

INTRODUCING THE AT&T PORTFOLIO TOURS OF THE MET

Only a collection like the Metropolitan Museum's could make these tours possible. And only a company like AT&T could have the vision to sponsor them.

MASTERPIECES OF THE MET

Narrated by
PHILIPPE de MONTEBELLO

The Metropolitan's director selects 30 of the Museum's greatest masterpieces, in a tour spanning 5,000 years of world culture. The tour reverberates with names like Rembrandt, van Gogh, Monet, and Vermeer, and works from Asia, Africa, and ancient Greece.

October 20–December 13, 1987

ANIMALS AT THE MET

Narrated by STEVE MARTIN

Prowl through the enchanting collection of animals at the Met. From the delicate beauty of a Roman swan to the raging battle of centaur against dragon, these creatures—real or imaginary—pounce, cower, reign or soar over worlds as diverse as they themselves are.

January 5–February 21, 1988

HISTORIC MOMENTS IN ART

Narrated by
WALTER CRONKITE

Walter Cronkite joins with artists of every era to relive historic moments in art. Journey through centuries and civilizations to dine with Napoleon, cross the Delaware with Washington, race alongside Greek athletes, or contemplate the great Buddha.

March 1–April 17, 1988

MUSIC IN ART

Narrated by
BEVERLY SILLS

To let the eye hear. A remarkable achievement, made deceptively easy by scores of works at the Met. The General Director of the New York City Opera narrates this fascinating tour of the images and instruments of music—a dazzling celebration of one art form by another.
