But a few years ago many people became curious to know who they were, whether to verify the theories of Charles Darwin, or merely from natural curiosity, I do not know; but the fact remains that many began to construct genealogical tables and family trees, and a spirit of inquiry arose, so that when meeting one of the same name, the question was asked, "Who are you, and who were your parents?" Such inquiry being extended back enlarged the realm of blood relationship and kindred interest until large numbers joined in common association: and family reunions became the order of the day. Now, they are almost innumerable. Brookside Park seems to be a favorite meeting place ~~for~~ and for weeks different family re-unions have been an almost daily occurrence here.

The Haworth family was among the first to enter into this field of inquiry. Miss Mart Petty, of North Carolina, began a genealogical table and _____ Haworth, of Iowa to construct a family tree, and William Perry Haworth, of the Indian Territory, after receiving many names for a national genealogical table of the family, found that most of them sprang from one common origin in the person of George Haworth, who emigrated to America, coming over with William Penn, in 1699.

He conceived the idea of a National Reunion of all the family in America, and called them together at Blainfield, Indiana just following the landing of the emigrant two hundred years before. The call was well responded to. Nine states, and one territory were represented. Badges were prepared, and worn so that the Haworths might be known. The sessions of the yearly Meeting thus became part of the re-union, which occupied two days after the meeting closed.

At that time, the name "Haworth Association", both for national and State Re-unions, were adopted, and steps were taken to to organize the states represented.

The Indiana Association was then organized, with John B. Haworth, of West Newton, Indiana, as President. This association was to meet each year except the years when the National Association met; and, so far as I know, this has been done.

One of the prime objects of the Association, as stated at the first National Meeting, was "To put on foot influences that shall be for the good of the family." I think that this has been kept in mind at all the State Reunions; and while the social features have been thoroughly enjoyed, there has always been a high tone of moral sentiment and religious spirit.

DESCENDANTS OF STEPHANUS HAWORTH.

Since 1906 I have been trying to locate in the branch of the family to which they belong, the descendants of one Stephanus Haworth, who was born at, or near Philadelphia December 9, 1759, and up to this writing I have been unable to do so. I am almost satisfied that he is a descendant of George, the youngest son of the emigrant, but I have not the undoubted proof at my command to make a positive statement concerning the matter. A search of the Friends Records, of Bucks County, Pa. would, no doubt, settle the matter completely and would throw much light on the earlier history of the Haworth family, including that of the Wrights, also.

I have decided to publish all the papers I have concerning this family, and perhaps some of my readers can tell us more about them.

On the 15th of June, 1906, a letter was received from Mr. John W. Haworth, of Aurora, Nebraska, in which he said: "I will send you in a few days, a record of our family as far back as I can trace them." This letter, and subscription to RECORD was duly acknowledged and in July following the below letter, accompanied by a chart of the family, was received.

Aurora, Nebr. , July 16, 1906

Dear Sir:

Enclosed find our family record, as far back as I can trace it at present. Perhaps I could find something later, if this is not complete enough. I have heard my father (George White Haworth speak of moving from Pennsylvania and moved to Muskingdom County, Ohio, near Zanesville. They had a carriage to die in, and some of the neighbors thought them "toney or stuck up", as there were few carriages in those days. My father owned and run a woolen factory at Leabaron Indiana, during the war. He afterward owned and run a flour mill near Thorntown, Indiana, moving to Nebraska in 1882.

Yours truly,

John W. Haworth.

After receiving the above letter and chart of the family, and finding that Mr. Haworth had traced his genealogy back to Stephanna Haworth, who was born Dec. 9, 1759, probably in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, and not being able to locate the said Stephanus in any line of the family, I accordingly wrote him a long letter, asking many questions, which it seems, he could not answer, and he turned my letter over to his sister, from whom I received the following letter:

Aurora, Neb. Nov. 20, 1906.

Dear Sir:

My, brother, John W. Haworth, handed me your letter: also, some copies of the Haworth Record. I do not think our family is a new branch, but of the old, original Pennsylvania branch. My great grand-father, Stephen, or Stephanus Haworth, was born in ~~xxxxxxx~~ Philadelphia in 1759, and died and was buried there in 1825.

My grand-father and all his children, except two, were born in Philadelphia. They moved from there in 1836, to Rural Dale, Ohio. I can go back no farther than this. My grand-father John Haworth, had sisters; but I am inclined to believe him an only son. One sister was Ann. Married William Kearns; had no children. Both are now dead. Mary married George White; and that is the reason my father and his sister were named White and two other sisters, Ann. There were other sisters, one of whom married a weaver; one, a Reifsnider; another, a Laurence; Some of the Weavers now live at Indianapolis, Indiana, The Reifsniders are still in Philadelphia.

My grand-father, John Haworth, , was born July 3, 1792; married Susannah Longshore, who was born in Bucks County, Penn.

You ask what had become of the children of John Haworth. All are dead, except Stephen L. whose address is Zanesville, Ohio Mrs. Elizabeth A. Harlan, Rural Dale, Ohio and Mrs. Sarah A. Trimble, also of Rural Dale. My Aunt, Mrs. E. A. Harlan, always lived with my grand-parents, and she might know more of the family than anyone else.

You asked my brother what had become of his brothers and sisters. Mary E. died in infancy; Sarah S. married E. W. Fall, and was widowed in 1895, leaving no children; Elizabeth H. married John Wiley. Widowed in 1897; no children; Catherine, unmarried. Edwin died in infancy.

Caroline F. Stevens died in 1897. We have always known that our ancestors came over with William Penn, but cannot trace back farther than 1775. I hope that you can help us out.

Sarah S. (Haworth) Fall.

After the receipt of this letter I wrote Mrs. Fall, asking her to make a thorough search for the missing links which would connect these Records to that of the Emigrant: and in the meantime, I was doing all that I could to fathom the mystery. During the latter part of January the below letter was received from Mrs. Fall:

Aurora, Nebr., Jan. 28, 1907.

Dear Sir:

According to request, I have been writing to my people, and have found that my grand-father had two brothers, Warner and Stephen. My grandfather was born in 1792, and these brothers may have been born a little earlier or later than this date. If some of the children, or grand-children of these brothers of my grand-father can be found they may be able to trace our family back farther than I have been able to do. I have written my aged Aunts, in Ohio; and what I have learned from them I have filled out in the chart and will return it to you. This is the best that I can do at this time.

Yours respectfully,

Sarah S. (Haworth) Fall.

On the 20th of April, 1907 I wrote a letter to Mr. Wm. T. Warris, one of my mail order patrons who then resided at Fairhill Station, Philadelphia, asking him the following questions:

1--Does your City Directory show any names of Laurence or Refsniter families:

2--Is the burial ground used by the city of Philadelphia from 1699 to 1800 yet in existence?

3--Was there a Register similar to the English parish register kept in the earlier years of the city's life; that is, shortly after the landing of William Penn?

4--Do the archives of Philadelphia show the names of Penn's emigrants during the colonization of Pennsylvania?

The following letter was received in answer to the first question asked:

Philadelphia, Pa., 5-9-1907.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of 6th received this A.M. You will note on the back of this sheet the names and addresses of people registered in the Philadelphia, 1907, Directory by the name of Laurence. There is but one by the name of Laurance. There are no Refsniters, but quite a few Reifsneiders and Reifsnyders. As soon as I can possibly do so I will go down to the Pennsylvania Historical Society and see if there were any Laworths who emigrated on the ship "Welcome" with Wm. Penn.

Very truly yours,

W. T. WARRIS.

The remaining three questions were handed the "Philadelphia Press", under Mr. Warris' signature, and answered by the Query Editor in the issue of the 6th of May.

For the information of my readers I herewith publish the remaining questions and answers, as they appeared in the paper above mentioned.

VARIED QUESTIONS.

To the Editor of "The Press".

Sir---1. Locate burial ground used by the City from 1699 to 1800.

2. Was there a register similar to the English parish register kept in the earlier years of the city's life, that is, shortly after the landing of William Penn? If so, where can one be seen?

- 3. Do the archives of Philadelphia show the names of Penn's emigrants during the colonization of the State of Pennsylvania? If so, where can they be seen?

W.T.WARRIS.

Philadelphia May 5, 1907.

- 1. First. "Potter Field" or public burying ground, which is now Washington Square, 1706. Next, Logan Square, ground on Lombard Street, between tenth and eleventh, south side; Ridge Avenue, north of Coates, or Fairmount Avenue, about where Twelfth and Parish Streets run through.
- 2. No registers were kept by City similar to English Parish register. Quaker Meeting records are quite full from 1682 on. They may be seen at FRIENDS LIBRARY, Sixteenth & Cherry Streets.
- 3. The Pennsylvania Archives contain no names of citizens of Great Britain who landed here: only aliens. A partial list of passengers on the Welcome, the first ship in which Penn came to Pennsylvania was compiled and is printed in Memoirs of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Vol.1, appendix, which is to be seen at the Pennsylvania Historical Society, Thirteenth and Locust Streets. Among the names sent me by Mr.Warris from the Pennsylvania Directory was Mrs.Ella S. Laurence. I wrote her, asking for information, , thinking perhaps I could find the Laurence families who had descended from Hannah, the daughter of Stephanus. Here is her answer:

Philadelphia, June 2, 1907.

Dear Sir:

My mother asked me to answer your letter to her.

We regret that we cannot assist you in your work. We feel that there is no connection between our family, and that of the Haworths. My father was Joseph Laurence, a native of Portugal. So far as I know, his only relative in this country who died many years ago, leaving no children.

Trusting you will pardon my delay in writing, and hoping you will be more successful elsewhere, I am,

Very truly yours,

Pauline P. Laurence.

1116 Snyder Avenue.

In some of the records of the descendants of this Stephanus Haworth which have been sent me, it is stated that he had a son, John, born at Mt. Holly, N.J., July 3, 1792. Early in the month of May I wrote the Post Master at Mt. Holly, asking if there were any Haworths now living at, or near the town; also, if there was a Quaker church at, or near the town as early as 1792 and if the records of such church were yet in existence. On the 16th of May the below letter was written me by the Post Master:

Mt. Holly, N.J., May 16, 1907.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of recent date I referred to Chas. H. Engle who says he will look the matter up for you. He is an old resident of the town and a member of the Friends Church 219 Garden Street. If you wish, you could correspond with him.

Very truly yours,

C.C.Cowperthwait.

Accordingly, on the 18th of May I wrote Mr.Engle, repeating the same questions, together with others I had previously asked the Post Master, and on the 25th following the below letter was received from Him:

Mt.Polly, N.J., 5-23-1907.

Respected Friend:

In reply to thy inquiry, will report that the present Friends Meeting House was erected in 1775, there having been one, or more prior to that date. The population of this town is about 6,000. The records of this Monthly Meeting began in 1775 and are very voluminous. They are kept in a fire-proof safe in the meeting house, of which I am custodian. I have examined the records of the the member-ship of this meeting, which goes back beyond the year of 1775: also, the records of marriages from 1675, and record of births from same date: also record of deaths from 1775, and I ca not find the name, Haworth therein. I have not examined the Minute Book of the Monthly meeting, as that would take days to read: but I do not believe that the name would appear.

I have examined the records of deeds, wills, and inventories of ~~Counties~~ county in the office here, but nowhere found the name of Haworth.

Very respectfully,

Chas. H. Engle.

It would appear from the above letter that no Haworth has ever lived at, or near Mt.Holly; otherwise, their name would have been recorded in some of the records above mentioned. All of the older Haworths were members of the Society of Friends, and this particular branch of the family were well supplied with this world's goods; consequently, had they lived in the county where in Mt.Holly is located, their names would have been on the records of the County. My correspondent must have been mistaken in believing that John, the son of Stephanus, was born at Mt.Holly, N.J.

I will here add the genealogy, as written by Mr.John W. Haworth, of Aurora, Nebraska.

- THE GENEALOGY -

Stephanus Haworth, born Dec.9, 1759; died June 8, 1827; married Rebecca who was born Nov. 8, 1760: died Sept. 24, 1826. Their children are:

1. John Haworth, born July 3, 1792; died Aug. 4, 1870.
2. Ann married Mr.Kearns, and had no children;
3. Stephen.
4. Mary, married George White
5. Warner
- 6 Sarah married John Weaver.
7. Guile E., married a Refsniter,
8. Hannah, married a Laurence, and had one child named Andrew.

(1) John, of above family, , married Susannah Longshore, who was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania Nov.17, 1789, and died May 1, 1877. They reared a family of ten children, namely:

- 1 - (a) Warner A., born June 10, 1816
2. (b) Rebecca J., " Nov.1, 1817,
3. (c) Lewis E., " June 20, 1819,
4. (d) Sarah Ann " July 19, 1820,

8. (h) Elizabeth Ann " Nov.7, 1828,
9. i) Steven L., " Nov.16, 1831.
10. (j) Orpha Susannah " May 13, 1833.

(a) Warner A. Heworth married Sophia Sill, and had three children:

- (aa) Hannah, born Apr. 25, 1831; died July 31, 1902.
- (bb) Sarah Augusta, born Apr.22, 1851,
- (cc) Anna F., born Nov.20, 1864.

(aa) Hannah married Isaac Davis, and reared two children, James and Marion Davis, both of whom are married, and have one child. each. Marion married a Clouser.

(bb) Sarah Augusta married George Armstrong (dead) and reared two children: Dr. Roy Armstrong married Frittie Jacks; Laura Armstrong married Burt Aldridge, and has three children, as follows: Emily, Richard, and Wayne

9cc) Anna F. married, first Al Truitt: second, James Moore. There were three children, viz: Ethel and Susie Truett, and Mary Moore.

Your letter of 6th received this A.M. You will note on the back of this sheet the names and addresses of people registered in the Philadelphia, 1907, Directory by the name of Laurence. There is but one by the name of Laurance. There are no Refsniters, but quite a few Reifsniders and Reifsnyers. As soon as I can possibly do so I will go down to the Pennsylvania Historical Society and see if there were any Saworths who emigrated on the ship "Welcome" with Mr. Penn.

Very truly yours,

W. T. WARRIS.

The remaining three questions were handed the "Philadelphia Press", under Mr. Warris' signature, and answered by the Query Editor in the issue of the 6th of May.

For the information of my readers, I herewith publish the remaining questions and answers, as they appeared in the paper above mentioned:

VARIOUS QUESTIONS.

To the Editor of "The Press".

Sir---1. Doctate burial ground used by the City from 1699 to 1800.

2. Was there a register similar to the English parish register kept in the earlier years of the city's life, that is, shortly after the landing of William Penn? If so, where can one be seen?

3. Do the archives of Philadelphia show the names of Penn's emigrants during the colonization of the State of Pennsylvania? If so, where can they be seen?

W.T.WARRIS.

Philadelphia May 5, 1907.

- 1. First. "Potter Field" or public burying ground, which is now Washington Square, 1706. Next, Logan Square, ground on Lombard Street, between tenth and eleventh, south side; Ridge Avenue, north of Coates, or Fairmount Avenue, about where Twelvth and Parish Streets run through.
- 2. No registers were kept by City similar to English Parish register. Quaker Meeting records are quite full from 1692 on. They may be seen at FRIENDS LIBRARY, Sixteenth & Cherry Streets.
- 3. The Pennsylvania Archives contain no names of citizens of Great Britain who who landed here: only aliens. A partial list of passengers on the Welcome, the first ship in which Penn came to Pennsylvania was compiled and is printed in Memoirs of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, Vol.1, appendix, which is to be seen at the Pennsylvania Historical Society, Thirteenth and Locust Streets. Among the names sent me by Mr.Warris from the Pennsylvania Directory was Mrs.Ella S. Laurence. I wrote her, asking for information, , thinking perhaps I could find the Laurence families who had descended from Hannah, the daughter of Stephenus. Here is her answer:

Philadelphia, June 2, 1907.

Dear Sir:

My mother asked me to answer your letter to her.

We regret that we cannot assist you in your work. We feel that there is no connection between our family, and that of the Haworths. My father was Joseph Laurence, a native of Portugal. So far as I know, his only relative in this country who died many years ago, leaving no children.

Trusting you will pardon my delay in writing, and hoping you will be more successful elsewhere, I am,

Very truly yours,

Pauline B. Laurence.

1116 Snyder Avenue.

In some of the records of the descendants of this Stephenus Haworth which have been sent me, it is stated that he had a son, John, born at Mt. Holly, N.J., July 3, 1792. Early in the month of May I wrote the Post Master at Mt. Holly, asking if there were any Haworths now living at, or near the town; also, if there was a Quaker church at, or near the town as early as 1792 and if the records of such church were yet in existence. On the 16th of May the below letter was written me by the Post Master:

Mt. Holly, N.J., May 16, 1907.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of recent date I referred to Chas. H. Engle

It would appear from the above letter that no Haworth has ever lived at, or near Mt.Holly; otherwise, their name would have been recorded in some of the records above mentioned. All of the older Haworths were members of the Society of Friends, and this particular branch of the family were well supplied with this world's goods; consequently, had they lived in the county where in Mt.Holly is located, their names would have been on the records of the County. My correspondent must have been mistaken in believing that John, the son of Stephanus, was born at Mt.Holly, N.J.

I will here add the genealogy, as written by Mr. John W. Haworth, of Aurora, Nebraska.

- THE GENEALOGY -

Stephanus Haworth, born Dec. 9, 1759; died June 8, 1827; married Rebecca who was born Nov. 8, 1760; died Sept. 24, 1826. Their children are:

1. John Haworth, born July 3, 1792; died Aug. 4, 1870.
2. Ann married Mr. Kearns, and had no children;
3. Stephen.
4. Mary, married George White
5. Warner
6. Sarah married John Weaver.
7. Guila E., married a Refaniter,
8. Hannah, married a Laurence, and had one child named Andrew.

(1) John, of above family, , married Susannah Longshore, who was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania Nov. 17, 1789, and died May 1, 1877. They reared a family of ten children, who says he will look the matter up for you. He is an old resident of the town and a member of the Friends Church 219 Garden Street. If you wish, you could correspond with him.

Very truly yours,

S. C. Cownorthwait.

Accordingly, on the 12th of May I wrote Mr. Engle, repeating the same questions, together with others I had previously asking the post masters, and on the 25th following the below letter was received from him:

Mt. Holly, N. J., 5-25-1907.

Respected Friends:

In reply to thy inquiry, will report that the present Friends Meeting House was erected in 1775, there having been one, or more prior to that date. The population of this town is about 6,000. The records of this Monthly Meeting began in 1775 and are very voluminous. They are kept in a fire-proof safe in the meeting house, of which I am custodian. I have examined the records of the membership of this meeting, which goes back beyond the year of 1775; also, the records of marriages from 1675, and record of births from same date; also record of deaths from 1775, and I can not find the name, Haworth therein. I have not examined the Minute Book of the Monthly meeting, as that would take days to read; but I do not believe that the name would appear.

I have examined the records of deeds, wills, and inventories of ~~Camden~~ county in the office here, but nowhere found the name of Haworth.

Very respectfully,

HAWORTH REUNION.

The Annual Meeting of the Indiana Branch of the Haworth Association of America, was held in Brookside Park, Indianapolis, Indiana, August 26, 1909.

Quite a goodly number of the Haworth family gathered on the appointed day. The morning was spent in greeting the cousins as they gathered, and in the social enjoyments so much appreciated at such gatherings.

In the afternoon a short business meeting was held, and a brief program carried out. A newspaper clipping giving some account of a Haworth who had served for two years as bell-ringer for the Royal family, of England, serving in that capacity at the coronation of the present King was read by the President, Sam Haworth. The following were elected officers for the ensuing year:

President, Sam Haworth, Thorntown, Ind.

Sec.-Treas., Emma Newlin, Plainfield, Ind.,

Historian, Grace Hanson, Westfield, Ind.

Executive Committee

Calvin Newlin, Plainfield, Ind.

Lester Haworth, Danville, Ind.

Cassius C. Haworth, Elwood, Ind.

The following paper was read before the meeting by Charles C. Newlin:

OBJECT OF OUR RE-UNION.

In times past the heathen Chinaman and the devout Jew kept strict account of their lineage, but the ordinary civilized mortals of that time were much like the boy who said he could trace his lineage back to his father, but no farther. We can do a little better than that, for most of us can name our grand parents, but we stop there. Family relics, old letters, and such things as connect us with distinguished personages were preserved; but the family history, as a family, was not much in

June 25, 1938

Dear Mrs. Ely:

I have your name, from the Pennsylvania Historical Society in response to a request for a recommendation of some person able to assist me in locating a Pennsylvania ancestor.

I wish to identify Susannah Susannah Longshore, who married John Haworth, of Pennsylvania. According to grave-stone records, John Haworth was born in Pennsylvania July 3, 1792, and died Aug. 4, 1870 at Blue Rock, Ohio, and is buried there. ~~Susannah~~ Longshore was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania November 17, 1789, and died May 1, 1877, at Blue Rock, and is buried there.

I feel certain that if I can identify her father I can find her in Mr. Justice's book on "The Wilson and Allied Families, which I have examined.

I believe there is nothing in the Quaker church records about the marriage of John Haworth and Susannah Longshore. I have had some extensive correspondence on the point. I judge the only thing to do is to search the Will Books for a mention of "My daughter, Susannah Longshore Haworth, or possibly the civil marriage lists for counties in which John and Susannah may have resided at the time.

You will need to discriminate; John Haworth is not an uncommon name in the family, and the John, of whom I write, had a number of cousins.

I have a pretty complete record of the male line. Stephanus Haworth, John's father, was born at Buckingham, Bucks Co. December 9 1759. He was accepted as a member of the Darby Monthly Meeting in 1778; but in the following year was disowned for joining the militia. Stephanus Haworth's wife, Rebecca Warner, Their children were: John, Ann, Stephen, Mary, Warner, Sarah, Guila (or Gilliam) and Hannah. I thought these names might, possibly, be of help to you.

I would be obliged if you would let me know when the cost of the search reaches $10.00 so that we can discuss whether we should go farther into the ~~matter~~ question.

Among my interesting correspondents in Philadelphia have been Mr. Henry W. Scarborough, now dead., Miss Anna W. Smith, of Newtown, Ohio, Mr. Charles Slack, of Ridley Park. None of whom, however, were in give the professional service I now require.

I shall await your reply with great interest.

A stamped and addressed envelope is enclosed

Dear Mr. Haworth:

I have your letter giving details of the information you want regarding Susanna Longshore.

As a first step I have gone through all the material I have on hand to make sure if I have any such data. I think I have little that you do not already have.

From various sources, I have, that four sons of "George the Immigrant" went to the Valley of Virginia, viz: Stephanson, Absalom, James and John. In 1738-7-2 Stephanus told the meeting (Buckingham Meeting) that he and his brother Absalom had settled about 50 miles beyond Opeckon monthly meeting, and requested certificate to that meeting. Later Stephanus and his youngest brother (John I think) returned to Penna. evidently around Darby, since telephones were later discovered by Darby meeting.

Was John married to Susannah Longshore at Buckingham Meeting? If so, I can get in touch with friends there and ask them to look up Susannah for me: or have you already done that?

I have two friends here who have a great deal of Haworth data that I have not yet gone over, and I will get in touch with them at once.

Thanks for the information about T.W. Peyton's being seriously ill. I had not heard from him in answer to my letter early in December; and his illness, of course, accounts for that I would appreciate it greatly if you would see some of the other Peytons there and see if you could get this information for me.

I am descended from Thomas Peyton, who settled in Mason County, Ky. (formerly Bourbon Co.) After the Rev. War, on a land grant for his services during that war. He came from Westmoreland Co., Va. and was the youngest son of the third marriage of his father--whose name I do not have.

Thos. W. Peyton, of your city is descended from Capt. Thos. West Peyton, of Alexandria, Va., who married three times. I am trying to learn if the youngest son of the third marriage of this Thos. West Peyton, of Alexandria might be my Thos, of Mason Co., Ky. In other words, did T.W. Peyton, of Alexandria have a youngest son, Thomas, who settled in Ky. after the Rev. War? I find it difficult to state these complicated ancestral lives clearly., but perhaps I have put it as clearly and simply as possible.

In the meantime I will investigate Susannah Longshore through Buckingham Meeting marriage records, and through the two friends I mentioned, and will let you know as soon as I learn anything.

Sincerely,

(Signed) Ruby Peyton Haworth.

My Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of November 16, I herewith enclose what data I have been able to find about the Haworth family, which, you will notice is not about the family but is merely a mention of names.

The history of Bluerock Township, as given in the history of Muskingum, mentions a historical society of that township which was organized to furnish the community history for the people who were compiling the general history of Muskingum County away back in 1881. It is possible that the historical society may still be in existance although I doubt it, but a letter to the Postmaster would soon determine whether the society still exists.

Yours very truly,

Reference Librarian.

At Home --- Friday, April 9/37.

Dear friend James:

We were very much pleased, indeed, to receive your good letter, although you may not think so because we have not written in answer 'ere this.

We go down to South Zanesville to visit Anna Harlan (She is Sarah Ann Haworth's daughter) about every three weeks; and when your letter arrived we had just been there: but we at once went to see our sister, Alma Haworth Butts, but she could tell us nothing about her grand-mother. She just roams here, as do I, as being in bed, wearing a cap and using an ear trumpet. Stephen Longshore Haworth was our father's name.

James, we all appreciate your efforts and the interest you manifest; and if we can be of any service, we will gladly assist you.

In your letter you speak of making a trip into our territory, and we cordially write and urge you to make our home your stopping place. Do please excuse our long delay in writing. With love to you, all, we are

Mr. John Rogers Haworth,

Huntington, West Virginia.

Dear Cousin John:

Back in 1933 we had some correspondence about the Haworth family tree, and at that time we were both very much interested in gathering all the information we could find about the family.

At that time, my genealogical work was interrupted and I did not get back into the work until the spring of 1947. Since that time, I have gotten together considerable material, and when it is completed I hope to have it published.

I am sure you will be interested in the progress that has been made. Letters have been written to members of the family living in almost every state in the Union: and, fortunately, I have heard from most of them. However, very few of the records as to dates, occupation, residence, &c. are complete. But when they are all tied together, it makes very interesting reading.

The descendants of the four sons of George and Sarah (Scarborough) Haworth are almost as numerous as the sands of the sea. However, they are not quite as prolific in the seventh, eighth, and ninth generations as they were in the first six.

The records that I have show the following:

Descendants of

Stephenus	888
Absalom	761

John	51
James,	1819
Total	7,519
Mary,	No record.
George,	No record.

Since you are a descendant of John, the third son of George and Sarah (Scarborough) Haworth, I am sending by mail a copy of the genealogy of your family. I'll appreciate it very much if you will look it over, and write in your corrections and additions. and then return the copy to me so that I can make the corrections on the manuscript that goes to the printer.

Thanking you in advance for your kindness, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

C. V. Haworth,

Mokomo, Indiana.

Dear Mr. Haworth:

Your letter of June 7, 1938, is at hand.

My father published "Palmer Genealogy" in 1914 with the last entries practically up to 1912. In looking at the index in this book I find by a strange co-incident, the only Haworth names to be those of John and Susanna. The first Palmer settler, John, had one son and several daughters; and two of the daughters married brothers by the name of Trimble; and in the Trimble division of the book I find the following entry: Page 752--James Trimble, born February 20, 1817; died February 9, 1895; Married Sarah Ann Haworth November 5, 1840 (daughter of John and Susanna Haworth, born July 19, 1820; resided at Rural Dale, Muskingum County, Ohio.

Children:

Mary Frances, born August 18, 1842.
Angeline K., " May 4, 1844; died ~~1894~~ 1894.
Eliza Jane, " Aug. 27, 1846, died 1847,
Susanna H., " April 25, 1848,
William H., " November 17, 1850: died 1854.
Esther H., " February 7, 1856.
Elmer Elsworth, " May 9, 1864.

At the time of the publication of this book, four of these children, and the mother, were still living; and, as these entries were made at least 26 years ago it is possible that some of them are still living. The published record gives no mention of the maiden name of Susanna Haworth, but it is possible that some of the family whose home was, apparently, at Rural Dale, Muskingum County, Ohio might be able to furnish some clues.

I am not personally acquainted with any genealogist of sufficient experience living in this vicinity to take the matter up here, although the Librarian of our Historical Society, Mrs. Elsie L. Jones, is willing to look up our Society's records. However, it seems to me that as the Longshore name is not a Delaware County family, there is not such likelihood of any records of that name being here: but I can ask our Librarian to see if she can find anything. The Longshores of whom I have any knowledge have resided in Philadelphia County and Bucks County, where there are still some members of that family residing. There is a man named Lester Haworth, Secretary of the Philadelphia Y.M.C.A., Fifteenth and Arch Streets who has just come to this locality. I have met him only once, and he seemed like a very agreeable person. If you care to write to him I am sure he would be glad to hear from you.

Very truly,

Dear Mr. Haworth:

Your letter of inquiry concerning one Susanah Longshore was duly received, and is receiving my attention.

Pressure of work which preceded your inquiry has required my attention until now; and I hope to examine the Court records and tax list here during the week beginning July 13th.

I knew Henry (Harry) Scarborough) very well also Miss Anna W. Smith, and valued her very much as an authority on the Quaker records.

Since nearly all of the Haworth family of the second generation applied for certificates from Buckinchar Meeting by 1750, with but one exception, John Haworth, who removed to Philadelphia, I think possible I will need to search in other counties, as you have suggested. I will make a report, as you have suggested.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Haworth:

After having devoted much time to your search for Susanna Longshore who married John Haworth, son of Stephanus, I am, as yet, unable to find her. The only place where I found the name "Hannah" in the Haworth family occurs in Delaware County in connection with John Haworth, and the information is so meager that, so far, I have been unable to learn whether her name may have been Susanna or whether she was the wife or daughter of John Haworth.

The records of Delaware County give information concerning John Haworth, who who left a Will, Probated 1790; and the Indices of the Meeting indicate the names of John, Mary, George, Hannah, Mahlon, , Jane and Stephanus. I assume that this is the John who a certificate to Haverford in 1769 and who married Mary Michener

I have been expecting to go down into Delaware County for another family search, and thought I should do both at one time; consequently, the delay. It seems quite likely that one of the sons of John and Mary, possibly Stephanus, could have had a son John, born in 1792, who married Susannah Longshore.

If you think the search should be made in Delaware County, which I think should cover Court and Meeting Records which have not been available, , principally those after 1800, I will gladly do so. I am convinced, after much search in Bucks County that there is nothing available here to help.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Haworth:

Your letter of November 21, to my husband, has been lying here on the desk ever since its arrival awaiting time for my husband's answer. Since Lester is exceedingly busy just now engaged in our effort to raise a million dollars for the Y. M. C. A. here, I shall answer for him.

I am the member of the family that is geneologically-minded anyway and the only one that might have time for mulling over the records you suggest.

I shall be very glad to do that if you will send me the informations--dates and probable places to look. Please send them after Christmas, however, not before--as I shall be forced to drop all such fascinating "hunts" until this busy season is over.

I have just looked up a letter from M. M. Haworth, 342 Clearbrook Avenue, Lansdowne, Pennsylvania which may be of interest to you. His father was Wayne Lewis Haworth who was born in New Market, Tennessee. His father was Mahlon Naworth. Mahlom's father was David H. and David had a twin brother, Jonathan. This may be the same John Haworth who married Susannale Longshore, but Mr. M. M. Haworth says that he has no information further back than David's twin brother John. However, correspondence with him might reveal something further.

Dear Mr. Haworth:

Thank you for your letter of recent date. It brought to mind our correspondence on the Haworth-Longshore lineages.

During the month of August the Consultation staff of the Historical and Genealogical Societies are having a months vacation. The Libraries are closed for that period, but I will do what I can here on the Longshore problem in the Meeting and Court records, and our Library. Most of the Meeting records are in Bank vaults, making it necessary for me to contact them at their sources in different sections of the County. I concur in what you have said about the Middletown records. They have been well searched. With our limited gasoline allowance here, long drives are impossible, but I think it possible to accomplish for business purposes.

I will be unable to consult the "Wilson and Allied Families" until after the Philadelphia Libraries are open, for we do not have the book in our Bucks County Historical Society.

You have given me a big order, and my first search will be in the Court House for some reference to Abner Longshore as the father of Susannah.

Please keep in mind that I am supposed to be on ~~xxx~~ cation this month, and the Court House searches will be about the limit except for the newspaper records, which begin about 1822, with a few scattering, earlier ones.

You will hear from me as soon as it is possible for me to contact the sources of information, other than the Court records here, which are always available, within walking distance.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Josephine I. Ely.

The problem is to identify the father of Susannah Longshore, born in Bucks county, Pa., November 17, 1789, and died in Blue Rock township, Muskingum County, O., May 1, 1877, and is buried there with her husband. She married John Haworth, son of Stephanus Haworth of Philadelphia, born in Philadelphia July 3, 1792, died August 4, 1870, in Blue Rock Township.

You will note the genealogy of the Longshore family of Philadelphia in the attached ^hfile.

I have all information needed except to fit Susannah Longshore into her proper place in this family.

The place in Muskingum County where John Haworth and his wife are buried now is known as Ruraldale. It is a short distance from Zanesville.

Mrs. Warren S. Ely,

Dear Mrs. Ely:

Back in 1938 we had some correspondence about Susannah Longshore, who married John Haworth, both in Pennsylvania. You hunted for her in Delaware County, but was unable to find her. I am still looking for her, and hope you can take up the search again.

Will you please let me know when the cost reaches ten dollars so we can examine the situation and see what to do from that point, on.

John was born in Pennsylvania July 3, 1792, and died Aug. 4, 1870, at Blue Rock, Ohio, where he is buried. Susannah Longshore was born in Pennsylvania, Bucks County, November 17, 1789, and died at Blue Rock May 1, 1877 and is buried there.

I think the Middletown meeting books have been well combed, and nothing has turned up which would indicate who might have been Susannah's father; but I would like every other Bucks County source to be examined.

By a process of elimination in Mr. Justice's book, "Wilson and Allied Families", I think it quite possible that Susannah might have been a daughter of Abner Longshore, son of Euclides and Susanna Van Horn Longshore, b. circa, 1762, disowned by Middletown in 1784, date of death not known. Would his Will not be recorded in Bucks County?

Abner married Sarah Powers. She married, second, 66666 Mutchler, of Shickshinny, Pa., and is buried at Beaver Meadow, Pa. Abner's children are listed in Mr. Justice's book as Isaiah born 4/1/1791. Sarah and a third child, not named". She might be Susannah, who married John and who was born, as noted above, in 1789.

The Ohio Census Records show that he was living in that state in 1850 and 1860, but not in 1820, 1830 or 1840. He must have come into Ohio from Pennsylvania. Then, between 1840 and 1850. All of his children were born in Pennsylvania. The youngest, Urpha, was born in 1833. Others were named: Warner, Rebecca, Sarah Ann, Mary White, , Elizabeth Ann, Samuel Milton, my grandfather, and Stephen.

I do not know where Shickshinny or Beaver Meadow are. It is conceivably possible that John and Susannah might have lived there for awhile, but there is no record.

I would think that the best hope, in the absence of a marriage certificate would be to hunt up Abner Longshore's Will and see whether there might be a reference to Susannah Haworth in it, and the same as to his widow's Will after she married Mutchler, of Shickshinny.

Can you not get out Mr. Justice Wilson's book and get these facts in mind, and go out and find Susannah for me?

I will be pleased to hear from you promptly, so that I may know whether you are prepared to undertake this matter. If not, can you recommend somebody who could?

Very truly yours,

James R. Haworth.

Dear Mr. Haworth:

I am sorry that I do not have at hand the information you are seeking regarding the parentage of your great grandmother, Susannah Longshore Haworth.

My notes on our Longshore ancestry are quite Abner is listed as one of eleven children of Euclides Longshore, Jr., and his wife (Name uncertain: she may) (have been a Cox or a Susannah Van Horn).

The date given for Euclides' marriage is 1760. So, Susanna Haworth, born in 1789, might have been Abner's daughter, so far as the date is concerned. It is also noted that Abner married one Sara Powers; that he enlisted with the militia in 1783, and that his son John settled in Cincinnati.

Abner, I believe, had an Aunt Susannah, (his step-mother's sister Susannah Gillinhinton).

No, indeed, I am not a professional genealogist. I wish I were... As it is, while I am very interested, I find it quite confusing.

Should you learn anything further about your great grand-mother Susannah I would be interested to know about it, since the above mentioned Euclides, Jr. is my great-great grandfather.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Haworth.

I am sorry that I do not have at hand, the information you are seeking regarding the parentage of your great grand mother

Susannah Roughshore Haworth.

My notes on our Roughshore ancestry are quite sketchy.

Abner is listed as one of eleven children of Euclidas Roughshore Jr.

and his wife (name uncertain. She may have been a Cox or a Susannah Vantour)

The date given for Euclidas's marriage is 1760 - so Susanna Haworth, born in 1789 might have been Abner's daughter so far as the date is concerned.

It is also noted that Abner married one Sara Powers - that he mustered with the militia in 1783 and that his son

John settled in Cincinnati.

Almer I believe had an Aunt Susannah
(his ^{step-}mother's sister, Susannah Gillam Peeters)

No indeed, I am not a professional genealogist, I wish I were!

As it is, while I am very interested,
I find it all quite confusing.

Should you learn anything further about your great grandmother
Susannah, I would be interested to know about it, since the above mentioned Euclides Jr.
is my great-great grandfather.

With best wishes

Sincerely

Marion H. Roush.

Dear Sir:

Will you please hand this letter, if you do not have time to do it yourself, to somebody in your office who will check the county records to ascertain the date and granter of a deed for land in Blue Rock township to John Haworth.

From information I have, I would judge the transfer would be some time between 1835 and 1840, but I would be obliged if the records for eight or ten years before and after that time be checked if the transaction does not show up at the first try.

This is a genealogy job and I will, of course, be glad to pay whatever fee is required.

Geo. W. Gibbons and Elizabeth Gibbons, his wife, 3 acres and 72 perches in the S. W. Qr. 26, Range 12, Township 12 (Blue Rock Tp.) to John Hayworth or Heyworth, dated January 23, 1836 recorded in Book R. Page 106.

Dear Mr. Barker:

Your name has been handed to me both by Mr. Howard H. Carmack, of Charleston, W. Va., and Mr. Lockwood Barr of New York. Mr. Carmack married into the Tiers family, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Barr is an amateur genealogist, I think.

I wish to ascertain the name of the father of Susannah Longshore of Philadelphia, who was married to John Hawthorth, born in Philadelphia July 2, 1792; died in Ohio August 4, 1870. Susannah was born in Bucks County, Pa. Nov. 17, 1789; died in Ohio May 1, 1877.

Their first child was born June 10, 1816, and they had one, almost annually for some time thereafter; so I judge they were married in 1814 or 1815. I have been unable, for many years, to find proof of their marriage, and would like to unearth something on it. They must have been married in, or near Philadelphia, since they were natives there and their first child was born there.

Both were quakers. I have had all the Quaker records I know of searched, without result. I have also had the records of the First Baptist church examined, and they are not there. I do not find Susannah in Mr. Justice's book, "The Wilson and Allied Families", except one Abner Longshore who had two daughters, not named, in approximately the right dates.

I understand you are busy, and I will not press you unduly, and will pay your fee when you let me know what it is.

Very truly yours,

James R. Haworth.

Dear Mr. Haworth:

I was glad to receive your interesting inquiry of February 29th, relative to Susannah Longshore, and pending reply, thought I would see what I could find on the subject, but the preliminary search has yielded little, indeed. There is a sketch of the family in the publications of the Bucks County Historical Society, Volume VI, but it doesn't help us yet. I find that the only Longshores listed in the Philadelphia City ~~Libraries~~ Directories at about the time the Haworth family must have settled there (that is, John and Susannah) are a widow, Rachel, (whom I cannot yet identify) and one Jolly Longshore, who seems to have returned to Bucks County to marry, about 1815.

Perhaps it would help if you would let me have the names of the children of John and Susannah (Longshore) Haworth. Certain names were characteristic in the Longshore family, notably, Euclides. If you find that Susannah named a son that we may be able to place her without difficulty. The fact that there is no trace of this couple in Friends' records seems to me to prove that they were not regarded as members by the Meeting, although they may have attended Meeting, as many did. There were many degrees of friendliness. Sometimes persons who had been ruled out of Meeting continued to attend, although the Meeting ceased to take account of them officially, and so, there is no record.

I have no regular fee for this kind of work, but make a charge of $1.00 per hour, and request the client to state how many hours he would like for me to spend. In this way, the client regulates the amount of the charge, which is thus proportioned to the actual amount of work. I have spent two or three hours in the preliminary search; if you wish me to go on, up to say, ten hours, I shall be glad to do so.

I enjoyed meeting Mr. Howard H. Carrack on his recent visit here, when he spoke to me of your problem, I am enclosing my card.

Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain,

Dear Mr. Haworth:

Many thanks for your letter of March 17th enclosing check for Ten Dollars, for which I am very grateful. I had already spent a couple of hours on the preliminaries of your problem, but will now go ahead, with the clue which you have provided.

Only--I can't promise a certain solution. If Mrs. Warren S. Ely hasn't been able to solve the problem, with her own and her husband's collections, my work is cut out for me. However, a trip to Doylestown is now eliminated as a possibility, as Mrs. Ely would have covered everything at the Court House and Historical Society there.

I was interested in a sketch of the Longshore family published in the Publications of the Bucks County Historical Society, as it had to do with a branch of the family that drifted down to Philadelphia. The Author Mrs. Lucretia Blankenberg, widow of Mayor Blankenburg of Philadelphia and daughter of Dr. Hannah Longshore, the first woman physician of Philadelphia, Dr. Longshore had a sister, Dr. Jane V. Myers, the earliest doctor of my own, as she was our family physician. Probably, I owe a great deal to her. But, to return to the subject

I somehow have a feeling that this is your branch: so, I am going to try to analyze it, and we shall see what results.

I remember Mr. Henry Scarborough very well, and I worked for years for Mr. Justice. We have a collection of Mr. Justice's papers in the Library, but it contains nothing that helps us, as yet. By a coincidence, only last week I met Mrs. Justice, whom I had not seen for years. She is not continuing her husband's work, but tells me that she continues to receive inquiries, and refers them to me.

I don't know who could have given you quite such a flattering account of my abilities, and I'm going to have a difficult time living up to it, but I'll do my best.

Hoping to be able to report something interesting soon,
I remain,

Dear Mr. Haworth:

I have now completed a survey of the Longshore Family, of Bucks County, so far as possible, from the materials at hand here in the library, and will give you the result, which, however, is not yet conclusive as regards your particular problem. As Robert Longshore, the immigrant, seems to have had but one son, Euclides will begin with the latter who founded the family, in Bucks County. And as the spelling of this name varies a good deal, I am using one form throughout.

I see less reason for believing that you descend from Abner, than for thinking that you are of the line of Thomas, of Middletown, or even of his brother, James' line. The reasons for this will develop as we proceed.

Dear Mr. Haworth:

Holidays have delayed my reply to your letter of December 20, but I have been working on the case, and can now report on ground covered, although with little result.

First, I examined deed records. Under name, Haworth, Susanna, grantee deeds yielded a sheriff's deed poll of 1827, of which I give an abstract below. Parties mentioned in this conveyance were Susanna Haworth and John Haworth, which at first made it appear a matter of importance, but close inspection of the rather lengthy text failed to discover mention of the exact relationship between these two, or of their relationship to the Mary Haworth, also named in the recital. But the grantor deeds developed a conveyance in 1851 by one Susanna Haworth spinster and, as the properties conveyed are those granted by the Sheriff's deed of 1827, the two Susannas are shown to be identical, and not the one wanted. (Phila. Deed Book GWC 101 pp 92, 95.).

In 1850, there is also a conveyance of real estate to one Susanna Haworth, or Northern Liberties, single woman. (Ibid. 66 p. 41.).

Under Haworth, John, I examined grantor deeds for conveyance by John Haworth and wife, thinking the wife's name might not have been indexed separately. I found one such conveyance, but the volume referred to could not be located on the shelves; so must be in the hands of the copyist or the binder--the utterly slipshod methods of the Department prevent my knowing which. We will keep this volume in mind, as it is merely possible it may contain a deed by John Haworth and wife Susanna that will furnish a clue to her parentage, although the probabilities are not great.

If I delay too long in reporting further on this matter please remind me. There is no telling how long it may take to copy such a volume.

The only other deed in which John Haworth was a grantor was an agreement about a meadow, in 1801. No wife joined in that case. (Phila. Deed Book RLL 30, p. 185.)

My examination of the indexes covered the periods 1815-52 (grantor), and 1809-52 (grantee), based on the facts that Susanna Longshore, up to 1821, but without result.

Next came Wills. As the Genealogical Society has abstracts of all Philadelphia wills up to 1825, which have already been examined, I covered the Index at City Hall from 1825 to 1870, running all given names. There was not a single Longshore will listed. I found Longmore and Lonmire and verified them from the Will Books.

The Orphan's Court Index I examined to 1852. The name Longshore did not appear.

This is a very disappointing report, but it seems to me we are looking in the wrong place, and that Bucks County would be the more likely locality in which to seek Susanna's parentage. However, if Mrs. Ely has already covered that territory, there can be no object in doing it again.

I should be glad of any suggestions you may have to make.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Chas. Barker.

Dear Mr. Haworth:

I have your letter of January 18th, in reference to a search of Bucks County records in connection with the problem of parantage of Susanna Longshore.

Possibly it would bewell for either you or I to write Mrs. Ely, asking her just what she has done in the matter. And she is so convenient to the Court House and its records that it might even be better to have her do the work than for me to make the trip to Dowlestown on the slim chance of discovering something.

As to the meeting records, the Genealogical Society has either photostats or abstracts of practically all the Friends records of Bucks Co, and I have covered them, all. In fact, my report of March 28, 1944, had to do almost entirely with Bucks County records, including abstracts of wills up to 1825. Susanna might have been mentioned in a will subsequent to 1825, but it is doubtful. At any rate, while being disposed of, there remains only the deed records and the Orphan's Court records.

As to a possible will of Abner Longshore, my information is that we have a list of Bucks County records (not abstracts) extending to the 1840s, but I will refresh my memory on this. I'm sure that I searched for Abner in Chester County records, and that I found nothing.. Delaware County was formed from a part of Chester County in 1789; it contains the Monthly Meetings of Chester County ~~xxxx1788x~~, Concord, Derby and Radnor, of all of which we have records.

I enclose account, as requested.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Charles R. Barker.

February 18, 1945.

Dear Mr. Barker:

I believe we have been, indeed, looking in the wrong place, but I wish to thank you for looking so diligently.

I have re-examined my letter files, and find that Mrs. Ely did get around to searching the Bucks County Court Records. A letter of August 4, 1943, the last I find from her, ~~st~~ stated she would go to the Court House. Her letter is not quite specific about the Meeting Records, which, she said are deposited in various bank vaults; and, after searching the Court records, if you find nothing you might consider looking into the Meeting records, or ancient newspapers, or what-have-you.

I note that you do not believe that Susannah Longshore was a daughter of Abner; but it seems to me to be possible, if not probable, ~~thax~~ on the basis of dates and the process of elimination of other Longshores; and I would be obliged if you would hunt up Abner's will and his wife's. Abner's mother was Susanna Longshore, and he might have named one of his daughters for her. His wife was Sarah Powers.

I judge the John you found in the Northern Liberties was a cousin of the John for whom we seek. I have noted that he had a daughter named Susannah. His wife was Mary Norton. He prospered somewhat, and left his tracks all over Philadelphia, and he has caused me a great deal of trouble. The John in whom we are interested also had an Uncle, John, and his grand-father was John; but dates help untangle these.

By all means, go into Bucks County thoroughly.

We may find something there.

I have a great lot of unsorted, miscellaneous memoranda and notes; but when I get to going through them my brains get foggier and foggier. Inevitably, a lot of misinformation gets into material of this sort, and I have my share of that, too. I think, some day I will throw a lot of them out, but no one can never tell.

You will have in mind, I hope, to send me statements of your fees from time to time. I would not like to get too far behind my obligations to catch up with them at will.

Very truly yours,

Mr. James R. Haworth,

Dear Mr. Haworth:

Pardon the haste of this reply to yours of the 8th inst, but I am so very much rushed for time.

Replying as regards my genealogical research services. Following the official notice by the President that that the war has ended, I must work a five day notice, which I have given the foreman to hold until the end of the war--trusting that event to be this week and my last day's service in the war plant about Saturday, I will again take up my own work.

The regular rates for search made Probate or Court records, are One Dollar an hour for search made outside Zanesville. Rates are One Dollar per hour, plus travel expenses.

Our city does not have a complete newspaper file ; and for many old newspaper records a search must be made in Columbus, in the State Historical files. Search for not less than one five-hour day, payable in advance, accepted.

My list of waiting clients numbers well over a years steady research services; but since your first request was received in 1944, you are entitled to early attention. In case you desire me to do work on the local probate records--kindly send me the data request again in full, please. Or do I rightly understand you to wish only Susannah Longshore's ~~xxxx~~ father's name.

Trusting the war will be over and I able to atten
to your search,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Haworth:

The enclosed is my report in full for your payment of five dollars, covering five hours of research work done in the Muskingum County, Ohio, Probate Court records; also, one hour of research done in the County Recorder's office. The findings of this work led to the clue I mentioned, which is as follows: After reading of Sarah Boyd's deed to her family, I called on a Mr. Longshore in this city, who informed me that his (deceased) father was David, the son of David (mentioned as an heir in Sarah Boyd's deed) and that he recalled hearing his father tell of a great Aunt, Susan, who lived down over the hill and to whom he (David, 2d) would often go for a gift of her home-made cookies. Mr. Longshore informs me that he thinks there is an old, family Bible somewhere; but he does not know in whose possession. He has offered to inquire about it and also to ask a cousin (there are only he and his brother, and two cousins of this family still living) if there are any other family records or traditions, that he might give me copies of to forward to you.

This would seem to be the Susanna Longshore whom you are searching record of since a great aunt of David, Sr. would be a sister of Sarah Boyd's husband, Euclides Longshore and about nine or ten years younger than her brother's wife, Sarah. I am anxious to hear again from Mr. Longshore (he has promised to) (let me hear as soon as he has located any records) and will be happy to forward all information he may give, to you at once.

In ~~event~~ ~~xxxx~~ you wish a further search made of records in the Probate, or Common Pleas records or Public Libraries County Histories I shall be gla' to serve you in the search.

The records in Common Pleas Courts contain, also, all Probate records up until 1859, at which time the Probate Court was founded most, but not all of these have been copied and are in the Probate Court's record room; but those not copied are from 1803 on. that were without indexes: those books of record are available to search, but it requires much longer since they have to be read, page by page, unless one were searching for names and events, of which already knew the month and year we were searching records of.

Wishing you every success in this search,

Sincerely,

(Signed) Gold Jane Butler.

Dear Mr. Haworth:

I have given your Haworth-Longshore problem my undivided attention, and have been unable to determine the percentage of Susan Longshore, the difficulty seeming to be that the records to which I have access in my points of contact are about the same that Mr. Barker would have access to, in Philadelphia. I have examined the Bucks County records quite thoroughly in my numerous searches on this lineage: and the marriage of John Haworth and Sarah Longshore seems not to be available.

I do not concur in what Mr. Barker thinks about the the search being about Bowlestown, since Doylestown is about thirty miles from Middletown Meeting, both places being East and West, Middletown Meeting being about thirty miles east of Doylestown.

It is always so difficult to trace families when they do not own property; for title searches are always sources for locating the particular locality in which they reside. Middletown Meeting of Friends, of which Susannah was a Member, is in the extreme South-eastern section of Bucks County, and is thirty miles from Middletown Meeting and not near the Philadelphia County line.

I examined the County Court records here when making your search some time ago; and, since Susannah was a member of Middletown Meeting, I naturally suppose that she resided in that vicinity. In her marriage to John Haworth she doubtless married out of Meeting, unless made an apology for so doing to the Meeting she would have been disowned. I will again look into the Friend's records for other, and additional records have been copied since I made your search.

Ever since I have had your inquiry I have kept it under observation, and have followed occasional leads in Quaker records that have come to light: but so far, without success. However, I will again look into the matter in the data that has accumulated since last working on the problem. The Longshore family has always been a problem, for so little has come to light. You will hear from me when I have made renewed effort to help solve some of these problems for you.

Very sincerely,

Mr. James R. Haworth,

C/o Huntington Publishing Company,

P.O. Box 1062, Huntington, W. Va.

Dear Mr. Haworth:

I have your letter of August 5, asking if I can give you any information regarding Susanna Longshore, who was born in 1791.

I am sorry that I am unable to help you, as I do not find the name of Susanna Longshore in any of our family records. Our records show that I, as a descendant of Robert Longshore, who came from England to Philadelphia about the time of William Penn, and died in 1694.

My great grand-father, Abraham Longshore, born in 1785, was the son of Euclides Longshore, born in 1735. Abraham lived in Lanshorne, Bucks County, Pa. and had seven sons and four daughters. My grandfather was Carey Longshore, born in 1814, and my father, Samuel, born in 1848.

There was another branch of the Longshore family who settled in Dolington, Bucks County, Pa. and it might be that Susanna belonged to that branch. I do not know of anyone who is in position to give you their family records. I will be glad to make some inquiries, however, ; and if successful in getting clues that would be of interest to you, I will be very glad to write you.

I am sorry that I cannot be more helpful at this time.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed) Wm. A. Longshore.

Mr. John Rogers Haworth,

Huntington, West Virginia.

Dear Cousin John: :

Back in 1933 we had some correspondence about the Haworth family tree, and at that time we were both very much interested in gathering all the information we could find about the family.

At that time, my genealogical work was interrupted and I did not get back into the work until the spring of 1947. Since that time, I have gotten together considerable material, and when it is completed I hope to have it published.

I am sure you will be interested in the progress that has been made. Letters have been written to members of the family living in almost every state in the Union; and, fortunately, I have heard from most of them. However, very few of the records as to dates, occupation, residence, &c. are complete. But when they are all tied together, it makes very interesting reading.

The descendants of the four sons of George and Sarah (Scarborough) Haworth are almost as numerous as the sands of the sea. However, they are not quite as prolific in the seventh, eighth, and ninth generations as they were in the first six.

The records that I have show the following:

Descendants of

Stephanus	888
Absalom	761

John	51
James,	1819
Total	3,519
Mary,	No record.
George,	No record.

Since you are a descendant of John, the third son of George and Sarah (Scarborough) Haworth, I am sending by mail a copy of the genealogy of your family. I'll appreciate it very much if you will look it over, and write in your corrections and additions; and then return the copy to me so that I can make the corrections on the manuscript that goes to the printer.

Thanking you in advance for your kindness, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

C. V. Haworth,
 531 West Sycamore Street,
 Kokomo, Indiana.

Dear Mr. Haworth:

Due to illness--diabetes--I cannot promise a speedy research on your question, but will try to locate information as soon as possible to do so. Mr. Longshore never found the family Bible record, but I have located descendants of Stephen Haworth who are interested and trying to help. As soon as more records are located I will inform you: and if you wish, forward addresses. You may write, or visit, as you please.

You may know that the mother of Actor Otis Harlan was a sister of Stephen Haworth. Said Stephen had a son, Otis Haworth, whose daughter is married, and lived in your city. Her name was Violet Haworth; her parents are deceased.

I do understand and appreciate your anxiety to complete your family history, and wish to help your research efforts in every way.

Trusting soon to have records and helpful information, I wish you every success.

Sincerely,

(Signed) Gold Jane Butler.

Joseph, son of Euclydus Jr. and Sarah Gillam Longshore, b 11/24/1788.

Of the children of John and Mary Haworth of Haverford I have only the following histories:

George-named in Will of Mary Haworth of Haverford, Widow, 1605
Hannah ??

Mahlon-apprenticed to John Haworth of Philadelphia in the winter of 1772/3 his certificate was removed to Philadelphia Mo Mtg for the Northern District. In 1775 he received certificate to Uwchlan Mo. Mtg. (on the Pottstown pike north of West Chester). Not traced farther.

John-was in Darby for five years, 1796 - - 1801. With his wife, Elizabeth, and children: George, Sarah, Rebecca, Lydia & William, he removed to Chester in 1814; but returned to Haverford(Radnor) in 1823.

Sarah-mentioned in will of Mary Haworth as Sarah Weaver.

Stephanus-sent to Darby for his apprenticeship in 1779, he lost his membership there but I do not have the date. He was married probably about 1790 to a young woman of Northern District Mo. Mtg. in Philadelphia. Her name was Rebecca Warner, but I did not find the minute stating the marriage. In 1795 she made acknowledgment and resumed her membership in that meeting. By her certificates of removing their history can be traced. During the eight years following they were at Medford, N. J.; in Goshen(probably Newtown Square); Chester; Bradford and New Garden, Pa. By 1804 they had removed to East Nottingham (Oxford) where they remained three years, then back to Northern District in Philadelphia where they were the next ten years. Again in Chester Co. at West Grove in 1817 they remained five years, returning to Philadelphia in 1822. The last time her name appears is in Philadelphia Minutes in 1824. Only one of their children was a member of Friends, Mary, who married George White from New Jersey, in 1809. Other children were John; who married Susanna Longshore and Rebecca Haworth Jr.; probably others.

Jonathan-no historn known.

Jane-went to Philadelphia in 1783, perhaps to live with some relatives. In 1785 she was in Southern District Meeting, Philadelphia. In the will of Mary Haworth, Jane Allen is named.

Rachel-about 1800 she married Aaron Tool and soon removed to Canadda, and these were great grandparents of Herbert Hoover.

Mary-is named in her mother's will as wife of Elisah Hoopes. Elizabeth in this will is wife of Mordecai Lewis. There was also Moses-but I have no history of him. Many minutes in Haverford (Radnor) meeting were not looked up.

A will of Patience Haworth of Haverford is at Media, proved in 1821, naming married daughters; she may have been widow of George.

H A W O R T H

(See Potter's American Monthly, IV, 169-70 for letters from George Haworth to his Mother, brother James, &c in Lancashire, Eng. 1699-1701)

(See Mahlon H. Dickinson's Account of the HALL Family, perhaps in Cope Papers, at 1300 Locust St.)

George Haworth of Makefield township, Bucks Co. Weaver, and Sarah Scarborough Spinster, daughter of John Scarborough of Solebury were married at Buckingham Meeting, 9mo 28 1710.

George Haworth of Buckingham died early in 1725, his will being proved on May 6 of that year. His Plantation was left to his widow during her widowhood, but on her death or remarriage it was to be divided "among all my children" not named. Will Book I, p. 13, Bucks Co. Willis.

Buckingham Meeting held 8:3:1733: Sarah Hall, formerly Haworth, was complained of for marriage out of meeting, but her acknowledgment was accepted. Her husband was Matthew Hall. This presumably was caused the distribution of the Haworth property.

The sons Stephanus and Absalom went almost at once to the Valley of Virginia to their uncle (or with him), Robert Scarborough. They were followed in a very few years by their brothers, James and John Haworth. How long they remained in Virginia is not known, probably ten years or fifteen anyhow. Stephanus and Absalom were located on Smith Creek in Shenandoah Co. Va. and James probably near by. James married Sarah _____? and died in Virginia before 1759. Stephanus married Rachel Beeson(?). His family was at New Gargen Monthly Meeting, living in Rowan Co. North Carolina in 1763, having left Virginia before 1759. His widow married Anthony Chamness in 1766. I have no history of Absalom Haworth except that he is mentioned in Hopewell Minutes, Va. as a contributor to a fund to pay the Indians for land there in 1778, so presume he remained in Virginia.

John Haworth returned to Bucks Co. Pa. by 1748, for he was named one of the executors of the will of his brother George Haworth in February of that year. He did not present his certificate from Hopewell Meeting in Va. to Buckingham Meeting until 10 mo. 1750, and in the meantime had married Mary Garner(?) out of meeting, for which his acknowledgment was accepted. He inherited land from his brother George, but whether of the original tract or not I do not know.

John and Mary Haworth remained in Buckingham for twenty years. In the winter of 1769-70 they removed to Haverford Meeting taking certificate for themselves and children; George, Hannah, Mahlon, John, Sarah, Stephanus, Jonathan, Jane, Rachel, and Mary.

They probably lived not far from Newtown Square, for there is some indecision expressed whether they should belong to Haverford or Goshen, and finally the family was lodged in Goshen. Probably a last daughter was born after the removal, named Elizabeth.

I have no record of the Death of John Haworth, nor do I have the date of the last mention of him in Haverford (Radnor) or Goshen minutes. Probably the date of his death was near 1800. A will of Mary Haworth of Haverford Widow, dated 1 mo 24 1805 is in the Wills office in West Chester. This was probably widow of John.

Buckingham Meeting held 8:3:1783: Sarah Hall, formerly Haworth, was complained of for marriage out of meeting, but her acknowledgment was accepted. Her husband was Matthew Hall. This presumably was caused the distribution of the Haworth property.

The sons Stephanus and Absalom went almost at once to the Valley of Virginia to their uncle (or with him), Robert Scarborough. They were followed in a very few years by their brothers, James and John Haworth. How long they remained in Virginia is not known, probably ten years or fifteen anyhow. Stephanus and Absalom were located on Smith Creek in Shenandoah Co. Va. and James probably near by. James married Sarah _____? and died in Virginia before 1759. Stephanus married Rachel Beeson(?). His family was at New Gargen Monthly Meeting, living in Rowan Co. North Carolina in 1763, having left Virginia before 1759. His widow married Anthony Chamness in 1766. I have no history of Absalom Haworth except that he is mentioned in Hopewell Minutes, Va. as a contributor to a fund to pay the Indians for land there in 1778, so presume he remained in Virginia.

John Haworth returned to Bucks Co. Pa. by 1748, for he was named one of the executors of the will of his brother George Haworth in February of that year. He did not present his certificate from Hopewell Meeting in Va. to Buckingham Meeting until 10 mo. 1750, and in the meantime had married Mary Garner(?) out of meeting, for which his acknowledgment was accepted. He inherited land from his brother George, but whether of the original tract or not I do not know.

John and Mary Haworth remained in Buckingham for twenty years. In the winter of 1769-70 they removed to Haverford Meeting taking certificate for themselves and children; Geroge, Hannah, Mahlon, John, Sarah, Stephanus, Jonathan, Jane, Rachel, and Mary.

They probably lived not far from Newtown Square, for there is some indecision expressed whether they should belong to Haverford or Goshen, and finally the family was lodged in Goshen. Probably a last daughter was born after the removal, named Elizabeth.

P.S. Have forgotten, but think the Haworth marriage was in 1944. Mr. Otis Haworth, this city is now deceased.

I have no record of the Death of John Haworth, nor do I have the date of the last mention of him in Haverford (Radnor) or Goshen minutes. Probably the date of his death was near 1800. A will of Mary Haworth of Haverford Widow, dated 1 mo 24 1805 is in the Wills office in West Chester. This was probably widow of John.

My dear Mr. Haworth:

Your letter of Jan. 8th, 1944, was handed to me for reply.

I have carefully examined our marriage book but find no record of John Haworth and Susannah ~~Haworth~~ xxx Longshore having been married here in this church. I regret that we cannot be of service to you in this matter.

Very truly yours,

(Signed)

Dear Mr. Haworth:

I am sorry that I do not have at hand the information you are seeking regarding the parentage of your great grand-father, Susannah Longshore Haworth.

My notes on your Longshore ancestry are quite sketchy.

Abner is listed as one of eleven children of Luclycles Longshore, Jr and his wife. (Name uncertain. She may have been a Cox or a Susannah Van Hore). The date given for Luclycles marriage is 1760; so, Susannah Haworth, born in 1789 might have been Abner's daughter, so far as the date is concerned. It is also noted that Abner married one Sara Powers; that he enlisted with the militia in 1783; and that his son John, settled in Cincinnati.

Abner, I believe, had an Aunt Susannah (his step-mother's sister Susannah Gillam Rinton).

No indeed, I am not a professional genealogist. I wish I were... As it is, while I am very interested, I find it all quite confusing.

Should you learn anything further about your great grand-mother, Susannah, I would be interested to know about it, since the above mentioned Luclycles, Jr. is my great, great grandfather. With best wishes,

Sincerely,

(Signed) Marion H. Longshore.

January 29, 1945.

Mr. James R. Haworth,
Huntington Publishing Company,
Huntington, West Virginia.

Dear Mr. Haworth:

Thanking you for your letter of January 26th enclosing check for $2.50, in full of all accounts to date.

I will communicate with Mrs. Warren S. Ely and make sure just what, if any ground she has covered at the Bucks County Court House. Also, there is a large collection of MS data at the Historical Society there, which is open to her, although it might not be to others, because, last winter, I believe, the building was closed, owing to lack of fuel, and that may be the case now.

I appreciate your wishing to work with me, as before, and will try to arrange matters so that there is as little lost motion as possible.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Chas. R. Barker.

many did. There were many degrees of friendliness. Sometimes persons who had been ruled out of Meeting continued to attend, although the Meeting ceased to take account of them officially, and so, there is no record.

I have no regular fee for this kind of work, but make a charge of $1.00 per hour, and request the client to state how many hours he would like for me to spend. In this way, the client regulates the amount of the charge, which is thus proportioned to the actual amount of work. I have spent two or three hours in the preliminary search; if you wish me to go on, up to say, ten hours, I shall be glad to do so.

I enjoyed meeting Mr. Howard E. Canmack on his recent visit here, when he spoke to me of your problem, I am enclosing my card.

Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain,

Very truly yours,
(Signed) Chas. K. Barker.

THE ZANESVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY

Zanesville, Ohio.

June 15, 1944.

Mr. James R. Haworth,
Huntington, W. Va.

Dear Mr. Haworth:

Unfortunately, we do not have files that go back so far as the 1870s. Many of them are at the Ohio State Library in Columbus, and others are in the possession of the local Pioneer and Historical Society.

I am sure, however, that files of various old Zanesville newspapers of that date are readily available, and suggest that you get in touch with our historian, Morris F. Schneider, whose address is 612 Larzelere Avenue, Zanesville. It is possible that Mr. Schneider will have time to examine them for you; if not, he can put you in touch with someone who is in a position to do so.

Respectfully,

(Signed) C. C. Stebbins.

-- ITEMS JOTTED DOWN WHILST WE WERE AT ANNA HARLAN'S, DAUGHTER OF SARAH ANNE TRIMBLE ---

Easter night. Anna will be 89 this month. Attends Baptist church each sabbath.

Susannah Longshore was a beautiful woman--lovely, Christian Quaker belief; quite deaf, but attended divine services each Sabbath, using an ear trumpet, as also did two others, one Sadie John Haworth. The three deaf ones always sat up front.

Sadie John married Lewis Haworth, a homeopathic doctor, who died when about 60. Sadie was very proud of him. He was a good man. John, the father, was sort of fat. His children were: Warner, Rebecca, George, Sarah Ann, Samuel, Elizabeth, Stephen, Orpha. (One of these names Anna could not recall).

Susannah died in the 70s, after a stroke. She and her daughter Elizabeth, lived in the home after the father's death (John).

One night she became very ill, and Elizabeth called to her sister, Sarah Ann Trimble, and they they then both came to Trimble home, where their mother, Susannah passed away.

Elizabeth afterward married _____ ~~Harlan~~ Harlan. She had one son, Lewis.

Mr. Haworth was John's brother, and he was a mute and married a mute. They became acquainted at school.

All were Quakers. After Baptist Church was built at Rural Dale they all joined it. No child, or grandchild so good looking as she, Susanna Longshore.
