Dr. Leinbach Speaks to Vespers On 'Compassion for the Multitude'

The text "And Jesus seeing the multitude was moved with compassion for them" furnished Dr. Paul S. Leinbach, editor of The Messenger and Vespers speaker last evening, with the theme of a dynamic talk to the College at the service in Bomberger after dinner.

Asking the question "Is Compassion to be sought after in this world?", Dr. Leinbach recalled for his audience the picture of Jesus on the cross and the multitude passing by at his feet. He recalled, too, the caption "Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?", leading his audience to a consideration of the type of world that exists today.

He described the world today as a "wistful" world and he said the people in it have four definite ills. "They are lonely — nobody cares whether they live or not; sensitive—people are easily hurt; fearful—fear is the chief demon of modern life; and without God".

"A world hostile to religion and God is a world in great need. So many people are indifferent — as though Jesus never lived, and died".

Dr. Leinbach pointed out that looking upon the world in that condition it is important that we look up on the multitude with compassion.

Dr. Niblo Exhibits Collection of Books

Book collecting is a hobby that will bring great returns without undue expense. Thus commented the Rev. Mr. James M. Niblo, D.D., rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Norristown, and a member of the Ursinus College Board of Directors, at a meeting of the English Group last Monday evening in the Science Building.

The Rev. Mr. Niblo, prominent in church circles, has assembled a large collection of manuscripts and books. Among those he exhibited before the group were a manuscript Bible of the late thirteenth century, several prayer books of the fifteenth century, and a French first edition of Alice in Wonderland, containing an original poem in the hand of Lewis Carroll.

Particularly interesting was the presentation of a number of fore-edge books, noteworthy among which were the masterpieces of workmanship fashioned by James Edwards of England. The skill of applying painting to the fore-edges of books and covering it with gilt so that it will only be revealed when the book is open fanwise is a lost art, according to the Rev. Mr. Niblo.

Book collecting, whether it be the collection of freaks, such as William Ade's Bible in shorthand; whether it be the collection of particularly fine examples of binding; or whether it be a collection for literary purposes only, is a fascinating and profitable hobby, and it is within the means of everyone, according to the speaker.

Austrian Refugee Schonfeld To Speak Again Before IRC

Thomas Schonfeld '44, will appear before the International Relations Club as a guest speaker for the second time at its regular monthly meeting to be held tomorrow evening at 8:00 p. m. in the reception room of Shreiner.

As before, the subject of Schonfeld's talk will be the impressions he got of the European conditions prior to the outbreak of the present war. This time his remarks will deal particularly with England.

Plans for Ursinus participation in the IRC League of Nations Conference to be held at Lehigh University during the spring vacation will also be discussed at the meeting.

Dexter Points Way To Better City Rule

"The people of Philadelphia are preparing to overthrow their present corrupt government and replace it with a sane decent system of government", Mr. Sidney B. Dexter told a meeting of the Haines Political Society last Monday evening in Bomberger.

Mr. Dexter is former chairman of the Committee of Seventy, an organization formed in 1902 to support reform legislation for the city of Phila. His topic before the Haines Society was the "Home Rule Bill" which is being considered by the Penna. legislature.

This bill, introduced in January by the Honorable Franklin Spencer Edmonds, state senator from Montgomery County and father of David Edmonds '43, would permit any city in the state to revise its own constitution in order to provide better government. The bill is different from the Philadelphia City Charter Bill, defeated last year, in that it allows any city to reform its governmental machinery while the Charter Bill permitted only Philadelphia a new system of rule.

He outlined the four major faults of the present city government as "(1) no centralized control; (2) no fiscal control; (3) no merit system; and (4) complete waste of money".

Mr. Dexter told the Political Society that this year he has visited every part of Pennsylvania, and has found that all sections of the state favored the passage of the "Home Rule Bill".

Sheeder Addresses Meeting Of Bethlehem Church Group

Mr. Franklin I. Sheeder, Registrar and Professor of Bible at Ursinus, spoke at the Fellowship Luncheon of the Roundtablers of Christ on Sunday evening, February 2. The Roundtablers is an organization of approximately sixty-five young people of Christ Church, Bethlehem. Rev. A. Augustus Welsh, a graduate of Ursinus with the class of '26, is pastor of the congregation.

Mr. Sheeder's address to the youth centered about problems of the present day and religion. He also delivered the sermon at the evening church service, speaking on "Religion—Good and Bad".

Marion Stocker '43, accompanied by her mother, played several flute selections at both services.

Those students who represented Ursinus were George Hosler '44, Edward Zetty '43, Thomas Hartzell '44, Marion Stocker '43, and Mary Alice Weaver '43, a member of Christ Church.

College Heads Re-Elect Dr. McClure Treasurer

Dr. Norman E. McClure, president of the College, was re-elected treasurer of the Association of College Presidents at its annual meeting held in Harrisburg on Friday, January 31.

At the same time the association elected Dr. Fred P. Corson, of Dickinson College, to succeed Dr. Clement C. Williams, of Lehigh University, as its president.

The main address of the general session was delivered by Rev. Dr. Edward V. Stanford, president of Villanova College. Dr. Stanford asserted that as long as privately endowed colleges flourish, "there will be no 'bottleneck' in the defense program as far as higher education is concerned."

Dr. George R. Tyson, professor of education, was a member of the panel discussion group at the sectional meeting of the Association of Liberal Arts Colleges of Pennsylvania for the Advancement of Teaching. The topic of the discussion was "What contribution can our organization make to the preservation of democracy?"

Kathryn Boghetti, Contralto, Will Sing Concert Here February 20

LORELEI DANCEMASTER

Kathryn Boghetti, attractive young contralto and wife of the international famous Giuseppe Boghetti of New York City, will give a concert at Ursinus on Thursday evening, February 20, in Bomberger Hall at 8:00 p. m. The Bomberger Program Committee, the student organization formed last year to bring outstanding personalities to the campus, will sponsor the concert.

Plans are being completed to launch a ticket campaign among the students and townspeople to insure a crowded house the night of the concert. Tickets have been placed at a minimum price to afford all the members of the College and the community an opportunity to hear Mrs. Boghetti. Tickets for students and members of the faculty and administration will sell at twenty-five cents each. All other admissions will be fifty cents each.

Two members of the junior class were added to the committee at a meeting last week in accordance with the plan of the organization. Betty Frorer and Richard Arnold are the two new members.

Mrs. Boghetti has confined her performances to a few a year in order that her career on the concert stage might not interfere with her private life and her music teaching. She was discovered by and received her musical instruction from her famous husband, who taught Jan Peerce, the radio and operatic tenor who sang at the initial Bomberger Committee's offering last year.

Len Mayfair's Band To Play for Lorelei

Len Mayfair and his orchestra, who have become a social institution at Ursinus with their frequent return engagements, will provide the music for the Lorelei dance on Friday, February 21, it was announced today. The news was released by Idamay Scott '41, chairman of the dance committee.

Shelving the worn theme of Valentine's day, the Lorelei committee has struck out with a theme based on the American Indian life. Informality will be the keynote for the evening. Admission charge will be $1.50 a couple.

Rauhauser, Melson Debate On Union of U. S., Britain

John Rauhauser '41, and Donald Melson '43, represented Ursinus in an intercollegiate debate with Western Maryland University on Friday evening, February 7, in Bomberger.

The question for debate was: Resolved that a permanent union of the United States and the British Commonwealth of Nations should immediately be established. Ursinus upheld the negative in the debate which was staged according to the Oregon style.

Garnet Adams '42, and Charles Blum '41, will debate Drew University on the hemisphere union question tonight at 8:00 p. m. in Bomberger. They will uphold the negative side of the question.

Chemists, Lawyers To Hear Lecture on Unusual Patents

"Freak and Amusing Patents" will be the topic discussed by Mr. Joseph Gray Jackson, Esq., at a combined meeting of the Beardwood Chemical Society and the James L. Barnard Pre-Legal Society to be held Tuesday, February 11, at 8:00 p. m. in the auditorium of the Science Building.

The reason for the joint meeting of these two organizations is apparent, because the topic touches upon both the field of law and of chemistry.

RUBY BILLS

All campus organizations, which have been billed by the 1941 Ruby, must make arrangements to pay same before February 15 in order to be photographed.

Editor of 1938 "Weekly" Wins Columbia Scholarship

He will also serve as secretary of the Class of '41 in Journalism and as editor of The Front Page, student publication of the School of Journalism.

Hemisphere Solidarity Is All-Ursinus Theme

Pan-American relations has been selected by the All-Ursinus Conference committee as the theme for the annual All-Ursinus Conference to be held on the weekend of April 4, 5, and 6. It is felt that because of the attempts being made at present to cement Western Hemisphere solidarity, the theme chosen is a very fitting one.

Plans for the conference are now just in their embryonic state and an announcement of the speakers which the committee will bring to campus is not yet forthcoming. The committee, of which Dorothy Thurston '42, and Karl Agan '42, are co-chairmen, is attempting to present a program which will be so diversified as to appeal to the entire student body.

Arrangements are being made to stage an intercollegiate debate on the question of hemisphere union during the conference week-end, and it is planned to put the debate on a radio hook-up.

As in previous years, the All-Ursinus Conference is being sponsored by the Y. It will include a Saturday evening novelty party consisting of dancing, games, and contests.

AAUW Hears Musical Program At Miss Spangler's Cottage

The dancing doll scene from the opera "Tales of Hoffman", was presented by Caroline Nowicki, who danced, and Blanche Nowicki, who sang the soprano solo. There were additional soprano solos by Blanche Nowicki. Both children are pupils of Miss Spangler.

The entire group joined in the singing of "Barcarole", from "Tales of Hoffman", by Offenbach.

The Commentator
 THE "LIGHTER-THAN-AIR"
 COLONEL

Says one Colonel to another Colonel, "You're just a flier. You're not qualified to talk about the military strategy of this war". So says Colonel Knox of Colonel Lindberg. The populace is expected to believe that he, Colonel Knox, is an expert and is qualified to speak with authority.

As long as "the nation survives"—as a democracy—there will always be heathen to take issue with gentlemen of great versatility like Colonel Knox. I have always had great respect for the Colonel as a publisher and a businessman. He undoubtedly has much ability to contribute to his country in this time of crisis. But I have felt after careful study of his recent statements on national defense that he, not Lindberg, is the duck who has strayed farthest from the water. One cannot accuse him of being merely a flier, but one can say that he frequently makes excessive and heated use of the air. In fact, he often becomes a sort of lighter-than-air craft. I think Knox must realize this when he draws some of his sweeping and meaningless generalities.

The lighter-than-air Colonel tells us that England can stop Hitler with our aid and can then swarm into Europe. It is a beautiful idea. He also thinks that if Hitler conquers the British Isles, he will immediately make a good military showing against our sovereign Republic. The flying Colonel holds that England and Germany are at a stalemate and will batter each other to a pulp without a decisive decision. He thinks that the combined forces of England and the United States would fail to invade Europe under present conditions. And he maintains that no combination of foreign powers could make a decent assault on a well-prepared America.

I weigh Lindberg's opinion heavily on this point. I think I am justified. He made some very sound estimates of relative military conditions in Europe before this conflict. At the time, partisans of the Allies largely discounted his words. The fact that he had received a Nazi medal was supposed to have warped his judgment. But events have proved those conclusions to be correct. As I check the newspaper files, I find that Hugh Johnson upheld the wisdom of Lindberg's arguments then. He agrees with him on this subject now. The "Iron Pants" General never received a Nazi medal, and he seems to outrank the lighter-than-air Colonel. Besides, he is one of the nation's most experienced military strategists.

Adolph and Benito are having a warm time in Europe, a very warm time indeed. The third partner, Uncle Joe, is not talking. If Adolph can whip a courageous Britain, if Benito can avoid losing his boot, if both can gain complete control of conquered territory, and if Uncle Joe decides to play ball—all big "ifs", mind you—then we are in danger of attack. But for this attack at least a million men with full equipment, steady supplies, ready reserves, and nearby bases are needed. And while all this is going on your Uncle Sam is presumably snoozing at the switch.

We want England to survive. We should like to see her win. But should we allow her to become a bloody, broken mass in a continued stalemate? Should we use our army and navy in the gigantic task of trying to invade the continent of Europe; Or should we use our offices for peace if Hitler's invasion attempt fails? Let us consider these questions while the lighter-than-air Colonel attacks the flying Colonel. And let us weigh seriously the possibilities of an attack on America.

THIS RUSHING SEASON!

The season is here. Every year at the beginning of the second semester fraternities and sororities bid new members into their organizations. Every year, too, a great deal of inconsequential talk is heard about the merits of fraternities and sororities, and visa versa.

At the outset then let us be clear on one point. Whereas we are in agreement with the belief that freshmen should think carefully in their choice, perhaps there has been too much emphasis laid on the evils of the organizations.

No attempt will be made here to list them, as the future of the groups is not a question. On the other hand, the freshmen should be allowed to be clear on a few things.

First of all, membership in fraternities and sororities can offer a student some real enjoyment during his four years. His meetings can be among the best or worst times he has; the determinant factors are his attitude and purpose in joining.

Secondly, membership should certainly be chosen with an idea to real friendship and its accompanying social activity—keep your choice free of a thought of any more selfish gain that may be proposed to you.

Last consideration, the first in importance, must be to keep fraternity membership from detracting your interest in the College; rather direct it so that you can increase your amount of healthy Ursinus friendship.

ATTENTION ICE SKATERS!

Students who skate on the pond at the residence of Frank Hankins, beyond Fifth Avenue, are asked to be careful of the surrounding grounds. Several expensive shrubs have been accidentally damaged. This has been called to the attention of the "Weekly", and we urge students to be more careful when they go down to skate.

Tadley, whose fine work has kept the Bear athletic squads comparatively free from prolonged injuries and illness, left Collegeville on Wednesday after handling the quintet during the Drexel fracas. The next day was spent in Philadelphia shopping and assembling his wardrobe before he joined a party of 14 pitchers, catchers, and coaches and struggled through a mob of loyal fans at the North Philadelphia Station.

The squad will spend several days at the famous Carlsbad spring in California where the batterymen will train with baths and hikes before departing for Anaheim, the spring training base.

 Breathtaking spins, spirals, jumps—there's a thrill in every click of her flashing blades. And afterwards—"A Camel tastes so good—they have so much more flavor," says Miss Doman. But more flavor is only one of the "extras" you get in slower-burning Camels.

LIKE ANYONE WHO SMOKES A GOOD DEAL, THE EXTRA MILDNESS IN SLOWER-BURNING CAMELS IS IMPORTANT TO ME. AND THE FLAVOR IS SO GRAND!

IF YOU SKATE AT ALL, then you know that cutting a pretty figure is not as simple as pretty Evelyn Doman makes it appear. Behind her seemingly effortless grace are hours of hard practice. She takes her skating seriously . . . her smoking, too. "I smoke a good deal," she explains.

"The slower-burning cigarette—Camel—gives me the extra mildness I want." Slower-burning . . . costlier tobaccos. Yes, slower-burning Camels give you a fuller measure of flavor without the harsh effects of excess heat . . . extra mildness, extra coolness, extra flavor—and less nicotine in the smoke.

BY BURNING 25% SLOWER than the average of the 4 other largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them—Camels also give you a smoking plus equal, on the average, to 5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

LESS NICOTINE

than the average of the 4 other largest-selling brands tested—less than any of them—according to independent laboratory tests of the smoke itself

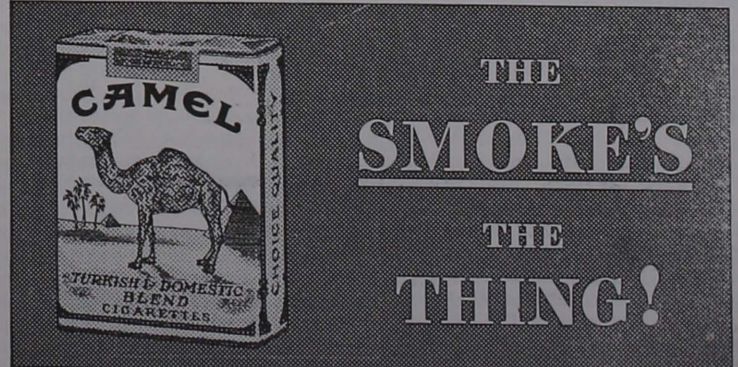

NO MATTER how much you smoke, all that you get from a cigarette—all the flavor, mildness—you get it in the smoke itself. The smoke's the thing!

Science has told you Camels are slower-burning. This slower way of burning means more mildness, more coolness, more flavor in the smoke.

Now, these new independent tests reported above—tests of the brands most of you probably smoke right now—drive home another advantage for you in slower-burning Camels—extra freedom from nicotine in the smoke.

Try slower-burning Camels. Smoke out the facts for yourself. Dealers everywhere feature Camels at attractive carton prices. For convenience—for economy—buy Camels by the carton.

Stevens' Grapplers Beat Muhlenberg Frosh Fall at Norr.

Pete Stevens' matmen made an impressive showing last Saturday night by winning a decisive victory over Muhlenberg, who is still looking for its first win. The final score stood at 25-13.

Because of the sickness of Witman, the Bear team lost 5 points by forfeit in the 121 class. An exhibition match was arranged, with Bob Ihrie of Ursinus meeting the varsity man of Muhlenberg.

Max Zeski, in the unlimited class, overpowered Dowd of Muhlenberg with a bar arm and a body press in the shortest bout of the evening, the contest going 1.07.

In the 145 pound class, Lobby won his match by a decision after he snapped a rib of Candalino while attempting to pin him with a half nelson and crotch hold.

With this victory under their belts the Bears are priming for Saturday night when they meet a strong Rutgers team in an away meet.

On Friday evening the frosh grapplers met defeat at the hands of the Norristown "Y", 20-18. Bickel, Clark, and Troppe won their matches, the latter by a decision.

Keagle, Stamm, Wells, and Hainley fell to the Norristown matmen.

Cub Passers Annex Wins Over Drexel, Perkiomen Prep.

Barney Barab with five field goals for ten points, and captain Tommy Rorer and Dave Ziegler with eight points each, were the high-scoring trio as the Ursinus Freshmen crushed Perkiomen Prep, 47-28, in a lop-sided tilt at Pennsburg Thursday afternoon.

Tommy Rorer with three successive field goals put the Cubs ahead, 6-0, in the opening minutes of play. After Wissinger tallied for Perkiomen, Ewell and Ziegler dropped in buckets for the Cubs, making the score 10-2; but the Preppers came back with two more and the period ended 10-6.

Kuhn and Barab sank two each and Tommy Rorer added another, while the Kelletts held the Pennsburg lads to a lone foul in the entire second stanza to make the halftime score 20-7.

Ziegler and Barab starred in the third quarter, registering three counters apiece, and a foul by Kuhn, combined with a field goal and free throw by Ewell, gave Ursinus a 36-21 advantage.

Coach Kellett sent in his second squad for the remainder of the tussle. With every man except Verdelli contributing a two-pointer and Thorpe and Scott together adding three charity tosses making the final count 47-28.

DREXEL GAME

Sparked by the sensational shooting and passing of Bob Heckman, the Frosh hoopsters came from behind in the final period to roll up a 40 to 34 decision over the Drexel Jayvees in a nip and tuck battle here Tuesday night.

Seiders and O'Hara, exactly equalling the high scoring of Kelletts Heckman and Kuhn with twelve and ten points respectively, kept Drexel out in front from the opening tap to the fourth quarter when Bob and Arno almost single-handedly won the game for the Cubs.

The first stanza was an individual duel between O'Hara and Barab, who together sank all the goals which put the count at Drexel 6, Ursinus 5.

Heckman started his spectacular shooting early in the second quarter, but the half ended with D.I.T. leading 17-15.

The Instituters matched the Cubs point for point in the third

Bears Bow To Crusaders and Bucknell After Slaying Dragon

By Garnet Adams '42

DREXEL GAME

Playing without the services of Kenny Grosbeck and Paul Augustine, the Ursinus Bears started off their second half schedule by trouncing a fighting Drexel Tech team 47-31 in the Thompson-Gay gymnasium last Thursday.

The game was roughly played throughout and four Tech players along with two Bears left the game via the personal foul route. The Bears, led by acting Captain "Howie" MacMahon were ahead all the way; but at times through their erratic playing, the Drexel club was able to come within a few points of tying the score.

The steady playing of MacMahon and Hutchinson, who scored twelve points each for the night, kept the Bears from falling to pieces. Mention should also be made of "Don" Fetterman" who just returned to the basketball court after a bad case of the grippe to turn in a fine exhibition for the Bears' cause. The game will not affect our league standing since Drexel is no longer a member of the Eastern Collegiate League.

Week-End Trip Upstate Is Unproductive

The annual week-end trip to upstate Pennsylvania by the Bear hoopsters turned into a rather dismal story this past week-end, as they returned with two defeats behind them. On Friday night the Bears were trounced by a rebounding Bucknell team to the tune of 51 to 18, and on Saturday Susquehanna University overcame the Bears in a close battle, 44-41.

BUCKNELL GAME

Against Bucknell, the Bears, weakened by recent illnesses, looked their worst of the season. Unable to cope with the fast set plays of their opponents the Grizzlies had to resort to an offensive threat in return, but when this failed in the second quarter, the outcome of the game was certain.

For the Bears the work of Al Hutchinson, who led the scoring with seven points, was outstanding. A trio of Bison passers, Nolan Glass and Haines kept the scoring on the upgrade for the winners as they each tabbed ten, six, and eleven points respectively.

period which ended with the visitors holding to their two point margin, 25-23.

After Kuhn and Rorer put the last stanza score at 34-30, bad-leg Bob Heckman dropped in three field goals in quick succession to clinch the triumph for Ursinus, 40 to 34.

SUSQUEHANNA GAME

Against the Crusaders of Susquehanna University the hoopsters of Coach Ken Hashagen showed a little of their early season form but not enough to overcome their opponents in the non-league contest.

The first half ended with the Bears on the short end of a 25 to 14 score but in the second half, they came back with a terrific onslaught of points to tie the score at forty all with only two minutes remaining. Two quick goals by the home team, however, put the game on ice and the Bears could only garner a lone foul in retaliation.

Captain "Arky" Ford of the Crusaders caused the Bears trouble all night as he netted nine field goals and four fouls to amass a total of twenty-two points. Once again Acting-Captain Hutchinson dominated the play and sparkled for the Bears by ringing up sixteen points. MacMahon followed closely with twelve. The Bears put on a very good exhibition of foul shooting during the game, as they connected with fifteen foul tries out of a total of seventeen attempts.

Sextet Spanks Garnet By 33-19 Trouncing

The Ursinus College girls' basketball team gained revenge on Swarthmore for a hockey defeat when Nat Hogeland and Doris Harrington paced the sextet to a 33-19 victory over the Garnet Friday afternoon on the Collegeville court.

Miss Snell's charges showed more fight and better passing than in previous games and a superb defense to hold the crack Swarthmore combination to but four points in the second half. The guards, Captain Blanche Schultz, Nancy Landis, and Marion Bright gave a sparkling exhibition of clever defensive work and practically throttled the high-scoring Delaware county lassies.

The Ursinus jayvee team also eked out a 14-13 victory in a low scoring preliminary.

When Horace Greeley said, "Go west, young man," he didn't mean the Ursinus quintet.

That old Bucknell jinx loomed larger than ever on Friday evening. The Bears have tackled the Bisons ten times on the court and have been stymied every time.

The Susquehanna game was a different story. After resembling a gang of WPAers in the first half, the Bears really went to work with a vengeance in the second canto. The trouble was that the Crusaders' handicap was about four strokes too many.

Miss Snell's Amazons hopped all over Swarthmore on the court last week to get revenge for a 2-1 hockey defeat.

Jim Tadley and Augie bowed out together, Tadley because he had work elsewhere and Augie because he hadn't worked anywhere.

Latest pride of Head Grunter Pete Stevens is Joe Ingham's streamlined switch, which has already netted the owner one pin.

It seems that Pete has three high-priced chattels in Bob Ihrie, Dick Clark, and Bob Hainley and in these days of depression that's a good haul.
