Ursinus Institutes Chapter Of Social Science Society

Thirty-seven students and members of the faculty became charter members of Pi Gamma Mu, national social science honor society, at an initiation banquet held Thursday evening in Freeland Hall.

Prof. W. Leon Godshall of Lehigh University, Chancellor of the Eastern Region, delivered the address to the newly-organized group. He outlined the fraternity's history and defined its purpose, basing the latter on four s's—scholarship, synthesis, service, and sociability.

The society strives to improve scholarship in the social studies and to achieve synthesis therein; to inspire social service to humanity by an intelligent approach to the solution of social problems; to engender sympathy toward others with different opinions and institutions by a better mutual understanding; and to supplement and to support, but not to supplant existing social science organizations by promoting sociability and attendance at meetings.

Membership in Pi Gamma Mu is obtained by election by a majority vote of the chapter of persons who have had at least twenty semester-hours of social science with an average grade in these subjects of "not less than 'B' or 85 percent," and who have "further distinguished themselves in the social sciences."

Six Initiated Into Dramatic Fraternity

Silence, darkness and mystery pervaded the atmosphere of Bomberger Hall last night as new members were initiated into Ursinus' Delta Tau Chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, the national honorary dramatic fraternity.

Having achieved star rating in the Curtain Club, the following were voted into the organization: Joseph Beardwood '51, Thomas Davis '52, Joan Deacon '50, William Jordan '50, Jacqueline Keller '51, and Jane Usher '50.

Joe Beardwood has appeared on Ursinus' stage in You Can't Take It With You and Junior Miss. However, his long suit is lighting and stage work.

Tom Davis has had experience as stage director and make-up committee member in addition to a role in You Can't Take It With You and directorship of a group production.

Joan Deacon, although she has had only three semesters of work in the Curtain Club, has been extremely active as a member of costume and business committees and was the cast of Junior Miss.

Star of the recent production of Rope, Bill Jordan has directed A Woman's Privilege and had a part in the 1948 production of Uncle Harry.

Jackie Keller starred in The Barretts of Wimpole Street during her freshman year and has since done varied committee and directing work.

Jane Usher has appeared on the stage in several operettas and has worked on the program committee a number of years.

Three Schools Combine Choruses To Give Reading Music Festival

Over 350 students representing Ursinus College, Drexel Institute of Technology and Albright College combined to present the annual Music Festival on May 20 in the Reading Senior High School Auditorium. The Festival, which featured the combined choruses of the schools, highlighted the observance of Parents' Week-end.

The three choruses opened the program by singing "And the Glory of the Lord" by Handel.

The Ursinus College chorus, under the direction of Dr. William F. Philip, performed selections from "Carousel".

Professor Wallace Heaton of Drexel, conducted the combined choruses in the finale, "God of Our Fathers."

state officer of the organization, was instrumental in organizing a chapter at Ursinus, along with Russell Mack '51, who has been named president. Nominations for other officers will take place on Tuesday at 12:30 p.m.

The charter members of the fraternity are:

Curtain Club Votes Schmidt President For 1950-51 Term

As a result of Curtain Club elections last Tuesday Emile Schmidt '51 will take over prexy duties of the organization next fall.

The other officers, announced by President Tom Swan after the independent production of Rope last week, include Tom Davis '52, vice-president; Molly Hall '52, secretary; Len Abel '51, treasurer; and Jane Everhart '53, historian.

An active member of the Curtain Club for three years, Emile has appeared in a number of major productions including The Barretts of Wimpole Street, Uncle Harry, The Late George Apley, Pygmalion, Junior Miss, and the independent production of The Little Foxes. He is a member of Alpha Psi Omega, the national dramatic fraternity. An English major, Emile is editor of next year's Lantern and a reporter for the Weekly.

Cinderella Reigns Over Freshman Semi-Formal

Chosen by the Freshmen men, Ruth Reed reigned over the Frosh Dance Friday evening as Queen Cinderella.

Gaily-colored crepe paper streamers and a profusion of dogwood converted the T-G Gym into a true "Springtime in Fantasy."

Highlight of the evening was the crowning of Cinderella. Following a grand march led by Mr. and Mrs. Helfferich the queen and her court made their entrance, and Mr. Helfferich placed the crown on her head. Members of the court were Kitty Lyttle, Myrna McGrath, Irene Schweitzer, Joan Searfoss, Edna Seifert, and Barbara Wilkinson.

Ray Rauenzahn was general chairman of the dance. Other committee heads included Shirley Feidler, decoration, Diana Hardy, and Doug MacMullen, publicity.

Critic Acclaims Group Presentation of "Rope"

by Doug MacMullen '53

The laurels that Jimmy Stewart and Farley Granger won for their performances in the movie "Rope" must be slipping slightly. For last Tuesday night in Bomberger Chapel, Bill Jordan '50 and Bill Mounce '50 took over the job of creating the atmosphere of strain and suspense which made the play so famous.

Both Jordan and Mounce are members of the Irreconcilable Theatrical Troupe, and were supported by other of the group's members: Fred Beckhardt '50, Nelson Moury '50, Tom Davis '51, Al Miglio, '51, Nancy Brasch '51, and Ellie Jones '51. At points the diction was poor and a few of the actors tended to speed up their delivery, but the obvious merits of the production far exceeded its faults. People did not confine their acting to the period when they had only something to say, nor did they continually portray intense emotion by raising their voice ten decibels. Both Nancy Brasch and Nelson Moury showed a marked improvement in relaxation and interpretation of lines by the end of the play, contrasting the artificiality

Y Advances Plans For Improvement of Recreation Center

Students will be able to look forward to a revitalized Rec Center in the basement of Bomberger Hall next year. Improvements tentatively will include the addition of a juke-box, coke and candy machines and the sale of ice cream.

As a result of the discussion at a recent Y-sponsored Fireside Chat, students recognized the need for a more adequate location where they may gather in the evenings or during free time on week-ends. The Y, with the help of the Ruby business committee, decided to take on the responsibility of making some needed improvements. The first step was the application to the MSGA last Wednesday for a concession in the Recreation Center next year.

The Campus Affairs Commission has agreed to take on the Y's part of the responsibility, and it has further agreed to turn all its profits in the undertaking into more improvements in the Center. Ruby profit will help to defray cost of the publication.

Plans now are to open the Rec Center to students at any time when their activities will not interfere with classes or programs in Bomberger Hall.

In either cases the class will meet at 10:30 in the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium where the procession will form. Dr. Sturgis will arrange the class in proper order and give instructions as to procedure.

Co-ordinate Election of Officers

Officers are being elected at the present time to guide the destinies of three of Ursinus' classes for the 1950-51 school year.

Once again all the selections that have been made are good ones, and the Weekly congratulates those who have been chosen to fill these important campus positions. Without exception, we feel that they comprise a slate of officers of exceptional merit.

But the election of these people was accompanied by much strife, which can be productive only of division and ill-feeling. That the selections are exceptional attests to the active interest and participation in the balloting by a large number of students, not to the high quality of the method, or system, of choosing class officers. The fact that strife has arisen offers a hint that perhaps there is room for improvement in this respect.

In light of this, we think a proposal to have the Student Governments accept the responsibility for the election of class officers should be given serious consideration. This would allow a systematic scheduling of the elections themselves, would decrease strife, and would eliminate considerable difficulty and embarrassment for the outgoing class officers.

Under the present set-up a class officer, especially a president, who is being considered for re-election is at least embarrassed, and more often hampered, by the fact that he must conduct the election.

We feel that much benefit could be derived from the co-ordination by the Student Governments of the election of class officers.

The Other Person's Job...

Miss Fetterolf Proud of Her Boys

by Dick Hector '53

Miss Fetterolf of Fetterolf House holds a unique position among those associated with Ursinus. She is the only permanent woman resident in a men's dormitory. Miss Fetterolf deeded the building to the college but continues to live there in a comfortable apartment on the first floor. Eleven young males nightly ponder over volumes on the upper floors in what was in years past the homestead of a sixty-acre farm. The building itself is very old and has witnessed generations come and go within its gingerbread walls.

Miss Fetterolf still retains the crisp, friendly, businesslike personality gained in serving the Perkiomen Insurance Company for over forty years. Her family was active in Collegeville affairs long before the founding of Ursinus. Her father, Captain Henry H., was a veteran of the Civil War and also taught at Todd's School on the tract now occupied by the College. Her uncle, Adam H. Fetterolf was president of Girard College in Philadelphia for thirty years.

The building has sheltered many prominent people. Dr. Bomberger, Dr. Howard U. Miller and Dr. George L. Omwake stayed there. The lithographs of her family in their youth, the antique grandfather clock in one corner and the spacious living room furnished in the taste of another era shyly betray long comfortable years of satisfied occupancy.

Miss Fetterolf is well aware and justly proud of all the campus activities and achievements of "her boys". When they leave, as four seniors do this year, she feels a trifle melancholy, as people do when they bid adieu to those they have grown quite fond of. The feeling is mutual, for a heavy bond of affection grows among all who have come to know intimately that house across Main Street and the little active lady who lives therein.

Student Council Notes

The first meeting of the Student Council elected for the year 1950-51 was held Wednesday evening at seven o'clock in the faculty room of the Library. The Council was called into session by the President, Floyd Justice and the first business taken up was a trial of five defendants accused of disturbing the peace on the night of May fifth. The disturbers pleaded guilty to the charge of having a water fight and disturbing the peace between three and four a.m. on the above mentioned night and were given the penalty of a three hour work detail. If the work is not completed satisfactorily, the defendants are to be held in contempt of court.

The Council again discussed the complaint over the lack of book shelves in the foyer to the downstairs dining hall and the repairing of the water fountain in the west hall of the Library. Council members were delegated to contact the proper authorities about the correction of these faults. The Council also recommended a letter of appreciation to be sent to Mr. Morrison and the kitchen staff for the improvement in the meals.

The final business taken up was the matter of concessions on campus for next year. All concessions on campus which affect the student body as a whole have to be licensed and approved by the Student Council. The only new organization to apply for a concession license was the "Y" association. It is the "Y's" plan to take over the recreation center next year and to make it into a gathering place, a sort of student union, for students on campus.

The Council voted to approve the plan on the condition that the "Y" would split the profit on an even basis with the Ruby on all machines except the coke and juke-box, all the profit from which should go to the "Y".

Following the granting of the "Y" concession, licenses were approved for the following organizations: Student Cleaners, Laundry Service, Wolf's Flowers, Collegeville Cleaners, Milk and Sticky Buns, Rimby's Flowers, Tuxedo Rental, Selling of Freshmen customs for profit by the Sophomore class.

Bruins Win Two Games, But Delaware Halts Streak

Ursinus 4-Elizabethtown 0

The battling Bruins extended their win streak to five games last Wednesday by virtue of a 4-0 shut-out over the Elizabethtown College Blue Jays. Ed Klein turned in a sterling performance on the hill, yielding only three hits, all of them singles. The big right-hander was in complete control, and only one man got as far as third base.

Southpaw Rouss pitched very well for the Elizabethtown nine, but walks proved his downfall. The Bruins were blanked until the third inning when they scored a run on one hit. Bob Gehman opened the inning with a single. The senior speedster then stole second and continued to third when the catcher threw the ball to centerfield. After Niedringhaus walked, Klein flied to deep center, with Gehman scoring after the catch.

Bears Score Again

The contest continued 1-0 until the top of the seventh, when Art Baron drew a walk to start the inning. Hallinger forced Baron at second, but Gehman and Niedringhaus walked to load the bases. At this point Klein singled to shortstop, Hallinger scoring the second run. After taking two strikes Don Stauffer unloaded a single to center scoring Gehman and Niedringhaus with the third and fourth runs.

Behind Klein the Bears played splendid baseball. The infield committed only one error and three times came up with sparkling double plays. In the seventh Hess, E'town third-sacker, tied to score from second on an infield out, but the throw from Don Weisel to Dick Cherry had Hess by two feet. Again in the ninth Martin singled to left and tried for second, but Don Young's rifle throw cut him down. Klein struck out six and passed only one man in recording his second win of the campaign.

Delaware 3-Ursinus 2

The Blue Hens of Delaware finally put a halt to the Grizzlies' five-game victory streak, edging the Bears 3-2 on the winners' diamond last Friday. Delaware thus extended their streak to ten straight, winning a fine defensive game with excellent pitching by George Saurman, ace Bruin right-hander, and "Doc" Green of Delaware.

After Ursinus went down in order in the top of the first inning, Delaware pecked away for a run when lead-off man Frederick singled over second. Art Baron made a beautiful stop, but threw wildly to first, Frederick continuing to second. Higgins then slapped a solid single to center for a run. In the last half of the second, Delaware's catcher Char-michael led off with a bingle, went to second on a walk, to third on a sacrifice and scored on a passed ball.

Ursinus Evens Score

After being held hitless for four innings, Ursinus got to Green for 2 runs on 3 hits to knot the count in the top of the fifth. Don Stauffer led off with a double to left for the first hit off Green. Don Young walked, and Art Baron placed a beautiful bunt between third and

Records Fall as Albright Trounces Cinder Squad

Three Ursinus track and field records fell last Wednesday as the Grizzly cindermen lost a meet to Albright at the latter's field 77-49. Joe Shaw and Don Cumpstone made the best of a rainy, gloomy day to shatter the school mile, half-mile and javelin records and provide bright spots in the meet.

Russ Binder again broke the tape in both sprints and Herm Lintner snapped the string in a fast two-mile. But Lee Cappel of Albright offset these victories with firsts in the high hurdles, low hurdles and javelin. The javelin winning throw of 194' 8 3/4" and Al Harnley's second place of over 190' were exceptional, and bested Don Cumpstone's record-breaking 185' 5" third place heave.

However, the most sensational performances were turned in by Joe Shaw, who has become the Bears' best middle distance runner in the history of the college. Joe ran away from the pack in the 880 and mile to set record times of 2:04.3 and 4:42.9, respectively. In getting his two wins Joe cut two full seconds off the 880 record and 2.1 seconds off the mile standard.

Bob Swett won the discus, but Roy Foster was edged out in the 440.

Cumpstone Tosses 186-ft.; Breaks Own Javelin Mark

Don Cumpstone, who throws the spear a little farther every time he picks it up, broke the school record with a 186 foot, 6 1/2 inch toss last Saturday in the Neighborhood

Meet at Swarthmore. Following his third throw of about 168 feet he led the field, but his fourth and final heave went some 18 feet farther to better his 185 foot effort at Albright on Wednesday. Bob Swett was fourth, only inches away from second place.

Things looked bright for the squad as a whole until word arrived that sickness prevented Russ Binder from running. Ten certain points thereupon went up in smoke. As it was, Ursinus ended up fifth with 15 1/2 points, behind LaSalle (63 1/2), St. Joseph's (46 1/2), Swarthmore (38 1/2), and Haverford (30), and ahead of PMC (11), and Drexel (5).

The only other Ursinus men to get points were Bill Turner, and Bill Helfferich. Turner took fourth in the lows and tied for fourth in the highs. Helfferich placed fourth in the shot put. Bob Swett, besides his two points in the javelin, took third in the discus.

Joe Shaw and Paul Scheirer competed in the mile and the 880, Ralph Ziegler in the 220 lows, Herm Lintner in the two mile, and Bill Fischer and Roy Foster in the 440.

Swarthmore Falls To Unbeaten Belles

Last Monday, despite a seasonal downpour, the Ursinus softball squad defeated Swarthmore College 20-0. Rather than postpone the game, the teams decided to play in the Swarthmore College fieldhouse, which with the exception of a short right field, was a good substitute for a softball field.

Because of a late start, only five innings were played instead of the usual seven. Pitcher Marguerite Spencer allowed only three hits, while striking out an equal number of batters and issuing no walks. The Belles were able to garner seventeen hits; however, because of the size of the indoor field, the longest hit was a double by Audrey Rittenhouse.

Monday the Belles meet Penn, and Wednesday they play Temple for the last game of the season. Both contests are scheduled on the home field.

Golfers Lose as Season Ends; Fall Victim to Drexel, Scranton

After absorbing a 6 1/2-2 1/2 loss to Drexel at Jeffersonville last Wednesday, the Ursinus linksmen closed the season by dropping a close 5-4 decision to Scranton on the Scranton Country Club course.

Against the Dragons Mike Valerio, number four man, won his match by shooting an 81 again, beating Walt Hutchins 4-3. The Swan-Valerio combination halved best ball for another 1/2 point. Earl Fargo came through by halving with Charles Satterthwaite, as did Dick Hanna who tied with Dick Mundy, each gaining the Bruins a half point.

In the Scranton match Lew Hatch halved with Bob Fitzgerald as Bob Davis scored a win over Jerry Ochriter 3-1. Best ball was halved. Mike Valerio scored again winning 5-4 over Frank Burke. Best ball went to the Swan-Valerio partnership 4-3 for the Bears' fourth point.

During the season, Valerio scored the most wins, gaining 7 1/2 points for the team. This high was followed by Tom Swan, Lew Hatch, Bob Davis, Dick Hanna, and Earl Fargo in that order. The season's record shows a win against six losses, the win being over Moravian.

Girls' Net Team Edges East Stroudsburg 3 to 2

Closing their series of home matches, the coed tennis squad downed the court girls from East Stroudsburg 3-2 in a close contest, as the first three singles players won their matches.

Again Nancy Vadner and Jody Woodruff, who have been rather consistent winners, came through with victories. Once-defeated Nancy found the going quite easy and trimmed her opponent, Alice Mitsudo, 6-1, 6-0. Jody also had no trouble defeating her partner, 6-0, 6-2. Senior Anita Jones broke into the winning ranks by handing Alma Corson a stinging defeat, 6-2, 6-0. Anita seemed to find her old, easy game, showing good form and accurate placement.

In the doubles department the visitors were more successful and took the two matches. Although Whiting's Wonders lost the doubles, they put up stiff competition, and made the Stroudsburg girls work hard for a victory.
