned in another good job of acting along the lines of his work in Pygmalion. His performance of the shady Uncle Willis along with Marjorie Justice's "too too" Lois and Marna Feldt's Hilda made the whole Graves' tribe real and believable.

But the most singular facet of this production was the degree of effect possessed by the "characters" who roamed off and on stage. From Ernie Roemer as the inoffensive Albert Kunody (Hahvaad yuh know) through Joe Beardwood, Herm Lintner, Roy Foster, Len Abel, Russ Mack, Hal Gold and Emil Schmidt (The drooping "boy" with the telegram), these people supplied, at odd intervals, extra bright spots in the piece.

So, to borrow a line from Al Miglio (Tony Arbuckle), should ever any of all of the people in this last performance be gathered together in another production, "Take it easy! We'll catch your act."

Orchids to Y Proposal; Let's All Help Effect It

The YM-YWCA has tackled the problem of converting a decaying "Rec" Center into a beehive of college activity. The idea grew out of the recent Camp Fernbrook Retreat and discussion on the topic was continued at the Y's Fireside Chats last Wednesday.

Some proposals for improvements have already been formulated; others will undoubtedly follow. The group hopes to make the Center an attractive place for students to find true enjoyment and relaxation through fellowship.

First plans call for opening the Center longer, at least until 9:30 or 10:00 p.m. and for having it open more on week-ends. This feature of the plan must, of course, be governed by the fact that the "Rec" Center will definitely be closed during conflicts and during the time when classes are in session.

Other suggestions include provision for selling refreshments, for more games, and for a record player.

These are the general proposals for realizing the fruits of a YM-YWCA idea. They are being drawn up more specifically and put through the proper channels for approval. This is a sound proposal and the Weekly in this manner casts a vote for its enactment. We of the student body will benefit from these improvements. Let's therefore see that they are carried to completion.

Let's support the proposal wholeheartedly; let's all help effect it!

Carry it Further

At room drawings this week Dean of Men G. Sieber Pancoast announced a proposal to impose a five-dollar fine on anyone who changes roommates after the drawings.

This is a good beginning toward correcting the miserable situation that always arises at room drawings. Each year the students crowd the table excessively, and each year people succeed in depriving persons of their choice in proper sequence.

Dean Pancoast's move will go a long way toward eliminating a notorious practice. We commend him for it, but add that there are several other considerations that might be advanced in this connection.

In the first place far more could be accomplished if the men would sit down and participate in room drawings in a sane manner. The drawings would then be both faster and fairer.

Furthermore, several people were observed apparently choosing rooms at least a day early by borrowing a number from a friend. This is not fair either to those on the first list of eligibles who had higher numbers than the one these fellows borrowed or to those men in the next day's group who waited until the following day to choose a room. Though it would entail more work, we feel room deposit checks should be checked with the official list at the time the room selection is made.

Finally, upperclassmen were generally unaware of the fact that the Annex was not going to be used next year and that as a result most rooms in Brodbeck and Curtis have been converted to three-man rooms. Thus many were forced to settle for a double room elsewhere because they could no longer go scouting around for a third roommate. We feel that upperclassmen should have been made aware of this change previous to the day of the drawings.

The ground has been broken, the beginning of improvement in the system of drawing for rooms has been made. Let's carry it further!

The Other Person's Job...

T-G Gym Custodian Has Variety of Duties

by Nels Fellman '52

A familiar face to everyone around the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium is Charles F. Linn, our ageless caretaker. Always ready with a smile and a helping-hand, Mr. Linn has worked on campus for two years now, and looks as though he could go a hundred more. Mr. Linn, whose brother is Justice William B. Linn of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, has been married 48 years and has two married children.

Mr. Linn is employed as custodian of the Thompson-Gay Gym and his duties are of a great variety. You may see him chasing basketball players with black soled sneakers off the court; you may see him trimming the lawn; or you may see him all spruced up at one of the dances, for it is he who locks up after the music has long since faded away. The job of custodian also requires a good deal of skilled labor, which Mr. Linn capably supplies. Mr. Linn wields a mean saw, for he is a skilled carpenter as well as an accomplished painter. Whenever something needs fixing around the "old gym," you'll find Mr. Linn on the job.

One favorite topic of conversation with Mr. Linn is his travels through Europe. He was sent to the Continent to purchase lumber back in '37, and, along with one Samuel Ellman, spent over six weeks on a combination business-pleasure trip (all expenses paid).

After arriving in Europe on the Aquatania, the pair spent most of their time in Poland, but managed to travel through France, Belgium, Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Mr. Linn, who speaks German well, stayed at the famous Hotel Bristol in Warsaw, and was much impressed by that half-modern, half-ancient city.

Mr. Linn boasts that no tourist ever saw Europe as he did, for he spent several days living with the peasants, as well as mixing with the high society in the night clubs of Paris and other colorful cities.

Mr. Linn's memorable journey came to an end when the Queen Mary docked in New York, but he relives his travels, whenever he has time, by telling of them to any willing listener.

You Name It - -

It's an Ursinus Fact...

A farmer who had just become a grandpa for the first time sent his daughter in New York City a check for five hundred dollars for the new baby. With the check he sent his enthusiastic congratulations, with the promise of a similar check for each new baby.

In due time, grandpa received the glad tidings from his daughter who had now moved to Twin Cities, Minnesota, that she and her husband were the proud parents of brand new twins. Grandpa sent his not quite so enthusiastic congratulations with the checks of five hundred dollars for each of the twins.

After some time had gone by, the mail man brought grandpa another communication from his daughter, this time dated from Three Rivers, Canada, which contained the glad news that triplets had been added to the rapidly growing family. After some sad contemplation of his bank account, grandpa wired his daughter:

"Am sending checks, but for heaven's sake keep away from the Thousand Islands!"

Once upon a time there was a boy penguin and a girl penguin who met at the equator. After a brief but charming interlude, the boy penguin went north to the north pole and the girl penguin went south to the south pole. Later a telegram arrived at the North Pole, stating simply: "Come quick I am with Byrd."

THE MAIL BOX

To Whom It May Concern:

How stupid can people be?—Why will they not realize the value contained in authenticated reports?

Two doctors at Penn have completed a study on alcoholism. Parts of their report were read in Chapel. Some people present ignored the report. Many of those who listened went so far as to ridicule it. Why? Probably because, being human, we will not recognize value, except when it is fashionable. Heaven help us if venereal diseases become fashionable!

I was an alcoholic. Hospitalized at the end of my last spell of drunkenness, which lasted almost three months, I spent ten days—ten of the most horrible days of my life—tapering off. Several months' care brought me to a fair state of health. I must now observe strict dietary limitations; to ignore them would mean cirrhosis of the liver.

There was much to be gained from that report, but it was too late to do me much good. I had already been caught in the mess that is alcoholism. Luckily for me, I have been cured.

Once upon a time a fish swam happily around his little pond. One day he saw some food hanging on a string. He nibbled at it until another caught his eye, then another, and another, and so forth. He flashed from one to another, just nibbling. Great fun! It lasted for quite some time. Terrific! But one day he was hooked, and his struggling availed him nothing. He had been caught.

Remember this little parable the first time you are faced with a real crisis and 'meet' it by getting drunk, instead of resolving it manfully. Then, brother, you have been hooked!

Bruin Nine Runs Rampant; Win Streak Reaches Four

Ursinus 16-Albright 7

Coach Sieb Pancoast's diamond aggregation blasted its way to a decisive 16-7 win over a highly-touted Albright College nine last Monday on Price Field. The Bears, capitalizing on extra base hits and walks in the early frames, built up a comfortable lead and were never seriously threatened.

Ed Klein started on the hill for the Bruins, scattering ten hits over nine innings and striking out seven. Dick Cherry and Bob Gehman led the 15 hit attack with 3 hits each, while Klein, Light, and Niedringhaus contributed two apiece.

Big Fifth Inning

The fifth inning was the big frame for the locals as Light, Cherry and Baron knocked out singles, Hap Hallinger walked and Gehman grounded out. Niedringhaus walked and set the stage for Ed Klein to blast out a four bagger and clear the sacks. Baugaertel started on the hill for the Lions of Albright, but was shelled continually by the Bears until he was lifted in the seventh inning for pinch-hitter Moore.

The visitors only threatened once, that being in the ninth when Millard doubled and went to third on a passed ball. Martone walked and stole second after Fromuth popped up. Santo then singled, sending two runs in as he advanced to second on the throw to the plate. Ervin chipped in with a two bagger to score Santo. Ed Klein then fanned the next two Lion batsmen to finish in the fine form he exhibited throughout the entire game.

Ursinus 14-Dickinson 10

The Ursinus Grizzlies pounded their way to a 14-10 victory over the Red Devils of Dickinson on Wednesday afternoon here at Ursinus. Although out-hit 20-14, Ursinus made good use of nine walks issued by two Dickinson lefties.

Dickinson scored quickly in the first inning as lead-off man Caldwell singled, and right-fielder Murray banged a home-run for two quick runs. But Ursinus struck quickly in the bottom of the first as Don Young doubled, Bob Gehman walked and Ed Klein tripled them both home. Klein scored a moment later on a passed ball. Ursinus scored three in the second on two hits and three walks, with Dickinson coming back in the fifth to score twice, making the score 6-4.

Bruins Pull Ahead

But in the bottom of the fifth Ursinus unleashed six big runs to pull ahead. Hap Hallinger started things off with a single and Art Baron followed with another bingle. Then after Light and Cherry went down to make two outs, things started popping. Pitcher George Saurman singled in a run, Young hit his second double of the game for two more, Gehman walked, Niedringhaus singled, Klein doubled, and an error by the third baseman accounted for the six. Ursinus scored its final two runs in the seventh when Ed Klein hit a homer with Bob Gehman on first.

George Saurman, who had won three, started for the Bruins and won his fourth game of the year as against only one loss. Bill Buchanan relieved George in the sixth and finished the game showing a creditable performance. Hal Goebner and Art Nicholas, a pair of lefties, combined to allow Ursinus 14 hits, 9 walks and 3 strikeouts.

Don Young, Bob Gehman and

Eddie Klein led the attack offensively as Young had two doubles and two walks, Gehman two singles and three walks and Klein a double, triple and home run. For Dickinson, Murray, Dungen and Stark each had three hits.

Ursinus 5-F & M 3

The battling Bruins continued their winning ways on Saturday afternoon by turning back F & M 5-3 in a game played at Lancaster. Big George Saurman was the hero for the Bears, as he gave up only seven hits in winning his fifth victory of the year. Bob Gehman with two singles and Ed Klein with a double provided the offensive punch.

The Diplomats drew first blood by scoring a run in the first on two singles and a fielder's choice, but the Bruins struck back with three runs in their half of the second. Ed Klein led off with a walk. Don Stauffer attempted to move Klein up with a bunt, but when Forstburg attempted to catch Klein at second his throw was off the mark and both runners were safe. Both moved up when Don Young grounded out to second.

Bears Score Three Runs

Don Weisel then grounded out, short to first, with Klein scoring. Stauffer, who had moved to third, scored when Dick Cherry lined a single to left field. Saurman walked, and Cherry scored from second when the F & M second baseman let the ball get through him.

The Bears never relinquished their lead as Saurman set down the Dips in the eighth. Behind him, Klein, Hallinger and Gehman made brilliant plays to match Saurman's hurling. The Bears led 4-1 going into the eighth, having added another run in the third when the sensational Klein plastered a double to deep right-center. In the eighth the Lancaster nine rallied to score two runs on a walk, a triple and an infield out, but the Grizzlies assured Saurman of a victory when Wayne Niedringhaus singled Gehman home with the insurance run in the top of the ninth.

Softball Team Tops Beaver, Bryn Mawr

Defeating both Beaver and Bryn Mawr Colleges last week, the Ursinus girls softball squad has extended its season's record to four wins and no defeats.

In the Beaver game the Belles hit two home runs and four doubles to come out on the long end of a 12-1 score. Pitcher Marguerite Spencer held the opponents to one single, while issuing eight passes and striking out four batters.

In the 27-3 Bryn Mawr contest, Ursinus showed great strength at the plate. The Belles were able to connect for six homers, one triple, three doubles, and twelve singles. Audrey Rittenhouse hit two home runs, while Marguerite Spencer, Pat Pattison, Betty Keyser, and Sue Leinbach slammed one apiece. Catcher Betty Keyser was the most consistent hitter with a record of five hits in six times at bat.

Trying to match the record of the first squad the Ursinus junior varsity defeated the Bryn Mawr second team 37-6. Starting pitcher Sal Parent had a shut-out until relieved at the beginning of the fifth inning.

Ursinus Drops Pair Of Tennis Contests

The past week saw the Ursinus College net squad drop two contests, to Delaware 5-4 and to Albright 7-2. Bill McManimen was the locals only consistent victor. In the 5-4 defeat at Delaware last Wednesday, Bill, who plays in the number six slot in the Singles division, defeated John Buechele 6-1, 6-0. McManimen then teamed up with Lane Dewees to score a 6-3, 7-5 victory over Tom Runk and Pete Hill in the number two doubles position.

Jack Humbert, Paul Jones and Joe Benanati forced their Delaware opponents to three sets, but all finally were defeated.

In the Albright match on Saturday, McManimen turned in a 6-3, 6-4 triumph over Parret Strawbeidge in singles, and, along with Dewees, downed Paul Siegfried and Jim Mengel to the tune of 6-3, 9-11, and 6-3 in doubles.

Inter-Frat Track Meet To be Held on Thursday

On Thursday, May 18, at 3:15 p.m., the first inter-fraternity track meet ever held at Ursinus will take place. Sponsored by the inter-fraternity council, an intramural trophy will be awarded to the winning team. In addition to the fraternity teams, a squad composed of non-fraternity men will also enter the meet.

The following events will be run off at this time: shot put, 100 yd. dash, mile run, broad jump, high jump, 440 yd. dash, 220 yd. dash, 880 yd. run, 120 yd. low hurdles, and a medley. The medley will consist of the 100 yd. dash, 220 yd. dash, 440 yd. dash, and the 880 yd. run.

Each squad will be permitted to enter two men in each event, but no man may participate in more than three events and the medley. No members of the track squad will be allowed to enter the meet, but such members are asked to act as coaches for their respective teams. All candidates must be named by Tuesday, May 16.

Binder Retains MAC Title; Wins Century Third Year

A number of defending champions were dethroned at the 38th renewal of the Middle Atlantic collegiate track and field championships held at Delaware, but among the few that retained their titles, was Russ Binder. Undefeated in MAC competition, he has now won the century three straight years.

Binder ran a 10.5 quarter final on Friday and a 10.1 semi on Saturday to qualify for the final, in which he beat Lafayette's Henley Smith to the tape in 10.2.

Binder and Turner Lead Cinder Squad In Triangular Meet

Track co-captains Russ Binder and Bill Turner accumulated a total of twenty-three points as the team lost to Swarthmore, 59½ to 70½, in a triangular meet at the winner's field last Wednesday. Drexel trailed the Bears with 24 points as the latter nearly upset a highly favored Garnet squad.

Rapid Russ Binder again tied his school 100 yard dash record with an excellent 9.8 performance. His winning time of 22.4 sec. in the 220 yard dash was only .4 sec. off the record. Bill Turner was bested in the pole vault, but whizzed off with first place in both hurdle races in good times. The competition of the whole meet was very hot and the results showed it.

Bears Push Garnet

Ursinus and Swarthmore kept within a single point of each other up till the tenth event. Don Cumpstone had won the javelin and taken fourth in the two-mile. Joe Shaw returned from a fine mile run, in which he took second, to run in the 880. But Swarthmore's Bill Tietz, who stayed out of the 440 dash, broke the Swarthmore half-mile record with a 1:55.6, and Shaw took second.

Summary

- 100—1, Binder (U); 2, Van Denson (S); 3, Fetter (D); 4, Feulner (U). 0:09.8.

Don Cumpstone garnered two more points for Ursinus when he took fourth place in the javelin. The event was won by George England of Muhlenberg.

Two others fared not so well in the fast company. Joe Shaw reeled off a 2:02.3 in the 880 but failed to qualify, such was the quality of the competition. This is the fastest half mile ever run by an Ursinus man, but cannot be considered a new record because the time was recorded on only one watch. Shaw came back Saturday to run a 4:34 mile, the best of his career. The race was won by Norwegian Per Andersen of Alfred.

Turner Gains Semi-Finals

Bill Turner got to the semi-final in the high hurdles as Charles Brown of Lafayette won in 15 seconds flat.

He couldn't get past the quarters in the lows and didn't place in the pole vault.

LaSalle took the team title away from defender St. Joseph, capturing 37 points. Following the Explorers were Lafayette (32 1/3), Alfred (23 1/2), Swarthmore (19 2/3), John Hopkins (18 5/6), St. Joseph's (17 1/6), Muhlenberg (11 1/2), Delaware (8), Ursinus (7), Dickinson (6 2/3), Gettysburg (5 2/3), Lehigh (5), PMC and Albright (4), Lebanon Valley and Bucknell (3), Juniata (2), Haverford (1), and F & M (2/3).

Coed Tennis Squad Splits Two Matches

The Ursinus coed court team split a pair of matches last week, blanking Albright 5-0 Tuesday and losing to Temple 5-0 on Wednesday.

No matches went to third set with Albright, although there were crucial moments, but the first and second doubles players were able to clinch the matches 7-5, 6-1 and 7-5, 6-4, respectively.

The best match of the week was played on Wednesday when Captain Nancy Vadner met Joy Valderrama, Hawaiian Girls Jr. Champion. Joy, showing at times a cannonball serve and a powerful baseline drive, handed Nancy her first defeat of the season, 6-1, 6-4. Jody Woodruff showed a great deal of power and control, but her opponent, Lucille Klammer, defeated her by the score, 6-2, 6-3.

The JV squad also lost their match against the Temple Juniors. However, we had two winners for Ursinus; Marion Kurtz who won 3-6, 6-0, 6-2 and the second doubles players, Sally Lumis and Irene Schweitzer, 6-3, 6-1.

Linksmen Top Moravian After Losing to Fords

The local linksmen lost 6-3 to Haverford last Tuesday on the Merion West Course, before defeating Moravian 5-4 at Bethlehem for their first victory of the season.

Lew Hatch regained winning form to win over Haverford's Al Adams, Lew having a 76. Although Bob Davis lost 5-3 to Jack Holcomb, best ball was taken by the Bear duo 2-1 for the second point.

Mike Valerio, shooting his best round of the season, an 81, dropped a nice putt on the 18th green to win over Paul Sterner 1 up. This gave the Ursinus men the third point.

Against the Greyhounds Lew Hatch won his second match of the season 2-1 over Joe Bender and Bob Davis his first, 1 up over Jim Seidenberg. Best ball was lost to Moravian. Tom Swan won over Ray Winner 3-2, however, and Mike Valerio downed Ralph Seidenberg 1 up. The Swan-Valerio duo took best ball 3-2 for the fifth point and the match.

Library Announces Recent Acquisitions

Since March of this year the Ursinus library has been enriched by the acquisition of approximately 150 volumes representing many fields. Many of these were gifts of friends of the college and the others were bought either to satisfy a present need, or in anticipation of future needs.

The new fiction books include many from the best seller lists of this and recent years. John Hershey's "The Wall" and Dorothy Clarke Wilson's "The Prince of Egypt" are particularly recommended as good leisure-time reading. In the realm of biography "Albert Einstein" by Leopold Infeld, one of a current series of short biographies of men whose impact on the present century has been noteworthy, is significant reading for our time. Of peculiar local interest is "The Muhlenbergs of Pennsylvania" by Paul A. W. Wallace. This remarkable family, which made itself felt in military, social and political circles of colonial Pennsylvania, had its beginning in the neighboring community of Trappe.

"Signs of Hope in a Century of Despair" by David Elton Trueblood, the latest of a crop of pithy inspirational pieces, is suggested as a companion for your contemplative moods. As a word of encouragement in the face of the recent Communist terror, the library offers "This I Do Believe" by David Eli Lillenthal and "The God That Failed" edited by Richard H. S. Grossman. Both books are a testimony of former or suspected Communists to their belief in the American system.

Other new additions include "Famous First Facts" by Joseph Nathan Kane and the eighth edition of "American Men of Science" edited by Jacques Cattell.

In the field of literature are "Shakespeare of London" by Marchette Gaylor Chute, "The History of Russian Literature" by Dmitrii Petrovich Mirskii and "The Epic of Russian Literature" by Marc Lvovich Blonin.

presented a semi-major work (Rope is a three-acter) in Bomberger Chapel. In March, 1948, a special segment of the Curtain Club presented The Little Foxes. The curtain, in a production such as this, is replaced by lighting effects. The setting will not be as elaborate as in the major plays usually presented in the gym, therefore bringing the entire production more to the level of the experimental theater.

Mr. Pancoast and Mr. Jones were the faculty advisers. The combination chat and doggie roast, a most successful enterprise, took place in the College Woods and was planned by the new Y vice-presidents, Carolyn Herber '52 and Paul Scheirer '51.

The Y wants to send at least two students to the Camp Michaux Summer Conference, June 9-16. Camp Michaux is located in south-central Pennsylvania about twenty miles west of Carlisle and the cost of the week will be approximately twenty-five dollars, of which the Y will pay about half.

All registration blanks must be in by May 30, so anyone who has an interest is urged to see the Y leaders, including Keith Taylor, who was a delegate last year. This conference is planned to afford a week of fellowship, fun, and experience in campus programs for Y's.

Nancy Matterness '52 and Marilyn Jeanne Miller '51 were recently chosen by the Y Presidents to fill the positions of co-chairman of the Student Worship Commission and Campus Affairs Commission, respectively. Nancy will work with Jack Christ '51 and Marilyn with Jay Ely '52.
