Dear Mr. Walker:

Just a brief note. As of today I have sent out a letter to the New York Times requesting coverage on our Symposium. I have also enclosed a copy of that letter to you.

As time goes on, the structure and organizational work on our program will be further learned.

I will keep in contact with you and hopefully with the Times as the days progress and will inform you of any changes or additions to the presentation of the Symposium.

I hope I may rely on your support to help us broadcast to the rest of the country on what we are doing. I also hope you do not think I am too presumptuous or forward in my request.

Sincerely yours,

Keith Carreiro, Chairman
Distinguished Lecture Series
