Kathryn Boghetti Gives Brilliant Performance In Contralto Recital

By Joseph Chapline '42

Last Thursday evening the Bomberger Committee presented Mrs. Kathryn Boghetti, contralto and pupil of her husband, Guiseppe Boghetti, teacher of several world-renowned contraltos, in a song recital. Mrs. Boghetti exhibited throughout her recital a wonderful command over her voice which in all cases was of the fullest and purest quality. Paul Meyer was at the piano.

Mrs. Boghetti's program consisted of four parts. The first included two chorales, one from Bach, the other from Handel, and a very rapid number, in which her enunciation and staccato passages were especially fine, from Durante, a French contemporary of the other two composers.

Vying with the last part of her program for top honors, Mrs. Boghetti sang as her second group five German Lieder. Undoubtedly her finest work was done in the two from Franz Schubert, "Aufenthalt" and "Der Tod und das Madchen". The low notes of the first selection were excellent in their tonal consistency with her full range, as were the dramatics in the second. The three other numbers, whose length of comment in no way reflects upon their fine rendition, were "Widmung" from Robert Franz, and "Die Nacht" and "Zueignung" from Richard Strauss.

The best work of the evening was given in the last number of the third group, "Amour! Viens Aider" from Saint-Saens' "Samson et Dalila". In this Mrs. Boghetti seemed to center all her finest vocal and dramatic talents, as did Mr. Meyer, whose sympathetic accompaniments were impeccable both technically and musically.

Preceding this were three numbers, "Chanson Triste" by Henri Duparc, "Les Berceaux" from Faure, both composers of the last century, and Debussy's "Romance". The difficulties of the odd intervals in the Debussy composition were taken with the utmost ease by Mrs. Boghetti.

Women Debate 'Plan for Union' with Moravian

Moravian College for Women opposed Ursinus women in a debate in Bomberger last Thursday afternoon. The Ursinus debaters took the affirmative side of the question: "Resolved, that the nations of the Western Hemisphere should form a permanent union". Oregon style of debating was used.

Marion Witmer '41, and Margaret Terr of Moravian gave the twelve-minute constructive speeches, while Charlotte Witmer '42, and Jean Kemmerle of Moravian conducted ten-minute cross-examinations and gave the eight minute rebuttals.

The next home debate will be held on March 3 with Lebanon Valley.

Martha Jane Evans '41, has been selected to represent Ursinus at a Pan-American Symposium at Albright on March 6. Fifteen-minute constructive speeches will be followed by open discussion. The Ursinus topic will be "Quarter-sphere Defense". Albright and Swarthmore, the other participants, will speak on "Complete Hemisphere Defense" and "United States Isolation".

DEADLINES!

The Lantern deadline has been extended to this Thursday for material contributed for the spring issue.

Kenneth Deardorff '41, announced that tomorrow is the deadline for contributions to the Tri-Annual, newspaper of the Senior Class.

Hitchler Describes Wide Opportunities in Law

"Opportunities in the legal profession were never so varied and promising as they are today", declared Dean Walter H. Hitchler of Dickinson Law School, as he spoke before a meeting of the J. Lynn Barnard Pre-Legal Society last Monday evening in the reception room of Freeland.

Dr. Hitchler pointed out that, contrary to general opinion, law was not overcrowded. Especially in Pennsylvania, where the bar examinations are more difficult than in most states, students graduating from law schools are able to procure employment in almost every case.

"Courses of study in college should be varied for the pre-legal student in order to give him a general cultural background", the speaker advised. In addition, good study habits while in college will yield their reward in law school, since disciplined study is so necessary there.

Pre-Meds To Hear Talk By Ursinus Graduate

Dr. Walter I. Buchert, an honor graduate of Ursinus in the class of '29, will be the speaker at the meeting of the James M. Anders Pre-Medical Society tomorrow evening at 8:00 p. m. in the Science Building Auditorium.

Dr. Buchert was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine after taking his undergraduate work at Ursinus. He then held a scholarship at the Cleveland Clinic and took post graduate work there at the same time.

At present Dr. Buchert is chief urologist at the Geisinger Memorial Hospital, Danville, Pa.

Arrangements have already been made to present Dr. Sherman F. Gilpan, Jr., before the society at its meeting on March 4. The topic of his talk will be, "Legal Medicine and Problems Which Arise as a Result."

Beware Joe Louis! Ursinus Boxers Show Great Ability for Coming Intramurals

Before long, the Ursinus campus will be greeted by an exhibition of boxing never before seen in the Thompson-Gay gymnasium. The material this year is excellent and Intramural Night should see every class filled with pugilists fighting for fame, fortune, and a medal.

Thus far the number of entrants reaches twenty-five, with all dorms well represented.

Should you be in the vicinity of the Science Building basement anytime between now and Intramural Night, you would be greeted by a series of whams and bams that should convince you that the boys are really in earnest. The lads who are responsible for these sound effects are listed below.

Breaking into the 140's are the Rorers, a pair of fast movers. At 145 lbs. Charley Miller, the dark

Purity of the Heart Is Vespers Theme

"May we take counsel with the impurities of our hearts and spirits", was the challenge sounded by Dr. Frank T. Wilson, Dean of Lincoln University, as he spoke on "Purity of the Heart" at the Vespers Service held in Bomberger Chapel last evening.

Quoting from the Bible the verse, "Out of the abundance of its heart, the mouth speaketh", Dr. Wilson warned of the danger of being clean outside but polluted inside. The speaker stated also that we are inheritors of religion and ethics, but that we are not without defects in the treatment of our inheritance. "For guidance we fail to follow the promptings of our soul and heart, . . . to seek communion . . . and to read the prophets".

According to Dr. Wilson, there are four elements of impurity: (1) impurity of God, or denial of the inner promptings of the spirit, (2) impurity of secret enmity, which we never admit nor like to feel a part of ourselves, (3) impurity of greed for what we have never deserved, and (4) impurity of conceit, or an inordinate faith in the self.

The speaker added that corrective measures for the impurities were to be found in the conscience, which states the demands of the self for purity of heart; in the lives and writings of great men of the past and present; and especially in the life of Jesus, who said, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he".

The Y.M.C.A. of Lincoln University, an institution of higher learning for Negroes, was in charge of the Vespers Service. The University quartet sang "King Jesus Is a Listenin'". Leaders of the service were Grant Shockley, Harold Wood, and Lendall Chase.

Following the well-attended Vespers Service, an informal reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin I. Sheeder for Dean and Mrs. Wilson and all the members of their party.

Plans are being made for an exchange program to be given by the Ursinus committee at Lincoln.

'RUBY' NOMINEES!

Juniors nominated three candidates for "Ruby" editor and two candidates for business manager at the special meeting of the class held in Room 7 today.

Alvan Brick, Donald Conner, and Kenneth Hoopes are the nominees for editor; Joseph Chapline and George Spohn are the business manager hopefuls.

Buck Hills Conference To Be Held Mar. 7-9

Several Ursinus students are making plans to attend the annual Pocono Conference of the Student Christian Movement to be held March 7-9 at Buck Hill Falls Inn in the heart of the Poconos.

The theme of the three day conclave of college students from the Middle Atlantic Region will be "Beliefs That Matter". An attempt will be made through talks and discussions to arrive at certain basic convictions to which youth may adhere in an uncertain world.

Professor Josef L. Hromadka, formerly a professor at the University of Prague and now teaching at the Princeton Theological Seminary, will be one of the leaders of the conclave. Another will be Dr. A. J. Muste who was formerly a labor leader and director of Presbyterian Labor Temple, New York City.

In addition to the more serious part of the conference program, there will be ample opportunities for recreation. There are splendid facilities available for indoor recreation and outdoor winter sports.

The entire cost of the conference will be $10 per person. This sum includes registration, five meals, and two night's lodging. Anyone interested in attending should see Richard Arnold '42, chairman of the conference committee.

Ursinus Debaters Travel

The Men's Debate Club met six other colleges in debates last week on three trips.

Tuesday a debate on the Anglo-American Union question with Penn was held before the Brown Prep student body. The same day Ursinus debated Lebanon Valley and Albright on the American Hemisphere question.

In the debate with Penn Douglas Crone '42, and Joseph Chapline '42, upheld the affirmative for Ursinus. On the other trip Elwood Heller '43, Robert Luginbuhl '42, and Charles Blum '41, debated for Ursinus.

The latter part of the week saw Ursinus debate Bucknell, Susquehanna, Juniata, and Penn State on both of the questions mentioned.

On the last trip John Rauhauser '41, Paul Wise '41, Garfield Clark '43, and Elwood Heller '43, represented Ursinus.

Byron, Patterson To Speak At Meeting of IRC Tuesday

Marion Byron '42, and Jean Patterson '42, will discuss the proposed Western Hemisphere Union at the next meeting of International Relations Club. The meeting will be held Tuesday evening at 8:00 p. m. in Shreiner Hall.

Three new members, Fred Binder '42, Raymond Duncan '43, and Hermann Eilts '43, will be inducted. In addition to the question to be discussed, plans for a conference at Lehigh University will be placed before the club.

Atkinson, Howarth and Scott Nominated for May Queen Contest

Kathryn Atkinson, Idamay Scott, and Muriel Howarth are the three senior belles that the Central Nominating Committee has chosen as candidates for May Queen, after considering the petitions submitted by the women students last Friday. Elections will be held next Thursday, February 27.

At the same meeting Miriam Maeder, Virginia Shirtz, and Catherine Hahn were announced as the candidates for pageant manager.

"Springtime in Mexico", written by Naomi Richter '41, was the pageant selected by the judges for the presentation by the women students on May 10 as part of May Day.

The other candidates in the May Pageant contest were Mary Alice Lord '41, Helene Berger '42, Mary Hyde '41, Mary Alice Weaver '43, Jean Patterson '42, Georgine Haughton '41, and Edra Allanson '42.

The pageant, which must be written by a student, is selected by a committee from the Ursinus Circle consisting of women members of the administration and wives of some faculty members. The judges this year were Mrs. John W. Clawson, Mrs. George L. Omwake, and Mrs. Alfred Wilcox.

The Central Nominating Committee which considered the nominations consisted of three representatives each from the W.A.A., the Y.W.C.A., and the W.S.G.A. The members of the committee are Winifred Kapp '41, Dorothy Ducat '42, Carol Swartley '42, Blanche Schultz '41, Betty Power '43, Natalie Hogeland '42, John Stoots '42, and Mary Virginia Ernest '43. Louise Kern '41, is chairman of the committee.

G. Adams Raised to Editorial Staff by 'Weekly' Board

The Board of Control of the Weekly made three changes in the newspaper staff at a meeting of the group last Thursday afternoon in President N. E. McClure's office.

Garnet Adams '42, was made an editorial assistant; J. William Ditter '43, was raised to the feature staff; and Fred Tomafsky '44, was added to the staff as a news reporter.

Arrangements were made at the meeting for the securing of keys for senior members of the staff. Plans were discussed for the spring meeting of the Board and the subsequent Weekly banquet.

Co-Eds Bag 138 Braves At Indian Motif Lorelei

One hundred and thirty-eight couples were entertained by the music of Len Mayfair and his orchestra at the Lorelei Dance last Friday night in the Thompson-Gay Gymnasium. This marked the second appearance of the popular young maestro on the Ursinus campus this season.

The gym was decorated in a typical American motif, with Indian blankets and trophies on the walls, and bright streamers hung from the ceiling. Highlights of the decorations were the Indian wigwam in one corner of the gym, and the color lent to the occasion by the varied "corsages" supplied by female escorts.

Chaperons for the dance were Dr. and Mrs. John Mauchly and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shelly.

Idamay Scott '41, was chairman of the committee in charge of the dance. Her assistants included Fred Becker '43, Alvan Brick '42, Bernice Fish '41, Joseph Glass '42, Dorothy Thurston '42, Roy Wenholt '42, and Frances Wilt '43.

The Commentator
 AN ANSWER TO BINDER ON THE FOOD SITUATION

Last week's "Weekly" published an article expounding the recently proposed plan of Mr. Hoover to send food to the five small democracies of Europe, namely Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Central Poland, and Finland. Although seemingly favoring the plan, the commentator seemed to be extremely doubtful of its acceptance by either the German government or the English. Agreeing wholeheartedly with the commentator concerning the necessity of the proposal, the purpose of this article is merely to present a more optimistic point of view.

Considering the German angle, the question was asked: "why should Germany allow the plan to go into effect, since it would undoubtedly 'undermine their military philosophy, stay the converting power of Naziism . . . ?'". The spirit of passive resistance on the part of four of these nations at least would thus be allowed to continue unabated, perhaps even become active. To allow this to occur, according to the commentator, would be sheer stupidity on the part of the Nazis.

Is this danger, however, so menacing to the government of the Reich? Would its acceptance be stupidity? No, on the contrary, the spirit of resistance would continue to be kept in check. The presence of the German army of occupation would insure tranquillity. The governor-general in Holland has repeatedly warned against disturbances on the part of the populace, promising dire consequences in retaliation. This threat is by no means an empty one, and could, and undoubtedly would be carried out if the necessity arose. Neither do we have any reason for supposing, that the German government would have any scruples about making such an example. This, I believe, would be sufficient to prevent active resistance.

Famine and starvation certainly would cause disease. A lowered resistance would cause the common cold to become pneumonia. Influenza and typhus would range unchecked. Disease respects neither nationality nor uniform. The spread of it is rapid and would cause havoc throughout the continent. Self-sufficiency can do nothing in abating it. Science would be operating under a frightful handicap, with possibilities of success extremely limited. Furthermore, the scientific efforts of the Germans at the present time are not being directed predominantly toward disease and its prevention, but are being focused on necessities growing out of the war. Food substitutes are sought after, military machines must be improved. A disease-racked continent, certainly, would be the last thing Germany would desire.

Would not then the opposition from this source disappear? Recent events seem to indicate this. Several weeks ago, Mr. Sumner Welles, United States Undersecretary of State, told the Reich that it was obligated to feed the peoples of its conquered nations. On February 18 an INS dispatch from Berlin announced that a German foreign office spokesman sharply disputed this, claiming that Mr. Welles statement was "wrong from the point of international law, unjustified, and incorrect". Evidently, then, Germany does not feel herself capable of feeding these people for the duration of the war.

Assent on the part of Germany would leave Britain as the only obstacle yet to be encountered. The danger of prolonging the war by such a move is certainly negligible. Mr. Churchill's evidence to the effect that this is not the will of the American public, as evidenced by the Gallup pole has been repudiated by Dr. Gallup himself. Could then not the Churchill ministry be persuaded? Yes, I believe it could. The British government at the present time is enjoying the moral support of a great majority of the American people. It is absolutely necessary for them to hold this. An anti-humanitarian stand certainly would not be beneficial to them in doing this. Consequently, with Britain having nothing to lose, and everything to gain, she too would probably give her assent.

The plan is workable, as evidenced in the last World War. Supervision could be left in the hands of Americans, or if this is objectionable to either belligerent, in the hands of the Swiss Confederation. It would be a purely private affair, no neutral governments taking any active hand in it. Let us then procede in attempting to alleviate the condition of these 37,000,000 innocent participants.

Ken Hashagen Came To Ursinus
Via Many Honors At Penn

By Don Johnson '43

Tall and lean Ken Hashagen, basketball mentor at Ursinus, first saw light of day in the year 1914 on Staten Island, N. Y.

There he attended Curtis High School where he began his sports career by winning letters in three sports—track, baseball, and basketball, captaining the latter team.

Leaving Curtis High in 1931, Ken went directly to the University of Pennsylvania, where he made the freshmen basketball team and crew his first year. During the ensuing three years he engaged in varsity track for two and varsity basketball for all three, being chosen All-Eastern Intercollegiate guard each season ('33-'34-'35) in the latter sport.

Hashagen also received other athletic awards at Penn, among these being the Kiefaber Cup for the most valuable junior athlete, the Thomas Keath Memorial Track Trophy, the Class of 1915 Trophy for the outstanding senior athlete, and selection on the All-Time Penn basketball team. Other athletic honors were gained by the future coach, for he was a member of Phi Kappa Beta, junior honorary fraternity; Sphinx, senior honor society; and was selected Bowl Man of his class, a senior honor award. He was also vice-president of the local chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Ken was graduated from Penn in 1935 and came directly to Ursinus. He has continued to play basketball since his graduation, being a member of the Penn A. C. team that went to the national A. A. U. tournament for two years; and at the present time he is with the Hamburg club of the Tri-County Professional League. Hash possesses the B.S. and M.A. degrees in Physical Education and has collaborated with Lon Jourdet, Penn basketball mentor, in writing a book, "Modern Basketball".

Her closing group contained four Negro Spirituals. These highly emotional folk-songs were certainly rendered in the finest interpretative style. The most interesting of these was the "Trampin'" in which Mrs. Boggetti realized a perfect sotto voce.

Mrs. Boggetti was received with great enthusiasm by an audience of about three hundred. Indicative of this reception, she sang in all, five encores. The first, at the close of the second group, was the Brahm's "Der Schmied", sung with a strength befitting the title. The other four at the end of the recital were "Clerinda", an Old English Song, the ever-popular and appealing "Deep River", "Comin' thru the Rye", and "A Memory" by Blaine Fairchild. In all these Mrs. Boggetti retained her high standard of performance, with honors due her on the old Scottish air especially.

A.A.U.W. Will Consider National Defense at Freeland Dinner

"The A.A.U.W. and National Defense" will be the topic of the evening at a dinner to be held by the American Association of University Women on March 5 in Freeland Hall at 6:45 p. m.

Dr. Esther Cole Franklin, chairman of social studies at the organization's national headquarters, will be the principal speaker.

Reservations for the evening should be sent to Miss Joan Mirza before March 1. Admission price is ninety cents, including tips and decorations.

THE SMOKE OF SLOWER-BURNING CAMELS GIVES YOU

EXTRA MILDNESS, EXTRA COOLNESS, EXTRA FLAVOR

AND

than the average of the 4 other largest-selling cigarettes tested—less than any of them—according to independent scientific tests of the smoke itself

FIVE of the largest-selling cigarettes . . . the brands that most of you probably smoke right now . . . were analyzed and compared by tests of the smoke itself. For, after all, it's what you get in the smoke that interests you . . . the smoke's the thing.

Over and again the smoke of the slower-burning brand—Camel—was found to contain less nicotine.

Dealers everywhere feature Camels by the carton. For convenience—for economy—get your Camels by the carton.

AMERICA'S No. 1 SKIER
DICK DURRANCE VS. THE STOP-WATCH AT SUN VALLEY

He's a little man to look at—but on a pair of "hickories" he's a mighty giant. He's held virtually every major down-hill and slalom title in North America. He smokes . . . as much as he likes . . . but note: He smokes the slower-burning cigarette that gives extra mildness and less nicotine in the smoke . . . Camel.

IT'S SWELL TO GET THAT EXTRA MILDNESS IN A SMOKE AS TASTY AS A CAMEL. THERE'S NOTHING LIKE A CAMEL FOR FLAVOR

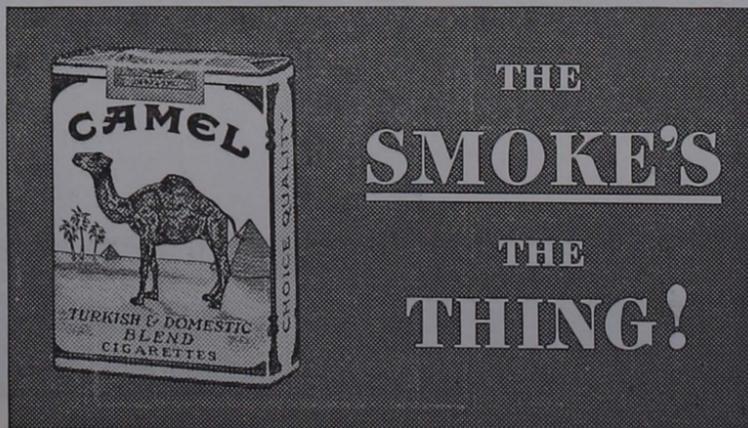

AT THE ROUNDHOUSE high up on Sun Valley's famous Baldy Mountain, Dick Durrance (above) takes time out for another Camel. "That Camel flavor is something special," he says. "Never wears out its welcome."

And the answer is Camel's costlier tobaccos in a matchless blend—they're slower-burning!

Try the slower-burning cigarette yourself. Know the supreme pleasure of a smoke free from the excess heat and irritating qualities of too-fast burning . . . extra cool, extra mild. Enjoy every flavorful puff with the comforting assurance of science that in Camels you're getting less nicotine in the smoke (above, right).

BY BURNING 25% SLOWER than the average of the 4 other largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them—Camels also give you a smoking plus equal, on the average, to 5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

Freshman Quintet Loses To Diplomats by 32-30

After the Kellettmen had stayed far out in front for three and two-thirds periods, the F. and M. freshmen rallied in the last three minutes of play to repeat their earlier conquest at Lancaster by a score of 32-30 here Wednesday.

Laush opened the game with a foul for F. and M. but Kuhn quickly equaled it with a free throw, and from that time until the end of the final quarter Ursinus retained a comfortable margin and put the first stanza count at 7-6.

Kuhn sank two more, the Rorers and Heckman dropped in one each, and Barab contributed a charity toss to make the score at half-time 18 to 14. The Cubs out-scored the Lancaster lads nine to seven in the third canto and the period ended 27-21.

Ewell sank a foul and Slateraff made it 28 to 23 in a seemingly dull last quarter; then, with exactly three minutes and twenty seconds to go, Ryan racked up seven consecutive points to put Lancaster out in front 30 to 28. The game turned into a series of wild shots and heated skirmishes, while the teams missed a total of twelve field goals and four fouls, many of the shots circling the hoop and then falling lazily to the floor.

Finally Johnny Rorer broke the deadlock with a two-pointer, but Laush came back with one for F. and M. and the Lancaster five eeked out a 32-30 decision.

Gettysburg Tosses Varsity Wrestlers; Cubs Are Pinned by Mercersburg

Both the varsity and the junior varsity wrestling teams returned from week-end trips with sizeable amounts marked up in red ink in their scorebooks.

The varsity travelled to Gettysburg Friday and came out on the short end of a 35-5 count. The Bears' normal strength was reduced considerably by the lack of a 121-pounder and the absence of two other regulars, which necessitated the use of substitutes. Jim Armstrong was the only Grizzly grappler to win his bout.

Saturday found the junior varsity grunt-and-groaners at Mercersburg Academy, prep school champs for the past several years, where they were handed a 33-5 setback. Joe Tropp in the heavy-weight class garnered the points for the Cubs.

The next varsity meet will be at home on Wednesday evening with Haverford College.

Summary of Ursinus-Gettysburg meet:

121-lb. class: Bessecker, Gettysburg, won by forfeit.
 128-lb. class: McLaughlin, Gettysburg, threw John Bear in 2:29 with a half-nelson and body press.
 136-lb. class: Swartz, Gettysburg, threw Ray Duncan in 1:37 with a double bar arm.
 145-lb. class: Bowers, Gettysburg, threw Joe Lobby in 9:43 (43 seconds in first extra period) with a headlock and bar arm.
 155-lb. class: Hart, Gettysburg, threw Bud Graver in 2:32 with a half-nelson and body press.
 165-lb. class: Jim Armstrong, Ursinus, threw Fryling in 7:28 with a head scissors and arm lock.
 175-lb. class: Romagna, Gettysburg, threw Wes Scott in 3:54 with a bar arm.

Varsity Court Team Loses Two Contests On Week-end Trip

By Garnet Adams '42

Another week-end trip by the Bear quintet turned into a rather dismal story as the unpredictable Grizzlies returned from a trip to the central part of the state with two defeats dogging their heels.

The first defeat came on Friday night, when the Red Devils of Dickinson rallied in the last few minutes to overcome a Bear uprising and to capture the contest with a 54 to 48 score. On Saturday night a revamped Gettysburg club gave the Bears a sound 49-31 trouncing.

DICKINSON GAME

In a well played ball game that was nip and tuck from start to finish, the Dickinson court squad handed the traveling Hashagen clan a 54 to 48 defeat.

Both teams opened up with strong offensive thrusts and rolled up a 14 to 13 score in the Devils' favor at the first quarter mark. From then on the game was chiefly a match of offensive power.

Bears Lose in Last 4 Minutes

With only four minutes remaining in the game, the Bears had a three point lead over their opponents. Three quick-break plays for Dickinson plus several set shots, however, added ten points to the Devils' total and enabled them to coast home to victory.

Center Jake Jacobs played his best game of the year as he contributed 11 points to the losers' cause and controlled the backboards for most of the game. "Schmoke" MacMahon and Al Hutchinson, the team's leading scorers, continued in their scoring ways, as they tallied 16 and 10 points respectively.

GETTYSBURG GAME

A big first half in which they rolled up 28 points compared to the Bears' 13 enabled the revamped Gettysburg club to hand the Hashagen quintet their seventh league defeat of the season and to drop them to sixth place in the league standings.

Half-time Score, 28-13

The Gettysburg club wasted no time, as they rolled up a 14 to 6 score at the first quarter mark and increased their lead to 20-6 before the Bears scored another point. At half-time the Bullets were ahead by a 28 to 13 score.

In the second half, the Bears put on a much better showing, holding their opponents to 21 points and scoring 18 for their own cause. Pivot men Trimmer and Murtoff inflicted most of the damage from the pivot post, as they scored 11 and 10 points respectively.

Bear Offensive Weak

Jacobs was high man for the Bears with a seven point total. On the whole the offense of the Bears was very weak and high-scorer MacMahon netted only one foul for the entire game.

Bears Wilt in Second Half; Lose to Diplomats, 41-27

Suffering a complete offensive collapse in the second half, the Ursinus Bears lost their sixth league game to the league-leading Diplomats from Lancaster last Tuesday on the home court, 41-27.

The Bears looked like real competition in the first half when they held the F. and M. quintet to an 18-15 score. In the second half, although still playing a very good defensive game, the Bears offense wilted completely as they scored only twelve points to their opponent's twenty-one. The shooting of the Bears was definitely off and as a result they netted only six field goals for the entire game.

MacMahon and Hutchinson led the scoring for the Bears while "Ruggles" Wadsworth played an excellent court game in the center position.

The basketball team found that, at the same time Collegetown was having a snowstorm, there was a flurry at Gettysburg.

Jack Garlock's tour of the Battlefield was ominously prophetic of what was to happen in the evening. Maybe he lingered too long at the scene of Pickett's Charge.

Whatever the reason, Mac and Hutch were as completely covered as any Dorazio money that appeared before last Monday evening.

Gettysburg still lacks the essential quality of a good host, the Alfonso and Gaston technique. King Kong Keyser was rude enough to toss Max Zeski's winning streak for the proverbial country mile.

After having victory stolen away from them in the closing seconds of the Dickinson game, Grosbeck, Biery, and Ruggles tried to settle the score by swiping 17 towels from a Carlisle hotel. The only trouble was that their technique's too obvious.

Although the rest of the teams will ding-dong at each other for two weeks longer, the Bears clean up their conference schedule on Friday with Bucknell acting as the party of the second part.

It was easy enough to entice the Bisons down here, but it'll be a harder job to talk them out of the ball game.

Now the season's just 11 games away from closing, we're going to gaze into the crystal ball and pick the final standings.

	W.	L.	PC.
F. and M.	11	1	.916

Frosh Triumph 48-34 Over Norristown YMCA

Paced by Arno Kuhn and Tommy Rorer with 14 and 12 points respectively, the Ursinus Frosh rolled up an impressive 48-34 decision over the Norristown Y.M.C.A. basketekers in a non-scheduled clash at Norristown Saturday night.

Two baskets by both Kuhn and Barab and one each by the Rorers with a foul by Ewell gave Ursinus a 13-7 first period edge, and the Cubs were never threatened for the remainder of the tussle.

The freshmen tallied nine more in the second stanza while holding the "Y" to four to put the halftime count at 22-11.

Kuhn sank a pair of field goals and the Rorers each added one, making it 30-24 at the close of the third frame.

The last period saw Ursinus scoring with ease, as the game ended, 48-34.
