Alumni Day

On May 29, the Ursinus alumni will make the annual trek back to the campus for their business meeting, reunions, and dance. This year, rumblings of another turbulent session such as the 1947 meeting have not been heard. Instead, it is hoped that routine business can be accomplished by peaceful means.

We have little knowledge of what plans are in store for Alumni Day, but have several suggestions to make.

First, we'd like to overcome the aforementioned condition by advocating closer student-alumni relations. Ursinus is too small for the alumni and its undergraduates to be so far apart. Last year, a member of the Weekly editorial staff was ungraciously snubbed by several alumni in an attempt to gather information from the events of the day. This year, with conditions presumably normal, we look for no repetition of the occurrence. Instead, we hope both parties can usher in a new era. The future of this college, like that of any other, can best be served when no friction exists between faculty, administration, alumni, or students.

Secondly, we hope to encourage the group in its plans for the construction of a student union building. Probably Ursinus is in need of nothing more than the completion of this project. In a town housing no more in the way of recreation than a drug store and innumerable taverns, the necessity of building some form of entertainment hall becomes every day more apparent. A thousand students are housed ten miles from the nearest theatre on a campus containing only a very uninviting recreation center and a much overcrowded supply store. A better plan for college improvement could not be undertaken than the one started by the Alumni Committee on War Memorial.

Evaluation of Professors

On Friday, approximately three hundred students cast ballots in the Weekly's poll to determine the most popular professor at Ursinus. No better man than Dr. Armstrong could have been selected, for there simply aren't many profs who understand the scholars approach to an education as well as the popular head of the History Department. Each of his lectures is so well coordinated that a month's prepara-

Derstine Promoted To Associate Editor

To complete its editorial staff for the coming year, Joyce Derstine '50 has been appointed Associate Editor of the Weekly. In addition, George Saurman '50 has been named to fill the post of Assistant Sports Editor.

Joyce has been a member of the Weekly news staff for the past year and has done much of the make-up work on week-ends. A Modern Language major and member of the French Club, she previously worked on the staffs of the yearbook and school paper at Pottstown High.

Saurman, who will be in charge of all women's sports, was formerly feature editor of the Upper Darby High school paper, the Acorn. A member of Demas fraternity and a Bus-Ad major, George has worked as a Weekly sports reporter for the last year. Active in sports, he was a back on the varsity football squad and is a pitcher on the current Bruin nine.

The two staff additions will assume their new duties with the final edition of the paper, which will be published on Commencement Day.

KIMES AND DRUMMER NAMED TO HEAD DINING ROOM STAFF

At the second annual Waiters-Waitresses banquet held Thursday night, Tom Kimes '49 and Manfred Drummer '50 were named as headwaiter and assistant headwaiter for next year.

Kimes, recently elected president of the YMCA for 1949, has been working as a waiter for over two years. A math major, he is also a member of Sigma Rho fraternity and the Brotherhood of St. Paul.

Drummer, who has served in the dining room for only one semester, is a Chemistry-Biology major.

The newly appointed leaders will succeed Frank Pirazzini and Stan McCausland at the beginning of the fall semester. Pirazzini will remain as headwaiter for the summer term.

This year the two men were selected by a board composed of Dr. Mattern, Mr. Morrison, Frank Pirazzini and Stan McCausland.

The banquet, held midst a gala party atmosphere, was ably served by Mr. James Morrison and his kitchen staff. Dr. Charles D. Mattern served as toastmaster.

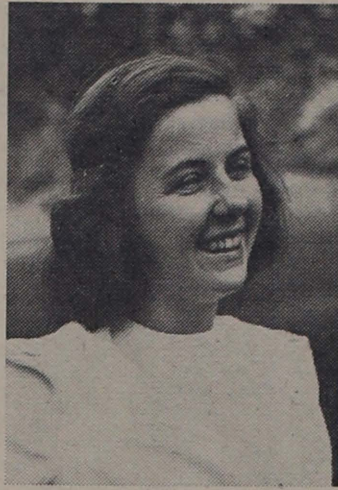

"Who's Who" Member Listed to Speak at Seventy-eighth Annual Commencement

The seventy-eighth annual Commencement exercises will take place this year on May 31 in Bomberger Hall at 11:00 a. m. Speaker for the occasion will be Dr. John A. Stevenson, president of the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Association.

Dr. Stevenson was born in the mid-west and graduated from Southern Illinois Normal University in 1915. From there he went on to the University of Illinois where he obtained his Ph.D. In 1945 he got an honorary Litt.D. at Hahnemann Hospital. Since then, he has served as professor of education, as principal for various high schools, and as a lecturer in the insurance field. He ran his own insurance agency until 1928 when he became affiliated with the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company. In 1929 he was promoted from executive vice-president to president of the association.

Dr. Stevenson has been prominent in Philadelphia civic affairs and insurance circles for many years and has written a number of books. Among them are "Proper Methods of Teaching," "Selling Life Insurance," and "Constructive Salesmanship." At present he is also co-editor of "Harper's Life Insurance Library" and a contributor to several magazines. Dr. Stevenson is mentioned in the 1948-49 edition of "Who's Who in America."

Admission to the Commencement exercises will be by ticket only. The majority of tickets will be given to the families of the 152 members of the graduating class. Requests for tickets should be addressed to the Office of the Dean.

Curtain Club Elects Tischler President

Closing a busy and eventful year, the Curtain Club held its final meeting of the season on Tuesday evening, May 11. Refreshments, a "Truth or Consequences" program, and music for dancing were followed by the announcement of the results of the election for next year's officers. Fred Tischler '49 will hold the position of president; William Keller '50, vice-president; Mary Lou Roy '49, secretary; Al Mazurkiewicz '50, treasurer; and Nancy Bare '51, historian.

Fred Tischler was promoted to the rank of star in March of this year, as the result of his work in "Ten Little Indians," produced last year, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," and "The Little Foxes." The commendation which he received following his performance in "The Late George Apley" is indicative of his talent in the dramatic field.

Also active in recent Curtain Club productions was Bill Keller, who received his position as star with Fred. His list of achievements includes "The Man Who Came to Dinner," "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," "The Little Foxes," "The Mikado," and a performance in the "Merchant of Venice," with a Curtain Club group.

Mary Lou Roy, playler, was a member of the cast of "The Little Foxes" and served on committees for "The Mikado" and "The Late George Apley."

The male students went to the polls at noon today and elected ten members to serve on the 1949 Student Council.

Chosen by the Junior Class were Chad Alger, Jack Brill, Pete Tenewitz, and John Vance.

Recently, Jack was elected president of Beta Sigma Lambda fraternity and co-business manager of the Ruby.

John Vance, another lad bound for the medical world, was elected with Brill to head the business matters for the 1949 Ruby. The newly elected president of Alpha Phi Epsilon, John is also one of the mainstays of the tennis team and a member of the Beardwood Chemical Society.

Tenewitz is best known for his participation in varsity athletics. Pete played in the backfield for the 1948 gridders, was a member of the Jay-vee basketball squad, and has played varsity baseball. A Demas man, he was recently elected to the presidency of that organization.

"Life" Comes to Life; Photos Ursinus Coeds

Ursinus students, past and present, have been contributing quite a bit of their recent efforts to outside activities, with recent issues of Life magazine carrying pictures of two of them.

In an article on the Allentown school system, published in the May 10 issue of the famed Henry Luce magazine, is a picture of Janet Shoemaker, former Lansdowne High co-ed and a member of the Ursinus class of '46.

The May 17 issue includes a picture of Barbara Dietz '48 in its article, "Workers for Church Unity." Barbara, an active and nationally known "Y" leader, has been chosen to attend the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam next August.

Another successful occurrence was recorded with the beginning of a daily column in the Jackson, Miss., Daily Times. The column, "Much Ado About Sports," is written by Joe Much, 1947 Sports Editor of the Weekly.

Part of the groundwork of future careers was also laid by five students in church services yesterday. Barbara Dietz and Dorothy Garris '51 were guest speakers at the Trinity Reformed Church in Philadelphia; while at the Evangelical and Reformed Church, Collegeville citizens heard Frank Pirazzini, Edward Rettew, and Jean Anne Schultz as speakers of its "Youth Day" program.

HISTORY PRIZE FOR WOMEN ESTABLISHED BY DR. WHITE

The Elizabeth B. White prize in history will be awarded for the first time on Commencement Day. This prize was established by Dr. Elizabeth White, Emeritus Professor of History, and will consist of twenty-five dollars. It will be given to the woman in the Senior Class who has chosen history as her major subject in college and who, in the judgment of the Department of History, gives promise of successful continuance in that field or in social welfare work.

GAFF from the GRIZZLY

or What's Bruin

Pushing back the rug at Sigma Nu's dinner-dance Saturday night were Ike Barr 'n Ack, Ginny Boone 'n George Molden, while the Heilemann's were doing a mean rhumba. Also gliding along to the Smoothies were Peg Hunter and "Jolly" Jordan, Pauline Muntz and Ed, Emmy Lou Mason and Roy Todd, Carolyn Kratz and Ray, "Elmer Cain" and Bob, "Gooch" Godshalk and Steve Arvanitis.

Joe College and Betty Coed left their studies to visit the Reading Country Club on Friday night for the APE dinner-dance. All agree that it was a great "beer" success, with many couples tripping over the dance floor after a turkey dinner and "so forth." Phil and his sparkling "Jewel," Fitz with the "red head," Collier and Clark taking their precaution against snake-bites. What is the new dance Dick introduced? Gee, we certainly hope Dougherty can get a hook-up with Ursinus on his new radio way down in Texas . . . we're going to miss you'll terribly, Pat.

Seems as though Stan Gilbert and Jackie Heller were seen up the creek Saturday night round about Schwenksville. And then—Gretchen Burton was seen with Jim Scott on Friday night.

Seems Margie Haimbach is a "Prisoner of Love," with Randy the Warden.

Hear tell Frank Edwards and Ken Schroeder stepped out together Saturday night, Sonny and Dee-Dee having deserted them for the Phi Psi and Kappa Delt shore week-ends.

Guess that'll teach Betty Benham and Rita Lieb to recognize a Buick—and a few other KD's to keep their eyes off other people's cinnamon buns!

Tom Kimes and Peggy Hewitt are evidently seeing eye to eye, and not just in the "Y."

Saw Bill Markley with Betty Sheffer t' other night, morning, afternoon, etc.

Editorial

tions seems to have been spent in its organization, and by continually injecting small bits of his brilliant sense of humor into the midst of innumerable facts which really interest so few, it's almost impossible for even those who loathe his course to allow their minds to stray into different fields.

Friday's poll was possibly the first attempt at what could ultimately become an annual student evaluation of all professors. Several colleges have already taken the lead by having each professor judged on the basis of his appeal to the students, presentation of subject, and many other points. From all appearances, this is truly a step in the right direction, since there is nothing one-sided about education. The qualifications of the faculty are certainly as important as those of the student body in producing results. A professor, considered dull by his most brilliant pupil, can do no more in shaping the student's mind than can an afternoon at the theatre.

The Weekly poll was merely one of preference, not evaluation. In the future, however, we hope to copy the pattern already set by schools who also realize the merit of such a step.

Along the same lines, we'd like to see the names of each professor listed with the schedule of courses prior to registration. We doubt if it would encourage the selection of "soft" profs any more than the present system allows the student his choice of "snap" courses. A student searching for the easy way will find it, regardless of the system. But the system would aid those who seriously believe they can gain more from one teacher than another.

Cigarette Bums Fit Into Four Classes

A columnist of the New York University Commerce Bulletin says, "I'm going to slug the next student who walks over to me and asks: 'May I borrow a cigarette?'"

"Student cigarette borrowers fall into four categories; they are—the good natured creep, the thrifty soul, the apologist, and the shrewd character.

"The good natured creep will wait until you offer him a cigarette, at which time he will eagerly help himself. Then in a good natured way turn to the others assembled and holding out your pack of cigarettes ask, 'Does anyone care for a smoke?'"

"The thrifty soul will never refuse your kind offer of a smoke. He will, in fact, take two or three telling you he would like to save them for his next class. He will then produce an almost full pack from a hidden pocket and carefully proceed to place your cigarettes among his own.

"The apologist more than any of the others always gets my dander up. His insincere qualms will continue day after day until you can almost recite with him all of his bromide-like apologies.

"You don't dare ignore the shrewd character when he wants one of your cigarettes. He will wait until you produce a pack from your pocket and then begin to stare at it as if it was a bar of gold from Fort Knox. If you fail to offer him one, he will begin to cough and wheeze until you are forced to recognize him and ask weakly: 'Oh, did you want a cigarette?'"

"If my congressman ever placed a law before the legislative bodies making the nonpayment of a cigarette debt a capital offense, he would have no difficulty in obtaining my support.

Men's May Pageant Loaded with Talent

The men's take-off of the annual May Day pageant was received with the usual enthusiasm when crowds of students filled the stands on the football field Wednesday evening. Under the dancing instructions of Val Sipple, a mighty crew of nearly fifty men tripped the light fantastic fantastically. As the Queen and his attendants gracefully hove into view, the beautiful gowns worn by the queen's court left the audience breathless—with laughter. But the laughter gave way to astonishment when the dancing started. Undoubtedly the artistic talent displayed by Val Sipple and Archie Simons in their interpretive dance, Jealousie, has been unsurpassed in the history of Men's May Pageants.

The all-star cast was headed by Erich Dougherty, who made his stage debut with Twinkle Toes Collier. Both amused the audience with their antics, but it was an indisputable fact that Erich has a more promising future ahead of him in the theatrical line.

The highlight of the program was reached when the full beauty of that appealing hunk of masculinity, Dick Clark, was ceremoniously unveiled and crowned with an apple pie amidst a veritable chorus of gasps and sighs.

Love Letters Lack Punch? Read This!

"When it comes to letter-writing, some guys got it and some guys ain't" — that's what Judith Ellin, author and letter-getter, knows from sad experience. But in a recent issue of Varsity, the Young Man's Magazine, Miss Ellin tries to remedy the situation with an article full of fool-proof suggestions for turning out an effective, sweet-but-not-corny letter to your girl.

"Forget about form" is the first commandment. Ignore those monotonous openers like, "I take my pen in hand," or "Well, how are you, I am fine." Dive in—for instance, (says Judith in a flight of fancy) "I hate horses. Once I saw a horse beating his old tired driver . . ."

The point is, get going by writing down anything that comes to mind. Don't move through a catalogue of recent and future events. Don't worry about schoolish form and style; be conversational, chatty, and natural.

In fact, says Varsity, to get your ideas, just imagine a conversation between the two of you. For example . . .

YOU: Hiya, Suzie!

SHE: Hello, you! Glad to see you again. You're a wonderful guy, you know—intelligent, attractive, sweet—and you've such nice hair. But it needs cutting, baby.

YOU: I know. Getting one tomorrow—a crew cut . . . which reminds me. Why should a crew have short hair? What if a guy's hair's in his face—he can't see where he's going anyway.

You've got an idea! Write it down, and take it from there: you might admit that you don't want hair-in-eyes, because you want a good view of her . . . but you wouldn't mind some of her hair in your eyes — right now.

What else can you write about if the daily diary is currently dull? Well, says Varsity Magazine, try reminiscing — about your youth, for instance. Recall old experiences together, dates you've had with her; it may be easier to write the things you found you couldn't say. Speculate about what she's doing, whom she's seeing. She'll love to read about herself.

Above all, says Varsity, show that you like her, that she's in your thoughts. If you can do that, you're set. And without majoring in English, too.

"OF COURSE we're alone, Marvin!"

Veterans' Corner

The approval by the Senate Armed Services Committee of its combined general draft and modified universal military training bill gives promise of a showdown fight in Congress when it reaches the House and Senate floors. The proposed bill, preparation for which began immediately after President Truman recommended a draft in March 1948, is expected to cause an explosion, especially over the issue of racial segregation within the armed services.

As the Senate convened, Senator Richard P. Russel (Ga.) introduced an amendment which would make it mandatory for all service personnel to be assigned to a segregated unit, merely on the basis of a written statement to that effect. Conceivably, others who refused to sign such a statement might be assigned to a non-segregated unit. A similar bill was voted down by the committee, 7-4.

The committee reported that the manpower demands of the combined armed services called for 1,669,000 more men by July 1, 1949 and the proposed bill attempts to fill the gaps in the armed forces.

The committee suggested that the government concentrate in the first year on drawing upon reserves from a pool of some 450,000 "relatively short term veterans," who served primarily in the post-war era. Men who served in combat, or even at the Pentagon Building in Washington, D. C., for at least three months of the actual conflict would be exempt unless the President were to declare the existence of a state of emergency or war were to be declared.

The bill provides for combining the general drafting of men of the nineteen through twenty-five year age group with one-year training of 18-year-olds as future reserves. The former group, after completing its two year stretch, would go into inactive reserve status, subject remotely to recall. The eighteen-year-old group could voluntarily serve an extra year and thereby be placed in the same category. Otherwise, its members would be subject to a month's training period every year for six years to keep them up-to-date as reserves.

Weekly Discovers Wizard Cartoonist

by Doris Gill '50

In this national election year with the number of provocative political cartoons hitting an all time high, The Weekly has been enlivening its pages with the work of a competent campus cartoonist, Bob Madeira '50.

A Curtis resident, Bob has been collaborating with dormmate Walt Schreiber '48, termed an idea man, to turn out drawings of current events.

Bob, who never had any formal art training, began his career of paint splashing away back in first grade. While enrolled at Atlantic City High School, Bob contributed art work, including cartoons and illustrations to his alma mater's magazine, The Herald, and newspaper, The Observer. He also submitted prize-winning drawings in a contest sponsored by the Philadelphia Public Ledger and was a regular contributor to the Bulletin feature, "Heigh-De-Ho."

Army life did not keep Bob away from his sketch book. While stationed on Johnston Island, a "little hunk of coral" near Hawaii, Bob did sketches for his own pleasure and art work for the Navy base there. His cartoon work filled the pages of the island's Navy newspaper and, upon his return to Hawaii, he had many of his drawings published in the army magazine, Brief.

Bob, who is a Business Administration major, expects to make art his avocation and is planning to attend art school some summer in the near future.

Godshall-Bart Look To Ursinus Future

by Fay Horner '49

Before you hardworking students take the plunge into the final whirl of the semester, take a quick look at two Ursinus contemporaries whose whole year is one big whirl of events that are designed for A-1 finality. Indeed, if any A's are to be passed out, they should go to Horace Godshall and Bud Bartholomew, nursing heroes of the campus.

Both men are native Pennsylvanians from this general vicinity and were educated at ole' U. C.

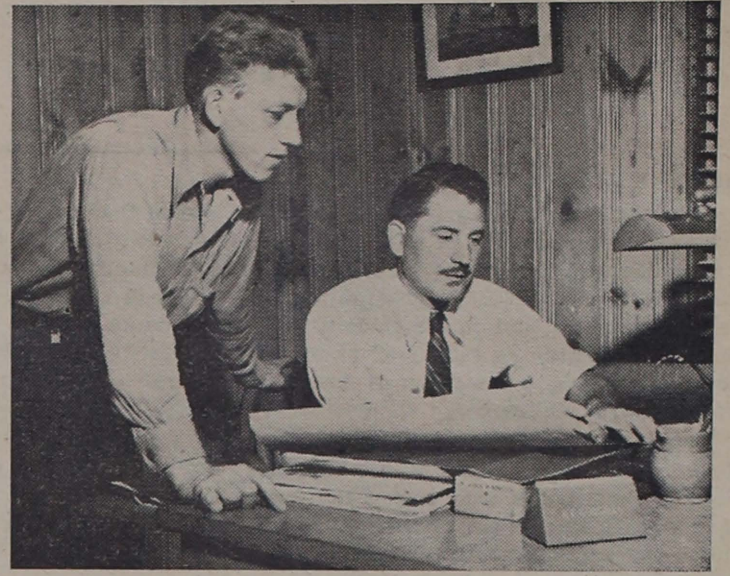

Horace, a Royersford product, graduated from Ursinus in '29 as a Chemistry-Biology major. After graduating, he was employed at the Duquesne Slag Products branch in Pottstown as an analytical chemist. While at Duquesne in 1942 as eastern sales manager, he returned to Ursinus to work part-time as manager of the College Supply Store. When Russell C. Johnson, manager of properties for the college, left that year, Horace was appointed the first College Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds, the position he holds today.

Mr. Godshall says his plan for college ground improvement may be likened in form to the Russian five year plan. His great ambition is to have the buildings and grounds in the best possible condition at all times.

Besides his regular work, H. G. is keenly interested in bee-keeping and fishing, the latter of which he has done from Maine to Florida. A nature lover, he would fish with any equipment in any puddle anywhere, at any time possible. Hunting, too, is a favorite pastime.

One would think a schedule like this would be adequate for anyone, but Horace still finds time to take active interest in various organizations and clubs. Among the many are The True and Accepted Masons, of which he is past master, Collegeville Lions Club, and the C-T School Board, which he has served for twelve years as treasurer. He has also been a deacon at St. Luke's E. and R. Church in Trappe for eight years.

Horace's protege, Bud, or Bart as he is best known, is little less active. Bart was born in Catasauqua, Pa., twenty-three years ago and came to Ursinus as a frosh in '42. The same year, he enlisted in the Navy. Less than a year later he was given a disability discharge, and thereby launched on his toughest battle—that of becoming a civilian when four million other young Americans were becoming G.I.'s.

Bud worked several places, notably General Ribbon Mills, Ross Federal Service, a checking and detective agency where he was offered the Junior Supervising position, and the Fuller Manufacturing Company (not the brush concern), before returning to Ursinus. Here he worked for Horace in a self-help job and cared for eighteen different furnaces on campus during the winter of '44. This was his approach to the job he now holds as assistant to Mr. Godshall.

Bud hopes someday to finish college and to continue the activities he started in his first years as a student. While such, he sang in the Messiah Chorus, was a member of Sigma Rho fraternity, sang with the Glenwood Quartette, took major parts in many Ursinus theatrical productions, and was the first sophomore ever to be bid to the Ursinus Chapter of Alpha Psi Omega, the national honorary debating fraternity.

Bart and Horace really deserve their fine new maintenance building (Horace's brainchild) and beautifully panelled office. They are industriously planning the "New Ursinus," particularly the proposed women's dorms, athletic fields, and sewage disposal plant. Costs are much too high to start construction now—a fact H. G. sadly laments, since it might have been completed now had not the war interrupted plans.

NAVY OFFERS COMMISSIONS TO QUALIFIED COLLEGE GRADS

A limited number of college graduates are being offered the opportunity of being commissioned as Ensigns in Naval Aviation this spring and of receiving flight training, the Navy has announced.

In order to provide full information to those who are interested, a flying team of Navy officers will visit Ursinus College on May 24.

This is a career program in which college men with degrees who are between the ages of 18 and 25 will be taken into the Navy as commissioned officers.

Flight training will be at Pensacola, Florida, frequently referred to as the "Annapolis of the Air." This will take from 18 to 24 months, after which the officer-pilots will join regular naval aviation units, shorebased and on carriers. Minimum starting pay is $290 a month.

Details on the program will be brought to Ursinus by the Naval Aviation Information Team. Plans are now being made for a meeting of interested seniors at Room 1, Bomberger Hall, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. The Information Team will also be available to answer questions and provide assistance in filling out applications.

MUSINGS . . .

As another year draws to a close and we realize that this is the last time our column will appear in The Weekly till next fall, it is with a tinge of regret that we say "so long for a while" to the Ursinus sports fans. This year — on the gridiron, on the basketball court, on the baseball diamond, and on the cinderpath — has been an eventful one in many respects. As each year passes by it leaves its share of indelible memories in the realm of sportdom and 1947-48 has been no exception here at Ursinus.

Who can ever forget the football team's brief surge of success under the helm of our coach, Kuhr Wiencke? After our first two grid tussles, the Grizzlies were one of the few unbeaten, untied, and unscored-on elevens in this sector. After this, a series of crippling injuries and genuinely tough breaks caused the Bears to collapse and to drop everyone of their remaining tilts.

How did you like our near-championship basketball team? Their stirring triumph over Swarthmore in the first round of a three-club playoff for the Southern Division crown provided us with thrills galore.

The wrestling team's unforgettable deadlock with Muhlenberg's grappling powerhouse gave us some more stirring moments and many a student went home with a hoarse throat after the triumph over Drexel on our mats.

In the spring a young man's fancy turns to the national pastime and our Red, Old Gold, and Black nine has given the Ursinus rooters something to yell about this year. Their hard-hitting, 18-2 victory over Drexel and their 18-8 conquest of Swarthmore provided Bruin fans with numerous moments of sheer joy. Yes, it's been a thrill-packed eight months on the Ursinus athletic scene and this department has enjoyed it immensely. It's been fun both participating in and reporting these various athletic events during the past year. We sincerely hope that this column has given its readers a few enlightening and perhaps amusing moments of pleasurable reading during the past two semesters. We'll be back on the job bright and early next autumn and it's our wish that all of our readers have very enjoyable summer vacations. See you in September, sports fans!

Bears Trim Fords 12-2 Behind Steady Hurling by Landes

Tuesday afternoon the Grizzlies traveled to Haverford College and kept up their winning ways by trouncing the Main Liners to the tune of 12-2. The win gives the Bruins a current diamond record of six wins against but three losses. Three more games remain on the schedule. Outstanding in the decisive Bear triumph were south-paw twirler Ron Landes and the hustling third-sacker, Hap Hallinger.

Landes turned in an impressive mound performance in scattering nine Haverford bingles throughout the contest and in yielding only two first-inning tallies to the 'Fords. He also assisted the Red, Old Gold, and Black offense with two timely base knocks. From the second frame on, the Main Liners were blanked by the portside slants of the veteran left-handed chucker. Only in the opening inning, when erstwhile griddler Chuck Boteler homered with a man aboard, did the 'Fords dent home plate at all.

Hallinger collected three safeties to pace the Bruin sluggers and handled four chances at the hot corner flawlessly. Bob Gehman, Ursinus second baseman, made the catch of the day when he raced over into deep right field to haul down a long foul fly in the sixth inning. The circus catch drew even the plaudits of an extremely partisan and derisive Main Line audience, which hooted the Grizzlies during the entire afternoon.

The charges of Sieb Pancoast pecked away at the Haverford twirler, lefty Ted Wright, for one run in the first, two in the fourth and one in the sixth, before exploding in the seventh for a four-run rally that drove Wright from the mound and sewed up the tussle. The Collegeville nine tallied three more runs in the eighth frame and a final one in the ninth to conclude the scoring for the day.

Curtis Holds Lead As Loop Nears End

Rallying behind their ace hurler, Raymond Dippel, the fiery combination from Curtis II has maintained the lead in the interdorm softball tournament, which they took possession of early in the season. At present, their record of six successful games against only one upset has given them priority in the league over their twin dorm-mates from Brodbeck, who, though suffering only one defeat, have amassed a total of four wins to date.

Since each team plays but seven games, Brodbeck is the only team that can catch Curtis. Should they win their two remaining contests, a play-off will determine the champion. However, Off-Campus I, with five victories and two losses throughout the season, could easily move into second place.

In addition to this distinction this team boasts ownership of the hardhitting, league-leading batsmen, Ray MacQueen, who is hitting a sizzling .786. This consistent woodsman wasted no time in finding his eye and pounded out eleven safeties in fourteen official trips to the plate.

Ken Kron, of Derr, has clubbed opposing twirlers for nine hits in thirteen times at bat to average .692. Cherry, with an average of .643, and Bothwell, whose hitting has given him an even five hundred average represent the power from the Annex. George Kennedy, long ball hitting partner of Ray MacQueen, and also an Off-Campus I player, has an average of .529. The "Moose" still holds top honors in the homer department with four round trippers.

Trackmen Second In Triangular Meet

Swarthmore College scored its sixth straight track victory on Tuesday by defeating Ursinus and Drexel in a triangular meet held at Swarthmore. The Garnet piled up 83 points to 50½ for Ursinus and 20½ for Drexel.

Swarthmore won nine of the fourteen events, took the first two places in four races, and scored in every event. The Bruins captured four firsts, while Drexel had to be satisfied with a lone victory in the high hurdles.

Bill Turner, George Kennedy, and Russ Binder were the victors for the Bears. Turner romped home the winner in the low hurdles, placed third in the high hurdles, and set a new Ursinus record when he captured the pole vault event by reaching a height of 12 ft., 3½ inches.

Getting Down to Fundamentals

THESE PEOPLE ARE TELEPHONE EMPLOYEES, building a telephone system.

Not a real one, it's true, but a table-top replica that illustrates the fundamental problems which management meets every day in planning, financing, developing, and expanding a telephone system such as the one that serves your home town.

They raise miniature telephone poles. They string miniature telephone lines between homes and stores and the central office. They plot the changes required when a new telephone is installed . . . when a subscriber moves . . . when additional lines are needed in outlying sections of town. And they keep representative records of the money involved: where it comes from, how it is used, and how repaid.

Such training in the fundamentals of the business, as well as in technical matters, is part and parcel of a telephone career. It is background for good management . . . and good management, by trained and experienced employees, helps provide you with the best possible telephone service at the lowest possible cost.

Bears Stopped Cold By Greyhound Nine

Friday afternoon the Bruins invaded Bethlehem, Pa., and their winning ways came to an abrupt halt at the hands of a heads-up Moravian nine, which edged them out 4-0.

Moravian tallied once in the fifth on an unearned run and then chalked up three more markers in the sixth, which put the ball game on ice for the Bethlehem nine.

The conditions under which the game was played were hardly those which Abner Doubleday, inventor of the national pastime, would have approved of.

Coeds Continue Win Streak by Downing Main Line Lassies

Good fielding and a strong pitcher proved again to be the winning combination for the girls softball team. Last Friday the Collegeville club defeated the Bryn Mawr team, 10-2 on the opponents diamond.

The game was highlighted by nine strike-outs credited to the winning pitcher, Betty Jean Moyer. The batting honors go to Nancy Vadner for her triple in the 4th.

Binder Shows Winning Form

In our last issue, Russ Binder was credited with attaining a distance of 200 feet 9 inches in the broad jumping event. It started a campus controversy as to whether Binder was superman or whether the Weekly has miscued.

The Weekly was also accused of mistaking the Drexel tennis team for that of Swarthmore. Due to space limitations, we hold proof of that one till a later date—much later, in fact.

Beaver Trips Women Golfers 5-0

The women's golf team met with their second defeat of the season last Tuesday when they lost to Beaver, 5-0, on the Plymouth Club course.

CANCELLATIONS

The weatherman caused cancellation of two athletic events last week. The track meet with Albright was rained out last Tuesday and the tennis match with Moravian was washed away by intermittent showers on Friday.

Don't miss the Ruby. It's the best in years.

Landes Pitches, Bats Diamond Squad To 12-0 Whitewash of Juniata Indians

by Ray Warner '49

Pounding pitcher Tom Kyper for a total of eighteen baseknocks, a superb Bruin nine conquered Juniata on Saturday by a 12-0 count. Southpaw Ron Landes, in notching his fourth win of the campaign, was the feature attraction of the star studded cast that coasted to victory in its final appearance before the home fans.

Kennedy, R. Binder Cop Track Crowns

Coach Ray Gurzynski took a handful of crack performers to the Middle Atlantic Championship track meet at Easton on Saturday, and the men scored well enough to place Ursinus ninth in a field of twenty.

The schools topping Ursinus were St. Joseph's, F & M, Muhlenberg, Swarthmore, LaSalle, Lehigh, Lafayette, and Alfred.

COEDS BOW TO QUAKERETTES; VICTORS IN ONLY ONE EVENT

The Ursinus coeds dropped their third successive golf match of the year on Wednesday at the Plymouth Country Club as Penn's lassies triumphed in four of the five events.

Faith Taylor chalked up the lone victory for Ursinus by eking out a win on the hole.

"Sis" Bosler, with a chance to tie on the final hole, mis-putted to lose a heartbreaking match.

GIRLS JAYVEE TEAM DEFEATS BRYN MAWR IN HITTING FRAY

An aggregation of softball enthusiasts went to Bryn Mawr College last Wednesday to play the only JV game of the season. This team, following the example of the powerful varsity squad, won the game by the score of 18-15.

Despite the fact that the members of the team had never before played as a unit they showed the ability to hit hard and to field fairly well.

The pitching was ably handled by Rita Lieb and Jane Day and batting honors went to Pat Pattison, who chalked up two home runs. The entire squad banged out a total of nineteen hits.

four, walked none, and drove in four runs by collecting a triple and a single in four trips to the plate.

Bobby Gehman once again led the batting parade by hitting safely three times in four attempts. Four others, Doug Leander, Hap Hallinger, Eddie Miller, and Wally Widholm, contributed a pair of hits apiece as sixteen men saw action in the whitewashing.

The Bears went down in order in the opening frame, but before Hallinger popped to Everhart to conclude the second inning, seven men had crossed the plate. Triples by Landes and Gehman, and a Widholm-authored two base blow paced the seven hit outburst.

Not to be outdone by their predecessors, the second string squad contributed a pair of markers in the eighth on safeties by Weisel and Smithgall.

The victory, number seven for the home forces, left Delaware as the only opponent remaining on the '48 slate.

Fords Trim Bruins 9-0 in Tennis Battle

Ursinus proved to be a soft touch for one of the best collegiate teams in the east when it lost 9-0 at Haverford on Tuesday. The Fords had no difficulty at all in disposing of the six singles players, and their only true test was found in the doubles combination of Charles Trout and Dick Davidson.

- Summary:- Jim Schnaars (Haverford) defeated Stan McCausland (Ursinus) 6-2, 6-2. Bob Betson (Haverford) defeated Bob Walsh (Ursinus) 6-0, 6-1. OFFICE RELEASES STATEMENT AFFECTING SCHOOL VETERANS

The subsistence allowance of all P.L. 346 veterans will be interrupted automatically on one of the two following dates:

May 30, 1948—if the veteran has made a written request that no leave be granted him between May 30, 1948 and June 14, 1948.

June 14, 1948—if the automatic 15-day leave period has been accepted by the veteran.

Since training will be interrupted automatically on either one of the two dates above, it will not be necessary to hold a mass meeting of the veterans in training at Ursinus College to terminate the G.I. benefits for this present term.

Summer School

Those veterans who attend the summer session at Ursinus College will register with the Veterans Administration during a mass meeting to be held during the week of July 6-July 10. During this meeting, the veterans will file the proper forms to re-enter training under the G.I. Bill.

Veterans who plan to transfer to another educational institution for the Summer Session will need a Supplemental Letter of Eligibility for that change. An additional Letter of Eligibility will be necessary to return to Ursinus College in the fall. Notice of any change of this nature must be given to the Veterans Counselor, Room 1, Bomberger Hall.

He also served on the stage committees for "Very Good Eddie," "The Man Who Came to Dinner," and "Ten Little Indians," as well as taking part in "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

Although she has had only a year in which to engage in dramatic events Nancy Bare has already attained the position of player and has accumulated quite a record. Following a strong supporting role in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," Nancy did committee work for "The Mikado" and "The Late George Apley," and has been active in the group of the Curtain Club to which she belongs.

Tapping for membership in Alpha Psi Omega also took place. Newly-installed members of the Ursinus chapter of this national honorary dramatic fraternity are Richard Brandon '49, Phyllis Bright '48, Betsy Greene '48, William Keller '50, Mary Kern '48, Al Mazurkiewicz '50, Carol Schoeppe '48, Fred Tischler '49, Nancy Twinning '48, and Charles Williamson '50.

AVC ELECTS STEIN CHAIRMAN; DISCUSSES PLANS FOR FALL

On Monday, May 10 the AVC held its elections for the coming fall semester. The new officers are: Chairman, Arthur Stein '49; Vice-Chairman, Walter Johnson '49; Secretary, Alvin Weiss '50; Treasurer, John Mullahy '51.

The AVC will hold its first meeting of the new season on the Monday after school opens in the fall. The group has decided to pursue a vigorous housing program on behalf of the married veterans and to continue obtaining free tickets for veterans' wives to all school activities. It will continue to supply news and items of interest in the "Veterans Corner," which made its debut in this semester's paper. Numerous social events with a special AVC night at Hedgerow Theatre are in the offing for the next semester.

'51 RENAMES THREE LEADERS; THALHEIMER TO HOLD MONEY

At an election held Tuesday, the freshmen, apparently well-satisfied with the activities of their first year, recalled three of their four officers to lead the class during the coming year. As sophomores, Floyd Justice will serve as president; James Duncan, vice-president; and Betty Rilling, secretary. Jack Thalheimer will succeed Ed Huss as treasurer.

During the year the Freshmen have been exceptionally active. It was they who instituted "More Spirit Week" last fall. Another project undertaken by the frosh class was the paper Highlights of '51, which was designed to acquaint resident and day students in the class with their activities. The semi-formal dance, which they conducted on April 30, was another in their list of successful functions.

HEALTH SERVICE POINTS OUT BENZEDRINE INHALER DANGER

The Health Service of the University of New Hampshire has called the attention of the student body to the very hazardous use of "Benzedrine Inhalers" during the recent exam period.

Pointing out that some students are using "Benzedrine Inhalers" to keep themselves awake during final examination periods, the Health Service warns that this is a very dangerous procedure and should be stopped at once.

Two fold injury can result from such a practice. First, unsupervised taking of Benzedrine can result in serious, permanent nervous and mental trouble. It is therefore very unwise to take Benzedrine except upon the advice of a physician.

Second, the other drugs that are in the "strips" found in the inhaler can cause permanent, serious injury. If not permanent, they can make one very ill as several students can certify as a result of this type of indulgence. The Health Service also adds that there is practically no danger from using the "Benzedrine Inhaler" in the manner it was intended to be used.

Phys-Ed Officers . . .

On Monday the Physical Education Club elected its officers for next year. Robert Gehman and Gladys Miller will be co-presidents for the coming year, with Nancy Vadner serving as secretary and Jeanne Daniels as treasurer.

The meeting was in charge of the freshmen and the sophomores who provided the entertainment for the evening. The program consisted of skits and imitations of the departing seniors.

A constitution was presented to the club and passed. It is now waiting to be approved.

Sigma Nu Officers . . .

Sigma Nu sorority has elected Kathleen McCullough '49 as its president for the coming year. Jane Hellie '50 will serve as vice-president, Norma Cole '49, as secretary, Emma Lou Mason '49 as recording secretary, Elizabeth Gross '49 as treasurer, and Carolyn Kratz '50 will be the chaplain.

DR. PHILIP SERVES AS JUDGE OF NEW ENGLAND FESTIVALS

Dr. William F. Philip, Director of Music has spent two busy weekends away from the campus. From May 6th to May 9th he was choral judge at the Vermont State Music Festival in Burlington where 3000 student musicians competed in band, symphony, orchestra, and choral events. The festival was concluded with a massed concert of all units on Saturday with the governor, senators and members of the House of Representatives in attendance. Dr. Philip had the honor of riding in the parade with Governor Gibson.

This past week-end Dr. Philip was in Springfield, Mass. for the Western New England Festival. As well as serving as a choral judge again, he conducted the massed chorus of 2700 in the Saturday afternoon concert in the Colosseum of the Eastern States Exposition Grounds before an audience of 5000.

WHY... I smoke Chesterfield

(FROM A SERIES OF STATEMENTS BY PROMINENT TOBACCO FARMERS)

I have done business with Liggett & Myers for over 40 years. They buy the best crops in the house at the auctions.

I am exclusively a Chesterfield smoker. I think they are the best cigarette made.
