Mr Harry Verney begs to express his thanks to Bishop Chace for his kindness in bringing to him the letter of Mr. Richmond dated New York Sept 21 which he has received.

Mr Harry Verney regrets very sincerely that it is not in his power to offer to Bishop Chace the pecuniary assistance so necessary to forward the pious and benevolent objects of the Bishop. but he feels very anxious to have the honor of making a personal acquaintance with the Bishop and of tendering his services in any mode in his power.

Mr Harry Verney is not aware that To Bishop Chace

He will be in London before the meeting of Parliament in February. He will at all events take the first opportunity of waiting on the Bishop; and he takes the liberty of adding that if Bishop Chau is travelling towards the Central District of England - Birmingham. Manchester
- he ~~will~~ should feel himself highly honoured by seeing Bishop Chau at Claydon and presenting Lady Wemyss to him, if the Bishop would kindly pardon their very humble and homely style of living.
